

we wanted to debate perhaps the greatest Government program ever, Medicare, that has been with us for 30 years, that where 50 percent of the people in this country were not covered, did not have any health insurance, 50 percent of the elderly in 1965, today only 1 or 2 percent of the elderly do not have coverage because of Medicare.

Yet this Gingrich plan will increase people that are uninsured by as much as 50 percent according to nonpartisan experts.

More to the point on section 1862, by striking subsection (h) which is what we should do, repealing that but not repealing and allowing Medicare to wither on the vine, the poorest elderly are going to have a $700 out-of-pocket expense to pay for these pacemakers because of the Medicaid reforms on something called QMB that the Gingrich plan has allowed.

Madam Speaker, I support this bill, I do not want to see Medicare wither on the vine. I hope that down the road we can have a real Medicare debate where people are not interrupting one another to say that it is not germane because the American people deserve that.

Madam Speaker, I support H.R. 2366.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Possibly, present company excepted, I do not know, I would suggest that most of the Members on the other side of the aisle have been involved in Medicare debates over the years, particularly during election time. They are very adept at it, and this morning proves that, I think, more than anything else.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

□ 1130

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. MYRICK). Pursuant to the rule, the previous question is ordered.

The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read a third time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the passage of the bill.

The question was taken; and (three-fifths having voted in favor thereof) the bill was passed.

The motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 2366.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

Mr. CLINGER (during the reading). Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be considered as read and printed in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Pennsylvania, Mr. CLINGER, will be recognized for 30 minutes, and the gentleman from Texas, Mr. GENE GREEN, will be recognized for 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER].

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I am pleased today to offer S. 790, the Federal Reports Elimination and Sunset Act of 1995, which streamlines Federal reporting requirements by cutting and reforming more than 200 congressionally mandated reporting requirements.

This bill was originally part of the Senate-passed version of the Paperwork Reduction Act. Senators MCCAIN and LEVIN are credited with the original concept of the provisions in this bill and I commend them for all the time that was put into this effort. While I was chairing the Paperwork Reduction Act conference it was agreed to that this effort merited separate introduction as freestanding legislation. In drafting this bill, every executive branch department and agency was asked to identify reports that could be eliminated. A copy of S. 790 was sent to every Chair and ranking member of every House and Senate full committee for their review. The response by both the majority and minority was overwhelmingly favorably and through this review process we were able to add more reports to this piece of legislation and compile a list of over 200 congressionally mandated reports which will be eliminated or modified.

My colleague from Maryland, Mr. EHRLICH, has recently introduced H.R. 2331 which is the House companion to the S. 790. I commend him for his diligent efforts in working in the effort to alleviate the executive branch of its heavy paperwork burden. I urge all Members to join me in support of this important bill and I would at this time like to yield, as much time as he may consume, to my colleague from Maryland for an introductory statement.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I rise to support S. 790.

In the previous Congresses, this bill would be a typical bill for the Suspension Calendar. It is not controversial and has bipartisan support, including the support of the administration.

This bill simply eliminates reports to Congress that have outlived their usefulness. Senator CARL LEVIN of Michigan instituted this bill last session and has been joined in the session by Senator MCCAIN.

The Federal Report Elimination and Sunset Act of 1995 eliminated over 200 congressionally mandated reports and sunsets most periodic reports authorized before 1982. Over 89 departments and agencies and all committees of the House and Senate were contacted to develop the list of reports to be eliminated.

Madam Speaker, to demonstrate why this report elimination bill is important, let me describe just a couple of the reports eliminated or modified. First is a monthly report required from the Secretary of the Treasury on the sales of the World Cup U.S.A. 1994 commemorative coin. The 1994 World Cup was an exciting event in the United States, but I think we could all agree that the monthly reports on a commemorative coin really serve no good, useful purpose.

The second example is a 1975 requirement that each agency report annually on its efforts to implement the metric system. I am sure there are those in these and each of the other 200 reports eliminated by this that were valuable at one time when they were written.

