

areas of their deployment, AAI observers visited over 250 polling places nationwide.

AAI found that the elections were held under a cloud of uncertainty and substantial logistical difficulty caused by a lack of adequate infrastructure, minimal election experience and training, and the displacement of sectors of the population due to hostile military actions on or just prior to the date of the elections. This situation often led to the late opening and numerical overtaxing of many polling stations and, in some areas, disruption of the vote and count. Still, in the majority of the areas observed by AAI delegates, the vote went forward in a procedurally correct manner, with materials provided and correctly utilized. Polling station officials, political party representatives and domestic observers, in most cases, were adequately prepared and conducted their duties in an exemplary manner. In the areas of the country observed by AAI delegates, the difficulties cited above were overcome by the fierce determination of an overwhelming majority of the population to hold the elections on schedule, even in the face of serious attempts to obstruct and disrupt the process.

Despite these administrative inadequacies and certain instances of violence and intimidation in Freetown, as well as deadly conflicts between citizens and those seeking to disrupt the election in Bo and Kenema, the electoral process was largely peaceful and free of threats and confrontations. Voting took place in an orderly fashion in most polling stations. There was little evidence of fraud or irregularity.

The AAI delegation wishes to salute the people of Sierra Leone for their strong commitment to democratic practices and their determination to hold elections on schedule. This unflinching commitment to democratic values and procedures, as well as the courage that the citizens demonstrated in the face of great danger, augurs well for the future of democracy in this country.

The AAI delegation also wishes to congratulate the Chairman of the Interim National Electoral Commission, Dr. James Jonah, and his colleagues for their impartiality and inspiring and tenacious leadership under difficult conditions.

Finally, the AAI delegation thanks the people of Sierra Leone for their hospitality and warm welcome.

On March 29, 1996, Ahmad Tejan Kabbah of the Sierra Leone People's Party was sworn in as the President of the Republic of Sierra Leone. This peaceful transition of power from a military regime to a freely elected civilian government is a tremendous step onto the road to democracy, and I think will have a very positive effect on some of Sierra Leone's authoritarian neighbors.

In fact, just last week, when United States citizens located in the neighboring country of Liberia were threatened by the ongoing violence in that country, the Government of Sierra Leone allowed the United States to use their airport to help with the evacuation of Americans and other internationals from the Liberian capital city of Monrovia. For this, we are very grateful, and thank the new Government of Sierra Leone for their cooperation and assistance.

Also deserving special recognition are all of the United States citizens living in Sierra Leone, especially the people who work at the United States Embassy in Freetown led by Ambassador John Hirsch, a very dynamic individual who has given so much of himself to help the people of Sierra Leone.

It seems that we hear so much bad news from Africa—it's good to be able to emphasize the good news when it comes along.

With that in mind, I hope that all of my colleagues in the House and Senate will join us in congratulating the people of the Republic of Sierra Leone by helping to pass this resolution.

RIVER RIDGE (FL) HIGH SCHOOL'S MOCK STATE LEGISLATURE

HON. PETER T. KING

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 15, 1996

Mr. KING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to include in the RECORD an article from the Tampa Tribune which describes River Ridge (FL) High School's mock State legislature and what its student participants learned about the legislative process. Of special interest are the reflections of Kevin Miller, "Speaker of the House."

STUDENTS FIND LEGISLATOR SEAT NO EASY
CHAIR

(By Tiffany Anderson)

NEW PORT RICHEY.—For at least a few hours, seniors became senators.

The 12th-grade class at River Ridge High School got a chance to play politics by participating Friday in the school's mock state legislative session.

To earn class credit in American government, more than 328 students served as state representatives and senators and sat on committees.

The bills they wrote won't ever make it outside the school's auditorium. But that didn't keep most seniors from taking the event any less seriously.

"People told me that I would run everything," said Kevin Miller, 18-year-old speaker of the "House." "In a way, that's true. I just didn't realize how much power Newt Gingrich has. If he doesn't like someone he can make it really hard for people."

State Rep. Mike Fasano spoke to the seniors on the first day of the two-day event. Later, students spent hours heatedly debating dozens of issues from abortion education to education reform.

By Friday, the make-believe legislators had learned that life in the Capitol isn't easy and that getting a law passed is even harder.

More than 275 bills were discussed in committee. Only 40 were heard on the House and Senate floor.

Students proposed such legislation as:

The Dumb Teachers Act, requiring instructors to be recertified every year.

Mandating that school administrators keep toilet paper and soap in the bathroom or be subject to fines plus tar and feathering.

Increasing the speed limit on state highways to 85 miles per hour.

Ultimately, only five bills became "law," making it more difficult to use lottery money to supplement school funding; allowing a vehicle's tinted windows to be as dark as the driver wanted; permitting students to work as many hours a week as they wanted as long as they maintained a "C" average; requiring boating licenses for those 14 and older; and making it easier to get an "A" at River Ridge, but abolishing extra points for attendance.

