

people of Sanilac County within my congressional district have been blessed with such an individual, Mrs. Virginia Carter, who is retiring after 20 years as a member of the Sanilac County Mental Health Board's Recipient Rights Advisory Committee.

People who have benefited from the excellent care provided by Sanilac County Mental Health Services have most assuredly benefited from programs either pioneered by Virginia Carter—supported employment, for example—or thriving because of her devotion to maintaining these important programs.

Not only has Virginia Carter served for 20 years on the recipient rights committee, she has been elected chairperson for 18 of those years, a real testimony to the fact that she is held in high esteem by her colleagues on the committee.

Mental health care can be a particularly trying field. Most people have a more difficult time dealing with the identification and treatment of mental health problems. Signs are not as easily identified as is a cold, nor is treatment as easy as a prescription for several days. Those who deal with the needs for mental health services must be patient, understanding, and resilient. They also need to have the support of understanding people like Virginia Carter who knows the meaning of pursuing quality care.

It has been my privilege and pleasure to know many fine, dedicated people who live in Sanilac County. It is a particular pleasure to join with so many of them who will be honoring her at a special retirement event this Friday evening.

Mr. Speaker, I urge you and all of our colleagues to join me in wishing her the very best.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. STEPHEN HORN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 120, I regret having been unavoidably detained in a meeting with constituents, which prevented me from voting aye in support of House Resolution 316: Deploing individuals who deny the historical reality of the Holocaust and commending the work of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum.

This is particularly ironic since I have spoken out for over two decades about the foolishness and evil of those who deny the Holocaust and the murder of 6 million Jews in Nazi-controlled Europe during the Second World War.

Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

TRIBUTE TO DR. ROBERT E.
HENDERSON

HON. FLOYD SPENCE

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Mr. SPENCE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Dr. Robert E. Henderson, as he retires as President and Director, Chief Executive Officer of the South Carolina Research Authority [SCRA]. The SCRA was established in 1983 as a nonprofit scientific and engineering corporation to address national and international manufacturing issues through the development of new technologies. For the past 12½ years, Dr. Henderson has shaped the SCRA into the dynamic organization that it is today, and South Carolinians are most appreciative of the contributions that he has made to our State and to the Nation.

Under the leadership of Dr. Henderson, nearly one-half billion dollars have been invested, sold, and/or contracted through SCRA research parks and technology management programs. In addition to leading South Carolina to the cutting-edge of technology, the SCRA has become a recognized leader nationally, through SCRA projects, technology, and corporate teams representing activity in almost every State in the Union.

Dr. Henderson has always responded to the call of his country and his community. During World War II, he served as a staff sergeant in the infantry of the U.S. Army, and was awarded the Purple Heart medal. He then received the bachelor of arts degree in physics from Carlton College, as well as the masters of arts degree in physics and the doctor of philosophy degree in physics from the University of Missouri.

Dr. Henderson has distinguished himself in the fields of physics and engineering, and he has published numerous scholarly articles. He has been appointed to the Defense Science Board and the Defense Manufacturing Board, in addition to having served as president of the Indianapolis Scientific and Engineering Foundation, director of the International Solar Energy Society, and a member of the Board of Visitors of Clemson University. He recently received South Carolina's highest recognition, The Order of the Palmetto.

Dr. Henderson has made great contributions to South Carolina and to our country through an outstanding career that has been diverse and exemplary. He is wished much continued success as he moves on to face new challenges and rewards.

TALENTED HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS REPRESENTING OREGON

HON. ELIZABETH FURSE

OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Ms. FURSE. Mr. Speaker, on April 27–April 29, 1996, more than 13,000 students from 50 States and the District of Columbia will be in Washington, DC, to compete in the national finals of the "We the People . . . The Citizen and the Constitution" Program. I am proud to announce that the class from Lincoln High School from Portland will represent Oregon and the First Congressional District. These young scholars have worked diligently to reach the national finals by winning local competitions in their home State.