Continuing to spend the money and time to compile them is not a good use of scarce resources. Again this is a good example, Madam Speaker, of bipartisanship on our committee that I would hope we would see on lots of other issues in Congress.

In reviewing the legislation, our ranking member, the gentlewoman from Illinois [Mrs. COLLINS], wrote to each ranking Democrat on all committees and asked them to review the particular bill. She asked them to advise of any reports listed to be eliminated that were useful to them and should, therefore, be kept. The bill incorporates changes by ranking members, the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. CLAY] and the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. HAMILTON], and those suggestions by Secretary Glickman and also the Railroad Retirement Board.

The bill is estimated to save over $2 million in costs in printing costs and paperwork. Four years from now most of the remaining congressionally mandated reports, an estimated 3,000, will be sunsetted. The sunset provision will require Congress to decide which reports should be authorized and which should be left behind.

Sunset legislation has been successful in a lot of our individual States, and I am glad to see our U.S. Congress again on a bipartisan basis addressing and using sunset to deal with the number of reports and the paperwork that we have.

With that, Madam Speaker, I am placing additional comments in the RECORD.

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise to support S. 790. In previous Congresses, this bill would be a typical bill for the Suspension Calendar. It is not controversial, and has bipartisan support, including the support of the administration. The bill simply eliminates reports to Congress that have outlived their usefulness. Senator CARL LEVIN of Michigan initiated this bill last session and is joined this year by Senator MCCAIN.

The Federal Reports Elimination and Sunset Act of 1995 eliminates almost 200 congressionally mandated reports, and sunsets most periodical reports authorized before 1992. Over 89 Departments and Agencies, and all committees of both the House and the Senate, were contacted to develop the list of reports to be eliminated.

Madam Speaker, to demonstrate why this report elimination bill is so important, let me describe just a couple of the reports that would be eliminated or modified. First is a monthly report required from the Secretary of the Treasury on the sales of the World Cup USA 1994 Commemorative Coin. The 1994 World Cup was an exciting event for the United States, but I think we would all agree that monthly reports on a commemorative coin is not a good use of resources.

The second example is a 1975 requirement that each agency report annually on its efforts to implement the metric system. Now, I am sure that these and each of the 200 other reports eliminated by this bill were valuable at the time they were written. Continuing to spend money and time to compile them is not a good use of scarce resources.

In reviewing this legislation, Mrs. COLLINS wrote to the ranking democrat on each committee and asked them to review the bill. In particular, I asked them to advise if any of the reports listed to be eliminated were useful to them, and therefore should be kept. This bill incorporates the changes suggested by ranking members CLAY and HAMILTON, and those suggested by Secretary Glickman and the Railroad Retirement Board.

This bill is estimated to save over $2 million in printing costs and paperwork. Four years from now most of the remaining congressionally mandated reports—estimated at over 3,000—will be sunset. The sunset provision will require Congress to decide which reports should be reauthorized, and which should be left behind.

Congressionally mandated reports often serve useful purposes. They are among the oversight tools we use to find out if the intent of the Congress is being followed.

Reports to Congress are as prevalent under the new Republican leadership as they were under Democratic Congresses. For example, the Department of Commerce Dismantling Act, H.R. 1756, which is included in the House-passed Reconciliation bill, requires four reports to Congress from the Director of OMB. That's four reports over 3 years just on the process of dismantling the Department of Commerce.

Similarly, H.R. 4, the House welfare reform bill written by the Republican leadership, requires a number of reports from the Secretary of Health and Human Services, and still more reports to be filed by each State.

This bill, and the Paperwork Reduction Act, show what can be done if we act in a bipartisan way. The Paperwork Reduction Act amendments passed earlier this year sets out a goal of a 10-percent reduction in paperwork for each Department.

In the future, we would be wise to carefully consider reporting requirements in new legislation to see which reports we can do without. Based upon the recent record of this Congress, it appears that more reports than ever are still being required. Congress must police its own paperwork requirements as vigilantly as we expect the administration to curtail its demands on the public.

