

CONGRATULATING THE SPRING
SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT BAND

HON. JACK FIELDS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 2, 1996

Mr. FIELDS of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate this opportunity to congratulate the Spring Senior High School concert band in Spring, TX, on recently winning the Sudler Flag of Honor, which is presented to the most outstanding high school concert bands in the United States and Canada.

Under the direction of Mr. Bill Watson, Jr., the Spring Senior High School concert band is just the 34th band to have earned the Sudler Flag of Honor in the 14 years that it has been awarded. And it was one of just two high school bands nationwide to have been selected for this honor this year. The award is presented by the John Philip Sousa Foundation and is intended to recognize and salute high school concert band programs of international-level excellence.

Winning the Sudler Flag of Honor proves what many of us have known for a long time: that the Spring Senior High School concert band is among the very best concert bands in North America.

The Sudler flag is designed in red, white and blue and feature the logo of the John Philip Sousa Foundation. The flag becomes the property of the band. Each member of the band receives a personalized certificate and the band director receives a personalized plaque.

To be eligible for the Sudler flag, a high school must have maintained a fine concert band for at least 7 years. Although the band's concert activities receive the most attention in the selection process, the high school's band program must be a complete one and must include a marching band, small ensembles, and solo participation by its members in contests and festivals. Also, the band conductor must have been at the same high school for at least 7 consecutive years and is expected to be involved in professional band and music education organizations and activities on the local, state and national level.

Clearly, the Sudler Flag of Honor is one of the most significant awards that a high school band can earn. It requires that band members and their director work together to achieve not just musical competence, but musical excellence.

Mr. Speaker, I know that you join with me in congratulating the young men and women of the Spring Senior High School concert band—as well as conductor Bill Watson, Jr.—on this significant achievement, and I know you join with me in wishing everyone associated with the band continued success in the years ahead.

TEMPLE EMANU-EL'S 135TH
ANNIVERSARY

HON. ZOE LOFGREN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 2, 1996

Ms. LOFGREN. Mr. Speaker, this weekend, San Jose will commemorate the 135th anniversary of Temple Emanu-El, the city's oldest synagogue, and I know that all the Members of this House will want to join me in marking this historic event.

A few dedicated families founded the Temple in 1861, originally named Bickur Cholim, to care for the sick and needy, to ensure proper burial for the dead, and, as their original articles read, to "[further] their Holy religion and language." The Temple has continued to serve this mission through this day.

Temple Emanu-El has a long history of service to both the Jewish community and the San Jose community at large. Through Interfaith Sabbaths, the congregation's work with the homeless through the Coalition of Churches and Synagogues, and their community outreach through concerts and pulpit exchanges, the Temple Emanu-El community is active in San Jose cultural and civic life. As current Rabbi Mark Schifftan remarks, the Temple provides a beacon for Jewish values and ethical imperatives for the entire community.

The history of Temple Emanu-El truly mirrors the development of San Jose. In 1861, the fledgling Temple relied on the strong support of the community's churches and civic organizations to construct its synagogue and build its congregation. Over the next 80 years, it grew with the city until a fire in 1940 destroyed the sanctuary. I am proud to tell you that, once again, the community responded enthusiastically, helping the Temple continue its services and programs. The new sanctuary was completed in 1948.

Temple Emanu-El's last 50 years have been a whirlwind of rapid growth and community development. I believe that, like San Jose, this synagogue will remain an active center of our vibrant Silicon Valley community. One of the Temple's former Rabbis, Joseph Gitin, reminds us that although the Temple has grown, its fundamental role is unchanged. "Here," he says, "we learn that our faith and discipline of Jewish ethical values prepare and equip us to live meaningful lives."

Mr. Speaker, I believe that no matter what our particular religion may be, we all strive for a similar goal. I would invite my colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives to join me in recognizing Temple Emanu-El's 135th anniversary.

TRIBUTE TO CLARA MacNAMEE

HON. LYNN C. WOOLSEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 2, 1996

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor one of my district's more dedicated and caring individuals, Clara MacNamee. Clara is being honored as Marin County Teacher of the Year for 1996. I wish that I could be with her colleagues, friends and family to celebrate her remarkable accomplishments.

Clara began working with the Marin Office of Education in 1976. There, she helped develop a classroom whose sole purpose was to serve students involved with drugs and alcohol. The success of this classroom, which focused on a variety of activities, such as peer coaching, and family involvement, expanded into a charter school called Sobriety High School. Student throughout the county are now attending this school and are being touched by Clara's enthusiasm and love of teaching. Marin County and our Nation, owe a great deal to Clara for her tireless efforts in providing exceptional education to students with special needs.

