

in the winter—especially if families have trouble paying high heating bills.

That's why the Home Energy Assistance Program, known as LIHEAP, is so important and that's why 180 of my colleagues and I are going to do everything we can to make sure it isn't eliminated. We've written a letter asking for full funding for LIHEAP.

Mr. Speaker, I would tell my colleagues who may vote to kill LIHEAP—It's cold out there. The rich don't need another tax break. Please keep the heat on.

PROTECT THE FUTURE—SUPPORT THE REPUBLICAN BUDGET

(Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, the Dallas Cowboys are losing and the American people are also losing as long as our President puts his priority on spending. The simple truth remains: The President is against a balanced budget because he wants to spend more taxpayer dollars to expand the size and scope of the Government.

The proof is in the details. The President's first and second budgets would leave huge deficits. The President's third budget spends an additional $400 billion, does not balance, and raises your taxes.

Our President is still the same old tax and spend liberal.

That's why House Republicans are standing firm for a balanced budget that ends deficit spending and preserves America's future. A budget that ensures prosperity, ensures stability, and ensures freedom for all Americans. Protect the future—support the Republican balanced budget.

DONALD EUGENE WEBB SHOULD BE BROUGHT TO JUSTICE

(Mr. KLINK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KLINK. Mr. Speaker, 15 years ago last Monday I was a young television reporter in a small town called Saxonburg, PA, which now happens to be in my congressional district. I was there because in the middle of the afternoon the police chief in that small town, Gregory Adams, was murdered. He was beaten and he was shot with his own gun; and today the perpetrator of that heinous crime remains free.

His name is Donald Eugene Webb, and he is either in the enviable or unenviable position of being on the FBI's 10 Most Wanted list a record amount of times. In 15 years neither the FBI nor any other law enforcement agency has seen Donald Eugene Webb, even though the full efforts of the Pennsylvania State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation have been extended.

Webb has been named fugitive of the week by Pennsylvania Crime Stoppers.

His story has been told on "America's Most Wanted," on "Unsolved Mysteries," and no one who has seen any of these shows has seen Donald Eugene Webb.

Mr. Webb's family, including two sons who were infants and who are now young teenage men, deserve an answer. His widow has since remarried and deserves an answer. The people of Saxonburg, PA, and all of law enforcement deserve to have an answer, and deserve to have Donald Eugene Webb brought to justice.

SAVE THE AMERICAN DREAM

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, while there are some significant differences between the Republican Balanced Budget Act of 1995 and President Clinton's unbalanced budget act of 1995, both sides in the debate agree that we should spend significantly more on Medicare each year.

Now, the difference between the increased spending in President Clinton's budget and our budget over the next 7 years is, get this, less than 2 percent. So where is the fight?

Under the Republican budget, Medicare spending grows from $178 billion to $289 billion by the year 2002, and spending per senior grows from $4,800 to $7,100 by the year 2002.

Under the President's budget, Medicare spending starts out at $178 billion, just like under the Republican plan, and increases to $294 billion by the year 2002. Spending per senior citizen increases from $4,800, again just like the Republican budget, up to $7,245, a pinch less than 2 percent over the Republican plan. So again I ask, where is the beef? Where is the problem?

Mr. Speaker, it is time that the President stop using imaginary Medicare spending cuts as an excuse for not balancing this budget. It is time for him to help the Republican majority put our House in order and save the American dream for the next generation.

TAXES, TAXES, TAXES

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, how can America be bankrupt? There are airport taxes, highway taxes, excise taxes, estate taxes, gas taxes, property taxes, income taxes, sales taxes, luxury taxes, nanny taxes, old taxes, new taxes, hidden taxes, inheritance taxes; there is even now a tax called a sin tax. I say to my colleagues, no wonder the American people are taxed off.

The truth is that Congress as a Congress that taxes everything ultimately will tax freedom and will not balance anything. What is next? A budget tax?

Is it any wonder that the American people are saying, kiss my taxes?

Beam me up, Mr. Speaker. I yield back the balance of my taxes.

THREE BUDGETS FOR CONGRESS

(Mr. HEFLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, the third time is a charm, right? Well, not for this President. Last week he tried, once again, to lay out a balanced budget plan. Unfortunately, the President missed the mark by well, $400 billion.

The simple fact is, the only budget proposal proposed thus far that balances the budget in 7 years, cuts taxes for working families, saves Medicare from bankruptcy, and reforms welfare is the Balanced Budget Act of 1995 which President Clinton vetoed last week.

The President has now presented three budgets to Congress, well, one budget and two sets of talking points; yet none of them comes into balance.

Mr. Speaker, it is time for the President to keep the promise he made 23 days ago: Balance the budget in 7 years using honest numbers. There is only one person standing between the American people and a balanced budget, and that one person is Bill Clinton.

COUNTDOWN TO SHUTDOWN

(Ms. NORTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, this is day four of the countdown to shutdown. It no longer looks as if shutdown lies ahead for the Federal Government. A CR until January sometime is more likely. For the District of Columbia, a CR is only marginally better than a shutdown.

Mr. Speaker, you cannot run a complicated city on a month-to-month basis. It makes it almost impossible to make rational management and financial decisions.

Thanks to a bipartisan bill, the D.C. Fiscal Protection Act, D.C. may be spared this new atrocity; the subcommittee will mark up a bill tomorrow. The full committee has waived jurisdiction, indicating how important it is to allow the District of Columbia to spend its own money. Yes, its own money; 85 percent of the money in our appropriation is raised from District taxpayers.

Community leaders representing those taxpayers met with me in a town meeting last night. They are the innocent bystanders. They say that there could be no greater waste than forcing the District to pay employees on a CR basis. Free the D.C. 85 percent.

