

the moderate macarena for the next 6 weeks. They are sending out memos about adopting a tree, or go visit a zoo and show that you are politically sensitive to the environmental concerns of your constituents, but it is the agenda of the Contract With America.

I do not think the American people understood that in 1994, but as it has been outlined in detail, as each week and month has gone by in the last 1½ years, the American people have become quite aware that it is an environmentally radical program that has been put on the books that calls into question every environmental advance we have made over the last quarter of a century. I do not think the American people want to go backwards. I think they want even cleaner water, even cleaner air, even safer areas around hazardous waste sites.

Mr. PALLONE. I think the gentleman is correct.

Mr. MARKEY. In each and every one of these areas I think they have a big decision to make in 1996, and thanks to the gentleman, I think millions are having it explained to them here today.

Mr. PALLONE. I want to thank the gentleman for coming on the floor, Mr. Speaker, and talking about this issue. I think there is no question that if you ask the average person, and certainly all the polling data that both Republicans and Democrats have done shows that people feel that there needs to be more environmental protection and more health and safety protection.

When we had our Families First hearing today and we talked, and we had witnesses that talked about some of the problems they face, we had another gentleman who was infected with Cryptosporidium from tap water, and almost died. We had another woman who helped organize a community effort to reduce toxic waste in her neighborhood. She talked about how we need more right-to-know measures.

So the types of things that the President has proposed, accelerating the cleanup of Superfund sites, providing more right to know for citizens and citizen groups, trying to basically provide better enforcement and more money for enforcement, this is what my constituents are telling me, and I believe when I talk to other members of Congress and other colleagues, what their constituents are telling them, that there should be more protection and more funding where necessary for investigation and enforcement.

I just want to conclude the special order today just giving an idea of what, again, the Dole economic plan would mean in terms of environmental protection. The concern many of us have is that not only many of the environmental programs, whether it be the Clean Water Act, the Clean Air Act, Superfund, that the Republican leadership in this Congress tried to gut that legislation, but even more so, that by deprioritizing funding for environmental protection, by slashing the amount of money that was available to the EPA, to the Department of the Interior, to protect our national resources and protect our health, and to protect our environment, that by allowing those levels of cuts to be proposed and in some cases actually implemented, what we are seeing is the inability, if you will, of the Federal Government and also State governments that depend on Federal dollars to actually do the investigation and the enforcement that is necessary to carry out our environmental laws and to make sure that there is adequate protection of individual's health and safety and environmental concerns.

If the Dole economic plan were to be put into effect, we know that there would be essentially a 40-percent cut in environmental programs. So the types of cuts that were proposed in this last Congress for the last 2 years would even be deeper, and the effect would be that the environmental protection and the 25 years, if you will, of efforts on a bipartisan basis to protect the environment and improve the level of protection by the Federal Government would simply be reversed, because of the inability of Federal agencies to carry out the law.

That is what we do not want to see. That is what we do not think that the average American wants to see.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE SAM GIBBONS AND THE HONORABLE GLEN BROWDER

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. MCINNIS). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Alabama [Mr. CALLAHAN] is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

WATCH FOR ELECTION-YEAR SPIN IN HOUSE FLOOR SPEECHES

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, it must be confusing to the people who are watching this, both in the gallery and on C-SPAN, about what we are talking about today. During this time of our political careers in history, it is an election year. It is like selling Coca-Cola and Pepsi-Cola. You have one side that says Pepsi-Cola is better, and one side that says Coca-Cola is better. What we do is create spin efforts. We try to convince the American people that one side is going to do all of these evil things, and the sky is going to fall if indeed a certain individual is elected President.

You hear things about cutting Medicare. There is not a provision anywhere in Washington where anybody has introduced or even suggested that we cut Medicare. All of this is partisan politics, trying to convince you, trying to manipulate you, the audience, into believing their side or our side of any particular issue.

They just talked about the environment. We are not going to destroy the environment. Not one individual in this entire body wants to do anything to do harm to the environment.

So as you go through these little periods of speeches on the floor of the House, keep in mind that it is that time of year. You are intelligent people. You can make your own mind up. Base it on character, base it on history, base it upon the future, base it on whatever you want. But keep in mind that these are like television ads. They are just a few minutes dedicated to the Members of the House to come here and express their views, and to try to convince you that the future lies in someone else's hands, or the future lies in the hands of those that have it today.

Spin is interesting here in Washington, because, you know, I heard the Secretary of Defense went over to Kuwait. I think all of us in the House knew, and certainly everybody in television land knew, and certainly, Mr. Speaker, you knew, that the Kuwaitis decided they did not want us there, even though we sent 500,000 men over there to save their country. When we tried to send 3,500 men there, they balked. But in any event, the Secretary went over there and he explained it. Finally, they let us come in.

But the spin that came out of it, and I quote the Washington Post, Mr. Speaker, it said that the Kuwaitis are inviting us over there to protect their interests. That is spin.

But for the next hour, we are not going to be partisan. We are not going to be Republicans, we are not going to be Democrats. We are going to be telling you some of the things that have taken place during the last several sessions of the Congress, and about two or three individuals that have been an integral part of that. They are two Democrats, and I am a Republican, but there are two Democratic Members of the House who are retiring from Congress this year.

I have requested 1 hour of this time to come in a nonpartisan sense to talk about these two individuals, these two Members of Congress that have made a tremendous contribution to this country during the time that they have served.

We have not always agreed. We agreed generally only on those things that were very beneficial to Alabama, because in the Alabama delegation, unlike some of the other delegations in this Congress, we work together, whether we are Democrats or Republicans. If we have a problem, if we have a need in the State of Alabama, the delegation meets on a monthly basis and we discuss with each other the needs, and why we need it.

I had a home port in Mobile that I was trying to get and got it, because I brought it to our delegation. I said, I need the help of all seven of you. We have things in Huntsville, we had an Army base in Anniston that one of our Members had some problems with. We always work together.

Some States do not work together on anything. Some Democrats never work with Republicans, and some Republicans never work with Democrats. But in Alabama we have been blessed, blessed to have seven members of our delegation who do work together; who do not always agree on the national issues, who do not always agree on individual bills, but who do have a guidance and a direction that moves toward a better America and a better Alabama.

The gentleman from Alabama, Mr. TOM BEVILL, from Alabama's Fourth Congressional District, married to Lou, has three lovely children; born in Townley, AL, the son of a coal miner, he attained the rank of captain in the U.S. Army while serving in the European theater during World War II.

He holds an LL.B. degree from the University of Alabama School of Law. He was first elected to the House of Representatives in 1966.

He was chairman for most of this time of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development, from 1977 to 1994. As chairman, Congressman BEVILL encouraged substantial development of Alabama's waterways and the Port of Mobile and all the waterways and all of the ports of this entire Nation. For example, he was instrumental in the development of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Canal. This development allowed the United States to assert its full power in international trade. He remains the ranking member of the Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development even today.