The mock legislative session has been staged for the past four years, said teacher Tom Fleming.

"It's better if they live the legislative process," he said.

Students agreed.

"Even though they're not real laws, you still learn a lot," said Gena Deluigi, 18. "It's just good to see how a bill gets passed. Now, I can look at a bill and even though it may already exist, I can see why this or that wasn't included in it . . . because it could have come up in our session, too."

HAPPY 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY TO MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM QUESENBERRY

HON. CHRISTOPHER COX

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 15, 1996

Mr. COX of California. Mr. Speaker, today I rise in celebration of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Quesenberry of Coral Gables, FL.

Bill, a graduate of Shenandoah Junior High and Miami Senior High, first met Mary Belle Gardner when she was a wintertime resident of Miami Beach. Bill courted Mary Belle throughout high school and his days at the University of the South at Sewanee, TN. On April 13, 1946, Bill and Mary Belle were married on a beautiful, sunny day in Nashville, TN.

After college, Bill flew in World War II as a naval aviator. Upon returning from the war, Bill followed his father's footsteps into the wholesale grocery business. As a wholesale grocer, Bill provided consumers with a wide variety of products and competitive retail prices.

Bill and Mary Belle share a joy of traveling that has led them across the globe. Their sense of adventure has taken them to the frozen land of Antarctica, a far cry from their home in sunny Coral Gables, and even beneath the surface of the sea itself—Bill and Mary Belle are accomplished scuba drivers and snorkelers.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of their children and grandchildren as well as their many friends, I wish Bill and Mary Belle a happy golden wedding anniversary in the hopes of many more to come.

CONGRATULATIONS TO RED BANK CATHOLIC

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 15, 1996

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the Red Bank Catholic Women's Basketball Team for winning the New Jersey State High School Basketball Championship.

Back in the Sixth Congressional District, these young women have provided their fans and myself with much excitement and sense of pride. From reaching the finals of the Shore Conference Tournament to winning the State Championship at the Meadowlands, Red Bank Catholic has demonstrated its commitment to excellence.

Throughout the year, Red Bank Catholic has stressed the importance of team unity as a major component of victory. This approach to the season, in addition to its dedication and hard work, provided the team with the necessary drive to become the best high school basketball team in the State of New Jersey.

In addition to the athletic abilities possessed by this team, the players of Red Bank Catholic must be saluted for their academic excellence. On and off the court, these student athletes have maintained athletic prowess and academic integrity in light of intense pressure.

Once again I would like to salute these young women for capturing the high school basketball championship and wish them the best of luck in their future endeavors.

TRIBUTE TO HELEN MINETA

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 15, 1996

Mr. FARR of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to acknowledge a woman who exemplifies the very best of the American spirit. Helen Mineta, a teacher of politics and government for more than 30 years, a friend, and an active member of the community, died March 18th in San Jose, CA. She was 77. The daughter of immigrant Japanese parents, Ms. Mineta persevered throughout her life against racism, overcoming numerous barriers. She bettered the lives of those with whom she came in contact in countless ways, as a teacher and as an advocate for Japanese-American rights.

Helen Mineta graduated from San Jose State College in 1938 with dreams of becoming a teacher, but was told by her professors that no one would hire a Japanese person. Undaunted, she worked in the speech and drama department at San Jose State while studying commerce. She remained at San Jose State until the onset of World War II and the attack on Pearl Harbor caused Americans to lash out at Japanese-Americans. As a result of both racism and fear, Ms. Mineta and many other Japanese-Americans were placed in internment camps.

Helen Mineta and her family were interned first at the Santa Anita Racetrack and then the Heart Mountain camp in Wyoming. Despite these hardships, Ms. Mineta managed to get out of the internment camp by obtaining a position as an executive secretary in a Chicago chemical corporation. Although forced to leave her family behind, she did not forget them. Ms. Mineta helped to educate her brother, Norman, who was without a school in the internment camp, by sending him books and questions to answer concerning them. Her hard work and tutelage reaped great benefits, for Norman was later to become our friend, the former congressman from San Jose.

In the years after the war Ms. Mineta worked for her brother-in-law at the Japanese American Citizens League in Washington, D.C., fighting to help others deal with the same racism that had assailed her. She went on to receive another bachelor's degree from the University of California at Berkeley, and finally realized her goal of teaching at San Jose High School in 1958. But again tragedy struck as Ms. Mineta was about to receive a much dreamed about position at the United Nations. Her mother died in 1956 and she returned home to help her father.

Helen Mineta remained actively involved in the community throughout her life, giving lectures on the racism she confronted and overcame during World War II and throughout her life. She was also instrumental in the fight to build the San Jose Center for the Performing Arts, bringing a valuable resource to the community. Her accomplishments were acknowledged by the University of California Alumni Club.