The distinguished members of the team representing Oregon are: Students: Vasiliki Despina Ariston, Jereme Rain Axelrod, Rebekah Rose Cook, Tawan Wyndelle Davis, David Eyre Easterday, Amanda Hope Emmerson, Tiffany Ann Grosvenor, William John Hawkins IV, Soren Anders Heitmann, Stacy Elizabeth Humes-Schulz, Martissa Tamar Isaak, Heather Brooke Johnson, Katherine Mace Kasameyer, Christopher Michael Knutson, Jeanne Marie Layman, Daniel Hart Lerner, Casey James McMahon, Lindsay Katrina Nesbit, Gerald William Palmrose, Mary Ruth Pursifull, Catherine Clare Rockwood, Daniel Boss Rubin, Elizabeth Leslie Rutzick, Mark Richard Samco, Kathryn Denelle Stevens, Simon Brendan Thomas, Miles Mark Von Bergen, Lauren Elizabeth Wiener, and Farleith Aiken Wolfe.

I would also like to recognize their teacher, Mr. Hal Hart, who deserves much of the credit for the success of the team. The district coordinator, Mr. Daniel James, and the State coordinator, Ms. Marilyn Cover, also contributed a significant amount of time and effort to help the team reach the national finals.

The "We the People . . . The Citizen and the Constitution" Program is the most extensive educational program in the country developed specifically to educate young people about the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. The 3-day national competition simulates a congressional hearing in which students' oral presentations are judged on the basis of their knowledge of constitutional principles and their ability to apply them to historical and contemporary issues.

Administered by the Center for Civic Education, the "We the People" Program, now in its ninth academic year, has reached more than 70,400 teachers, and 22,600,000 students nationwide at the upper elementary, middle and high school levels. Members of Congress and their staff enhance the program by discussing current constitutional issues with students and teachers.

The "We the People" Program provides an excellent opportunity for students to gain an informed perspective on the significance of the U.S. Constitution and its place in our history and our lives. I wish these students the best of luck in the national finals and look forward to their continued success in the years ahead.

HON. ROSCOE G. BARTLETT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Mr. BARTLETT of Maryland. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 124, I was off the Hill well within 15 minutes return time. My pager did not respond to the 15-minute call. It did respond to the 10-minute call.

Had I been present, I would have voted "yes."

THE WATER QUALITY PUBLIC RIGHT-TO-KNOW ACT OF 1996

HON. HENRY A. WAXMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, today I am introducing the Water Quality Public Right-To-Know Act of 1996. This bill will guarantee the public's right to know about the contaminants that they are exposed to in their drinking water.

Under current law the public has no information about the presence of serious contaminants in their drinking water. Every year millions of Americans unknowingly drink tap water contaminated with cryptosporidium, carcinogens, and arsenic. If we can't prevent this contamination, we should at least give our constituents the ability to protect themselves.

The Water Quality Public Right-To-Know Act of 1996 will require water systems to annually report to their customers a plainly worded explanation of the health implications of contaminants present in their drinking water. It also allows States the flexibility to shape this program.

During the last 2 years many of my Republican colleagues have argued for a devolution revolution. They have urged that we move power from the Federal Government to the State and local level. My legislation goes one step further. It requires that information be given directly to our constituents, which will allow them to make individual choices about the level of exposure to dangerous contaminants.

A TRIBUTE TO CHARLOTTE J. VISCIO

HON. MICHAEL R. McNULTY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Mr. McNULTY. Mr. Speaker, each year the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and its Ladies Auxiliary conduct the Voice of Democracy broadcast scriptwriting contest. This year more than 116,000 secondary school students participated, competing for 54 national scholarships.

I am pleased to announce that my constituent, Ms. Charlotte J. Viscio, a senior at Guilderland Central High School in Guilderland, NY, has been named a national winner and recipient of the Larry W. Rivers Scholarship Award.

This year's theme was "Answering America's Call." I found great inspiration in Charlotte's words and wanted to share them here with my colleagues. They are as follows:

It doesn't sound like a trumpet or an angel's harp. Nor does it echo like a cannon or fire crackers on the Fourth of July. It's not about war or winning. Nor is it about uniforms or medals. It's not just for leaders or peacemakers, soldiers or sons. Nor is it only for women. Whether ten or eight times ten, age makes no difference. The call of America is simply what United States citizens, proud and loving of their country, answer to when their services are needed.