The other Member retiring is GLEN BROWDER from the Third Congressional District of the State of Alabama, married to Becky. They have one daughter, I think a student at Auburn. At least they live near Auburn. He holds a Ph.D. in political science from Emory University in Atlanta. He served as a political science professor at Jacksonville State University, served for 4 years in the Alabama State House of Representatives, and was elected to Congress in a special election in 1989. He serves on the House Committees on Budget and National Security. While serving on these committees in the House, Congressman BROWDER has exerted an influential, fiscally responsible philosophy. As I have said, we did not always agree on some national issues. But you could never, never worry about the integrity of these two individuals, or about the word of these two individuals. If they told you they were not going to vote for you, you just as well put it in your hat to know they were not going to vote for you, not because they disliked you, not because I was a Republican, but because they disagreed with me. And that is the way this body works. It is made up of 435 individual men and women from all walks of life, from all of the States. All of us have had some degree of success in our other lives or we would not be here today. You do not elect unsuccessful people to Congress. You elect people that have been responsible people and leaders in their community.

So while there is bickering between these two on all these partisan issues trying to convince you through their statements to vote for either Bob Dole or for Bill Clinton or to tell you that there ought to be a Republican majority versus a Democratic majority in the House, keep in mind that all of that is partisan spin politics. You are the people who make that decision, and I trust your decision.

We have only 1 hour today to talk about these two individuals, these two great Americans, and dozens of people have called and dozens have asked to come and to share with me this 1 hour that we have to pay tribute to these two great American people.

The first is a friend of mine from Indiana, Congressman JOHN MYERS. He is going to retire as well, but now he is chairman of the same subcommittee that TOM BEVILL once chaired.

Mr. MYERS of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, we thank our friend, the gentleman from Alabama, SONNY CALLAHAN, for taking this hour to remember and honor 30 years of service of our colleague.

On November 8, 1966, 72 new Members were elected to Congress, 59 Republicans and 13 Democrats. Today, there are three of us in that class remaining in the House of Representatives, and as has been mentioned already, all three of us have chosen this 30th year in Congress to retire: Congressman MONTGOMERY from Mississippi; the person we are honoring this afternoon, TOM BEVILL of Alabama; and I am from Indiana.

That class, there was another Member who went on, had trouble keeping a job here, served only 4 years in the House, but I talked with him this morning, former Vice President and former President of the United States, George Bush, said for me to extend best wishes and congratulations to TOM BEVILL and SONNY MONTGOMERY for their 30 years of service.

TOM, as I call him, has served 16 years as chairman of the subcommittee where we both have served those 16 years, and I served those 16 years as his ranking member; and the past 2 years, because of the election, I have been given the honor of holding the chairmanship and TOM has been the ranking member. But the relationship never changed; it is completely, absolutely nonpartisan.

TOM is a gentleman. Nothing went into a bill unless we both agreed, when he was chairman. The last 2 years, with the confrontation of a few people, partisanship does not play a role in our subcommittee; it continued the same way. The country was more important.

TOM grew up in Alabama, was born in Alabama. His family had a little country store, and TOM worked as a clerk in that country store, growing up. It was a coal mining area. He went on to graduate from Walker County High School in Alabama, went on to the University of Alabama, where he got his law degree, and then served in Europe in World War II.

He came back and practiced law for 16 years in Jasper, AL, where they still claim home. But the thing in Alabama, and I have visited his district many, many times, both Democrats and Republicans voted for TOM BEVILL because they knew they had a person that was fair, and just as the gentleman from Alabama [Mr. CALLAHAN] mentioned here, would tell you the truth and you knew you were not getting doubletalk. They loved TOM BEVILL and they still love TOM BEVILL.

So he is going to go back home, I understand, and be an Alabamian once again, go back with his wife, Lou. His wife, Lou, my wife, Carol, the two couples have been friends for the 30 years we have had the honor of serving together in this Congress, but TOM and Lou BEVILL are true great people. Their three children and their grandchildren, I know they are going to enjoy.

So today I am pleased to be able to join the many friends that TOM BEVILL has to say thank you, TOM, for your years of service and thank you for your courtesy. Thanks for being a gentleman all of those years when we served together.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Mississippi, SONNY MONTGOMERY, another gentleman that is retiring this year, who was just mentioned by the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. MYERS].

Mr. MONTGOMERY. I thank the gentleman from Alabama [Mr. CALLAHAN] for giving me this opportunity, and I would like to pay tribute to both TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER on their retirements.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to speak today about our longtime friend, TOM BEVILL. TOM and I both, as mentioned by JOHN MYERS, started as freshmen together. We have been friends ever since. That was 30 years ago. During that time, I have to say that there has never been a better representative for Alabama or for this Nation than TOM BEVILL.

Mr. Speaker, he served in the European theater during World War II and attained the rank of captain. We three, TOM BEVILL, JOHN MYERS and I, all three served in the European theater. We did not serve together, but we were there at the same time. So coming to Washington for TOM BEVILL was not a tough, big problem; because he had been in the war, he knew that he could handle the job.

His constituents are very proud of him. He has had an excellent record with the people of his State and his congressional district. Mr. Speaker, he might have had a tough race the first time he ran, the first 2 years, but after that, he has been elected without opposition and really has had no problems coming to the Congress again.

As has been mentioned, he is the senior member of the House Committee on Appropriations and served as chairman of the Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development from 1977 to 1994. He is now the ranking member, as we all know, and he and JOHN MYERS worked together so well. He did have a lot to do with the Tenn-Tom waterway system which goes between our two States, Alabama and Mississippi.

Mr. Speaker, on the Tenn-Tom, there is a lock and dam that bears the name of Tom Bevill Lock and Dam. And our congressional districts adjoin each other. But the biggest sign in my congressional district is Tom Bevill Lock and Dam and the sign points that way. I tease him a lot about that, but it is the biggest sign in my congressional district.

I have enjoyed having TOM BEVILL be a part of the prayer breakfast group, and PETE GEREN of Texas asked that I would mention about TOM BEVILL, he is known as the assistant to the assistant chaplain at our prayer breakfast. He does not get to act much, but he does come a lot, and we have enjoyed very much working together.

So about TOM, Lou has been wonderful. He has got three wonderful children. I wish him the best.

Moving to GLEN BROWDER, we are very proud of GLEN and what he has done since he has been in the Congress. I serve with him on the Committee on National Security, and he has performed his duties as well as any Member I know. Fort McClellan, AL, is in his congressional district. He has actually himself, with help from the other Members of the Alabama delegation, saved Fort McClellan, AL, from being closed. Fort McClellan has been on the base closure list for a number of years. I know for sure he has saved it for 2 years in a row.

We wish GLEN, his wife, Becky, and their daughter, Jenny Rebecca, the best in the future. GLEN, Washington and the House of Representatives will miss you.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to yield just a few minutes to one of the individuals we are retiring. To show you what kind of individual he is, he is here to give praise to the other Member we are talking about, Congressman TOM BEVILL of Alabama.

Mr. BEVILL. Mr. Speaker, I thank my good friend and colleague, Congressman CALLAHAN.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to my good friend and colleague from Alabama, Congressman GLEN BROWDER.

GLEN is leaving office with a fine record of service to Alabama's Third Congressional District since 1989. As you know, GLEN was elected after the death of our long-time colleague Bill Nichols.

While no one could replace Bill Nichols, GLEN certainly has done an outstanding job picking up where Congressman Nichols left off. He has made a name for himself as a quietly determined, highly intelligent and well-focused Member of Congress.

Like Bill Nichols, GLEN BROWDER won a seat on the House National Security Committee where he has become a very effective advocate on a wide range of military issues. He fought to keep Fort McClellan off the base closure list and developed broad expertise on the use and storage of chemical weapons.

