BUDGET SCOREKEEPING REPORT

• Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I hereby submit to the Senate the budget scorekeeping report prepared by the Congressional Budget Office under section 308(b) and in aid of section 311 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended. This report meets the requirements for Senate scorekeeping of section 5 of Senate Concurrent Resolution 32, the first concurrent resolution on the budget for 1986.

This report shows the effects of congressional action on the budget through April 7, 1995. The estimates of budget authority, outlays, and revenues, which are consistent with the technical and economic assumptions of the concurrent resolution on the budget (H. Con. Res. 218), show that current level spending is below the budget resolution by $5.6 billion in budget authority and $1.4 billion in outlays. Current level is $0.5 billion over the revenue floor in 1995 and below by $9.5 billion over the 5 years 1995-99. The current estimate of the deficit for purposes of calculating the maximum deficit amount is $238.0 billion, $3.1 billion below the maximum deficit amount for 1995 of $241.0 billion.

Since my last report, dated March 27, 1995, the Congress has cleared, and the President has signed, the 1995 Emergency Supplementals and Rescissions Act, Public Law 104-6 and the Self-Employed Health Insurance Act, Public Law 104-7. These actions changed the current level of budget authority, outlays and revenues.

The report follows:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, April 24, 1995.

Hon. PETE DOMENICI,
Chairman, Committee on the Budget, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The attached report for fiscal year 1995 shows the effects of Congressional action on the 1995 budget and is current through April 7, 1995. This report is submitted under Section 308(b) and in aid of Section 311 of the Congressional Budget Act, as amended, and meets the requirements of Senate scorekeeping of Section 5 of S. Con. L. 104-6) and the Self-Employed Health Insurance Act (Pub. L. 104-7). These actions changed the current level of budget authority, outlays and revenues.

Sincerely,

JUNE E. O'NEILL.

TRIBUTE TO 1995 HUTCHISON BROWARD SENIOR HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

• Mr. GRAHAM. Mr. President, I am delighted to recognize and congratulate a group of exemplary citizens upon their induction into the 1995 Dr. Nan S. Hutchison Broward Senior Hall of Fame. These 11 volunteers have shown enduring commitment to the community and have brought about positive change through their selfless concern for and dedication to helping others.

It gives me great pleasure to salute each of the 1995 inductees for their laudable accomplishments:

Elaine Appel has been a guardian angel and savior for numerous abused, neglected, and mentally and physically challenged children. With limitless energy, Ms. Appel has given hope to some of those most in need of a loving care giver.

Bernard Bernhardt has worked diligently to empower visually impaired citizens so that they might lead productive and independent lives. By also visiting many clients' homes, Mr. Bernhardt has brought assistance to some who might otherwise not have been able to benefit from his caring efforts.

Norman Birger is a dynamic volunteer with loyal devotion to the Southeast Focal Point Senior Center. Placing concern for the center before concern for himself, Mr. Birger has worked tirelessly to keep the center a vibrant resource for its members.

Constance Caloggero has displayed commendable concern for a wide variety of causes. Her commitment to seniors, women, children, and the infirm—while at the same time serving as Hillsboro Beach Commissioner—enables her to enjoy her work 7 days a week.

Oscar Davis has worked on diverse causes and is an example of limitless energy and devotion. From collecting and distributing food for the Salvation Army, to picking up visually impaired citizens so they may attend his talking-book club, to organizing health fairs and blood drives, Mr. Davis works vigorously in helping others.

Irving Friedman has used his caring nature and fine leadership abilities to help numerous seniors enjoy a better quality of life. By making support groups and counseling services available, by arranging for transportation to medical facilities, and by visiting seniors in hospitals and nursing homes, Mr. Friedman is a friend for those most in need of one.

Dr. Shirley Schaffer Kaufman has donated her professional skills for providing psychiatric and bereavement counseling to seniors and for improving their self-confidence. Dr. Kaufman's distinguishable fund-raising and leadership abilities in aiding the Area Agency on Aging have further assisted countless seniors.

Eleanor Locascio has volunteered numerous hours to bringing care to numerous seniors. In using her personal and professional skills to evaluate infirm elderly in their homes, to instruct seniors in the AARP 55/Alive Mature Driving Course, and to protect wildlife and nature at Flamingo Gardens, Mrs. Locascio has shown a distinct concern for others and for the environment.

Juanita C. Phillips has worked diligently to bring children's and minority concerns to the forefront. Her endeavors with several children's organizations, as well as with the Democratic Black Caucus of Broward County, demonstrate her excellent leadership skills and commitment to helping others.

Edward Pudaloff has immersed himself into the plight of abused and neglected children. As the founder of HANDY—Helping Abused Neglected Dependent Youth—Mr. Pudaloff provides scholarships and such necessities as clothing, glasses, and medication to needy youths. He has further assisted children in working as a guardian angel and speaking for them in the courts.

Sybil Scheinman has translated her gift of and love for the theatre into fund-raising assistance for several charitable organizations. Ms. Scheinman's passion is performing, but she is just as enthusiastic helping at the ticket window or backstage—so long as she knows she is bringing happiness to others.

Florida and the residents of Broward County alike are fortunate to have been heir to the fine endeavors of these 11 vibrant, caring seniors who have bettered the community and served as an inspiration to others.●

ALABAMA BUSINESS CONNECTIONS 1995

• Mr. SHELBY. Mr. President, on June 27-29, more than 5,000 individuals and businesses will gather in Birmingham for Alabama Business Connections '95. This event is the Alabama Minority Supplier Development Council's largest and most important of the year. It represents an opportunity for suppliers and purchasing personnel from majority and government organizations to network and exchange information.

This important event also gives suppliers and purchasers the chance to develop mutually beneficial business opportunities. During the past 12 years, the Alabama Minority Supplier Development Council has represented a unique partnership of buyers and suppliers, serving as an important resource for identifying certified minority suppliers as well as a clearinghouse for business development news and purchasing information.

Mr. President, the members of the Alabama Minority Supplier Development Council acknowledge that suppliers can provide quality goods and services. The board of directors, membership and staff are committed to promoting economic development opportunities for minority businesses, and I am proud to recognize them here in the Senate for all of their important work. I wish them the best for a successful event in June and congratulate them on more than a decade of service to the members of Alabama's business community.●

TRIBUTE TO GINGER ADAMS

• Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, today I rise to mourn the death and celebrate the life of Ms. Ginger Adams, whose life was cut tragically short at 20 after an automobile accident in western Kentucky.

Ginger Adams of Murray, KY, was an inspiration to all those who knew her. An honor student at Murray State University, Ms. Adams was also a popular campus leader and accomplished athlete.

Her love of athletics led her to join the nationally recognized Murray State cheerleading squad. Late last month, the squad accompanied the school's basketball team to its appearance in the NCAA Tournament in Tallahassee, FL. Returning home from the game, the van carrying Ginger and 12 other cheerleaders overturned on the highway injuring all aboard and, tragically, taking Ginger's life after a 2-week struggle in a Nashville hospital.

In his touching eulogy, Murray State University President Kern Alexander said of Ginger, "We know she was a grand achiever and student leader, cheerleader, superb athlete and outstanding student, but the supreme