DO NOT BALANCE THE BUDGET ON BACKS OF SENIOR CITIZENS

(Mr. STUPAK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, as we begin to consider how to balance the budget this week, we must remember people. Let us not balance the budget on the backs of our senior citizens.

We do not need $245 billion in tax breaks for the wealthiest 1 percent of this country and for large corporations. We must keep in mind what our decisions do to ordinary people.

One of my citizens recently wrote to me, and if I can quote from that letter:

We used all of our life savings on Medicare and doctor bills for our golden years and now we are on Medicaid. If it were not for the help from Medicaid, we would both die. Please help us and do not let the Republicans take this away from us, because I am so afraid of this happening. With all of our medical problems, we still carry our high insurance, even though I have to borrow the money from family, and they really do not have it to give. And our insurance stops at 65. Then where will we be? Please help us.

Let us help the ordinary citizens of this country. Let us repeal the tax breaks for the wealthiest and the large corporations of this country. Let us put people first and not corporate welfare first.

REPUBLICAN BUDGET PUNISHES POOR CHILDREN

(Ms. WOOLSEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, when it comes to taking care of children, the Gingrich welfare reform bill says, if you are a poor kid, do not get sick. Because we learned today that the Speaker does not have any qualms about taking away children's health insurance. In fact, his welfare reform bill takes Medicaid from AFDC recipients.

This hits home to me, because 28 years ago I was forced to go on welfare to provide my three children with the medical coverage and the health coverage they needed through Medicaid. I know what it is like to lie awake at night, worried to death that one of my children might get sick.

Mr. Speaker, I will not stand by quietly as the Speaker of the House tries to force this agony on other mothers, other mothers who are trying so hard to do what is best for their children.

Mr. Speaker, welfare reform is not supposed to be about punishing poor children. It is about improving their lives by giving their parents the education, the job training and the child care needed to get a job so that they can stay off welfare permanently.

LET US GET THE JOB DONE

(Mrs. SCHROEDER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, let me remind people one more time that September 30 was the end of the fiscal year, and we did not get our job done. Now to be talking about shutting down Government because we did not do our job is absolutely outrageous. The only people that get hurt by this are the taxpayers. They are going to pay more and get less, which is absolutely the inverse of what they want. They would like to pay less and get more. So we got it wrong.

Now, we ought to move on these bills, get them done, get our work done. It is so late, if any other American had their work that late, they would be fired.

Then we ought to move on to getting this budget put together. It is not about whether we are going to have a balanced budget in 7 years. Both sides agree to that. It is whether we are going to have a huge tax cut for the rich that has been called the crown jewel of the contract.

Well, I am not sure with a country that runs this kind of deficit we need to be giving out jewels to the rich. That is what it is all about. Keep that focus, get the work done, and for heaven's sakes, get this body out of here for the holidays.

DEMOCRATS WILL PROTECT SENIORS AND STUDENTS

(Mr. HILLIARD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HILLIARD. Mr. Speaker, at a time when the Republicans continue to cut, slash, and rip almost all of the programs designed for our seniors and our children, the country should know that the Democrats in this Congress are fighting the extreme forces of right-wing radicals.

While our Republican colleagues have chosen to serve the special interests of the rich by their sponsorship of the greedy and selfish $245 billion tax break for the wealthy, we Democrats are fighting for the many programs that are vital to working Americans. We Democrats are fighting to preserve Medicare, which will cost over $450,000 loss to one hospital, Baptist Princeton in my district, from now and each year thereafter until the year 2002.

While we are fighting to preserve Medicaid, the Republicans are cutting long-term and acute care all across this country. While we are fighting to preserve education, the Republicans are cutting math programs, reading programs, Head Start, and other job-related programs.

Mr. Speaker, it should be obvious that the Democrats are fighting for the working men and women of America and the Republicans are fighting to serve their rich masters.

BALANCED BUDGET SHOULD PROTECT MEDICAID

(Mr. OLVER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1

minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. OLVER. Mr. Speaker, in the budget continuing resolution the Government is operating under, Republicans committed to a balanced budget that must provide adequate funding for Medicaid.

But by slashing Medicaid by $163 billion, their budget plan threatens the health security of disabled and elderly Americans and the income security of the families who love them.

The Republican plan completely eliminates the guarantee of long-term care.

It allows the States to go after every penny—and every piece of property—held by families of those who need nursing care.

And all to give $245 billion in tax breaks mostly to the very wealthiest among us.

Republicans should live up to their agreement and support a budget that protects Medicaid, rather than obliterating it.

BOSNIA PEACEKEEPING MISSION DESERVES SUPPORT

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, over the weekend, I joined a fact-finding trip to Bosnia. I left with strong reservations about our military mission there, but I have returned with the knowledge that our troops are ready and our mission is clear. I have also returned with a belief that we have a moral obligation to do what only a U.S.-led force can do: Keep the peace.

One of the highlights of our trip was a stopover in Germany to visit with American troops who will be deployed in the coming weeks. While there, I had a chance to speak with a young soldier from New London, CT, Pvt. Jarion Clarke. Private Clarke told me that he is well trained, has faith in his leaders, and believes in the United States mission in Bosnia.

I asked Private Clarke what I could do for him: "Tell the American people that we are ready and we need their support," he said. So, that is the message I bring. Our soldiers need our support. They deserve our support. The peace-keeping mission in Bosnia deserves our support.

SUPPORT THE TROOPS IN BOSNIA

(Mr. HASTINGS of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I wish to echo the sentiments of the previous speaker, the gentlewoman from Connecticut (Ms. DELAURO). I, too, was on that mission. I, too, had serious reservations of going into the Balkans. We covered five countries in 4 days in that weekend period with a bipartisan delegation of