He has worked diligently on behalf of Persian Gulf veterans who have suffered strange symptoms since returning from the conflict with Iraq. GLEN has pushed the Pentagon to provide more information on their potential exposure to chemical agents.

GLEN BROWDER has always been fiscally conservative and has provided outstanding leadership on campaign reform issues and budget matters.

I have thoroughly enjoyed working with GLEN BROWDER, especially on projects of concern to Alabama. He has always been very dedicated, not only to his district, but also to our entire State of Alabama and our Nation.

Whatever course GLEN BROWDER chooses to pursue, I am confident he will be highly successful. Meanwhile, his accomplishments here in the Congress will always be remembered and appreciated.

GLEN, I wish you and your lovely wife Becky all the best in your future endeavors.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, at this time I would like to recognize, he has a conference he must attend, a little bit out of order but nevertheless not out of order with respect to his vitality to this conversation, Mr. ALAN MOLLOHAN of West Virginia.

Mr. MOLLOHAN. I thank the distinguished gentleman and chairman. I appreciate very much his making possible this special order.

Mr. Speaker, I thank you for allowing me to take the floor today for this fitting tribute to our distinguished colleagues from Alabama, TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER. I am pleased to add my personal words of appreciation for their contributions to this House and to offer my best wishes to each of them as their terms come to a close and as they look to their future.

I had the great pleasure of serving with GLEN on the Committee on the Budget. He is particularly distinguished, bright, makes a wonderful contribution to that committee and brings a lot of common sense to the process. I know that he will prosper as he leaves the House and I certainly wish him well.

Naturally as a member of the Committee on Appropriations, I will acutely feel the absence of the gentleman from Alabama [Mr. BEVILL] and the leadership that he has provided to that committee as chairman and the ranking member of the Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development.

□ 1600

He is one of the most respected members of our Committee on Appropriations and the entire U.S. House of Representatives, and it saddens me greatly to see him go.

For a long number of years, my father, who served in this body, served with TOM BEVILL, and dad always considered him to be as close as you could come to the ideal of a Member of Congress.

Since taking up the responsibilities of representing the First Congressional District here, I have found that dad is absolutely right. TOM BEVILL is bright, he is disciplined, he is full of integrity, and not only courteous but he is kind. These are the qualities that have made him an effective, popular Representative of the people of Alabama's Fourth Congressional District. They are the same qualities that have made him a widely admired Member of the House.

Of course, he has made his mark through his years of leadership of the Energy and Water Development Subcommittee. That can be a tough job. There are so many worthy projects brought to the attention of this subcommittee, real needs, urgent needs in communities all across the Nation, yet even in the best of times there are simply not enough resources to go around.

Being able to take up as many of them as possible and blend them into a thoughtful national policy, well, that is a real legislative art, and TOM BEVILL is the master of it.

Mr. Speaker, I doubt there is a district anywhere that has not benefited in some measure from TOM BEVILL's commitment to meeting America's energy and water development needs. His good work will be remembered long after he leaves this body. So, too, will his gracious manner and the good will he has consistently shown to Members on both sides of the aisle.

That is a real hallmark of his service. In fact, he has worked hand in hand in a real bipartisan spirit with another very distinguished and retiring Member of this House and of this committee, the gentleman from Indiana, JOHN MYERS.

JOHN MYERS has been equally an outstanding servant of the people. They are both wonderful men and a powerful legislative team.

TOM BEVILL is a true gentleman, as well as a distinguished legislator, and he will be missed sorely. Thank you, Mr. BEVILL, and thank you, too, Mr. BROWDER, for your faithful service to this House and to the people of West Virginia, and my best personal best wishes go with you.

I also want to share with you the great expression of appreciation from the constituents of the First Congressional District of West Virginia for all your consideration of their needs over these many years. God bless.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, at this time I would like to recognize one of the gentlemen we are talking about today so he can pay honor to the other gentleman we are talking about today. I am talking about Mr. BROWDER of Alabama.

(Mr. BROWDER asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BROWDER. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank SONNY CALLAHAN, my good friend and fellow Alabamian, for arranging this special order and for all who are participating here.

I was in the gallery with my wife, Mr. Speaker, and I heard TOM BEVILL speaking about me and now it is my turn to speak about him.

For the past 30 years, TOM BEVILL has been representing our State and our country with distinction and dedication. His sincere interest in the betterment of this great land of ours has meant a great deal to many of our districts.

In my own district of east Alabama, for example, TOM BEVILL has exercised his leadership to help Alabama, Georgia, and Florida avoid a nasty scrap over the water resources we share. Because of the work and studies he sponsored, we seem to be moving toward a regional understanding on this vital issue.

TOM served 14 years as chairman of the House Appropriations Committee's Subcommittee on Energy and Water Resources. There is not a State in this country that is not a better place because of TOM BEVILL's work and his knowledge. Without a doubt he will leave an indelible imprint on our country that cannot be erased and will not be duplicated.

TOM has always been a special friend. He introduced me to the House when I was sworn in as a Member after a special election in 1989. At a time like that, it is nice to have a man of his stature speaking for you.

TOM has the respect of Members on both sides of the aisle. He has earned this respect by his hard work, his attention to detail, and his willingness to help another Member, even when there is no political gain for himself.

On this occasion I also want to mention TOM's lovely wife, Lou, who is as strong and caring a person as TOM. I wish them both the best for all they have done for Alabama and the rest of the country.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank Mr. BROWDER for his kind words and for his service.

I want to now introduce my next-door neighbor, the man who represents the congressional district next to mine, Congressman TERRY EVERETT, of Alabama.

Mr. EVERETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to first thank my colleague, SONNY CALLAHAN, for giving me and the rest of us this opportunity to offer a personal tribute to two of my colleagues who leave this House having earned very distinguished records of service. TOM BEVILL, the Fourth District of Alabama, and GLEN BROWDER, of the Third District, are well-known to the people of Alabama for their active leadership to Alabama and the Nation.

TOM BEVILL is the dean of the Alabama delegation here in Washington, having been elected to this body 30 years ago. TOM's gentlemanly manner, his character, and his great legislative skills have earned him the respect of his peers.

Having served as a long-time chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development, TOM's influence has, as has already been noted here, today has been felt over the entire Nation for decades in major energy research development and public works projects from coast to coast.

At home in Alabama, Chairman BEVILL led the drive to build the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway. We heard Mr. MONTGOMERY talk about signs in his district, in Mississippi, naming something after Mr. BEVILL. There is a joke that you cannot travel through a single town in Mr. BEVILL's district in north Alabama without seeing the Beville name on a building somewhere. And while that may be true, let it also be known that there is a Beville building on the campus of Sparks State Technical College in Eufaula, AL, down in my district in southeast Alabama.

TOM and his wife, Lou, will be missed here in Washington after January, but they certainly deserve a much earned rest back home in Jasper. I wish them both the very best, and I know that TOM will have more opportunities to meet with my good friend, our mutual friend, Doug Pearson, for coffee more often.

Mr. Speaker, I also want to speak about another departing colleague, GLEN BROWDER of Alabama of the Third District. GLEN BROWDER came to Congress in a special election in 1989 to fill the unexpired term of the late Congressman Bill Nichols.

