

career orientation, and an opportunity to experience educational development and personal growth within a college setting to these students while they are still in high school. There are now over 550 upward bound programs nationwide. The Program at CSUH began in 1990 and now serves 65 low-income, first generation high school students in southern Alameda County.

To be eligible for the upward bound program, a student must meet the following requirements; the student must have the potential to succeed in college although his or her grades or test scores may not reflect this, the student must come from a low-income background as established by the U.S. Department of Education, or come from a family whose parents or guardians have not graduated from a 4-year college.

The upward bound program at CSUH consists of two parts. The academic year component includes Saturday instructional sessions at CSUH, tutorial sessions during the week, field trips to places of educational, cultural, and recreational value, assistance in preparing students' academic programs, college admission applications, and financial aid applications, participation in cultural and other special activities, and close communication with the students' high school teachers, counselors, and parents in a coordinated effort to maximize students educational development. The summer session component is an intensive 4 to 6 week residential and academic program at CSUH. Upward bound students take high school level developmental and enrichment courses while receiving tutoring and intensive career, academic, and personal counseling. Students also have access to all facilities available to regular CSUH students, including sports, cultural, and recreational events, field trips, entertainment, and college orientation. All of these activities give the upward bound student the opportunity to see what it is like to live as a college student.

I would like to take this opportunity to mention the upward bound graduating seniors by name. In alphabetical order, they are Juan Callejas, Paul Childress, Ronald Clark, Magdalena Chmielinski, Maria Coronado, Tiffini Cox, Janelle Davis, Javier Garcia, Lonnie Houston, Jennifer Laforga, Kishneel Lall, Raquel Leon, Ajanta Lewis, Justin Mallet, Chelsea Parnell, Edward Rhea, Keywonishi Rogers, Mohan Sakhrani, Reybeykah Salaries, Tram-Anh Ta, and Eric Tsu.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and my colleagues join me in congratulating these students on their achievement and in recognizing CSUH's upward bound program for its dedication and commitment to promoting educational equity and opportunity through a program that opens doors to students who are in the first generation of their families to consider post-secondary education.

TRIBUTE TO STUDENTS OF JORDAN HIGH SCHOOL

HON. DAVID FUNDERBURK

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. FUNDERBURK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to recognize the accomplishments of a group of exemplary high school students from Jordan High School in Durham, NC. These outstanding young people were participants in the We the People . . . the Citizen and the Constitution national finals, April 27 through April 29 in Washington, DC. The students competed against 49 other classes from around the Nation in a simulated congressional hearing in which students testified as constitutional experts before a panel of judges.

This program, administered by the Center for Civic Education, is one of the most extensive of its kind, involving more than 22 million American students from the elementary level to the high school level.

The following Jordan High School students are to be commended for their efforts: Alyson Beacham, Joe Blocher, John Cerquiera, Shekinah Cohn, T.J. Eatmon, Jared Hanson, Sarah Harrocks, Hao Lo, Sharon Mason, Catherine McCall, Kevin Neary, Vera Reed, Aran Stynes, Vanessa Vigna, Becky Walden, and John Zhu. I would also like to salute their teacher and mentor, Susan Roe.

TRIBUTE TO SUSAN BUTLER

HON. DOUGLAS "PETE" PETERSON

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. PETERSON of Florida. Mr. Speaker, it is an honor for me to rise today and pay special tribute to a constituent of mine, Mrs. Susan Butler, of Lynn Haven, FL. Mrs. Butler was recently selected as a winner of the Presidential Award for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching.

This award is administered by the National Science Foundation and is designed to recognize and reward outstanding teachers from elementary and secondary schools. The winners are those who serve as models for their colleagues in the important areas of science and mathematics education. Hopefully, the increased visibility this award presents will encourage high-quality teachers to enter into and remain in the teaching field.

Susan Butler teaches chemistry and biology at Rutherford High School in Panama City, FL. Her use of portfolio assessments as part of student curriculum has earned her wide acclaim and respect among her peers, as well as her students and their parents. As testament to the commitment she has to the development of her students, she also serves as the Health Occupations Academy Coordinator.

This is a well-deserved honor, and I offer my sincerest congratulations to Mrs. Butler. She is a credit to the teaching profession and I am proud to be able to offer these remarks for publication in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD as one small tribute to her work.