In some, the call is not loud, while in others, it's the only thing that they hear. For the President of the United States, this call is his job description. If he fails to answer, he's failed as America's leader and role model. Some Americans hear the call loud and clear and enlist in the military. Often, they are sent to foreign countries to strive for an American goal, realizing that they might lose their lives for America. And what, exactly, in America is worth fighting for? What is in our country's history that is worth preserving? It is the strongest nation in the world. It is a symbol of hope for countries striving for democracy. It is a place on the earth where all nationalities, religions, sexes, races and colors are unified by equality. America screams of hope and strength and leadership. And this is within every American.

To be an American is a choice. Just because a person lives in the United States does not mean that he or she is a true American. A true American recognizes the call and is willing to answer it. It is not hard to answer. Some answer by volunteering their services to fire companies, food drives and charities. Others collect litter from the sides of roads, improving the appearance of American land. Many people answer the call by casting their votes on election day for the candidates they feel will make strong American leaders. All these activities are examples of how people answer America's call, giving of themselves for the betterment of their country.

What called these Americans to their duty? Was it a television or radio advertisement? Were they inspired by a hero or a role model? Or, was it simply the voice inside them, the voice of their conscience leading them to serve their country? Within every true American's heart, the call exists.

Answering this call is the duty of an American. The United States is a proud country, but it isn't self-centered. It has concern for other nations around the world and strives to help these nations. This is a reflection of its people. Since they are willing to give their services to their country they make life better not only for themselves but for their fellow Americans and others around the world.

America is the voice of democracy. It is not the voice of one person but of all Americans, an accumulation of answers they have given to their calls. Nothing sounds louder than America's response. Nothing is more powerful. This is the foundation of the United States of America. A person simply needs to listen closely for the call within and then respond with the conviction that shows and professes, "I'm proud to be an American."

Mr. KLECZKA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate a group of students from Heritage Christian High School in West Allis, WI, and their teacher, Mr. Tim Moore, on being judged this year's State of Wisconsin "We the People" champions.

RONALD J. DEL MAURO HONORED FOR OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP
BY MENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION

HON. RODNEY P. FRELINGHUYSEN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 1996

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Ronald J. Del Mauro, president and CEO of St. Barnabas Health Care System. On April 20, 1996, Mr. Del Mauro will be honored by the Mental Health Association of Essex County for his outstanding leadership and philanthropy in serving as head of the St. Barnabas Behavioral Health Care System. His worked has helped thousands of residents who are often the most vulnerable members of our population—the mentally ill.

Mr. Del Mauro created the St. Barnabas Behavioral Health Network because, unfortunately, for many parents and their children, a number of health services are often separated for those with psychiatric problem and those with substance abuse problems. Mr. Del Mauro, recognizing this, created the St. Barnabas Behavioral Health Network to provide parents and their children with a place to turn get appropriate diagnosis and treatment.

Mr. Del Mauro is also responsible for the St. Barnabas Health Care System which includes, in addition to St. Barnabas Medical Center, the 201-bed Union Hospital, four nursing homes with 660 beds, 10 corporate affiliates and 20 for-profit business ventures. The St. Barnabas Health Care System operates in 13 facilities throughout New Jersey and the Behavioral Health Network has 17 locations in the tristate area. More than 7,000 employees, including 1,800 physicians, treat a total of 59,000 inpatients, and provide treatment and services for more than 300,000 outpatient visits annually.

I recently had the opportunity to visit St. Barnabas and tour their facility in Livingston, NJ. The health care delivery system Mr. Del Mauro has developed is an outstanding one and I would strongly recommend any of my colleagues look to at St. Barnabas as a national model.

Mr. Del Mauro is also an active and effective leader in other areas. He serves as chairman of the New Jersey Hospital Association, as well as being a member of the Center for Health Affairs, Inc., Life Sciences Advisory Committee of the CIT Group, Inc., Seton Hall University Center for Public Services Advisory Council, board of trustees of the Paper Mill Playhouse and the Essex/Hudson/Union Hospital Council.

He is a graduate of Seton Hall University, where he served as a adjunct professor at the Graduate School of Public Administration from 1983 to 1985.

Mr. Speaker, today I honor Mr. Del Mauro for his leadership in helping to make our communities a healthier place to live and for his ongoing commitment to the mentally ill in New Jersey.