This bill represents a good first step in this process, and I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

Mr. STARK. Madam Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. STARK. Madam Speaker, I would like to ask the distinguished gentleman from Texas, as this bill deals with Senate bill 790, eliminating and sunseting acts, and there is a subtitle, F, Department of Health and Human Services; this does not under any circumstances accede to the wishes of Speaker GINGRICH and sunset the Medicare bill, by any chance, does it?

POINTS OF ORDER

Mr. EHRLICH. Madam Speaker, point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend.

The gentleman from Maryland will state his point of order.

Mr. EHRLICH. The gentleman has made a nongermane inquiry to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, if I could be heard, I would just like to be able to answer that.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will hear the gentleman.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, in response to my colleague from California, I would be glad to go over subtitle F with him, the Department of Health and Human Services and the reports eliminated, and it does not address, you know, the controversy that the Speaker has talked about under Medicare. It does talk about the effects of toxic substances and an annual report from the Surgeon General to be transmitted to the Secretary.

Nowhere under subtitle F of S. 790 does it address the controversy that we see today and hear today concerning the quotes from our Speaker on Medicare.

Mr. EHRLICH. I thank the gentleman.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would ask all Members to, please, confine their remarks to the debate on the bill under discussion which deals with the reporting requirements.

Mr. STARK. Madam Speaker, point of order. I believe I was on his time.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. I was responding to the question. I yield additionally to my colleague, the gentleman from California.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from California will state his point of order.

Mr. STARK. No. I just indicated I had the time when the gentleman rose.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. STARK. I thank the Speaker.

If the gentleman from Texas would yield further to enlighten this gentleman on the content of the bill and the intent of S. 790 and particularly subtitle F, eliminating reports of the Department of Health and Human Services, this is a report on Medicare treatment of uncompensated care that is eliminated.

Now, I believe that uncompensated care will increase as the uninsured increase as a result of the Republican bill for destroying or attempting to destroy Medicare and there will be a 50 percent increase in uninsured. The uninsured in this country will go from 40 million today to 66 million by 2002.

Those people will still be entitled to treatment in an emergency room, and normally if they were Medicare patients, that emergency room would, in the normal course of business, reimburse these hospitals.

Now, if we do not know the effect of all of these additional 20 million uninsured as caused as a result of the Gingrich Medicare bill, which attempts to destroy it, how will we be able to know whether the Government is fairly reimbursing the local hospitals which will have to have the increased burden of the Medicare treatment for those who no longer have insurance, particularly those poor seniors whose incomes are under $7,000, who will be cut out of the Medicaid Program if we do not have that information?

Will that not necessarily impact very seriously on those disproportionate-share hospitals who depend on the Medicare payment for uncompensated care? Without this report, how can we possibly know the horrendous effects that the changes, the Republican changes that they are trying to make to the Medicare bill to fund their tax cuts to the rich, how will that under S. 790, will there be a replacement? Will we be able to get that information so that we can compensate those hospitals?

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. In response to the question from my colleague from California, Madam Speaker and Members, the report on Medicare treatment of uncompensated care is a report that is required right now. If there is some senior citizen who is not on the fee-for-service Medicare and if they show up at an emergency room for treatment, then under current law they will still be treated no matter what. We are not changing that law either in the bill, S. 790, or any other bill that I have seen come through the Congress. So, in other words, if I am 70 years old and, because of the increase in Medicare premiums, I am not taking part in Medicare, if I show up at my local hospital, they still have to treat me. Mr. STARK, you are right, we are not changing that by this bill.

Mr. STARK. If the gentleman will yield further, we are led to believe that, further addressing S. 790 and the reports, that the amount of uncompensated care could rise to $33.5 billion, under one scenario, as much as $43 billion, and, further, that teaching hospitals could see the biggest increase of uncompensated care.

