

of life. Caring about our people—giving them decent pay, housing, and medical care—is not just the right thing to do, it is also the smart thing to do, because it is vital to maintaining the quality and readiness of our forces.

Finally, let us remember, on this holiday season, that many of our servicemen and women are deployed in the Mediterranean, the Adriatic, and in Yugoslavia. Still more are on their way. They are all preparing to support the peace Implementation Force in Bosnia. It is a tough assignment for them. It is even tougher on their families. So as we celebrate this year, let us all pray for the safety of our soldiers, sailors, airmen, and Marines performing these difficult missions. And let us also pray for their comrades—some 150,000 of them—who will also spend their holidays away from their loved ones as they perform other missions for peace and freedom around the globe.

Next to my office in the Pentagon is a painting depicting a soldier, he's in a church praying with his family just before a deployment. Underneath this painting are the lines from the Bible, in which God says, "Whom shall I send and who will go for us?" And, Isaiah answers, "Here am I. Send me." This Christmas, our Nation asks, "Whom shall I send?" And, 150,000 of our military personnel answered, "Here am I. Send me." These military personnel are America's finest and they deserve the prayers and support of all Americans.

PATRICK T. ALLEN: DEDICATED TO SOUTH CAROLINA

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I rise today to remember and to thank Patrick R. Allen for his 25-year career as head of the Central Electric Power Cooperative in my home State. Pat is retiring in January and he'll be sorely missed.

Central Electric plays a critical role in the lives of thousands of South Carolinians. It is a wholesale supplier for 15 rural electric cooperatives in South Carolina, which in turn supply electricity to more than 345,000 residential, commercial and industrial customers in two-thirds of the State. Pat Allen's role in steering Central Electric has been critical.

Pat moved to South Carolina from his native Texas in 1970 to take a job as manager of engineering and construction with Central Electric. He became president and chief executive officer in 1975. The company has grown tremendously under his leadership and moved from a one-floor office in the Farm Bureau Building in Cayce to its present home in Columbia.

Pat introduced the first computers to Central and wrote the original programs. He installed an economic development department, which later became the nucleus of a successful new venture, Palmetto Economic Development Corp. Now, the spin-off company represents Central Electric and another public service company, Santee Cooper, in its economic development mission.

Pat introduced many marketing concepts to Central's member cooperative that have earned national recognition for their proactive and aggressive approaches.

Mr. President, I appreciate the opportunity to recognize the years of devotion and strong leadership that Pat has brought to Central Electric and its customers. I wish him and his wife JoAnne all the best during Pat's retirement and hope they have many more happy years to come.

STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. LAUTENBERG:

S. 1493. A bill to amend title 18, United States Code, to prohibit certain interstate conduct relating to exotic animals; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

THE CAPTIVE EXOTIC ANIMAL PROTECTION ACT OF 1995

Mr. LAUTENBERG. Mr. President, today I am introducing the Captive Exotic Animal Protection Act of 1995, a bill to stop what are known as canned hunts—the cruel and inhumane business in which a customer pays to shoot a tame, captive exotic animal in a fenced-in enclosure for entertainment, or to collect a trophy.

Mr. President, canned hunts do not involve hunting, tracking, or shooting skills. In such an operation, the client merely hands over a check, walks to within yards of his prize, aims carefully to avoid the head, and shoots, killing the unsuspecting exotic animal. This is not sport—it is easy slaughter for a price. Sportsmen do not support this, and neither should we.

Mr. President, imagine this: A black leopard, raised in captivity, is released from a crate in the presence of a paying hunter and is immediately surrounded by a pack of hounds. The cat, virtually defenseless because it has been declared and is greatly outnumbered by the hounds, tries to escape by running under a truck. The hounds follow the leopard who then darts from under the truck slightly ahead of the pack. The customer gets his shot—and his trophy.

Mr. President, in the United States today, there are estimated to be more than 1,000 private hunting ranches where exotic mammals are shot for a fee. Many of these hunting ranches have a land area of 1,000 acres or less—some are less than 100 acres. The animals are tame targets for hunters and the proprietors of these operations
