

suggestions for Lebanon to ameliorate those risks.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of State.

Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, I rise today to submit legislation regarding the ban on the use of United States passports for travel to Lebanon. I, along with my colleagues, Mr. SIMON, Mr. GRAHAM of Florida, and Mr. KENNEDY, cosponsored this resolution with the hope that the passport restriction will eventually be lifted.

The current policy—in effect, a travel ban to Lebanon—has had a negative impact on United States businesses and individuals. Since the restriction on the use of United States passports for travel to Lebanon inordinately affects Americans of Lebanese descent, we are proposing expanding the humanitarian considerations provision to permit those Americans of Lebanese descent to travel to Lebanon. This would ease the concerns of many Lebanese Americans who may want to travel to Lebanon for family reunification purposes, but who presently are unable to do so.

We also advocate creating a new waiver category which would permit travel by United States business personnel who wish to do business in Lebanon. While the reconstruction effort in Lebanon is progressing at a fast pace, United States businesses are hindered from participating in this rebuilding effort due to the travel restrictions. United States businesses cannot compete with foreign companies with representation in and free access to Lebanon.

While we understand and agree that the safety and security of United States citizens is of paramount concern when reviewing the travel policy, it is also our understanding that more than 45,000 Americans are estimated to have traveled without incident to Lebanon during the past 4 years. That being the case, the current restrictions appear to be inconsistent with the situation on the ground. In addition, we note that other countries equally and, in some cases, more unstable than Lebanon are not subject to similar travel constraints.

In view of these considerations, and taking into account the overall improvement in circumstances inside Lebanon, we urge the Secretary of State to lift the passport restriction for Lebanon and issue in its place a travel advisory. Such a step would make clear any risks and dangers associated with travel to Lebanon, and at the same time enable United States citizens to make their own informed decisions.

Mr. President, I hope that this resolution will be incorporated into the next review process of the travel restrictions to Lebanon, and that in February 1996, the Department of State will implement the suggestions encompassed in this resolution.

For

the purposes of this title of this joint resolution the minimal level means a rate for operations that is reduced from the current rate by 25 percent.

SEC. 212. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title of this joint resolution, except section 206, whenever the rate for operations for any continuing project or activity provided by section 201 or section 211 for which there is a budget request would result in a furlough of Government employees, that rate for operations may be increased to the minimum level that would enable the furlough to be avoided. No new contracts or grants shall be awarded in excess of an amount that bears the same ratio to the rate for operations provided by this section as the number of days covered by this resolution bears to 366.

SEC. 213. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title of this joint resolution, except sections 206, 211, and 212, for those programs that had high initial rates of operation or complete distribution of funding at the beginning of the fiscal year in fiscal year 1995 because of distributions of funding to States, foreign countries, grantees, or others, similar distributions of funds for fiscal year 1996 shall not be made and no grants shall be awarded for such programs funded by this title of this resolution that would impinge on final funding prerogatives.

SEC. 214. This title of this joint resolution shall be implemented so that only the most limited funding action of that permitted in this title of this resolution shall be taken in order to provide for continuation of projects and activities.

SEC. 215. The provisions of section 132 of the District of Columbia Appropriations Act, 1988, Public Law 100-202, shall not apply for this title of this joint resolution.

SEC. 216. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title of this joint resolution, except section 206, none of the funds appropriated under this title of this joint resolution shall be used to implement or enforce any system of registration of unmarried, cohabiting couples whether they are homosexual, lesbian, heterosexual, including but not limited to registration for the purpose of extending employment, health, or governmental benefits to such couples on the same basis that such benefits are extended to legally married couples; nor shall any funds made available pursuant to any provision of this title of this joint resolution otherwise be used to implement or enforce D.C. START II TREATY RESOLUTION OF RATIFICATION

LUGAR (AND PELL) AMENDMENT NO. 3111

Mr. LUGAR (for himself and Mr. PELL) proposed an amendment to the resolution of ratification to Treaty Document No. 103-1; as follows:

In section 1(b)(2) of the resolution of ratification, insert “(A)” after “START II Treaty”.

