So the joint resolution was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE OPEN FOR ALL CITIZENS

(Mr. OBEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, I simply take this time to explain for the RECORD why I have cast the only vote against the proposition the House just voted on. I did not vote no because I was opposed to the proposition; as I said during debate, no one was opposed to the proposition. But House rules dictate if I were to be in a position to offer a motion to recommit that I needed to vote "no" on final passage.

I did so because I felt strongly that we should not only open the government for the services provided in the resolution, but should also open the Government for the purpose of other services that could be provided by the veterans department, and all other government employees as well.

The motion that I offered included all of the language of the original resolution, plus the additional language that would have opened up other functions of the veterans department, providing those services as well, and opened up all other agencies of the government which remained closed.

So for procedural reasons, to protect my right to offer that language which included all of the language provided in the original resolution, I was required by the House rules to vote "no."

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO OFFER PRIVILEGED RESOLUTION PRO- VIDING DEFICIT REDUCTION AND ACHIEVE A BALANCED BUDGET BY FISCAL YEAR 2002

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I have a privileged resolution at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD). Is the gentleman from Mississippi making a notice?

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. I have a privileged resolution at the desk. As you know, the Chair can either bring this up immediately—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would advise the gentleman from Mississippi that there is no privileged resolution at the desk.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Pennsylvania will state his inquiry.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the inquiry that the gentleman from Pennsylvania has is, has his privileged motion been properly noticed?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair believes that the gentleman is trying to properly notice his resolution as privileged.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. TAYLOR].

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I am informing the Chair of my intention to serve a privileged resolution before this body, and as the Chair knows, under the Rules of the House, the Chair may bring this up immediately or may ask for a 2-legislative-day delay on this matter.

Since the matter involves the highest privilege of the Members collectively, and that is the privilege of doing our constitutionally mandated responsibility of providing for the budget in the appropriations of this country, I would ask for its immediate consideration.

As you know, Mr. Speaker, we have no budget before this country, and 300,000 good people are wondering whether or not they are going to get paid.

We have a job to do. We are 81 days late in fulfilling our legal responsibility of providing for a budget for this country. The budget that was passed has been vetoed by the President. There are not sufficient votes to get the two-thirds majority to override the President, and it is my intention to submit, as a result of that, privileged resolution H.R. 2530, commonly referred to as the coalition budget, in an effort to break this impasse.

I would like to point out that under rule IV of the Rules of the House of Representatives, Questions of Privilege, clause 1 states questions of privilege shall be, first, those affecting the rights of the House collectively. Article I, section 9, clause 7 reads, and I am quoting, "No money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in consequence of an appropriation made by law."

Obviously, we cannot solve this budget impasse until we have passed and the President has approved a budget. Today marks the 81st day that this Congress has been delinquent in fulfilling our statutory responsibility of enacting a budget into law; and again, one has passed, but short of the two-thirds majority needed to override the presidential veto.

Mr. Speaker, by failing to enact a budget into law, this body has failed to fulfill our most basic constitutionally mandated duties. This Congress has failed to appropriate the necessary funds to fulfill the vital functions of our Nation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Mississippi suspend?

The Chair would advise the gentleman, the gentleman needs to make notice to the House of his resolution. The Chair would ask the gentleman to state his notice.

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I am doing so in telling my fellow Members.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Could the gentleman from Mississippi read the title of his resolution in order to give notice to the House?

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Sir, as of today, I am introducing the coalition budget, H.R. 2530, to provide for deficit reduction and achieve a balanced budget by fiscal year 2002, as a privileged resolution and request its immediate consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under rule IX, a resolution offered from the floor by a Member other than the majority leader or the minority leader as a question of the privileges of the House has immediate precedence only at a time or place designated by the Speaker in the legislative schedule within 2 legislative days of its being properly noticed. That designation will be announced at a later time.

In the meantime, the form of the resolution proffered by the gentleman from Mississippi will appear in the RECORD at this point.

The Chair is not at this point making a determination as to whether the resolution constitutes a question of privilege. That determination will be made at a time designated for consideration of the resolution.

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Will the Speaker recognize me for a unanimous-consent request?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would advise the gentleman that the title will appear in the RECORD.

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. The Chair has fulfilled my request.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

Mr. BROWDER. Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. BROWDER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. TAYLOR] has filed a motion, and I understand that the Chair has ruled that this will be dealt with by the Speaker in the next 2 days.

My inquiry is this: Does this mean that before we leave this Friday that this request will be scheduled by the Speaker so that the people of this country will not go through Christmas without a budget for the U.S. Government?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would advise the gentleman that consideration will be scheduled within 2 legislative days by the Speaker.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. WALKER. In the action that just took place here a few minutes ago with regard to the privileged resolution, is the totality of the privileged resolution, namely the budget offered by the gentleman, going to be printed in the RECORD, or just the title?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair stated earlier the title of the resolution would be printed in the RECORD.

Mr. WALKER. So the totality of the resolution would not be printed?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The title of the bill will be printed, not the totality.

Mr. WALKER. I thank the Chair.