I was not surprised to learn that Clara has been the recipient of many education awards. In 1992, she received the Marin County Golden Bell Award for Academic Excellence, and, in 1993, she was awarded the California State Golden Bell Award for Academic Excellence. I continue to be impressed by Clara's dedication to the students in our community and her vision for their success.

In addition to her work in education, Clara has been a committed member of the community. She served as a CPR instructor for the American Heart Association and the Red Cross for over 10 years and was a Braille transcriber for 5 years. Clara also served as a community representative to her local Community Service District for 17 years.

Mr. Speaker, it is my great pleasure to pay tribute to Clara MacNamee during this special evening at the Marin Art and Garden Center. I extend my thanks and appreciation and my hearty congratulations and best wishes to Clara for continued success in the years to come.

HONORING ROGER TILLES

HON. GARY L. ACKERMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 2, 1996

Mr. ACKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to join with my colleagues and the members of Temple Beth-El of Great Neck, as they gather on the weekend of May 10 and 11, 1996, to pay tribute to their president, Roger Tilles.

The son of former Temple President Gilbert Tilles, Roger's devotion to Temple Beth-El stems from his childhood. In fact, his good work began early on when, as a teenager, he was president of the Junior Temple Club.

However, Mr. Speaker, it is his charitable contributions that have been most noteworthy. Roger has been chair of the Temple's social action, building, and grounds and development committees. In 1985, he was elected a Temple trustee, eventually going on to become vice president and president of Temple Beth-El. Roger has long been a champion of family values, and he has utilized his tradition of leadership in this regard. To name but a few of these beneficial organizations, he was instrumental in launching the Beth-El Connection, a program dedicated to welcoming new families into the congregation, as well as the Family Life Program, a group devoted to strengthening the Jewish family.

In fact, Roger's philanthropic activities extend far beyond the scope of the Jewish community to encompass the many faces of Long Island. He has been an active member of the Association for a Better Long Island. Furthermore, Roger has consistently been a strong supporter of the arts. It is his love of education and culture that led to the construction of the Tilles Center at Long Island University's C.W. Post campus.

Mr. Speaker, Roger Tilles has come to symbolize the American spirit of voluntarism and generosity. I ask all my colleagues to rise with the grateful people of the Fifth Congressional District in extending to Roger Tilles the highest accolades of appreciation and admiration.

INTRODUCTION OF H.R. 3379

HON. GARY A. CONDIT

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 2, 1996

Mr. CONDIT. Mr. Speaker, along with our colleagues, LAMAR SMITH, JIMMY HAYES, SCOTT KLUG, WILLIAM LIPINSKI, and RALPH HALL, I am today introducing legislation to require the President of the United States to submit a balanced budget plan to the Congress and to forbid the consideration in the House of Representatives of any budget resolution that does not provide for a balanced budget. These changes would take effect at the beginning of the 105th Congress.

Under the terms of the bill, the President must submit to Congress a detailed plan to balance the Federal budget in 6 years or less. In the event the President's budget plan is not in balance, as determined by the Congressional Budget Office [CBO] after review, it would be returned to the White House. In addition, the legislation provides that the only concurrent budget resolution in order in the House is one that provides for a balanced budget and this provision is enforced by a nonwaivable point of order. During a declared war or national emergency, these requirements could be suspended.

This measure does not interfere with the ability of the President or the Congress to set spending priorities. Under current law, title 31, Presidents are required to meet several requirements in their budget submission, and this bill only adds to these requirements. And the Budget Committee would remain free to determine spending priorities and to instruct the authorizing committees to reduce spending.

The last budget surplus occurred in fiscal year 1969, and you have to go back to fiscal years 1956 and 1957 to find 2 consecutive years of budget surplus. According to the Office of Management and Budget [OMB], President Clinton's fiscal 1997 produces balance in the year 2002. The CBO, however, found that the President's claim of budget balance is based on contingent proposals, including sunseting tax relief, triggering new taxes and Medicare cuts, and unspecified reductions in discretionary spending of 15 percent in 2002. Absent these contingencies, the fiscal 1997 budget results in a $80 billion deficit.

In the last few years, Presidents have submitted budget plans to the Congress that rested on rosy economic assumptions and restrained spending through the generous use of budget gimmickry, and successive Congresses were all too willing to go along with these practices. The President's fiscal 1997 budget is proof that the use of blue smoke and mirrors continues unabated. President Clinton does deserve credit for agreeing to balance the budget and to work with the leadership of Congress to achieve that goal.

The American people in every opinion poll strongly support a balanced budget, and most of our colleagues now support balancing the budget. If we cannot balance the budget this year, it must be done next year.