Now, without this information, I know that it is of no matter to the Republicans and to Speaker GINGRICH, who does not care if we close our centers of excellence as he begins to destroy Medicare over time, but S. 790 was one way, through the reports on Medicare treatment of the uncompensated care under subtitle F, that we would know what was happening. The hospitals are going to have to hold their annual cost increases to less than half of inflation, and many of the hospitals are likely to close, and they are the ones most likely to close, are those serving a high number of Medicare and Medicaid patients and the uninsured.

When there is a correction needed, I certainly would support it, and as the gentleman suggests, supporting S. 790 is a good thing. But the unintended consequences, or perhaps the intended consequences, if you would take the Speaker's speech at face value that he would like to destroy Medicare, and most of us do not want to, the Republicans do, the Democrats do not, but if the Republicans continue to prevail, then we will not even, under this bill, under subtitle F, have a report on the Medicare treatment on uncompensated care. And I ask the gentleman from Texas if that was intended.

Following that, I would like for us get on to the next report that assists the homeless. Could the gentleman respond to my question in terms of treatment of uncompensated care, how it will impact and require closing of community hospitals, all as a result of Speaker GINGRICH's Medicare changes?

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Well, again the gentleman brings up a valid point in reference to the report on the treatment of uncompensated care.

Madam Speaker, the treatment will still be there for uncompensated care because under this bill are we not withdrawing that ability. We will be able to know that without having an annual report from the Social Security Administration or the Medicare trustees on the treatment of uncompensated care. We can be assured it is going to happen.

We know in real life if somebody does not have insurance then they are going to show up at an emergency room for lots of reasons; for the flu, for toothaches, for lots of things like that. And if they do not have Medicare, then they will then be part of the general health care system, and that hospital will be required to treat them. As we know, in most of our emergency rooms around the country, they prioritize. Someone who has a lesser degree of illness than someone else may have to wait sometimes 6, 8, 10 hours for treatment.

Mr. STARK. If the gentleman would yield further, now under the current Medicare system as designed by the Democrats 30 years ago, we have compensated those hospitals, those distinguished teaching hospitals, the centers of excellence. We have compensated, and I am going to get to S. 790 here in a minute, because it is to this report on Medicare treatment of uncompensated care that is the nexus of my remarks.

If the gentleman from Texas will yield further as I make my nexus, the reports on the Medicare treatment of uncompensated care are how we know how to reimburse those hospitals, because under the Gingrich plan to demolish Medicare to help pay for tax cuts for the rich, these hospitals will not get paid. If we do not know, when we come to our next corrections day and they have closed the hospitals in Houston, and when they have closed the hospitals in Los Angeles, because they are treating people who cannot pay and the local taxpayers will not have any money to pay for it, Medicare has been reduced, we will not have that information anymore.

Can the gentleman assure me that aside from the hordes of disadvantaged children and crippled seniors and poor seniors who will be marching on Washington asking why Speaker GINGRICH led the fight to destroy Medicare, if there is no other way, will we know, will we still have reports that will call to our attention the obscene, criminal way in which the Republican bill will treat these seniors, if we do in fact support S. 790 as the gentleman suggests?

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, reclaiming my time. In response to my colleague from California, the reporting requirement in subtitle F and subsection (d) is not going to stop whatever the decision of this Congress, the Senate and the House, do on uncompensated care for Medicare or anyone else and I share the gentleman's concern. I have a district in Houston where my local hospitals are predominantly Medicare or cash payment, with very little third party coverage. In fact, we already have one hospital in my district which closed.

Mr. STARK. Madam Speaker, if the gentleman will yield, that is inhumane.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. It is tragic. It happened even before the extreme Medicare plan that is considered by this Congress. I am only concerned that in other pieces of legislation we may make it even worse. But, again, this elimination of the Medicare report on uncompensated care, will not prevent seniors from receiving the care they need if they show up at a health care facility. Some other Republican legislation somewhere down the way may do it, but I have not seen one at this session do it.