HONORING THE RETIRED SENIOR VOLUNTEERS OF MCKEAN COUNTY, PA

HON. WILLIAM F. CLINGER, JR.

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. CLINGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the retired senior volunteers of McKean

County in the Fifth District of Pennsylvania. I am pleased to have this opportunity to recognize the 74,000 hours of service that these individuals have given to our communities.

As we celebrate Older American Month, it is fitting that we reflect on the contributions of seniors at both a local and national level. I have long believed that involvement by senior citizens in the workforce adds a unique and distinctive value to each job that is performed, person that is helped, or solution that is offered.

I applaud the hard work and determination that each of these volunteers has dedicated to serving the residents of McKean County, their efforts are an inspiration to us all. In addition, each of these individuals has paved the road for all of us who will eventually retire and in doing so continue to enhance the foundation of our communities.

Each project that they have so diligently attended to—from campgrounds to playgrounds, providing meals, making repairs, and assisting others in need—demonstrates the depth of caring that all of the volunteers should be proud of.

It takes more than words to adequately express the difference that senior volunteers have made in the lives of so many and it is with great honor and heartfelt gratitude that I thank them for their years of kind and generous service.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. JIM McDERMOTT

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, due to circumstances beyond my control, I was unavoidably detained yesterday and missed the following rollcall votes. If I had been here, I would have voted in the following manner:

Rollcall vote No. 180—no.

Rollcall vote No. 181—yes.

Rollcall vote No. 182—no.

Rollcall vote No. 183—yes.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

A SALUTE TO GENE MCCUE

HON. TIM JOHNSON

OF SOUTH DAKOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. JOHNSON of South Dakota. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Gene McCue, a South Dakotan whose career has been dedicated to rural development, and to improving the quality of life in rural South Dakota. After more than 34 years of admirable service to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Gene McCue will retire on June 22, 1996.

Gene McCue is a true South Dakotan. Upon serving honorably in the U.S. Navy, Gene attended South Dakota State University and received a bachelor of science degree in agriculture. Using his hands-on knowledge of farming and ranching, Gene jump-started his successful career with the USDA as an assistant disaster loan supervisor. However, Gene's spirit of leadership led him to an accomplished career in rural development and farm credit, eventually culminating as the District III rural development manager in Rapid City.

In addition to his career accomplishments, Gene's character enriched the lives of his co-workers. His leadership at the Department inspired his colleagues to emulate his performance and good judgment. I commend Gene for his dedication, and I personally appreciate the support that he has given to me, my staff, and his fellow South Dakotans. Although Gene is retiring from the Department, I am confident that his legacy of leadership and dedication will thrive in the hearts of his colleagues and all South Dakotans who have benefited from his judicious work.

Gene McCue is a selfless man. In addition to his service to the Federal Government, Gene is the chairman of the board of directors for the Sky Ranch For Boys, a safe house for troubled and impoverished boys. As Gene embarks on this new chapter in his life, I congratulate him on a job well done, and wish him all the best.

IN HONOR OF JUDGE WILMONT SWEENEY

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Judge Wilmont Sweeney who is retiring as presiding judge of the Juvenile Division of the Alameda County Superior Court on June 1, 1996. I would like to take this opportunity to commend Judge Sweeney for his years of dedication and commitment to the welfare of the children of Alameda County, in California's 13th Congressional District.

Judge Sweeney is a long-time resident of the San Francisco Bay Area. He received his undergraduate degree in 1950 from the University of California at Berkeley and his J.D. from Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco. After being admitted to the California Bar in 1955, he began his legal career in private practice with the firm Wilson, Metoyer, Sweeney & Broussard.

In 1974, Judge Sweeney was appointed to the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court Bench by Governor Reagan and was elected in 1978. In 1979, Judge Sweeney was elected to the Superior Court Bench of Alameda County by Governor Brown, Jr. He was reelected to the Superior Court in 1986 and 1992. Judge Sweeney became presiding judge of the Juvenile Division of the Alameda County Superior Court in 1981.

As presiding judge, Judge Sweeney has been an inspiration to others in the field of juvenile law. He was a founding member of the Juvenile Court Judges of California. In 1992, he was the first recipient of this organization's Juvenile Judge of the Year Award. During Judge Sweeney's tenure, the Alameda County Juvenile Court developed a reputation second to none for its compassion and commitment to justice for children, their families, and the community.