GLEN, who sits with me on the House Committee on National Security, quickly proved his mettle in successfully blocking three out of four Base Closure Commission attempts to close Anniston's Fort McClellan Army base.

GLEN also made a name for himself as a budget hawk by gaining a seat on the House Committee on the Budget and adding focus to the congressional effort to reach a balanced budget. GLEN's fiscal conservatism and hard work in support of our Nation's military and veterans will be very, very much missed.

I wish him and his wife, Becky, the very best as they return to Jacksonville, AL.

Mr. Speaker, both these gentlemen have given great service to Alabama and to the Nation and have extended great courtesy to me personally and I thank them. God go with them.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Alabama, and at this time we are going to go outside the State of Alabama, Mr. Speaker. I yield time to the gentleman from Arkansas, Mrs. BLANCHE LINCOLN.

Mrs. LINCOLN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Alabama for yielding. I, too, Mr. Speaker, rise today to pay tribute to two fine gentlemen from the State of Alabama. I am also proud to be here among the other folks that are here paying tribute. I find myself in excellent company.

I have had the privilege of serving with these two gentlemen for my tenure here in the Congress. I feel like it has been a real honor to be along their side.

Congressman TOM BEVILL has served the Fourth District of Alabama with distinction since 1966, but in many ways he has served all of our districts at one time or another. As chairman of the Energy and Water Appropriations Subcommittee from 1967 to 1995, Congressman BEVILL has probably been more instrumental than any Member in protecting, preserving, and managing America's water resources.

His charge has not been an easy one in distributing an ever-shrinking amount of funds to an ever-increasing number of worthy projects from around the Nation. Yet he has always been fair and nonpartisan in his work, and his word is ironclad.

When I first came to Congress 4 years ago, the appropriations process was an unintelligible maze to me. In an effort to understand the process better and to serve my district, I went to TOM BEVILL for advice. It could have been a very intimidating experience, a young woman, new on Capitol Hill, visiting a powerful chairman, but it was not. TOM BEVILL welcomed me as an equal and treated me with the utmost of respect. He helped me learn more about the process and was instrumental in guiding several landmark Arkansas water projects through the Congress, one on behalf of the people of the First District of Arkansas. I want to thank him for his hard work on our behalf.

I know that Mr. BEVILL's best days are ahead of him as he leaves Congress to return to his life of a private citizen. I want to wish him and his wife Lou the best.

There is one story I think that I must share with the rest of my colleagues, and I think it says a little bit about Mr. BEVILL that we all really know.

Not only has he served the people of this country and of Alabama and all of our other districts well, he has done so in a very wise and gentlemanly way, but he has not forgotten the important things in life. One day as we sat on the floor here, Mr. BEVILL and I were visiting, and I had on a red jacket. And he looked at me and he said: I see you in that red jacket and, he said, I am reminded. My wife was wearing a red jacket the day that we first had our—I think it was the day you proposed to her, perhaps? Or maybe it was your first date.

TOM BEVILL does not forget, and he does not forget the most important things in life. He has served us all very well in this institution. He served our Nation and the folks of Alabama. We would all do well to follow the example of his career, commitment, fairness, grace, and humility. TOM BEVILL is the kind of Member and person that we all strive to be, and I am proud to have served here with him and to have learned so much.

Mr. Speaker, I also want to say a word about my fellow Congressman, GLEN BROWDER, from Alabama's Third District. I have had the true honor of serving as a blue dog with GLEN during the 104th Congress. GLEN, like myself, is a founding member of this notorious band of independent Democrats. We have worked hard for that name and have had a great deal of fun with it.

The blue dog mission, however, has been about meeting two principal goals: balancing the budget in a fiscally responsible as well as a fair way, and bringing commonsense solutions to Washington, DC.

Since coming to Congress in 1989, GLEN has never swayed from those goals. He was instrumental in crafting the blue dogs' balanced budget and had an active voice in all of our policy decisions.

I am not sure what GLEN's plans are for the future, but I certainly know he will bring the same dedications and honor to his new endeavors as he has to his work here in Congress. I join my colleagues in honoring these two gentlemen, and I wish them Godspeed in the future ahead for both of them.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman from Arkansas, and I now recognize the gentleman from north Alabama, Mr. CRAMER.

Mr. CRAMER. Mr. Speaker, I thank my colleague from Alabama. I, of course, want to stand here today to pay tribute to two of my best friends, TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER. I joined this Alabama team in 1991, so I have been here for 6 years. During that time the entire Alabama delegation taught me that Alabama has a notorious reputation for sticking together. We put Alabama's issues first, we put our party labels second.

□ 1615

And they demonstrated that all of the time that I was here. Of course, TOM BEVILL and I represent all of north Alabama. I have many industries in north Alabama that are dependent for their jobs on Federal budgets, like the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center and the Army presence at Redstone Arsenal. I have the Tennessee Valley Authority in north Alabama, as well.

We have so many connections to the Federal budget that if any part of it is squeezed, we feel part of the pain from that squeeze. TOM BEVILL jumped from the get-go when I got here to make sure that I had available to me his position of power, as I would put it, not as he would put it, there on the Subcommittee on Energy and Water and on the Committee on Appropriations, as well.

Whenever I needed to fight a battle, I could fight that battle with the presence of TOM BEVILL, literally. Tom and his wife Lou, his daughters Patty and Susan, and his son Don, are like family members to me, so it is very difficult for me to think of losing TOM BEVILL to this institution, much less as part of my professional life here in the Congress.

But as I stand here today in the presence of JOHN MYERS, and SONNY MONTGOMERY who left here, and listen to them talk, as I have both today and days before today, about their experiences here together and separately in this Congress, it makes me think that they just do not make people like that much anymore. They are all three illustrations to those of us here now that the behavior that we sometimes fall into does not have to be fallen into.

These are men who work well together. They put their partisan politics to the side. There is an appropriate place for that, but they bring into this institution daily a professionalism that would be hard to match this day and time. We are going to miss all three of them.

My colleague, GLEN BROWDER, was slightly behind me in his tenure here. I should say ahead of me; he came here slightly before I came here. And GLEN was, as well, an Alabama team member available to me when I got here; from Jacksonville State University, where he served on the faculty at that fine Alabama educational institution. He served also in the Alabama State House. He was Alabama Secretary of State as well. He brought that Alabama background to our Alabama team.

Of course, when you come to Congress you do not get to be on every committee you want to be on. GLEN was on the Armed Services Committee and, as I said, with our presence in north Alabama at the Redstone Arsenal, with the jobs that we had there, often I had to go to GLEN and say, "We in the Fifth District need your help." And he was available to me just as the rest of the Alabama team was available to me. And because I have the kind of district that I have, I was often turning to GLEN for advice about how do I get ready to fight NASA's battles on the floor or how do I help my district with the weather service issues that we constantly have there? And he was always available to help me, whether that meant meeting with constituents there or whether it was joining with me to lobby on the floor to win the victories that we needed to win.

GLEN, to you and your wife Becky, and daughter, I will lose you as family members, as well. I have enjoyed your presence and your moral support here in Congress. You, as well as TOM BEVILL, represent the kind of personality and professionalism that I want to be a part of while I am here. We will miss you, but we will look forward to seeing you and working with you in different ways. TOM BEVILL, GLEN BROWDER, we will miss you. Alabama thanks you, as we should.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I now yield time to the gentleman from Kentucky [Mr. ROGERS].