Mr. STARK. Madam Speaker, if the gentleman will yield further, the gentleman's compassion for the seniors and his fight to preserve Medicare, in spite of the fight to destroy it led by Speaker GINGRICH and the chairman of the House Committee on Ways and Means, who is also a neighbor of the gentleman's, and it is evidenced by his supporting of this wonderful bill, S. 790, which, on the basis of the gentleman's recommendation, I certainly intend to vote for, but further, the gentleman's assurance that eliminating this report on uncompensated care will not further impact the hospitals in Houston beyond which the Committee on Ways and Means bill reported out by the chairman, who is also from Houston, which will probably cause the closing of many hospitals in Houston, I know that is not this gentleman's intent.

I respect the gentleman for his battle to preserve Texas hospitals for the seniors and the poor in the face of the Republican onslaught, where they are attempting to cut Medicare to pay for capital gains for the rich people in Houston, who will get these great capital gains tax reductions as the hospitals close and the homeless, by the way, in Houston, will go up.

If the gentleman will yield further, in this same section under S. 790 we are eliminating a report on programs to assist homeless individuals. Now, with the increased costs in Medicare that the Gingrich-Archer Medicare bill will cause, huge increases in costs to low-income seniors under Medicare, many of them write to me and tell me they will not be able to pay their rent, because not only will their copayments go up, the doctors will be charging them more.

If we do not have the report under S. 790 on page 33 in the report, we do not know of the huge increase in those homeless people, how will the city of Houston be able to come back here through its Representatives who are concerned about the matter and those Representatives who care anything about the poor, how will you be able to know how the problem is growing as a result of the inhumane treatment under the Gingrich-Archer Medicare-Medicaid destruction bill, and how will you be able to, without the reports, if S. 790 passes, how will you know how this problem is being exacerbated?

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, in response, I have a great deal of faith in our local agencies, both our hospitals at the Texas Medical Center who will talk to their local Members about uncompensated care, but also with our local housing authorities. Because I work with, not only the HUD office locally in Houston, but also with the Houston Housing Authority to make sure the elderly and homeless are protected. Whether we have a report that is being filed up here which people will review or not, we still need to make sure we remember those people in those facilities.

Mr. STARK. Madam Speaker, if the gentleman will yield further, the gentleman is sure this Texas Medical Center and the people that run the housing programs will understand that there is a difference, we talk about a farm problem, the difference between hamburger and the other part of the cow, between the Members representing Houston, that this Member from Houston is an adamant supporter of programs for the poor and the hospitals, while other Members from Texas may be supporting the Gingrich plan, which will destroy the hospitals.

The gentleman is sure the hospitals will recognize him as a supporter of the Medicare plan, and not a destroyer?

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, reclaiming my time, I am confident when we deal with all of these issues, that the people will know who is working for the hospitals and who is not whether they are in Houston or around the country.

Mr. STARK. Madam Speaker, I certainly hope so. I hope the hospitals in Houston know in spite of the gentleman's distinguished leadership on the part of S. 790, the gentleman has not taken leave of his senses and the gentleman is and continues to be an adamant fighter for the cause of the poor and for Medicare, in spite of the onslaught made by the Republicans and Speaker GINGRICH to destroy it.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, reclaiming my time, I hope if we pass 790, we will see health care providers will not have to fill out unnecessary forms and they could provide more direct service to my constituents who need that medical treatment, instead of just filling out a form that they have to send in.

Mr. STARK. The gentleman makes an excellent point.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, let me continue briefly. Reports to the Congress are prevalent not just under Republican leadership or under Democrat leadership. In fact, under a bill passed this session already, the Department of Commerce Dismantling Act, which was included in the reconciliation bill, four reports to Congress are required from the Director of OMB. Those four reports over 3 years are just the process of dismantling the Department of Commerce. Similarly, in the welfare bill that was passed earlier this year, there are a number of reports required from the Secretary of Health and Human Services, and still more reports to be filed by each State.

So this is an issue. We ultimately need to address. But, this bill needs to be passed, no matter who is in the leadership or who is in the White House, because we have to continually monitor the Government to make sure that we do not have duplicative reports or reports sitting on a shelf and gathering dust. We need to make sure we are actually utilizing them.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself 1 minute.

