

Synchronization Act, allows States to quickly implement traffic light synchronization projects, which would likely lower vehicle emissions. The bill also requires the EPA to examine the effects of traffic synchronization projects in all subsequent conformity reviews.

I believe that the two bills we are considering today are good examples of how the corrections day process works well in a bipartisan manner with the agency and committees of jurisdiction. I want to recognize the Committees on Transportation and Commerce, Chairman SHUSTER and Chairman BLILEY, and their staffs for the expedient and hard work they did to get these bills to the floor. I am hopeful that the Senate will recognize the need for quick action and send these bills to the President without delay.

Mr. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I also rise in support of this measure as amended by the Commerce Committee. It will clarify our intent that traffic signal synchronization projects should go forward without delay while still preserving the overall duty of regional authorities to monitor the air quality impacts of transportation projects. In this way, the bill promotes local flexibility while ensuring that air quality will not be harmed.

I do regret that we must even take up this amendment to the Clean Air Act. It is my strong view that there should never have been an issue as to whether traffic light projects that ease congestion are subject to the Clean Air Act's conformity requirements. However, EPA failed to reach this common sense conclusion so we are forced to act.

I thank Chairman BLILEY, Mr. MCKEON—the author of the measure—and Mr. WAXMAN for their work on this bill.

I urge my colleagues to vote "yes" on the measure.

Mr. SCHAEFER. Madam Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. GREENE of Utah). Pursuant to the rule, the previous question is ordered on the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute and the bill.

The question is on the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute.

The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The question was taken; and (three-fifths having voted in favor thereof) the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. SCHAEFER. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and that I may be permitted to insert extraneous material in the RECORD on the bill just passed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Colorado?

There was no objection.

(a) AMENDMENT.—Part B of title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1071 et seq.) is amended by inserting after section 439 (20 U.S.C. 1087-2) the following new section:

"SEC. 440. REORGANIZATION OF THE STUDENT LOAN MARKETING ASSOCIATION THROUGH THE FORMATION OF A HOLDING COMPANY.

"(a) ACTIONS BY THE ASSOCIATION'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS.—The Board of Directors of the Association shall take or cause to be taken all such action as the Board of Directors deems necessary or appropriate to effect, upon the shareholder approval described in subsection (b), a restructuring of the common stock ownership of the Association, as set forth in a plan of reorganization adopted by the Board of Directors (the terms of which shall be consistent with this section) so that all of the outstanding common shares of the Association shall be directly owned by a Holding Company. Such actions may include, in the Board of Director's discretion, a merger of a wholly owned subsidiary of the Holding Company with and into the Association, which would have the effect provided in the plan of reorganization and the law of the jurisdiction in which such subsidiary is incorporated. As part of the restructuring, the Board of Directors may cause—

"(1) the common shares of the Association to be converted, on the reorganization effective date, to common shares of the Holding Company on a one for one basis, consistent with applicable State or District of Columbia law; and

"(2) Holding Company common shares to be registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

"(b) SHAREHOLDER APPROVAL.—The plan of reorganization adopted by the Board of Directors pursuant to subsection (a) shall be submitted to common shareholders of the Association for their approval. The reorganization shall occur on the reorganization effective date, provided that the plan of reorganization has been approved by the affirmative votes, cast in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Association common stock.

"(c) TRANSITION.—In the event the shareholders of the Association approve the plan of reorganization under subsection (b), the following provisions shall apply beginning on the reorganization effective date:

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as specifically provided in this section, until the dissolution date the Association shall continue to have all of the rights, privileges and obligations set forth in, and shall be subject to all of the limitations and restrictions of, section 439, and the Association shall continue to carry out the purposes of such section. The Holding Company and any subsidiary of the Holding Company (other than the Association) shall not be entitled to any of the rights, privileges, and obligations, and shall not be subject to the limitations and restrictions, applicable to the Association under section 439, except as specifically provided in this section. The Holding Company and any subsidiary of the Holding Company (other than the Association or a subsidiary of the Association) shall not purchase loans insured under this Act until such time as the Association ceases acquiring such loans, except that the Holding Company may purchase such loans if the Association is merely continuing to acquire loans as a lender of last resort pursuant to section 439(q) or under an agreement with the Secretary described in paragraph (6).

"(2) TRANSFER OF CERTAIN PROPERTY.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in this section, on the reorganization effective date or as soon as practicable thereafter, the Association shall use the Association's best efforts to transfer to the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company (or both), as directed by the Holding Company, all real and personal property of the Association (both tangible and intangible) other than the remaining property. Subject to the preceding sentence, such transferred property shall include all right, title, and interest in—

“(i) direct or indirect subsidiaries of the Association (excluding special purpose funding companies in existence on the date of enactment of this section and any interest in any government-sponsored enterprise);

“(ii) contracts, leases, and other agreements of the Association;

“(iii) licenses and other intellectual property of the Association; and “(iv) any other property of the Association.

“(B) CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit the Association from transferring remaining property from time to time to the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company, subject to the provisions of paragraph (4).

