PROVIDING FOR MARKING THE CELEBRATION OF THE FOUNDING OF THE CITY OF JERUSALEM

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on House Oversight be discharged from further consideration of the Senate Concurrent Resolution (S. Con. Res. 29) providing for marking the celebration of Jerusalem on the occasion of its 3,000th anniversary, and ask for its consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate concurrent resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LATOURETTE). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

Mr. GEJDENSON. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, and I will not object, I will yield to the gentleman from California [Mr. Thomas] for a statement, and then I have a few comments

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me.

Mr. Speaker, the Speaker of the House and the leadership join me in urging all Members to support what is an occasion that I think will allow us to focus on our humanness in a way that we are rarely able to do it.

In the resolution talking about the celebration of Jerusalem in the Rotunda of its 3,000th anniversary, it says: "Whereas Jerusalem, the City of Peace, has held a unique place and exerted a unique influence on the moral development of Western Civilization;' I think Jerusalem plays an even more significant role than that, if that is possible.

I think it is because Jerusalem is one of the places in the world that is truly a crossroads for a majority of people in the world, because when we look at the development and history of religions, those things that have occurred in and around the city of Jerusalem have not only sent fundamental, positive repercussions East and West, but they have somehow been tied to defining developmental periods throughout the history of the world.

Although we have not yet located the center of the universe, I think in terms of man's experience on this planet, the city of Jerusalem, along with very few other places in this world, Jerusalem deserves being placed in that category. I think it is entirely appropriate that the Rotunda of the United States Capitol be used as the place for the recognition of the 3,000 years of inhabitance of the city of Jerusalem.

Mr. GEJDEŇSON. Reclaiming my time, Mr. Speaker, I join the gentleman in support of the resolution saying this is a year that it is particularly appropriate to be having this celebration. We could not have chosen the 3,000th year, obviously, but as we look at the peace process moving forward, something that I think many of us thought would not happen in our lifetime, this City of Peace may indeed soon be an example for dialogue for the entire globe.

All of us who have worked so hard on issues of peace in the Middle East, while we understand there are tremendous challenges ahead, this is a very exciting time, with hopefully the beginnings of a real peace for that region of the world, something that will not only hopefully bring benefit to the people there, but people around the globe, and open up the holy places to the multiple of religions that see Jerusalem as their center, to give pilgrims from all religions a greater opportunity to visit the holy sites and to spend time in the Middle East.

For those of us who have been to Jerusalem, it is truly a special city. I am privileged to be here with the gentleman from California, urging support of this resolution.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPĚAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the Senate concurrent resolution, as follows:

S. CON. RES. 29

Whereas the Senate wishes to make the 3,000th anniversary of King David's establishment of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel

Whereas Jerusalem, the City of David, has been the focal point of Jewish life;

Whereas Jerusalem, the City of Peace, has held a unique place and exerted a unique influence on the moral development of Western Civilization; and

Whereas no other city on Earth is today the capital of the same country, inhabited by the same people, speaking the same language, and worshipping the same God as it was 3,000 years ago: Now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Architect is directed to make the necessary arrangements for a date in October to be mutually agreed upon by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Majority Leader of the Senate, after consultation with the Minority Leaders of the two houses, for the use of the Rotunda for a celebration of the founding of the city of Jerusalem.

The Senate concurrent resolution was concurred in.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on Senate Concurrent Resolution 29, the concurrent resolution just concurred in.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.
