

others. It will make the cleanup of toxic waste sites more efficient and more economical, and will restore some sense of reason and fairness to the liability system. The Safe Drinking Water Act revisions uphold water quality standards while accounting for the special needs of smaller communities.

All of these bills were the product of extensive discussions and negotiations involving the full range of interests. While these are good bills in their current form, I neither expect nor ask the 104th Congress to enact these measures without full discussion or amendment. I am prepared, and even eager, to work with my Republican colleagues in fashioning productive legislation that achieves the same solid degree of consensus we were able to reach last year. I am introducing these bills today in that spirit of cooperation.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

By unanimous consent, leave of absence was granted to:

Ms. BROWN of Florida (at the request of Mr. GEPHARDT) for today after 10:15 p.m. on account of illness.