Madam Speaker, we have just observed a rather artful manipulation of the rules of the House to deliver a filibuster, almost a diatribe, on the question of Medicare. I would say that the nexus of this side of the aisle to the remarks by the gentleman from California is that the gentleman fails to recognize that Medicare is going broke, that the system is going to be bankrupt by the year 2002. One of the objectives of this legislation is to try to save some money. We get rid of some of these reports which are costly and are impacting possible our ability to continue to deliver quality medical care to our senior citizens.

So I think it has to be put in focus here, that what we are really dealing with here is a system that is going bankrupt. The gentleman from California apparently does not accept that, or is not willing to admit that. At least the gentleman does not seem to be willing to make the kind of sacrifices that are going to be needed to be made in order to ensure that senior citizens in generations to come will still have medical care.

Madam Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. EHRLICH].

Mr. EHRLICH. Madam Speaker, I honest to God got up to talk about the bill.

Madam Speaker, in 1993 Congress required the Office of the President and executive branch agencies to prepare more than 5,300 reports. This has become a genuine problem. It is one that the Federal Reports Elimination and Sunset Act has focused on directly, not only to save money but also to allow executive branch departments and agencies to focus their resources on more worthy endeavors.

As Chairman CLINGER has pointed out, conferees for the Paperwork Reduction Act felt that the original McCain and Levin amendments should be offered in both Chambers as free-standing legislation because of the important changes that this bill makes.

Majority and minority members of the Government Reform and Oversight Committee circulated a copy of S. 790 to all House full committee chairmen and ranking members in a two-fold effort to one, receive input from Committees with jurisdiction over the reports slated for elimination or modification and two, to gain broad bipartisan support for this bill. There was strong support from both sides of the aisle in the responses we received.

The sunset provision is a vital part of this bill. It eliminates those reports with annual, semiannual, or regular periodic reporting requirements 4 years after the bill's enactment, while affording Members of Congress the opportunity to reauthorize those reports deemed necessary for carrying out effective congressional oversight. This provision does not apply to any reporting requirements under the Inspector General Act of 1978 or the Chief Financial Officers Act of 1990. This provision originally was introduced by Senator MCCAIN and I commend him for his vision in including such an important provision in this bill.

Madam Speaker, the most important element of this bill can be found in the Congressional Budget Office report which has estimated that enactment of this bill will result in $2 million in savings each year for fiscal years 1996 through 1999 and that's before the sunset provision is factored in.

This legislation represents a perfect example of the reason for corrections day. Corrections day was established to correct outdated, noncontroversial legislation. This commonsense bill had bipartisan support from the Government Reform and Oversight Committee as well as the Speaker's Advisory Group on corrections day.

I urge every Member to join me in supporting this extremely important bill. We need to continue cutting to lighten the redtape burdening executive branch agencies so our Government can operate with fewer restrictions and greater efficiency.

Madam Speaker, I feel compelled to add two points. I am glad the people are up in the gallery today and I am glad these proceedings are televised, so that the American people can just see and hear what they just saw and heard.

With respect to the report on the termination of uncompensated care, which was our friends across the aisle's nexus to get into the Medicare debate, and I know facts are confusing and facts are very dangerous in political debate, but I feel compelled, Madam Speaker, to actually read the real words the Speaker used with respect to the future of HCFA and Medicare, because the American people actually need to hear the facts, the real words.

The Speaker's quote was always as follows: "You know, we tell Boris Yeltsin, get rid of centralized command bureaucracies. Go to the marketplace. Okay. What do you think the Health Care Financing Administration is? It is a centralized command bureaucracy. It is everything we are telling Boris Yeltsin to get rid of. No, we don't get rid of it in round one, because we don't think it is politically smart. We don't think that is the right way to go through a transition. But we believe it is going to wither on the vine, because we think seniors, parenthetically, seniors, are voluntarily going to leave it voluntarily."

Facts. Real words, real quotes. Dangerous on this floor. But the American people watching on TV and the American people sitting in the gallery need to hear facts, real words.