Mr. ROGERS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding and for taking out this special order to honor two of the very distinguished Members of this body who happen to be from the great State of Alabama.

GLEN BROWDER, whom we have known since he came here, one of the great and distinguished Members of this body who has served our country so very, very well in his tenure. And GLEN, we wish for you the best in your future endeavors, and we are going to miss your service around here. We hope we do not miss your company. We hope you will come back and be with us all the time that you can.

Of course, the other Member who is being honored here today, TOM BEVILL, whom I have had the pleasure of serving with not only in this body but in the committee and on his subcommittee of recent years, I do not know how I can summarize this man's life in Congress in 2 or 3 minutes. In fact, I do not think I can. But I am reminded of something that was written some years ago that I think applies to TOM BEVILL as well as anything that I could say, and I am just going to quote it.

The writing was, "Real generosity is doing something nice for someone who will never find it out."

And, Mr. Speaker, there are thousands of people in my district and in every district in this country who would not know TOM BEVILL's name and yet who have benefited magnificently from his work here in this body. He has been so many things to so many people, touching the lives of millions of people who would not know his name if they heard it and likely never will.

And that is the nature of the labors of TOM BEVILL. To his colleagues, he is both the quiet, genteel, gentle man who served as chairman of a very powerful subcommittee of this body, and he is a very caring southern gentleman in the corridors of this Capitol.

To his constituents back home, he was and is a man and leader who rose to one of the most powerful positions in the Federal Government and yet never forgot where he came from, where he lives, who he is, who sent him here, and what he could do for his district and his Nation.

And as has been said, the evidence of his devotion to his people back home is evident in every corner of his district in Alabama. And not just in his home district, as TERRY has said, but throughout the State of Alabama and certainly throughout the Nation.

His support for higher education is symbolized by the tremendous assistance he has been to the University of Alabama. His appreciation for his State's lands and rivers. I mentioned the Little River Canyon National Preserve as one star in his crown. And, of course, as has been mentioned, the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway. I will not forget going down to the dedication of that great economic boost to the entirety of the Southeast United States, and being so proud to stand there as TOM BEVILL was lauded by the people of his home region and the rest of this country for that signal improvement to the Southeast.

And of course I have been a very close friend with TOM over the years on so many fronts, but one comes to mind immediately, and that is his tremendous work on behalf of the Appalachian Regional Commission, a region that we share, and the ARC would not exist today had it not been for the work of TOM BEVILL. It would have been done away with years ago; certainly the funding would have been sliced to a negligible amount.

The same can be said of the Tennessee Valley Authority, which has meant so much to the economic growth of the entire South. And since TOM BEVILL has been here, the TVA has had no bigger and better or more effective supporter and promoter than TOM BEVILL.

We could talk about the silent work that he has done for which there is no notoriety or credit, even dating back to his very first days in the Congress, on this committee responsible, among other things, for the Nation's nuclear capability. It is this subcommittee that TOM BEVILL chaired for so many years that funded the Nation's nuclear weaponry, and of course that had to be done in supersecrecy.

And I know personally of the long hours that TOM BEVILL has sat and worked with the most powerful weaponry known to mankind, being sure that this Nation was prepared in the eventuality of that awful event of Armageddon. And through most of the cold war era it was TOM BEVILL who sat in the hall and decided how much money would be spent and for what in the Nation's preparation for our nuclear protection. That is a thankless job that TOM BEVILL did with great effectiveness and pride.

But my personal point of view, my district's point of view, there are literally thousands of people today in my district who are now protected from the ravages of nature, flooding, that TOM BEVILL saw to. And I suspect a great many Members of this body can say exactly the same thing, but I can say it with feeling, as can they, that TOM, our people thank you for your dedication to their well-being; people who never saw, people probably that would not recognize your name, except when I tell them who did it, that are now protected from these almost annual ravages of having their homes washed away, their family Bibles destroyed, their family pictures washed away. Everything they have would be gone. Today they can say they are safe because of your service to your country and to them in this great body. The infrastructure of our country has done well because of your tenure.

I am reminded of two stonecutters who were asked the same question, and I say this because TOM BEVILL kept in mind why he was here all the while. He did not waiver. He did not wander, he was always there. Two stonecutters were asked the same question: What are you doing? The first one said, "I am cutting this block into two pieces." The second one, though, said, "I am on a team and we are building a cathedral."

TOM has been on the team, and he has been building not a cathedral but a much, much better America, and for that we are eternally thankful to him.

I have to say this in closing, too. His wife, Lou, was one of my and my late wife Shirley's best friends. These two people, as his close friends and even distant friends know, are two of the best people that God ever created. Lou, an accomplished musician among other things in her life, is a true American and a great American, and someone that we are going to miss almost as much as TOM, if not more so. But we are going to miss the service of a gentle man. He was gentle, and yet when it came to the things that he believed in, a better America, he was tenacious and he persevered and at times was even ferocious in his defense of these things so important to him, his district, and our people across the country.

I know that TOM and Lou are going to enjoy the next phase of their life. We hope for the very, very best. We hope that they will at least come back and honor us with their presence, because we are going to sorely miss their personal friendship in their absence from us for what time they are absent.

So, TOM, in your next phase of your life, we wish you Godspeed.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Kentucky. And I now recognize the gentleman from Alabama [Mr. BACHUS].

Mr. BACHUS. Mr. Speaker, I thank Mr. CALLAHAN.

Mr. CRAMER mentioned the Alabama delegation and what a special group I think we are. I think he said it better than I would have said it when he said that party labels come second. We put the interest of the State first.

We have not had the partisan wrangling that we have sort of seen in this Congress in our delegation. We really like each other, we work well together, we cooperate together. It is the sort of bipartisanship that this country needs, and you see it in the Alabama delegation. And I think that the two gentlemen we are here to give tribute to today are two of the big reasons for that.

GLEN BROWDER and TOM BEVILL, you all were here before I came. You worked well together. You worked well with SONNY CALLAHAN and Bill Dickenson, and you sort of established that tradition in the Alabama delegation, something that I benefited from, something that the State of Alabama has benefited from, our delegation, working together for the good of the State and for the Nation. And, first of all, I think that is a legacy that you all will leave with those who stay behind, that we will continue as an Alabama delegation to put aside petty politics and party labels for the best interests of our State.

So I compliment you first for that.

Second, I compliment you for the fact that you have been a good example to me, both of you. When I came here, I came into a Congress where I was a Member of a minority party. And probably the first month I was here, the first legislation that I decided to sponsor, a little piece of legislation, saved a little bit of money in the total picture, but I went to TOM BEVILL. I am not sure at that time I appreciated that he was a powerful cardinal on appropriations. I probably did not even know that I was not supposed to be approaching him at the time, but I approached him and I asked him to cosponsor my bill with me.

He could have said, I am not going to cosponsor a bill with you. You are a little Republican freshman and I am not going to give you the benefit of my reputation. It is too small a bill. It is just too inconsequential. I am working on important issues that affect this country every day. I do not want to give a young Republican Congressman anything that might give him an advantage.

But, no, Mr. Speaker, he put all of that aside. He saw that it was good legislation, and he cosponsored it with me. I was able to get Members on both sides of the aisle to join with me in that legislation because TOM BEVILL's name was on that legislation.