Judge Sweeney has always been an active member of the community. From 1961 to 1974, he served as a member of the Berkeley City Council and from 1967 to 1974, he was the vice mayor of the city of Berkeley. He has also served on a number of committees including the Judicial Council Advisory Committee on Juvenile Court Law, the Juvenile Court Judges of California Executive Committee, the Child Abuse Policy Board of Alameda County, and the Robert Woods Johnson Foundation Strategic Planning Committee.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask that you and my colleagues join me in recognizing Judge Wilmont Sweeney for his years of dedication to the children of Alameda County and to wish him well in all of his future endeavors. He will be missed.

TRIBUTE TO KAREN CABE GIBSON'S CLASS AT R.B. STALL HIGH SCHOOL, STATE WINNERS OF THE "WE THE PEOPLE . . . THE CITIZEN AND THE CONSTITUTION" COMPETITION

HON. MARSHALL "MARK" SANFORD

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. SANFORD. Mr. Speaker, high school students from across the Nation have recently visited Washington to compete in the "We the People," program. I am proud to say that South Carolina's winner is R.B. Stall High School from the First district. They were kind enough to drop by my office, and I had the opportunity to personally meet and congratulate the students, teachers, and coaches. At a time when only about one in six citizens between the ages of 18 and 24 even register to vote, it was heartening to meet so many young people who are shining examples of a new generation of leadership for our Nation.

The teacher of this winning class is Karen Cabe Gibson, who is no newcomer to success. She has produced winning classes for South Carolina all but twice since the competition began. As a result of her countless hours of dedication and with the support of fellow teachers Marshall Ward, Grace Perreault, and principal James Hampton, she once again brought out the best of a class of eager and knowledgeable minds. I trust these students will now go on in life to practice all they have learned.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to individually recognize the students from Mrs. Gibson's class: Sheri Aiken, Nahal Badiian, Richard Carawan, Allan Casanova, Dwayne Cid, Timothy Dasinger, Becky Doscher, Treva Floyd, Michael Gale, Nicole Gethers, Jeff Harvey, Kalyne Kay, Kim Kay, Michael Kay, Trent Legare, Andrew May, Carlos Medina, Jonette Mullineaux, John Pizarro, Desmond Rollins, John Sageser, Cherie Tetterton, Danielle Towns, Timothy Whaley, and Sean Womersley.

I would be remiss if I did not thank the South Carolina Bar, the Charleston County School District and the many volunteers who served as judges and timekeepers during the competition and practice. The program could not have been successful without their backing.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. DAN FRISA

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. FRISA. Mr. Speaker, due to severe weather that backed up air traffic at LaGuardia Airport, I was unavoidably detained on the runway, and thus unable to vote on repeal of the 4.3-cent increase in transportation motor fuels excise tax.

Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on House Resolution 436 (rollcall No. 180), "nay" on the motion to recommit H.R. 3415 (rollcall No. 181), "yea" on final passage of H.R. 3415 (rollcall No. 182). On House Concurrent Resolution 167 (rollcall No. 183), recognizing the 10th anniversary of the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, I would have voted "yea."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. RON PACKARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained on Thursday, May 16, 1996, and was unable to cast my vote on rollcall vote No. 179, which was the adoption of House Concurrent Resolution 178, the fiscal year 1997 budget resolution. Had I been present I would have voted "yea" on this rollcall. I ask unanimous consent that my statement appear in the RECORD immediately following rollcall vote No. 179.

OUTFOX PHONE FRAUD

HON. CLIFF STEARNS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 1996

Mr. STEARNS. Mr. Speaker, recently we passed groundbreaking legislation that will unshackle companies and inject competition into the telecommunications industry. This competition will bring about more consumer choice, better services, and lower prices. However, in 1996, this dynamic telecommunications industry is expected to suffer from fraud surpassing $3.7 billion.

I would like to commend the Alliance to Outfox Phone Fraud, a group of companies who have come together to educate consumers and businesses about telecommunications fraud. Big businesses are victims of phone fraud too. A recent survey of 90 businesses who were victims of toll fraud found losses ranged from a few thousand dollars to $4 million.

Those who commit fraud don't just steal from a big telecommunications company, they also steal from you and me. We, as consumers, are forced to pay higher prices in order to make up the loss these telecommunications companies incur, when they are defrauded. If we all follow the alliances' commonsense tips, we will do our part to help outfox fraud and bring down consumer prices.