Mr. TANNER. Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. TANNER. Mr. Speaker, how much notice would the Chair give to the sponsor of the resolution? Would it be tomorrow or would it be Friday, or is it impossible for the Speaker to so advise at the moment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair intend to give adequate notice to Members.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members are recognized for 5 minutes each.

TRIBUTE TO ROBERT WALKER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. FOX] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise on this occasion to speak to my colleagues about someone very special who has been working very hard for this House and this country and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for 20 years. I speak of Congressman ROBERT WALKER who announced this week that he would not be seeking an 11th term in the House of Representatives.

There is no one I can think of presently, in Congress or in recent years, who has been more of a deficit hawk, a budget hawk, or a U.S. Representative extraordinaire. His expertise on parliamentary rules has been the best, and for many of us, like myself, he has been a role model for how to be a U.S. Congressman when it comes to constituent services and legislative advocacy.

His 10 terms of outstanding service to the people of Chester County and Lancaster County in Pennsylvania have certainly shown just what an outstanding Congressman can do for his State and his community. He is Pennsylvania's favorite son, ROBERT WALKER, a champion.

As chairman of the Committee on Science, he has worked to increase research for health care, for jobs, and for science. This is a man who loves this institution, who has respected its traditions, its history. It seems appropriate that the House now stands, Mr. Speaker, poised on the verge of passing a balanced budget for the first time since 1969, and that with Congressman ROBERT WALKER, his inspiration, his spirit, his drive, his enthusiasm have helped to sustain all Members of the House who believe that we can balance this budget, that we can in the next few days or weeks come to an agreement with the President of the United States and the Senate in helping our children, our grandchildren, to pass a balanced budget.

We know from Alan Greenspan that by passing a balanced budget we will reduce interest rates and thereby reduce the cost of home mortgages, car expenses and college costs. The balanced budget is what we need for our country, and ROBERT S. WALKER, the outstanding Congressman from Pennsylvania, will help lead us there, as he has through many fights, to make sure we maintain fiscal responsibility in this country.

I am proud to yield to the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. HAYWORTH], for his comments.

Mr. HAYWORTH. I thank my good friend from Pennsylvania, and I would join him in the remarks of respect and affection for our colleague, BOB WALKER.

Mr. Speaker, through C-SPAN, millions of Americans have been able to see the expertise and the grace and the exemplary conduct with which ROBERT WALKER has comported himself on this floor. While it was his brother, Wally, who grew to a taller height and started, both at the University of Virginia and the National Basketball Association, and still labors in the front office of the Seattle Supersonics, I think it is safe to say that BOB WALKER has always stood tall, both for the people of Pennsylvania Dutch country, and more importantly, for the entire citizenry of the United States.

With that, I would yield back to my colleague from Pennsylvania, [Mr. FOX].

Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania. I would yield to the gentleman from California [Mr. HUNTER].

Mr. HUNTER. I thank the gentleman for yielding, and let me just say that everybody holds BOB WALKER in great esteem.

I am reminded of a story by Jack Kemp when he was on a plane in the Caribbean, and somebody saw him and started to come toward him, saying, are you a Member of Congress. Jack figured here was another guy coming to recognize him, the potential Presidential candidate and a well-known sports star and Congressman; and when Jack Kemp said, I am, the guy said, well, then you must know BOB WALKER. I have seen him on C-SPAN.

All of us have seen BOB on C-SPAN, but what a lot of folks have not seen is that BOB WALKER is a guy who was always here to help anybody who comes out on the House floor, who has a legislative initiative. Whether you are a freshman or a Member who has been here for 16 years, Bob is always gracious, always willing to help, and maybe most importantly, always ready to fight for you.

I can remember when we did the all-night special orders, and BOB would always be the guy that volunteered for the slot from 2 a.m. to 3 a.m. in the morning. That takes a lot of guts.

A great American, and it is a real tragedy that he is leaving this House, a wonderful friend of all of us.

Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania. I am hoping this special order will change his mind.

I yield to the gentleman from Georgia, Congressman KINGSTON.

Mr. KINGSTON. I feel that I am a second-generation special order guy; I know that I am walking down a trail that was blazed by BOB WALKER and NEWT GINGRICH and JACK KEMP and DUNCAN HUNTER and a lot of guys before use who got a lot of people in the habit of watching C-SPAN, but more importantly got people to tune in to the issues of reducing the size of Government, providing tax relief, welfare reform, cutting down on Government, micromanagement out of Washington, and increasing personal freedom and responsibility, and I attribute that to BOB WALKER.

Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for your indulgence and thank you, BOB WALKER, for being a great American and a great Congressman.

THE BUDGET DEBATE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CHRYSLER). Under a previous order of the House, the gentlewoman from Florida [Ms. BROWN] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. BROWN of Florida. Mr. Speaker, older Americans have fought this country's wars, built its cities, reared its children and tilled its soil. They deserve much and need much. So said the late Claude Pepper, who served Florida for 15 years in the Senate and 26 years more in the House. He was a true champion for the seniors of Florida and this country.

Mr. Speaker, we all agree that we were sent to Congress to pass a responsible budget. But I do not believe we
