Mr. WATT of North Carolina changed his vote from "nay" to "present."

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the Senate bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

HOUR OF MEETING ON TOMORROW

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. GUTKNECHT). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, subject to that reservation, I would ask the gentleman, this is as I understand it to permit 3 hours of general debate tomorrow on the reconciliation bill.

Mr. SOLOMON. If the gentleman will yield, the gentleman is exactly correct. I will be making a unanimous-consent request for that purpose in a few minutes.

Mr. DOGGETT. Fine.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

HOUR OF MEETING ON THURSDAY
OCTOBER 26, 1995

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns tomorrow, Wednesday, October 25, 1995, it adjourn to meet at 9 a.m. on Thursday, October 26, 1995.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, let me just be sure I am clear about this.

Under the series of unanimous-consent requests, there will be 3 hours of general debate tomorrow, and then in addition to that, as the rule provides, there will be 3 hours of general debate on Thursday, plus an hour on the substitute.

Mr. SOLOMON. If the gentleman will yield, I would just say to the gentleman, we have not held the hearing nor have we issued the rule, but we intend to follow through with the gentleman's assumptions.

Mr. DOGGETT. Is it also your understanding, we have in addition to what will amount to 6 hours of debate, then, on reconciliation; that by coming in early at 9 a.m. on Thursday, following more or less the timetable we had last week, that we would also at 9 a.m. Thursday have fifteen 1-minutes per side?

Mr. SOLOMON. That is what we intend to do with one slight exception. We do intend by agreement with the minority to allow for 3 hours of debate to start tomorrow night. However, should the gentleman not use all of that time, should it only be 2 hours and 10 minutes, you would not be carrying that time over. We would then still live up to our end of the bargain on the rule the following day.

Mr. DOGGETT. That is our understanding.

Mr. Speaker, with that understanding, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. BLUTE). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION
OF H.R. 2491, SEVEN-YEAR BAL-
ANCED BUDGET RECONCILIATION
ACT OF 1995

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that it be in order at any time for the Speaker, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, to declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2491) to provide for reconciliation pursuant to section 105 of the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1996; that the first reading of the bill be dispensed with; that all points of order against consideration of the bill be waived; that general debate be confined to the bill and the text of H.R. 2517; that general debate be limited to 3 hours equally divided and controlled by the chairman of the Committee on Budget and Representative GEPHARDT, or his designee; that after general debate the Committee of the Whole rise without motion; and that no further consideration of the bill be in order except pursuant to a subsequent order of the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.