I will never forget that, TOM. Mr. ROGERS from Kentucky, his district and your district are very much alike. One is in Kentucky; one is in Alabama. But they are Appalachia. They are hard-working people. They are God-fearing people. And he much better than I could describe, he served with you here longer. He has known you and Lou, he and his late wife Shirley. You all were good friends. He knows you man to man. He can much better talk about your legacy than I can. I enjoyed listening to that. I can simply say that I second everything that he said in that regard. He certainly gave a wonderful tribute to you.

I would only add to that by saying that I have been so impressed with your wife, Lou Bevill. She sort of, I guess if you pick out someone that you want your wife to sort of use as a role model, because she is here, she is up here and she, as my wife is, they are both here with us during the week. I am so impressed with her, her and Mike Heflin. It is hard to talk about GLEN BROWDER and TOM BEVILL without thinking about Senator HEFLIN because that is sort of a dynamic trio that we are going to be without. I am going to miss you; I am going to miss Lou. I am going to miss Senator HEFLIN, and I am going to miss Mike. It is hard to think of you without thinking of Lou. It is hard to think about Senator HEFLIN without thinking about Mike. I wanted to tell you how much I appreciated her and her example.

Mr. EVERETT mentioned the joke about every building in north Alabama having a Bevill center. I told you about a year ago at a reception that we had, I was actually trying to describe a town in your district to someone. And I described it as having a railroad that ran through it and about two traffic lights. It was on Highway 78. That really did not give them much of an indication.

I remembered that there was a building in the town that said the Bevill Building. I said, it has a building named after TOM BEVILL. And actually this person's remark back to me was, You have not eliminated one town on Highway 78 by saying it had a Bevill Building in it.

So you have left behind in your district a better place and something that you can be proud of.

They mentioned the University of Alabama. You have been committed also to our community colleges in Alabama. Even as a member of the State legislature, GLEN and I preceded you several years later, but you were one of the first in Alabama to recognize that not everybody could go to the University of Alabama; not everybody could go 120 miles to Auburn University. So some people had to go in their communities. If they had to travel over 20 or 30 or 40 miles, they simply would not get an education. And you were one of the people in Alabama who led the fight for community colleges. Thousands and literally millions of Alabamians owe that part of their education to your insight and your wisdom and your participation in that.

GLEN BROWDER, I will tell you a tribute, once a man asked me if I would recommend him for a job. I said that I would recommend him because he had coached my little boy in Little League and he had done a good job. You learn something about somebody when they coach your son in Little League baseball. You get a real insight into them. And I remember that when I came up here and GLEN BROWDER and I were going to serve together, I knew GLEN, as we had been in the State legislature together. You had been a constitutional officer in the State. I had been. But I knew you as capable. I knew you as articulate. I knew you as a good man. But Randy Dempsey, one of my law partners, he had been in your class. You taught him at Jacksonville State. And you had evidently been a mentor to him and you had encouraged him.

He shared with me what a fine teacher you were and how you really cared about your students and how your students really enjoyed your classes. You did a good job and you really cared about the students. GLEN, that has always impressed me, that someone who was there in your classroom had such a wonderful opinion of you.

Becky, your wife, people like Becky, people are impressed with Becky. There, again, both of you, you all have several similarities. One is that you are committed to your family. You are committed to your marriages. I commend you. You are a good example in that regard.

GLEN, you are going to leave a legacy to our gulf war veterans. That is something that I came about 25 minutes ago and I had not heard anybody mention. But I am not sure if you are not the first person to go over to the Pentagon and say, we have got people that have returned from the gulf war. They are sick.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I hate to interrupt the gentleman from Birmingham, but we only have 4 minutes left and we have two more distinguished speakers.

Mr. BACHUS. I will simply say this, GLEN. That is a devastating illness. You have been at the forefront of that and you are to be commended on that. And all our gulf veterans and all of us who support the military owe you a debt of gratitude for that.

Mr. CALLAHAN. I certainly hate to interrupt the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Minnesota, Mr. VENTO.

Mr. VENTO. I thank the gentleman, Mr. CALLAHAN, for this special order and wanted to commend my friends and colleagues, Congressmen TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER. I think that what we see epitomized in these two good national policymakers is the magic of what happens in Congress.

People are elected with many different talents and they assume responsibility here, and although they are not specialists in national security or specialists in the role, they grow into that role and do yeoman's service. That certainly is the case with our friend GLEN BROWDER, and TOM BEVILL has grown really to be a giant in the work he has done in trying to hold together programs like the Corps of Engineers.

Over 30 years we have seen that evolve from a far different role than what it has played before. It really shows up when you work with him on a different project, as we did with a park unit in his district. It was one of the easier jobs I have had chairing the committee because I did not have to ask anyone to help. TOM did all the work, and he had helped so many Members of Congress and had had such an impact that it was obviously with acclaim that that was enacted. TOM, it was a tough job for you but we commend you and Lou and GLEN and Becky, and we wish you well. I know in the case of GLEN it is just an interruption in terms of his public service. We look to see him back in action quite soon. Best wishes to you all. Thank you for your services for the country.

Mr. Speaker, let me congratulate TOM BEVILL and thank his colleague from Alabama for sponsoring this special order in TOM BEVILL's and GLEN BROWDER's honor. These are really two good Members who will be missed and reflect very positively upon the Congress, their good State of Alabama, and the Nation.

GLEN BROWDER a teacher, farmer, Alabama State legislator, and State official served in Congress for 8 years, and has made an impressive contribution in national security and congressional reform issues. GLEN sought election to the other body, and for the moment is sidelined from public service but I've every expectation that our friend GLEN BROWDER will be back in public service in the near future.

My best to GLEN, Becky, and their family as they make a transition within public service.

TOM BEVILL for over 30 years has labored and contributed in his role of representing the people of Alabama in the U.S. House. His work on the Appropriations Committee has been very important, in the last years he has reformed and guided this program of projects based on merit not just legislative clout.

TOM has been my neighbor in the Rayburn Office Building these past 10 years. We've spent many days walking back and forth to the floor to vote, he has been a good counselor and friend. I was pleased to work with TOM on the Little River Canyon National Park Unit in the authorizing process as I led the Parks and Public Lands Subcommittee, one of the easier tasks I had because TOM really did the heavy lifting. He had more friends, both Democrats and Republicans, that were interested in helping which is a real tribute for TOM BEVILL. Naturally this become the first national park unit in Alabama, a legacy that will hopefully be in Alabama forever a testament to Congressman BEVILL.

My colleague, my friend, you have well earned your place in our affection and best wishes to you TOM, Lou and the family in the years ahead as you enjoy your free time from the duties of service in the Congress.

Mr. CALLAHAN. I yield to the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. HOYER].

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I thank my friend, Cardinal CALLAHAN, for yielding.

Mr. CALLAHAN. You may approach.

Mr. HOYER. I have just a few minutes. Two decent Americans are leaving the service of the people's House at the end of this year. This House will be a lesser body for their departure. Alabama will have suffered a significant loss.

Each of us individually in this House will have lost good friends. GLEN BROWDER is a relative newcomer relative to Mr. BEVILL but then again, most of us are relative newcomers relative to Mr. BEVILL. GLEN BROWDER, as SPENCE BACHUS indicated, is someone who cares about people, who is a capable, able, regular guy that you would be proud to have as your dad or your brother or your uncle or as your Congressman. I have been honored to serve with him.