In the end, though, many remember Helen Mineta as a dear friend who had a zest for life. She remained active and cheerful throughout her life despite the obstacles. She will be sorely missed. Ms. Mineta is survived by two sisters, Etsu M. Masaoka of Chevy Chase, MD and Aya Endo of Medford, NJ; two brothers, Albert Mineta of San Jose, and Norman Mineta of Alexandria, VA, and three nieces and four nephews. To them we send our deepest condolences.

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE MARINE COL. ROBERT OVERMYER

HON. SHERROD BROWN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 15, 1996

Mr. BROWN of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak of a tragic loss that the people of the 13th District of Ohio, and the entire Nation, recently suffered.

Marine Col. Robert Overmyer, born in Lorain, OH, died last month while bravely working as a test pilot. The prototype plane he was flying lost control and crashed before he could eject. His sacrifice, made while insuring the safety of others, will not be forgotten.

Colonel Overmyer was a true American hero and served his country with great pride for almost 40 years, both as a Marine and a celebrated astronaut. He worked on the Air Force Manned Orbiting Laboratory Program, served as a NASA astronaut on the Apollo 17 mission, and more recently commanded the 1985 Space Shuttle Challenger mission.

Colonel Overmyer grew up Westlake, OH, near Cleveland Hopkins Airport. His love of flying was born while watching planes take off and land at that airport. He never forgot his roots in Ohio, and always found the time to give back to his childhood community. He returned several times to speak to students and adults about the role of the military and future of the American space program.

Colonel Overmyer will be remembered not only by his family and friends, but by all Americans for his dedicated service to our country. I thank you, Colonel Overmyer, for giving the most while you were with us. You will be missed.

MEDICARE BENEFICIARY PROTECTION AMENDMENTS—H.R. 1707

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 16, 1996

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, last May, I introduced legislation designed to ensure that Medicare beneficiaries have access to quality care and fair treatment by their HMO's and managed care plans. Today, I reiterate the need for Medicare beneficiary protection and urge passage of the needed safeguards that H.R. 1707 provides.

An important issue addressed by this measure is the serious abuse of marketing practices by HMO's. Abuses by sales agents are especially prevalent in geographic areas where people have little experience with managed care. The commission system in which many HMO agents work is an inappropriate financial incentive which leads to pressure sales to vulnerable beneficiaries. For example, when Geraldine Dallek of the Center for Health Care Rights provided testimony last year to the Senate Special Committee on Aging, she reported a story of a woman from Los Angeles who was a victim of these practices. The woman, Mrs. B, who has a fifth grade education, received an unsolicited visit from an HMO marketing agent. When Mrs. B refused to sign up for the plan, the representative persuaded her to sign an enrollment form by telling her that it would only be used to verify his visit.

To remedy abusive HMO marketing practices, H.R. 1707 would prohibit door-to-door marketing and allow beneficiaries to enroll via mail. Also, it would limit the percentage of compensation received through commissions and require plans to recover commissions if the beneficiary disenrolled within 90 days.

Most HMO enrollees give up their supplemental or MediGap coverage when they enroll in an HMO. Many fear that if they disenroll from an HMO, no insurance company will sell them a supplemental policy. This is a very serious issue for those who leave their HMO because they are ill and believe the HMO is not providing them adequate care. Under my bill, beneficiaries will be able to secure a supplemental plan after moving out of an HMO. H.R. 1707 requires Medicare-contracting plans and MediGap plans to participate in an open enrollment process. This provision allows for a beneficiary to enroll, disenroll, or change plans during this period without being subject to medical underwriting or preexisting exclusions.

Also, the difficulty beneficiaries have making comparisons among Medicare coverage options would be dealt with by having the Secretary conduct annual open enrollment periods. During this period, Medicare beneficiaries could enroll in traditional Medicare coverage or any additional HMO-managed care options. Differences in plan benefits and costs would be presented in easy, comparative formats. A criticism of managed care plans has been the lack of readily available, understandable and comparable information of plans. This legislation works to correct this by requiring Medicare-contracting plans to provide descriptive information on plan utilization review requirements, plan standards for contracting with providers, provider credentials, and plan physician payment arrangements. This bill would standardize the basic benefit package for Medicare HMO's. Plans could not impose cost sharing other than nominal copayments for Medicare-covered services. Also, limits on additional benefits must be fully explained and enrollees given reasonable notice that benefits are expiring.

Managed care is a system that provides financial incentives to provide less care. A 1989 GAO report concluded that this system that puts providers at financial risk for expensive medical treatment inherently contains incentives to deny or delay needed care. The problem of inconsistent and delayed utilization review practices of managed care plans would be remedied in several ways by H.R. 1707.

First, financial compensation could not be given to individuals performing the UR based upon the number of denials. Second, negative
