

of Representatives more than two additional times.

"SECTION 2. No person may be elected or appointed to the Senate of the United States more than one time, and no person who has been a Senator for three years of a term to which some other person was elected or appointed may be elected to the Senate of the United States.

"SECTION 3. Only elections occurring after ratification of this article shall be considered for purposes of sections 1 and 2."

H.J. RES 2

OFFERED BY: MR. FRANK OF MASSACHUSETTS

AMENDMENT NO. 3: Section 4., strike "No election" and insert "Election".

H.J. RES 2

OFFERED BY: MR. INGLIS OF SOUTH CAROLINA

AMENDMENT NO. 4: Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress:

"ARTICLE —

"SECTION 1. No person who has been elected for a full term to the Senate two times shall be eligible for election or appointment to the Senate. No person who has been elected for a full term to the House of Representatives three times shall be eligible for election to the House of Representatives.

"SECTION 2. No person who has served as a Senator for more than three years of a term to which some other person was elected shall subsequently be eligible for election to the Senate more than once. No person who has served as a Representative for more than one year shall subsequently be eligible for election to the House of Representatives more than two times.

"SECTION 3. No election or service occurring before this article becomes operative shall be taken into account when determining eligibility for election under this article."

H.J. RES. 2

OFFERED BY: MR. MCCOLLUM

AMENDMENT NO. 5: Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress:

"ARTICLE —

"SECTION 1. No person who has been elected for a full term to the Senate two times shall be eligible for election or appointment to the Senate. No person who has been elected for a full term to the House of Representatives six times shall be eligible for election to the House of Representatives.

"SECTION 2. No person who has served as a Senator for more than three years shall subsequently be eligible for election to the Senate more than once. No person who has served as a Representative for more than one year shall subsequently be eligible for election to the House of Representatives more than five times.

"SECTION 3. No election or service occurring before this article becomes operative shall be taken into account when determining eligibility for election under this article."

H.J. RES. 2

OFFERED BY: MR. MCCOLLUM

AMENDMENT NO. 6: Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress:

"ARTICLE —

"SECTION 1. No person who has been elected for a full term to the Senate two times shall be eligible for election or appointment to the Senate. No person who has been elected for a full term to the House of Representatives six times shall be eligible for election to the House of Representatives.

"SECTION 2. No person who has served as a Senator for more than three years shall subsequently be eligible for election to the Senate more than once. No person who has served as a Representative for more than one year shall subsequently be eligible for election to the House of Representatives more than five times.

"SECTION 3. No election or service occurring before this article becomes operative shall be taken into account when determining eligibility for election under this article.

"SECTION 4. Nothing in the Constitution or law of any State shall diminish or enhance, directly or indirectly, the limits set by this article."

H.J. RES. 2

OFFERED BY: MR. MCCOLLUM

AMENDMENT NO. 7: Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

"ARTICLE —

"SECTION 1. The term of office of a Representative in Congress shall be four years and shall coincide with the term of the President of the United States.

"SECTION 2. No person who has been elected for a full term to the Senate two times shall be eligible for election or appointment to the Senate. No person who has been elected for a full term to the House of Representatives three times shall be eligible for election to the House of Representatives.

"SECTION 3. No person who has served as a Senator for more than three years shall subsequently be eligible for election to the Senate more than once. No person who has served as a Representative for more than two years shall subsequently be eligible for election to the House of Representatives more than two times.

"SECTION 4. No election or service occurring before this article becomes operative shall be taken into account when determining eligibility for election under this article.

"SECTION 5. No Member of one House of Congress may, except in the final year of that Member's current term, qualify under applicable State law as a candidate for the other House of Congress, unless that Member has resigned from the House in which that Member currently serves.

"SECTION 6. This article shall apply with respect to terms of office of Representatives and Senators beginning after the first day of the year immediately following the first presidential election after ratification of this article."

H.J. RES. 2

OFFERED BY: MR. PETERSON OF FLORIDA

AMENDMENT NO. 8: Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within 7 years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

"ARTICLE —

"SECTION 1. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every 4th year by the people of the several States. The terms of Representatives shall begin at noon on the 3rd day of January of the years that occur 2 years after the years in which the term of the President begins.

"SECTION 2. A person may not be a Senator if the person has been a Senator for more than 12 years during the lifetime of the person. A person may not be a Representative if the person has been a Representative for more than 12 years during the lifetime of the person. Any term as a Senator or Representative for which a person is elected or appointed to fill a vacancy in the representation of any State in the Congress may not be counted for purposes of computing the 12-year limits in this section.

"SECTION 3. Sections 1 and 2 shall apply only to Representatives who are elected on or after the date occurring 1 year after the 1st day that this article is valid as part of the Constitution and on which the electors of the President and the Vice President are chosen.

"SECTION 4. Section 2 shall apply only to Senators who are elected or appointed on or after the date occurring 1 year after the 1st day that this article is valid as part of the Constitution and on which the electors of the President and the Vice President are chosen."

H.J. RES. 2

OFFERED BY: MR. PETERSON OF FLORIDA

AMENDMENT NO. 9: Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within 7 years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

"ARTICLE —

"SECTION 1. A person may not be a Senator if the person has been a Senator for more than 12 years during the lifetime of the person. A person may not be a Representative if the person has been a Representative for more than 12 years during the lifetime of the person. Any term as a Senator or Representative for which a person is elected or appointed to fill a vacancy in the representation of any State in the Congress may not be counted for purposes of computing the 12-year limits in this section.

"SECTION 2. This article shall apply with respect to terms of Senator and Representative beginning more than one year after the date of the ratification of this article."