TOM BEVILL is a giant. TOM BEVILL helped America invest in its future. One of the first votes I cast was on the Tennessee-Tombigbee when I came here to Congress. It was a controversial vote. It was the right vote. TOM BEVILL stood and said if America is to grow, if we are to create jobs, if we are to have economic viability and be competitive in world markets, we need to invest in America.

TOM BEVILL is my friend and he is an historic figure in this body. Few Members who have ever served in this House will be able to look back on their record of making America better. That is TOM BEVILL's. God bless you, TOM.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Alabama, Mr. HILLIARD.

Mr. HILLIARD. Mr. Speaker, I am very appreciative for the time to both of my friends, TOM BEVILL as well as GLEN BROWDER. I am very happy to have had the pleasure to serve with both of them. I have known GLEN BROWDER for about 20 years. We served together in the Alabama State Legislature, and it was indeed a pleasure to have had the opportunity to serve with him there as well as here.

But to my good friend TOM BEVILL, he has been a true Alabamian, he has been a true American. He has been true to the cause. He has been fantastic in what he has done for this country. I congratulate him for his length of service, and I thank you for giving me the opportunity of being here with you.

I will surely miss both TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER. We have been lucky, and yes, blessed, to have had two such strong Congressmen as these men, they are able and true. First, I must mention my good friend, TOM BEVILL of Alabama's Fourth District. Mr. BEVILL, as chairman of the Appropriations' Energy and Water Development Subcommittee created the Tenn-Tomm Waterway which flows through the length of my district. Just last week, TOM helped me in my efforts to stop the flooding along Birmingham's Village Creek, an area which is not even close to Mr. BEVILL's district, but that is the kind of man he is, kind and caring, a real gentleman.

Also, Mr. Speaker, allow me to say how much I will also miss Alabama's GLEN BROWDER, of the Third District. GLEN, a former political science professor, as well as a member of the Alabama Legislature, brought a professionalism to the House and to the Armed Services Committee which is hard to beat.

We will miss both of you, Congressman BEVILL and Mr. BROWDER.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, in closing, let me thank the Speaker for his patience. I recognize our time has expired. The gentleman from Louisiana, I think, is next going to be recognized and he has indicated since so many Members want to pay homage to TOM that he may yield some time to them. But this is not a eulogy. This is just an appreciation ceremony to two great Americans.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my colleague, the distinguished gentleman from Alabama, SONNY CALLAHAN, for reserving this special order. We gather today to pay tribute to retiring members of the Alabama congressional delegation. I am honored to join my colleagues in saluting Congressman GLEN BROWDER, who represents the Third Congressional District of Alabama.

GLEN BROWDER was elected to the U.S. Congress in a special election in 1989. Prior to his election, GLEN served in the Alabama State House of Representatives from 1982 to 1986. In 1986, GLEN BROWDER won election as Alabama's Secretary of State, and served with distinction in that capacity. Thus, he came to this legislative body armed with strong political skills and a commitment to public service. During his 7-year tenure in the Congress, the Nation has benefited as a result of his leadership on important issues.

Mr. Speaker, GLEN BROWDER has served with distinction on the National Security Committee where he is a member of the Subcommittee on Military Installations and Facilities, and Military Readiness. In addition, he is the ranking minority member of the Subcommittee on Morale, Welfare and Recreation. GLEN has also served with distinction as a member of the House Budget Committee.

During his career in the House, we recall GLEN BROWDER's efforts to serve his constituents by keeping Fort McClellan Army Base operational. He has pushed the Defense Department to be more forthcoming on the use of chemical weapons during the Persian Gulf war. GLEN BROWDER has also gained respect for spearheading efforts to reform our Nation's campaign finance regulations. His hard work has earned him the respect and admiration of his colleagues and others across the Nation.

Mr. Speaker, as he departs this legislative Chamber, we pause to pay tribute to GLEN BROWDER. He is a skilled legislator whose voice will be missed in the Halls of Congress. We also extend our good wishes to his wife, Becky, and members of the Browder family. GLEN is a good friend who will always be remembered.

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to join my colleagues in acknowledging one of the finest Members of the House of Representatives, TOM BEVILL.

As a Member of this House since 1966, TOM has been a respected and intellectual leader. His work as chairman of the Subcommittee on Energy and Water Appropriations has produced the Nation's major energy research programs and America's water resource projects. TOM has also been a true advocate for senior citizens by working hard in defense of Social Security.

I want to specifically mention that TOM always found time amidst his extremely busy schedule to consider the concerns of other Members. I remember a time when TOM came to my home State of New Mexico to study the irrigation needs of the Hispanic communities in my district. Because of TOM's assistance and support, many of New Mexico's centuries old irrigation ditches, so-called acequias, have received critical congressional funding for needed repair and restoration. Not only did TOM devote his energy and skill to his constituents, but he also found time to care about mine.

TOM added dignity to this House by working in the spirit of bipartisanship, and he will definitely be missed. Good luck, TOM and thank you for all you have done for this great institution.

Mr. RAHALL. Mr. Speaker, I feel particularly privileged to be able to say farewell to Representatives TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER of Alabama as friends as well as beloved colleagues in the House. I have learned much from them, and I appreciate their having allowed me to grow as a Member by drawing from the wealth of their experience and their knowledge.

TOM BEVILL was elected a full 10 years ahead of my election to the House, in 1966, and he has been reelected by overwhelming margins ever since by the folks he represents in Alabama's Fourth Congressional District.

As chairman of the Energy and Water Appropriations Subcommittee, TOM has stood with me many, many times on behalf of the people I serve in southern West Virginia as we worked together to facilitate development of West Virginia's waterways and energy development projects. My constituents have benefited greatly through TOM's willingness to listen and to understand and to respond to the needs of my congressional district with respect to water resources development and Corps of Engineers projects throughout southern West Virginia.

TOM BEVILL's mastery of the appropriations process is legendary. The people of the Fourth Congressional District of Alabama are indeed fortunate to have had such a champion fighting for their needs all these years, and he will be long remembered by all of us who remain behind here in this body as the man who helped each of us better serve our own constituents. He is a man who believed that every dollar he ever appropriated was spent on a worthy cause—to help someone down on his luck, to help a community grow, to help a university educate its young people, to ensure that a small child had enough to eat. And he believed that money for these purposes needed to be spent in Alabama, and in West Virginia, and in every State in the Union.

TOM BEVILL has served with distinction, pride, integrity and style. He will be sorely missed in the years to come by this House of Representatives.

GLEN BROWDER, elected in 1989, has served with distinction on the National Security Committee, formerly the Armed Services Committee, where he has labored to fulfill a responsibility to assure that our Nation's military readiness is second to none in the world.

While many of us in the House never served on committees with jurisdiction over out national security, I knew, and my colleagues knew, that we could rely upon GLEN's knowledge and expertise in the area of national defense in keeping us strong as a nation and ready to defend our country, its people, and our allies abroad. We knew that GLEN's thoroughness and his vast knowledge about our armed services and military readiness, would lead to a reasonable and responsible use of our vast military resources where they would do the most good.

GLEN also served his constituents in the Third Congressional District of Alabama, not only by making wise decisions of our Nation's security, but by taking great care to see to the domestic needs of the people in Alabama's Third Congressional District. He combined his natural leadership skills with his innate sensitivity to their socioeconomic circumstances in order to improve the lives of his people.

