

accepted your assurances of a lack of any relationship between your company and this individual and expressed regret for any inaccuracies regarding this matter in the statement of First Deputy Minister Yegorov.

You have requested that these letters be made a part of the printed record of the Subcommittee's proceedings. Under normal circumstances, the Subcommittee would be happy to accommodate such a request; however, by the time the Subcommittee received your letter, the hearing record was already in the process of being printed. Although the Subcommittee is thus unable to include this information in the printed record, I have directed that it be included in the official exhibits to the hearing. As such the information will become part of the permanent records of the Subcommittee with respect to these proceedings. I will also request that your material be reprinted in the Congressional Record.

I thank you for bringing this matter to the attention of the Subcommittee.

Sincerely,

SAM NUNN.

NORDEX,

Vienna, Austria; Dec. 2, 1994.

Subject: hearing of the Committee on May 25, 1994, Testimony of Mr. Mikhail Yegorov, First Deputy Minister and Head of the Organized Crime Control Department, Russian Ministry of Internal Affairs.

Hon. Senator SAM NUNN,
Chairman, Committee on Governmental Affairs,
Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations,
Capitol Hill, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR NUNN, In subject Testimony the Russian Deputy Minister stated:

"Vokov's brother Umar is the President of the Austrian company Nordex, located in Vienna, and also suspected of underground business."

This statement of Minister Yegorov went on the Congressional files, and had probably also been picked up by various agencies of the Government of the United States of America.

We were very concerned about this statement and its implications, since neither Vokov nor his brother Umar are or were shareholders, directors, or employees of our company or any of their associated companies. We have, therefore, taken up this matter with the Russian Ministry of Internal Affairs and enclosed herewith is a copy of their letter, dated November 9, 1994, together with a translation thereof, which I believe clarifies the position.

Nordex G.m.b.H. is a very big Trading house based in Vienna and has no connections whatsoever to organized crime or any other illegal activities.

It is, therefore, essential that the correction and expression of regret contained in the a/m letter of the Russian Ministry of Internal Affairs, dated November 9, 1994, be entered into the public record of your Committee and also passed on to the various governmental organizations, so that the reputation of Nordex G.m.b.H. and its associates, is cleared.

May we ask you to kindly confirm the receipt of this letter and for your consent to take the requested steps. If you require any further information, please feel free to contact us.

We remain, Sir,

Sincerely yours,

G. LOUTCHANSKY,
President.

MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS
OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION,
City Moscow, November 9, 1994.

To Dr. GABRIEL LANSKY,
Lawyer,
Vienna, Austria.

DEAR MR. LANSKY, The Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Russian Federation has examined your letter of August 29, 1994, and subsequent letters, concerning the speech of the First Deputy Minister of Internal Affairs, M. Egorov, on May 25, 1994, in the course of open hearings of the Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations of the USA Senate on the question of organized crime in the republics of the former USSR.

The quotation in your letter has been taken from M. Egorov's written thesis, which was handed to the organizers of the hearings, and not from the transcript of proceedings of his speech in the Subcommittee.

Having received your assurances that Umar Bokov is neither an employee, nor a manager, nor a shareholder of either the "Nordex GmbH" company or of any of its branches, representative offices or joint ventures, one could state with regret, that an inaccuracy occurred in the quotation, which was caused by two circumstances.

Firstly, in the course of the investigation of the criminal case in connection with the murder of a militiaman, Umar Bokov, while given evidence, stated his place of work as the firm "Nordex", situated in Vienna, and also presented himself as its president. The preliminary examination proved the existence of a firm with the given name in Vienna and the fact that U. Bokov used to leave for Austria on commercial business trips. There was no need to prove U. Bokov's place of work because he was merely a witness in that case.

Secondly, at the stage of translation or typing of M. Egorov's thesis, the important word in this context, "likely" (also given in English in the text), which applied to the phrase that U. Bokov is the president of the Austrian company "Nordex", was omitted.

Expressing regret concerning the inaccuracy, we declare that the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Russia had no basis for, or intention of, connecting the "Nordex GmbH" company and its actual President, G. Loutchansky, with the underground business in general or, in particular, with international drug trafficking.

The quotation stated in your letter applies exclusively to Umar Bokov.

Yours faithfully,

V.P. GORTCHAKOV.

RULES OF THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

Mr. HELMS. Madam President, pursuant to the requirements of paragraph 2 of Senate rule XXVI, I ask to have printed in the RECORD the rules of the Committee on Foreign Relations for the 104th Congress adopted by the committee on January 11, 1995.

There being no objection, the rules were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

RULES OF THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

(Adopted January 11, 1995)

RULE 1—JURISDICTION

(a) Substantive.—In accordance with Senate Rule XXV.1(j), the jurisdiction of the Committee shall extend to all proposed legislation, messages, petitions, memorials, and other matters relating to the following subjects:

1. Acquisition of land and buildings for embassies and legations in foreign countries.
2. Boundaries of the United States.
3. Diplomatic service.
4. Foreign economic, military, technical, and humanitarian assistance.
5. Foreign loans.
6. International activities of the American National Red Cross and the International Committee of the Red Cross.
7. International aspects of nuclear energy, including nuclear transfer policy.
8. International conferences and congresses.
9. International law as it relates to foreign policy.
10. International Monetary Fund and other international organizations established primarily for international monetary purposes (except that, at the request of the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, any proposed legislation relating to such subjects reported by the Committee on Foreign Relations shall be referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs).
11. Intervention abroad and declarations of war.
12. Measures to foster commercial intercourse with foreign nations and to safeguard American business interests abroad.
13. National security and international aspects of trusteeships of the United States.
14. Ocean and international environmental and scientific affairs as they relate to foreign policy.
15. Protection of United States citizens abroad and expatriation.
16. Relations of the United States with foreign nations generally.

17. Treaties and executive agreements, except reciprocal trade agreements.

18. United Nations and its affiliated organizations.

19. World Bank group, the regional development banks, and other international organizations established primarily for development assistance purposes.

The Committee is also mandated by Senate Rule XXV.1(j) to study and review, on a comprehensive basis, matters relating to the national security policy, foreign policy, and international economic policy as it relates to foreign policy of the United States, and matters relating to food, hunger, and nutrition in foreign countries, and report thereon from time to time.

(b) Oversight.—The Committee also has a responsibility under Senate Rule XXVI.8, which provides that “* * * each standing Committee * * * shall review and study, on a continuing basis, the application, administration, and execution of those laws or parts of laws, the subject matter of which is within the jurisdiction of the Committee.”

(c) “Advice and Consent” Clauses.—The Committee has a special responsibility to assist the Senate in its constitutional function of providing “advice and consent” to all treaties entered into by the United States and all nominations to the principal executive branch positions in the field of foreign policy and diplomacy.

RULE 2—SUBCOMMITTEES

(a) Creation.—Unless otherwise authorized by law or Senate resolution, subcommittees shall be created by majority vote of the Committee and shall deal with such legislation and oversight of programs and policies as the Committee directs. Legislative measures or other matters may be referred to a subcommittee for consideration in the discretion of the Chairman or by vote of a majority of the Committee. If the principal subject matter of a measure or matter to be referred falls within the jurisdiction of more than one subcommittee, the Chairman or the Committee may refer the matter to two or more subcommittees for joint consideration.

(b) Assignments.—Assignments of members to subcommittees shall be made in an equitable fashion. No member of the Committee may receive assignment to a second subcommittee until, in order of seniority, all members of the Committee have chosen assignments to one subcommittee, and no member shall receive assignments to a third subcommittee until, in order of seniority, all members have chosen assignments to two subcommittees.

No member of the Committee may serve on more than four subcommittees at any one time.

The Chairman and Ranking Minority Member of the Committee shall be ex officio members, without vote, of each subcommittee.

(c) Meetings.—Except when funds have been specifically made available by the Senate for a subcommittee purpose, no subcommittee of the Committee on Foreign Relations shall hold hearings involving expenses without prior approval of the Chairman of the full Committee or by decision of the full Committee. Meetings of subcommittees shall be scheduled after consultation with the Chairman of the Committee with a view toward avoiding conflicts with meetings of other subcommittees insofar as possible. Meetings of subcommittees shall not be scheduled to conflict with meetings of the full Committee.

The proceedings of each subcommittee shall be governed by the rules of the full Committee, subject to such authorizations
