Jim's career began after graduating from Centre College. After graduating, he was commissioned a lieutenant in the Navy and served in the Pacific during World War II.

Jim then went on to get his master's in political science at the University of Kentucky. It was there that he developed his love for politics.

His political career got off to a start upon joining the legislative research commission staff in 1944. He later became the Kentucky General Assembly's top administrator and director from 1963 to 1972.

Jim served as staff director in the 1960's for Gov. Edward T. "Ned" Breathit. I believe this is worth mentioning since it was around this time the Governor tried to revise the State's constitution. Jim was one of the masterminds behind the project.

Just a few years later, Jim devised a plan on which the modern general assembly is based.

In 1973, Jim was in charge of reorganizing the executive branch of government. This is a noteworthy because it was the first time such an attempt had been made since 1936.

When WENDELL FORD won a Senate seat in 1974, Jim followed him to Washington as his administrative assistant. Here, he planned and coordinated Senator FORD'S legislative staff. The issues he focused on most while an AA were those involving energy and coal.

Up until his last days, he was an adviser to Senator FORD.

The Nation and our friend Senator FORD lost a very respected and intelligent man when James passed away.

My deepest condolences go to Jim's son Michael Fleming, and daughter, Dr. Barbara Fleming Phillips.

TRIBUTE TO DR. LUTHER FOSTER

Mr. HEFLIN. Mr. President, Alabama and the nation lost a prized citizen when Dr. Luther Foster, former president of Tuskegee University, passed away last November.

Luther was known for being intellectual, involved, and achievement-oriented. His hard work and dedication to his studies earned him several degrees and honors from several institutions. He was known by many through the numerous organizations with which he affiliated himself. His qualities led to the type of career and accomplishments many only dream of.

Dr. Foster received his bachelor's degree from Virginia State College, now known as Hampton Institute, his MBA from Harvard University, and his doctoral degree from the University of Chicago.

His honorary degrees include doctorates of civil law, humane letters, and public service.

Dr. Foster was a member of the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission; the Commission on Critical Choices for America; the Council on Financial Aid to Education; the National Advisory Committee on Black Higher Education and Black Colleges and Universities; the President's Advisory Commission on International Educational and Cultural Exchange; the President's General Advisory Committee on Foreign Assistance Programs; the President's Task Force on Priorities in Higher Education; Resources for the Future, and the U.S. Air Force Academy Advisory Council.

In addition, he directed the Center for Creative Learning; the March of Dimes; Norton Simon, Inc.; the Overseas Development Committee; Political and Economic Studies; the Retirement Equities Fund; the United Negro College Fund, and Sears, Roebuck and Co.

He also chaired the Association of American Colleges and the Race Relations Information center.

Dr. Foster served as the budget officer of Howard University from 1937-41. He later relocated to the Tuskegee Institute where he served as business manager from 1941-53. He was then named president of Tuskegee in 1953 and held this position for the next 28 years. At the time of his death, he was chairman and CEO of Robert R. Moton Memorial Institute.

Dr. Foster was a highly intelligent man who was not only known for his scholarly abilities, his many affiliations, or even his lifetime accomplishments. He was most known for his ability to touch the lives around him in meaningful ways.

My deepest condolences go out to his wife of 53 years, Vera Chandler Foster of Alexandria, and their entire family in the wake of this tremendous loss.