The legislation that I am introducing today will facilitate the work of the Congress and the President. This legislation has been endorsed by the National Taxpayers Union, Citizens Against Government Waste, Americans for Tax Reform, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, and the National Federation of Independent Business.

I urge you and our colleagues, Mr. Speaker, to join me in supporting this needed bill. The text of the legislation follows.

H.R. 3379

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. PRESIDENT'S BUDGET.

Section 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

“(32) A detailed plan to achieve a balanced Federal budget by the close of the sixth fiscal year beginning after the current fiscal year.”.

SEC. 2. CONGRESSIONAL TREATMENT OF BUDGET SUBMISSIONS.

Upon the submission by the President of a budget for the United States Government to the Congress pursuant to section 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, the Director of the Congressional Budget Office shall determine and certify whether the balanced budget plan submitted pursuant to section 1105(a)(32) of that title does achieve a balanced budget. The Director shall inform the Clerk of the House of Representatives and the Secretary of the Senate of the results of the certification. If the budget is certified as not being in balance pursuant to such plan, the Clerk and the Secretary shall return the budget submission to the President.

SEC. 3. POINT OF ORDER.

(a) The Rules of the House of Representatives are amended by adding at the end the following new rule.

“RULE LIII

“BALANCED BUDGET ENFORCEMENT

“1. It shall not be in order in the House to consider any concurrent resolution on the budget unless it provides for a balanced budget for the United States Government.”.

“2. The House may waive the provisions of clause 1 if a declaration of war is in effect or if the United States faces an imminent and serious military threat to national security and is so declared by a joint resolution (adopted by a majority of the whole number of each House) which becomes law.”.

(b) The second sentence of clause 4(b) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives is amended by inserting before the period at the end the following: “; nor shall it report any rule of order waiving clause 1 of rule LIII”.

NEW JERSEY RECOGNIZES LOYAL HEART AWARD DAY

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 2, 1996

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, today I have the distinct honor of recognizing the activities of caregivers throughout the State of New Jersey. Sunday, May 5 marks the third annual “Loyal Heart Award Celebration.” In my home State of New Jersey, Governor Whitman has designated May 5 as “Loyal Heart Award Day.”

The Loyal Heart Award is sponsored by the Middlesex County Chapter of the New Jersey Coalition on Women and Disabilities. The award was initiated in 1994 by Elayne Hyman Risley to recognize the contributions made by individuals who provide care for persons with disabilities.

Those recognized on Loyal Heart Award Day represent the wide range of caregivers; they are friends, relatives, nurses or assistants to a person with a disability. Those we honor today embody the qualities of faithfulness, dedication, and commitment. Their efforts are tireless and dependable. Ms. Risley, inspired by the quality of care she had received from her daughter Robyn, son Ryan and her assistant, Nancy Namowicz; became determined to establish a formal day of tribute to caregivers. This is truly a grassroots effort; I was contacted first by New Jersey Assemblyman, John Wisniewski.

The role of caregivers is varied and significant. Caregivers may provide personal care or help around the house or furnish transportation which makes possible participation in community programs. This care may be temporary or extend over a lifetime. Whatever assistance the caregiver is providing, it is of great importance to the individual with disabilities. But to express it most succinctly, I will use the words of Ms. Risley: “Through caregivers” efforts, individuals with disabilities are able to reach their fullest potential.”

Many of us have a personal connection to individuals with disabilities. Perhaps we are one of million of people in the United States with a disability. Perhaps we are a family member, advocate or one of the very special people, a caregiver, whom we honor today. Individuals with disabilities and their caregivers deserve our acknowledgement, our support, our appreciation and our respect.

In my own district, we are trying to reach out to individuals with disabilities, their families, caregivers and advocates for the purposes of keeping them informed about issues of importance to this exceptional community. I encourage my congressional colleagues to remember that these groups of persons need information so that they can be in the best position to know about issues of significance to individual with disabilities. I also encourage other Members of Congress to join me in support and recognition of the humanitarian efforts of the loyal hearts.

In addition, I have sponsored or cosponsored legislation that I believe is of importance to individuals with disabilities and their families.

Potentially, any of us could become a person with a disability. If I were ever to face that situation, it is my hope that I would be blessed by support and care equal to that provided by one of the selfless individuals we recognize here today.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. HELEN CHENOWETH

OF IDAHO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 2, 1996

Mrs. CHENOWETH. Mr. Speaker, on Wednesday, I was unavoidably detained and missed rollcall vote 144. Had I been here, I would have voted “yes.” I ask unanimous consent to have my statement appear in the appropriate place in the RECORD.