□ 1200

Finally, Madam Speaker, I view this as an essential element in our continuing campaign to actually save American people money. The President's health care task force report cost the American public $14 million. This is merely a partial repayment for the hardworking folks who sent us to Washington.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. MYRICK). The Chair reminds the Member not to direct remarks to the viewing audiences in the gallery or on television.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I am glad that the chairman of the committee particularly mentioned that Medicare is going broke, and although this bill, S. 790, has nothing to do with Medicare going broke, but let me respond to the gentleman's claim that Medicare is going broke because I think it has to be responded to on the floor.

Madam Speaker, Medicare is going broke in the year 2002, but not to the tune of $270 billion that they talk about cutting out of the system. The Medicare trustees' report said we needed to cut $90 billion to extend the solvency of the trust fund to the year 2006, not $270 billion. So the threat of going broke is only hype from the Republican side to try and justify the $245 billion in tax cuts that they are still going to try and provide.

Madam Speaker, let me respond to my colleague from Maryland, Mr. EHR-

LICH, on the Health Care Financing Administration and the direct quote. The Health Care Financing Administration has been seen as a euphemism for the Medicare Program, because without the Health Care Financing Administration you do not have a fee for service, you do not have an ability for someone to go pick their own doctor, you are going to have someone who is going to have their doctor picked for them by someone in Washington DC, or someone else.

Let us get back to S. 790, Madam Speaker, because again, it is to reform the reporting requirements, and I would hope it would be considered in light of the fact that there are individual reports that some of us may like in here, but our goal is to try and control the cost of Government, and S. 790 would do that.

Madam Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. WATT].

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding time to me, and I appreciate the importance of the debate which has taken place on the Medicare provisions of this bill and the implications that this bill has for Medicare.

Madam Speaker, I rise to make a couple of points and then ask a question about a separate section of this bill which will determine whether I am able to vote for the bill and determine whether we mobilize people to, in fact, vote against the bill.

There is a provision in the bill which would repeal the provisions of section 207 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965. It is under this first section of subtitle B of this bill, section 1021, and it appears to me that the effect of that provision is to do away with the requirement that statistical information regarding jurisdictions, both local and State, which are covered by the Voting Rights Act, are, in fact, complying with the Voting Rights Act.

In other words, you have certain States that have been required to be covered by the Voting Rights Act because of a history of having discriminated against certain voters in that particular State or that particular jurisdiction, and this particular reporting requirement that is being repealed requires the Census Bureau to obtain and report statistical information about voting patterns and registration patterns in those particular congressional districts, States, local jurisdictions, which are covered by the Voting Rights Act.

Madam Speaker, in the absence of this reporting provision, I would like to direct a question to the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER], if I might, since he is the chief spokesperson in favor of this bill.

In the absence of these reporting provisions, in the year 2000, when we are required to have the Census Bureau gather information on which redistricting will be done, how will we have the information available to us to determine whether it is important or necessary to continue to address this history of racial discrimination in registration and voting patterns in many of our southern States, and how will we determine whether it is necessary to continue to have majority-minority voting districts created under law?

Madam Speaker, I do not know how we would be able to do that without the statistical information. Perhaps the gentleman from Pennsylvania could enlighten me, because I am deeply troubled that we would be repealing the statute under which this kind of statistical information is gathered that serves a very, very, very important public purpose, and, in fact, is probably one of the most topical issues that we are dealing with and that the U.S. Supreme Court is dealing with.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, if I could reclaim my time and ask that the chairman of the committee, Mr. CLINGER, respond on his time.

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, may I respond to the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. WATT], and I think we can partially address his concerns.

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I would like to make clear to the gentleman from Pennsylvania that the gentleman from Texas, Mr. GENE GREEN, has taken back his time.

So is the gentleman willing to respond to me on his time, because I need to have this question answered if I am going to be able to support the bill.

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume to respond to the inquiry of the gentleman from North Carolina.

I would say to the gentleman, my understanding is that this was originally in the bill as was introduced by Senator LEVIN. It, as I understand it, is a redundant report that is basically repetitive of a report that is still required and still provides the information that the gentleman is requesting.