In section 1(b)(2), before the period at the end, insert “, and (B) changes none of the rights of either Party with respect to the provisions of the ABM Treaty, in particular, Articles 13, 14, and 15”.

At the end of section 1(b) of the resolution of ratification, add the following new condition:

(7) IMPLEMENTATION ARRANGEMENTS.—(A) The START II Treaty shall not be binding on the United States until such time as the Duma of the Russian Federation has acted pursuant to its constitutional responsibilities and the START II Treaty enters into force in accordance with Article VI of the Treaty.

(B) If the START II Treaty does not enter into force pursuant to subparagraph (A), and if the President plans to implement reductions of United States strategic nuclear forces below those currently planned and consistent with the START Treaty, then the President shall—

(i) consult with the Senate regarding the effect of such reductions on the national security of the United States; and

(ii) take no action to reduce United States strategic nuclear forces below that currently planned and consistent with the START Treaty until he submits to the Senate his determination that such reductions are in the national security interest of the United States.

In section 1(c)(2) of the resolution of ratification, insert “(A)” immediately after “REDUCTIONS.”.

At the end of section 1(c)(2), insert the following:

(B) Recognizing that instability could result from an imbalance in the levels of strategic offensive arms, the Senate calls upon the President to submit a report in unclassified form to the Committees on Foreign Relations and Armed Services of the Senate not later than January 31 of each year beginning with January 31, 1997, and continuing through such time as the reductions called for in the START II Treaty are completed by both parties, which report will provide—

(i) details on the progress of each party's reductions in strategic offensive arms during the previous year;

(ii) a certification that the Russian Federation is in compliance with the terms of the START II Treaty or specifies any act of noncompliance by the Russian Federation; and

(iii) an assessment of whether a strategic imbalance endangering the national security interests of the United States exists.

In section 1(c)(4) of the resolution of ratification—

(1) strike “the parties” and all that follows through “national security interests” and insert “the President to seek further strategic offensive arms reductions to the extent consistent with United States national security interests”; and

(2) strike “it is the sense of the Senate that” and insert in “and”.

At the end of section 1(c) of the resolution of ratification, add the following new declarations:

(8) COMPLIANCE.—Concerned by the clear past pattern of Soviet noncompliance with arms control agreements and continued cases of noncompliance by the Russian Federation, the Senate declares that—

(A) the START II Treaty is in the interests of the United States only if both the United States and the Russian Federation are in strict compliance with the terms of the Treaty as presented to the Senate for its advice and consent to ratification, such compliance being measured by performance and not by efforts, intentions, or commitments to comply;

(B) the Senate expects the Russian Federation to be in strict compliance with its obligations under the terms of the START II Treaty as presented to the Senate for its advice and consent to ratification; and

(C) given its concern about compliance issues, the Senate expects the Administration to offer regular briefings, but not less than four times per year, to the Committees on Foreign Relations and Armed Services on compliance issues related to the START II Treaty. Such briefings shall include a description of all U.S. efforts in U.S./Russian diplomatic channels and bilateral fora to resolve the compliance issues and shall include, but would not necessarily be limited to, the following:

(i) Any compliance issues the United States plans to raise with the Russian Federation at the Bilateral Implementation Commission, in advance of such meetings;

(ii) Any compliance issues raised at the Bilateral Implementation Commission, within thirty days of such meetings; and

(iii) Any Presidential determination that the Russian Federation is in non-compliance with or is otherwise acting in a manner inconsistent with the object and purpose of the START II Treaty, within thirty days of such a determination, in which case the President shall also submit a written report, with an unclassified summary, explaining why it is in the national security interests of the United States to continue as a party to the START II Treaty.

At the end of section 1(c) of the resolution of ratification, add the following new declaration:

(8) SUBMISSION OF FUTURE AGREEMENTS AS TREATIES.—The Senate declares that following Senate advice and consent to ratification of the START II Treaty, any agreement or understanding which in any material way
