SENATE RESOLUTION 185—TO EXPRESS THE SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING REPAYMENT OF LOANS TO MEXICO

Mr. FAIRCLOTH submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations:

S. RES. 185

Whereas the United States has provided Mexico with approximately $12,500,000,000 in loans to Mexico;

Whereas these loans were not authorized by the United States Congress;

Whereas the taxpayers of the United States should not be responsible for any losses incurred from these loans; and

Whereas certain loans to Mexico will become due and payable on October 30, 1995: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That, it is the sense of the Senate that no further loans should be made to Mexico without specific authorization from the United States Congress, and that, all loans made to Mexico should be repaid in full and on time, and that such debts should not be extended, rescheduled, or reduced in any manner.

Mr. FAIRCLOTH. Mr. President, today I am submitting a sense of the Senate regarding Mexico.

From day 1, I have been opposed to the Mexican bailout. It was never the sole responsibility of the United States to help Mexico pay its debtors.

These economic problems were of Mexico's own making, driven by politics, corruption, and poor economic policy.

Nevertheless, the President, without the approval of the Congress, went ahead and loaned $12.5 billion to Mexico.

This was a terrible mistake. We cannot continue to be the world's banker. We cannot continue to loan money to countries that have no intention of repaying it.

I might add that the Clinton administration has proposed the creation of an international bailout fund to deal with future problems like Mexico. I cannot think of a worse idea. Once the Congress establishes a fund—any fund—it will be used. Has money ever been appropriated by the Congress and not used? The answer is no. That is why I have introduced a bill, S. 1222, to stop the creation of this new international bailout fund.

Mr. President, returning to the Mexico issue, I would suggest that the first priority of this Congress and administration should be getting our own economic house in order before we can afford to engage in international bailouts, like Mexico.

This means getting Federal spending under control. I have to wonder if we keep putting ourselves deeper and deeper in debt—who will bail us out.

Mr. President, I firmly believe that the loans to Mexico will never be repaid. The American taxpayer will bear the burden of the Mexico bailout.

I think this is very wrong—and I intended to do everything I can to stop it—starting today.

Mr. President, last week, Mexico repaid $700 million of the nearly $12.5 billion in loans that they owe to the United States. This was a great public relations move for Mexico—but for those that read between the headlines there was something very troubling.

Mexico owes the United States $2 billion on October 30, 1995. Mexico was making payment of $700 million towards that loan.

Instead of paying that loan off in full, however, Mexico apparently intends to have the balance of what is owed by October 30—$1.3 billion—rolled over past that deadline.

This short term swap of $2 billion was extended to Mexico on February 2, 1995. It came due in May, but was rolled over in May for 90 days. It was rolled over in August for another 90 days. Now, its falling due again for a third time.

I think it is time that Mexico pays up—and on time.

Mr. President, for this reason, I am introducing a sense of the Senate that loans to Mexico be paid on time and in full.

The principle needs to be established early on in this relationship that these loans should be repaid in full and repaid on time.

If not, these so called loans will quickly become foreign aid. The Congress did not vote for foreign aid. The American taxpayer cannot afford more foreign aid. And the loans to Mexico shouldn't become foreign aid.

Further, if Mexico can't make this small repayment in full and on time—only $2 billion of the $12.5 billion—how will it ever repay the remaining balance.

The bulk of the United States loans to Mexico don't come due until 1997. They won't be fully repaid until the year 2000. But if Mexico can't repay its short term loans on time—then I do not have any hope that the loans coming due in 1997 through 2000 will ever be repaid.

Mr. President, in conclusion, Mexico made a great public relations move by repaying some of its loans last week. But the real story may be that they will never pay anymore. The real test will come shortly, by October 30 when Mexico should pay the United States $1.3 billion.

We need to be firm. We need to stand our ground now. Mexico must pay the United States back. This is what this sense of the Senate calls for.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

HEALTH CARE ANTIFRAUD AND ABUSE EFFORTS

• Mr. COHEN. Mr. President, over the last week there has been substantial criticism levied against the health care fraud and abuse provisions contained in the House Medicare and Medicaid reform proposals. Unfortunately, some of the headlines and attacks imply that all Republican Budget Reconciliation legislation is soft on fraud and abuse.

Headlines such as "GOP Medicare Bill Seen to Favor Fraud," and "GOP Plan to Ease Medicare Fraud Rules 'Terrible,' May Go," and "Beneath Surface, Health Care Plan Is Offering Boons" are leading the public to believe that all Republican Medicare proposals are going light on those who are ripping off Medicare while honest Medicare providers and some beneficiaries are being asked to make sacrifices to save Medicare.

As the author of fraud and abuse provisions in the Senate reconciliation bill that was recently marked up by the Finance Committee, I feel that I must set the record straight, at least as it concerns the Senate version.

I commend the Senate Finance Committee and the Senate leadership for its strong commitment to tough anti-fraud measures. Many law enforcement officials have indicated to me that the Senate bill contains the toughest and most comprehensive—but fair—health care antifraud bills to come out in decades. It pains me to see headlines stating that Republican efforts on health care fraud fall short.

Let me tell you about what my Senate colleagues and I have incorporated in the Senate budget reconciliation bill. My legislation:

Creates an antifraud program to coordinate Federal, State, and local law enforcement efforts to combat fraud and abuse;

Appropriates a mandatory $200 million in fiscal year 1996 for antifraud investigators and auditors with a 15-percent increase every year thereafter for 7 years;

Makes it mandatory for the Secretary of Health and Human Services to exclude individuals from receiving payment from Medicare and Medicaid when convicted of felonies relating to health care fraud and allows the Secretary to exclude individuals convicted of a criminal misdemeanor related to a health care offense;

Sets minimum periods of exclusion from Medicare and Medicaid payments;

Allows the Secretary to exclude individuals who have direct or indirect ownership or control interest of 5 percent or more in an entity—or is an officer or managing employee—if the entity is already excluded from Medicare or Medicaid;

Allows the HHS Secretary to impose intermediate sanctions on a Medicare HMO if the HMO fails to carry out the contract such as in quality of care