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. CLINGER. I yield to the gentleman from North Carolina.

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I would inquire of the gentleman, who does the other report? Is it the Census Bureau that does it?

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, reclaiming my time, it is indeed the Census Bureau that would do this. This was basically a technical glitch, and really as I understand it, it is a totally duplicative report. The information would still be required, still would be available. I think we all share the gentleman's concern that we need to have the proper information.

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, if the gentleman would yield further, would the gentleman be able to direct me to the provision which is the redundant provision? Also, would the gentleman tell me whether there is any way that we could temporarily pull this particular part out for those of us who have a strong commitment to continuing the Voters Rights Act?

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, in an attempt to allay the concerns of the gentleman, this particular provision; in fact, this section of the bill we requested the gentlewoman from Illinois [Mrs. COLLINS], the ranking member of the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight, to review. She, in turn, requested the ranking member of the Committee on the Judiciary, the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. CONYERS], to review this.

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, with due respect to both of those valuable people, they are not from States that are covered by the Voting Rights Act, and this has a particular significance to us in States which are substantially covered by the Voting Rights Act that it may not have to someone in Illinois.

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, if I may respond to the gentleman in this respect: The counsel to the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight is standing at the gentleman's right shoulder and is going to provide the gentleman, I hope, with information that would, again, allay your concerns that, in fact, information is going to be provided.

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, the gentleman has handed me a section which is section 207 of the Voting Rights Act, which appears to direct the Census Bureau to do exactly the same thing that this particular section directs the Census Bureau to do.

So why is it necessary to repeal this provision? We are not accomplishing anything by repealing it if, in fact, the same requirement is imposed on the Census Bureau somewhere else.

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, if I may respond to the gentleman this way, that it is really basically a technical redrafting of the law so that we make it a little bit more understandable.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from California [Ms. WATERS].

Ms. WATERS. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Texas, [Mr. GENE GREEN] for yielding time to me.

Madam Speaker, let me just try and follow up on the request of the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. WATT] about delaying or pulling out this provision. This is very, very sensitive. As a matter of fact, the work of many, many civil rights organizations went into the development of the Voting Rights Act, and that which covers all of the States. All of those States that are covered under the Voting Rights Act are covered for very specific reasons.

So we have to be very careful about doing anything that would alleviate the responsibility for data and information and voting patterns and voter registration without knowing what we are doing.

This kind of request for repeal, in my estimation, would have to be circulated among those organizations, including the NAACP and SCLC, NACLU, and all of the organizations who put so much time and effort into developing legislation that would give us a measure of protection and help to shine the light on those practices that would eliminate participation in the process in ways that we have solved historically.

So, Madam Speaker, I think the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. WATT] really does make a serious request, and it is not understood by those of us who try and watch this kind of thing why, in fact, you would be repealing something that you want to request the Census Bureau to do. If it is the same thing, why not leave it intact and not mess with it?

As a matter of fact, it may even look innocent, but I submit to you that it may not be that innocent.

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, will the gentlewoman yield?

Ms. WATERS. I yield to the gentleman from North Carolina.

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, it appears to me that I have been handed just a summary of what this particular bill does, which is repeal this particular section, rather than having been handed some duplicative provision, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER] has indicated.

I would have to say to the gentleman that unless I can be satisfied that there is, in fact, in place a provision in the law, I will have to vote against the bill.

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself 1 minute, basically to respond to the gentleman.

As I say, I come somewhat fresh to this issue, because we had understood, at least, that it had been pretty carefully vetted to ensure that we were not going to be undercutting or in any way affecting the collection of very vital, I would agree, very vital and important data.

MODIFICATION TO AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE OFFERED BY MR. CLINGER

Mr. CLINGER. Madam Speaker, because of the concerns that the gentleman has raised, I ask unanimous consent that section 1021(A) of subtitle B of the proposed legislation be deleted.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, we have no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. MYRICK). Is there objection to the modification offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER]?
