"DIVISION A—STREAMLINING OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AGENCIES TITLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 101. SHORT TITLE.

This division may be cited as the "Foreign Affairs Agencies Streamlining Act of 1995".

SEC. 102. CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS.

The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) With the end of the Cold War, the international challenges facing the United States have changed, but the fundamental national interests of the United States have not. The security, economic, and humanitarian interests of the United States require continued American engagement in international affairs. The leading role of the United States in world affairs will be as important in the twenty first century as it has been in the twentieth.

(2) The United States budget deficit requires that the foreign as well as the domestic programs and activities of the United States be carefully reviewed for potential savings. Wherever possible, foreign programs and activities must be streamlined, managed more efficiently, and adapted to the requirements of the post-Cold War era.

(3) As part of an overall review to foster efficiencies in the executive branch, the President has had under review the organization and functions of those departments and agencies responsible for administering the international affairs (150) budget function.

(4) The President deserves commendation for the results of such review to date, including significant numbers of foreign posts closed and personnel reductions made by some foreign affairs agencies.

(5) In order to achieve further budgetary savings and eliminate overlapping responsibilities and duplication of efforts in the foreign programs and activities of the United States without jeopardizing United States interests, continued careful review and strong effective leadership will be required.

(6) A streamlined foreign affairs structure under the leadership of the President can more effectively promote the international interests of the United States in the next century.

TITLE II—ONGOING REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS MANAGEMENT

SEC. 201. REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS AGENCIES.

(a) REVIEW.—The President shall review, as part of an overall effort to foster efficiencies in the executive branch, the programs described in the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 and the Arms Export Control Act, as well as other initiatives within the administration of international affairs programs, to determine how best to achieve the cost savings and streamlining.

(b) CONSIDERATIONS.—The review conducted pursuant to subsection (a) shall include a review of—

(1) any additional costs or cost savings that would result from reorganizing the agencies administering programs under the international affairs (150) budget function;

(2) the management implications of any agency reorganization;

(3) the optimal organizational structure for the foreign affairs agencies;

(4) the implications for United States foreign policy and United States foreign assistance programs of any agency reorganization;

(5) the justification for staffing levels of non-foreign affairs agencies overseas, including the Departments of Commerce, Defense, Justice, Treasury, and any intelligence agencies;

(6) the extent to which the activities of such non-foreign affairs agencies contribute to United States foreign policy and national security interests;

(7) the implications for the United States foreign operations of recent developments in communications technology;

(8) the feasibility of centralizing worldwide financial services of all foreign affairs agencies in the United States, including the feasibility of moving all such services to a location outside of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area;

(9) the feasibility and cost-effectiveness of contracting with private companies or other United States Government agencies for certain services, including payroll, vendor payments, and Foreign Service pension payments systems, medical examination programs, and certain training programs; and

(10) efforts to consolidate management of all U.S. international exchange programs to eliminate duplication and overlap.

(c) REPORT.—Not later than six months after the date of enactment of this Act, the President shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report on the results of the comprehensive review required by subsection (a).

SEC. 202. REORGANIZATION AUTHORITY

(a) AUTHORITY.—The President is authorized to submit to the Congress a reorganization plan, if he determines such reorganization is necessary, to enhance the coordination, effectiveness, and efficiency of programs within the international affairs (150) budget function.

(b) EXCEPTION.—Any plan submitted pursuant to the authority of subsection (a) may be submitted pursuant to chapter 9 of title 5 (relating to executive reorganization) of the United States Code, notwithstanding section 905(b) of that chapter.

(a) REPORT.—No agency of the United States Government may be abolished or its functions transferred or consolidated with another such agency pursuant to this division or any other provision of this Act relating to reorganization unless the Director of the Congressional Budget Office and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget independently calculate and submit to the Congress a joint report analyzing the costs and benefits of any such action.

(b) CONTENTS OF REPORT.—The cost/benefit analysis required by subsection (a) shall include, but not be limited to—

(1) An assessment of direct and indirect costs for the first five years associated with the implementation of the provisions of this division or any other provision of this Act relating to reorganization; and

(2) The effects of consolidation on personnel, management systems, real property, decisionmaking processes, administrative costs, and costs associated with terminating, amending, renegotiating, or negotiating existing and new contracts.

(c) FURTHER CONGRESSIONAL ACTION REQUIRED.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, if the Director of the Congressional Budget Office and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget either jointly or independently determine and report that the costs associated with the consolidation required by this division or any other provision of this act relating to reorganization exceed the fiscal year 1995 operating costs of the affected agencies, such provisions shall not become effective unless—

(1) the President determines that such consolidation is in the national interest of the United States; or

(b) WAIVER.—The President may waive the application of subsection (a) if the President determines that it is in the national security interest of the United States to do so.

(c) CONDITIONS.—The conditions of this subsection are met when the President certifies to Congress that the Government of Turkey—

(1) allows free and unfettered monitoring of the human rights situation within its territory by domestic and international human rights monitoring organizations, including but not limited to, the Turkish Human Rights Association, the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe, Amnesty International, and Human Rights Watch;
