□ 1804

Mr. HASTERT changed his vote from "nay" to "yea."

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Miss COLLINS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, due to an illness requiring hospitalization, I was unavoidably detained in Detroit today while the House was in session. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye" on passage of H.R. 531, "aye" on passage of H.R. 694, "aye" on passage of H.R. 562, "aye" on passage of H.R. 536, and "aye" on passage of H.R. 517.

REQUEST FOR PERMISSION FOR SUNDRY COMMITTEES AND THEIR SUBCOMMITTEES TO SIT TOMORROW DURING THE 5-MINUTE RULE

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the following committees and their subcommittees be permitted to sit tomorrow while the House is meeting in the Committee of the Whole House under the 5-minute rule: Committee on Banking and Financial Services; Committee on Commerce; Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunities; Committee on Government Reform and Oversight; Committee on House Oversight; Committee on International Relations;

Committee on the Judiciary; Committee on National Security, and Committee on Resources.

Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that the minority has been consulted, and that there is no objection to these requests.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SHAYS). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, Reserving the right to object, I am advised by the leadership that they have approved these committees meeting during legislative business, and so I withdraw my reservation of the right to object.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, it is my understanding that this includes the Government Reform Committee?

Mr. GOODLING. If the gentleman will yield, it is the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight.

Mr. HOYER. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, let me make a comment.

I understand what the leadership has done. But I want to say that there is no doubt in my mind that were the roles reversed there would be an objection.

What the Government Reform Committee, and my good friend, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MICA], and the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER] intend to do is, having had a hearing last Monday, 8 days ago, they intend to propose effectively increasing the taxes on 30,000 to 40,000 Federal employees by 12 percent by taking 2½ points off the pretax income of Federal employees as an additional contribution on their pension system. Now, that is with 8 days' notice and hearing.

Now, I hope the committee tomorrow does not take that action. I hope they give both Federal employees and the public an opportunity to look at that.

But the reason I reserve my right to object is I worked very hard with the Bush administration and OMB under President Bush for the purposes of trying to come up with an equitable system. The Hudson Institute, a conservative think-tank out of the Midwest, in 1987 gave to the Bush administration and to this Congress a recommendation that we not touch the pension plan, not touch the pension plan until such time as we had fully effected a locality-pay adjustment. The Bush administration signed legislation in 1990 to effect that over a 9-year period.

We have done 1 year of that. Notwithstanding that, we are asked for a unanimous-consent request so the committee tomorrow, after having a hearing last Monday on this issue, move ahead to make a drastic change in Federal employee's pensions.

Now, very frankly, they are going to include congressional pensions. If we cannot protect ourselves, that is tough, in my opinion. I do not care about that, I tell you, Mr. Speaker. The fact is we ought not be doing this with this short notice to Federal employees and, in effect, giving them a 12-percent, 10-percent to 12-percent, tax increase.
