LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. LEWIS of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from California [Mr. DREIER] for the purpose of discussing the schedule for next week.

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I thank my friend for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, this vote marks the end of legislative business for the evening and for the week.

For next week, we plan on a pro forma session on Monday, December 4. There will be no legislative business that day.

On Tuesday, December 5, the House will meet at 12:30 p.m. for morning hour and 2 p.m. for legislative business to take up a number of bills under suspension of the rules. I won't read through the bills now, but Members should be advised that a list will be distributed to their offices this afternoon.

The suspensions are as follows:

H.R. 33, Stuttgart National Aquaculture Research Center Act of 1995;

H.R. 1253, renaming San Francisco Bay National Wildlife Refuge as the Don Edwards San Francisco Bay National Wildlife Refuge;

H.R. 255, designating the James Lawrence King Federal Justice Building;

H.R. 395, designating the Bruce R. Thompson U.S. Courthouse and Federal Building;

H.R. 653, designating the Thurgood Marshall U.S. Courthouse;

H.R. 840, designating the Walter B. Jones Federal Building and U.S. Courthouse;

H.R. 869, designating the Thomas D. Lambros Federal Building and U.S. Courthouse;

H.R. 965, designating the Romano L. Mazzoli Federal Building; and H.R. 1804, designating the Judge Isaac C. Parker Federal Building.

Members should also be advised that we do expect votes soon after 2 p.m. on Tuesday, December 5.

After consideration of the suspensions on Tuesday and for the balance of the week, we expect to consider the following bills, all of which will be subject to rules:

H.R. 1350, the Maritime Security Act of 1995;

The conference report for H.R. 2076, the Commerce, Justice, State & Judiciary Appropriations Act for fiscal year 1996;

The conference report for H.R. 2099, the VA, HUD Appropriations Act for fiscal year 1996;

The conference report for H.R. 1058, the Securities Litigation Reform Act;

The conference report for H.R. 1868, the Foreign Operations Appropriations Act for fiscal year 1996;

The conference report for H.R. 1977, the Interior Appropriations Act for fiscal year 1996;

The conference report for H.R. 2546, the District of Columbia Appropriations Act for fiscal year 1996; and

H.R. 2668, the Social Security earnings limit increase.

Mr. Speaker, that should give us a pretty action-packed week, and I thank my friend for yielding.

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, let me say to my friend and colleague from California that we received a schedule that indicated votes every weekday until December 15. We have not kept to that schedule exactly. In order to help Members plan better, could the gentleman tell us what he expects in terms of votes next Friday?

Mr. DREIER. If the gentleman will yield, I appreciate his comments, and, as he knows, we are trying to move as expeditiously as possible, but there are so many questions that at this point remain as we try to adjourn for the year that we cannot say for certain as to how closely we will be able to adhere to that schedule.

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate that from my friend, but also, in light of the coming holiday season, does he have a sense yet for the schedule after December 15?

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will continue to yield, at this point there are just so many questions that remain, we are hoping to see a budget agreement, we are hoping to see a wide agreement of other things, and until those are resolved we do not know what the schedule will be after the 15th.

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from California [Mr. DREIER] will be recognized for 30 minutes and the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MOAKLEY] will be recognized for 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. DREIER].

(Mr. DREIER asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, debate on House Resolution 254 should not take more than a few minutes, because the resolution makes technical and conforming changes to reflect the intent of the amendments adopted in the 104th Congress.

January 4, 1995, ushered in the era of the reform Congress when the House of Representatives approved sweeping changes to the rules under which the House previously operated. That legacy of reform continued this month with adoption of a gift ban resolution and lobbying disclosure reform.

Also this year, the House approved changes in House rules to discourage the imposition of unfunded Federal mandates on State and local governments, and to establish a Corrections Calendar.

As a result of these changes, a number of duplicative provisions and grammatical and typographical errors need to be corrected to ensure that the rules of the House reflect their true intent. In addition, the resolution clarifies a number of longstanding parliamentary interpretations to ensure consistency of parliamentary practice in the House.

House Resolution 254 is not intended to address any of the controversial aspects of House rules. I understand the minority's concerns regarding the three-fifths vote requirement on tax rate increase, subcommittee assignment limits, and committee meetings while the House is considering amendments under the 5-minute rule. Chairman SOLOMON and I will be undertaking a comprehensive review of all of the House rules in a continuing effort to improve deliberation and accountability, and I look forward to working with my colleagues in the minority on the effort.

In the meantime, Mr. Speaker, it is important that we make these technical and conforming corrections to the rules of the House to reflect the intent of changes adopted this year.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

AMENDMENT OFFERED BY MR. DREIER

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:
