

league during its 75th anniversary celebration.

As we all know, the League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization with 1,100 chapters and over 150,000 members and supporters around the country. Open to both women and men, the league encourages the informed and active participation of citizens in Government through education, advocacy, and organization at the local, State, and national levels.

I know how important the league is for America. I have seen how their grassroots efforts helped pass legislation such as the 1993 National Voter Registration Act, the historic motor-voter bill, which is making it easier for more Americans to register to vote and perform one of the essential acts in a democracy. Helping to enfranchise millions of Americans is a fundamental effort to strengthen the fabric of our country.

In addition, the league has launched national campaigns such as the 1992 Take Back the System Program that actively sought to increase voter confidence and involvement in the electoral system. And as we all know, the league is active at the State and local level in educating voters and getting people involved in Government.

On many occasions, I have been proud to work with league, join in their nonpartisan debates, and participate in their events in West Virginia and Washington to debate the issues.

As we think about our country and the future, I believe that Americans need organizations like the League of Women Voters more than ever to help develop the links and communication between people and public servants that are so essential for our government to be responsive and effective. The league and its members deserve our deep appreciation for their steadfast commitment to educating voters in a nonpartisan way about the tough choices and issues that we all must face and should try to resolve together.

WILLIAM LACKMAN

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I cannot allow the passing of an American whose unsung contributions over 44 years have served to enhance, in ways that cannot be measured, the national security and well-being of this country. I speak of Bill Lackman.

The name Bill Lackman is not known to the American public. But in the intelligence community, his is a household name. I know Bill only from his many trips to the Senate Intelligence Committee to testify on the complex and necessary business of intelligence programs and budget. If I were asked to select one word which would best describe Bill, it would be a professional—in the finest sense of the word. Bill knew his business better than anyone and he was an articulate spokesman. It goes without saying that his wife Anne and his family will miss him. It will also go without commentary that the intelligence community and his country will miss him.

At this point, I can think of no greater tribute to Bill than to recount his career and contributions to his country.

Bill graduated from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, NY, in 1951 and served in the U.S. Army from 1951 to 1973, rising to the rank of colonel in the Infantry. During his military career, he served combat tours in Korea and Vietnam. He served as assistant professor of Russian history at the U.S. Military Academy, and he also served as assistant professor of international relations at the U.S. Air Force Academy. His military decorations include the Silver Star, three awards of the Legion of Merit, four Bronze Stars, the Army and Air Force commendation medals, two Purple Hearts, and two awards of the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

In 1976, Bill joined the intelligence community staff and rose to become the principal spokesman for the entire national intelligence community budget. In 1986, he became deputy director of the intelligence community staff. For this service and his many contributions, Bill was awarded the National Intelligence Distinguished Service Medal in January 1993.

Bill was appointed the first Director of the Central Imagery Office by Secretary of Defense Cheney on May 22, 1992, where he pioneered many management innovations in the provision of imagery to national defense.

Bill gave unselfishly to a country he loved. His contributions can never be adequately repaid. He shall be missed.

ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1995

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today it stand in adjournment until the hour of 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, February 22, 1995, that following the prayer, the journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date, no resolutions come over under the rule, the call of the calendar be dispensed with, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, and the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day; and immediately following the prayer, the Senator from Wyoming, Senator THOMAS, be recognized to read Washington's Farewell Address pursuant to the consent agreement of January 20, 1995. I further ask that immediately following the conclusion of the reading, the Senate immediately resume consideration of House Joint Resolution 1, the Constitutional Balanced Budget Amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT AGREEMENT

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I further ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in recess between the hours of 12:30 and 2:15 p.m. on Wednesday in order for the weekly party caucuses to meet.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, let me thank the distinguished Democratic leader. I think we worked out an arrangement that will be accommodating to many of the desires of our Members on both sides of the aisle with reference to amendments and the scheduling problems that we have on both sides of the aisle, in some cases.

I would just state for the information of all of my colleagues, under the provisions of the agreement reached earlier, any Senator intending to offer an amendment or motion from the list must do so by 12 noon on Wednesday; also, Senators should be aware that although no further amendments will be in order after 3 p.m. on Friday, February 24, it is my intention not to have any rollcall votes on Friday, February 24th, or Monday, February 27th.

It will be my intention to stack votes ordered on Friday, February 24, to occur at 2:15 on Tuesday—it will be Friday or Monday—to occur at 2:15 on Tuesday prior to the vote on final disposition of the constitutional amendment for a balanced budget.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I also want to commend the majority leader for cooperation over the last several hours as we have negotiated this agreement. It is a fair agreement. It gives Senators an opportunity to present their amendments.

We have two days with which to present these amendments, and I hope Senators will avail themselves of the opportunities. We will have rollcall votes throughout those two days and certainly on Tuesday. So I hope that we can maximize the use of this time, and I am sure that all Senators will take advantage of the opportunity that this accords it.

I think it is a good agreement and I hope we can get to work on Wednesday.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, again, I thank the democratic leaders and all others on both sides of the aisle who have been involved in working on the agreement.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10:30 A.M., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1995

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, if there be no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent the Senate stand in adjournment until 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, February 22nd, under the provisions of H. Con. Res. 30.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:07 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, February 22, 1995, at 10:30 a.m.