Above all, both TOM and GLEN deeply believed in good Government throughout their tenures in the House, and their years of service and commitment to good government is visible across this great country. I commend them for their diligent service to Alabama and to the United States.

I wish them both Godspeed.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my colleague, the distinguished gentleman from Alabama, SONNY CALLAHAN, for reserving this special order. We gather today to pay tribute to retiring members of the Alabama congressional delegation. I am honored to join my colleagues in paying special tribute to TOM BEVILL, who will depart the U.S. Congress at the end of this legislative session.

TOM BEVILL was first elected to the U.S. Congress on November 8, 1966. His retirement brings to a close a 30-year career in public service. I share the sentiments of many others who state that TOM is one of the most respected and effective Members to have served in this legislative body.

Mr. Speaker, TOM BEVILL is a senior member of the House Appropriations Committee and the former chairman of its Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development. He is also a member of the Appropriations Subcommittee on the Interior. Through these assignments, TOM BEVILL has been instrumental in funding the Nation's major energy research programs and our Nation's water resource development projects.

The Fourth Congressional District of Alabama has benefited as a result of TOM BEVILL's commitment and hard work. I recall working closely with TOM BEVILL on the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway project. It was an important initiative that could not have gone forward without his strong leadership. During his tenure in Congress, TOM has also demonstrated a steadfast commitment to education. A leading defender of Social Security and Medicare, as well as a strong advocate for health care, TOM has earned the support of our Nation's seniors.

Mr. Speaker, I have been privileged to serve in the Congress with TOM BEVILL. He is a skilled lawmaker and a dedicated public servant. He is also a gentleman and a close personal friend. Throughout our Appropriations Committee and floor deliberations, he has been the voice of reason and compassion. Members on both sides of the aisle will agree that over the years, TOM BEVILL has taught us valuable lessons about working together and public service. I am proud to share a very special relationship with TOM BEVILL. He is someone whom I greatly admire and respect.

Mr. Speaker, as he departs this legislative Chamber, I join my colleagues in saluting TOM BEVILL for a job well done. I also extend my best wishes to his charming wife, Lou, and members of the Bevill family. TOM BEVILL will be missed in the Halls of Congress. We take pride in knowing, however, that he leaves behind a record of legislative achievement and service that will stand in the years to come.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. QUINN). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. JACKSON] is recognized for 60 minutes.

CONTINUED TRIBUTE TO TOM BEVILL AND GLEN BROWDER

Mr. JACKSON of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, with that I yield to the distinguished ranking member, the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. STOKES].

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Illinois for yielding to me. I will just take a couple of moments of his time. I am sorry that I did not arrive earlier to be able to speak on Mr. CALLAHAN's special order on behalf of TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER. Mr. OBEY and I have been in a House-Senate conference on the VA-HUD bill, and we just got a chance to get here to the floor.

I will just take a moment, but I do want to say that with reference to TOM BEVILL, with whom I have served almost all the time that I have been in the Congress, that I have established a lot of friendships in this Congress but no greater friendship have I had than that I have had with TOM BEVILL. I do not know of any Member of Congress who is respected any more highly than he is, nor do I know of anyone who has made a greater contribution to this Nation than he has.

We have worked on a lot of projects together over the years and it has been a real privilege and honor to serve with him, to get to know not only him but members of his family, his lovely wife and members of his family. I want to say we are going to miss TOM here.

□ 1645

His level of leadership has been something that we can all point to as a model and with great admiration.

In the same vein, I want to take just a second to say what a pleasure and privilege it has been to serve with GLEN BROWDER. He too, following in the footsteps of TOM BEVILL and other leaders from Alabama, has been a real model here. He has had a long and distinguished record legislatively and is someone whom all of us not only admire, but we will miss greatly when he leaves this body.

And just lastly, TOM, I might say that I am sure that our good friend, Bob Jones, is watching this special order this afternoon and I am sure there is a smile on his face with the knowledge that you and I shared a special friendship over the years.

Mr. JACKSON of Illinois. I thank you, Mr. STOKES.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the distinguished ranking member of the Committee on Appropriations, Mr. OBEY.

Mr. OBEY. I thank the gentleman. I do not want to impose on his time. I would simply ask unanimous consent that the remarks I made about our good friend, TOM BEVILL, when we considered the energy and water appropriations bill be incorporated in my remarks at this point in the RECORD and to simply say again, TOM, how much I have enjoyed the opportunity to serve with you and how grateful we are for the service you have given the country.

And I want to say to GLEN that you have, I think, performed tremendous service in this institution with good humor and with grace, with understanding of other people's points of view and with deep commitment to the things that you believe in. That is what makes this country strong, and that is what makes this institution what it is supposed to be, and I thank you both for your service here.

Mr. JACKSON of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I certainly want to take this opportunity to thank TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER, as well, for their years of service to this institution, and while I have not had the privilege of knowing and working with them at the level that I wish I could have, their reputations in this institution as genuine public servants certainly precedes them and I am just honored to have the privilege to be from the State of Illinois, to follow in their tradition of public service. The roles that they have represented in this institution are not without great distinction and without the kind of merit that truly needs to be bestowed upon public servants in this institution.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

Mr. JACKSON of Illinois. Today, Mr. Speaker, I am joined by the distinguished gentleman from Louisiana [Mr. FIELDS] to talk about an issue of critical importance during this electoral season, the issue of affirmative action, and with that, Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman to engage with me in colloquy for the remainder and the balance of our time.

Mr. FIELDS of Louisiana. I thank the gentleman, and I, too, would like to add to the accolades that have been bestowed upon both TOM BEVILL and GLEN BROWDER for their years of service. As a young Member of this Congress, I want to thank each of you for the leadership that you have shown on the floor of the House. You have always conducted yourselves in a very professional manner, and I would hope that people outside of this Chamber have had the opportunity to watch the two of you on the floor, and also in committee. Hopefully, the Congress is better served because you had an opportunity, the two of you had the opportunity, to serve. And as a young Member, I say to you, I appreciate the leadership that you have given to others such as myself.

I want to thank the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. JACKSON] for yielding to me. I want to apologize to the gentleman. I had intended to be a part of this entire hour. I will not be able to participate the full hour, but I want to thank the gentleman for bringing such an important issue to the forefront, and that is affirmative action.

Today, the Small Business Committee held hearings which assessed the value and the continued need for the Small Business Administration's 8(a) program—one of the most successful programs for helping the socially and economically disadvantaged to become self-reliant entrepreneurs. It is no surprise that we find ourselves addressing the issue of affirmative action during this political season—for despite what all of the macroeconomic indicators may describe, many in our Nation find themselves dominated by economic anxiety. We know from past experience that in such a climate politicians use the fear-driven dynamic of scapegoating and blame to divide us from each other.

We are at a critical juncture in the way our Nation addresses issues of race and gender. The greatest civil rights gains were achieved in the 1950's and 1960's at a time of economic health, prosperity, and growth. Today, as we face the results of the globalization of the economy, the downsizing of Government and corporate America, fear-driven political divisiveness abounds and threatens the gains we have made.

There is probably no issue in current political discourse that speaks more to the Nation's acceptance or denial of the existence of race and gender discrimination than affirmative action.