“(3) TRANSFER OF PERSONNEL.—On the reorganization effective date, employees of the Association shall become employees of the Holding Company (or any subsidiary of the Holding Company), and the Holding Company (or any subsidiary of the Holding Company) shall provide all necessary and appropriate management and operational support (including loan servicing) to the Association, as requested by the Association. The Association, however, may obtain such management and operational support from persons or entities not associated with the Holding Company.

“(4) DIVIDENDS.—The Association may pay dividends in the form of cash or noncash distributions so long as at the time of the declaration of such dividends, after giving effect to the payment of such dividends as of the date of such declaration by the Board of Directors of the Association, the Association's capital would be in compliance with the capital standards and requirements set forth in section 439(r). If, at any time after the reorganization effective date, the Association fails to comply with such capital standards, the Holding Company shall transfer with due diligence to the Association additional capital in such amounts as are necessary to ensure that the Association again complies with the capital standards.

“(5) CERTIFICATION PRIOR TO DIVIDEND.—Prior to the payment of any dividend under paragraph (4), the Association shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury that the payment of the dividend will be made in compliance with paragraph (4) and shall provide copies of all calculations needed to make such certification.

“(6) RESTRICTIONS ON NEW BUSINESS ACTIVITY OR ACQUISITION OF ASSETS BY ASSOCIATION.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—After the reorganization effective date, the Association shall not engage in any new business activities or acquire any additional program assets described in section 439(d) other than in connection with—

“(i) student loan purchases through September 30, 2007;

“(ii) contractual commitments for future warehousing advances, or pursuant to letters of credit or standby bond purchase agreements, which are outstanding as of the reorganization effective date;

“(iii) the Association serving as a lender-of-last-resort pursuant to section 439(q); and

“(iv) the Association's purchase of loans insured under this part, if the Secretary, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, enters into an agreement with the Association for the continuation or resumption of the Association's secondary market purchase program because the Secretary determines there is inadequate liquidity for loans made under this part.

“(B) AGREEMENT.—The Secretary is authorized to enter into an agreement described in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) with the Association covering such secondary market activities. Any agreement entered into under such clause shall cover a period of 12 months, but may be renewed if the Secretary determines that liquidity remains inadequate. The fee provided under section 439(h)(7) shall not apply to loans acquired under any such agreement with the Secretary.

“(7) ISSUANCE OF DEBT OBLIGATIONS DURING THE TRANSITION PERIOD; ATTRIBUTES OF DEBT OBLIGATIONS.—After the reorganization effective date, the Association shall not issue debt obligations which mature later than September 30, 2008, except in connection with serving as a lender-of-last-resort pursuant to section 439(q) or with purchasing loans under an agreement with the Secretary as described in paragraph (6). Nothing in this section shall modify the attributes accorded the debt obligations of the Association by section 439, regardless of whether such debt obligations are incurred prior to, or at any time following, the reorganization effective date or are transferred to a trust in accordance with subsection (d).

“(8) MONITORING OF SAFETY AND SOUNDNESS.—

“(A) OBLIGATION TO OBTAIN, MAINTAIN, AND REPORT INFORMATION.—The Association shall obtain such information and make and keep such records as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe concerning—

“(i) the financial risk to the Association resulting from the activities of any associated person, to the extent such activities are reasonably likely to have a material impact on the financial condition of the Association, including the Association's capital ratio, the Association's liquidity, or the Association's ability to conduct and finance the Association's operations; and

“(ii) the Association's policies, procedures, and systems for monitoring and controlling any such financial risk.

“(B) SUMMARY REPORTS.—The Secretary of the Treasury may require summary reports of the information described in subparagraph (A) to be filed no more frequently than quarterly. If, as a result of adverse market conditions or based on reports provided pursuant to this subparagraph or other available information, the Secretary of the Treasury has concerns regarding the financial or operational condition of the Association, the Secretary of the Treasury may, notwithstanding the preceding sentence and subparagraph (A), require the Association to make reports concerning the activities of any associated person whose business activities are reasonably likely to have a material impact on the financial or operational condition of the Association.

“(C) SEPARATE OPERATION OF CORPORATIONS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—The funds and assets of the Association shall at all times be maintained separately from the funds and assets of the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company and may be used by the Association solely to carry out the Association's purposes and to fulfill the Association's obligations.

“(ii) BOOKS AND RECORDS.—The Association shall maintain books and records that clearly reflect the assets and liabilities of the Association, separate from the assets and liabilities of the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company.

“(iii) CORPORATE OFFICE.—The Association shall maintain a corporate office that is physically separate from any office of the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company.

“(iv) DIRECTOR.—No director of the Association who is appointed by the President pursuant to section 439(c)(1)(A) may serve as a director of the Holding Company.

“(v) ONE OFFICER REQUIREMENT.—At least one officer of the Association shall be an officer solely of the Association.

“(vi) TRANSACTIONS.—Transactions between the Association and the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company, including any loan servicing arrangements, shall be on terms no less favorable to the Association than the Association could obtain from an unrelated third party offering comparable services.

“(vii) CREDIT PROHIBITION.—The Association shall not extend credit to the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company nor guarantee or provide any credit enhancement to any debt obligations of the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company.

“(viii) AMOUNTS COLLECTED.—Any amounts collected on behalf of the Association by the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company with respect to the assets of the Association, pursuant to a servicing contract or other arrangement between the Association and the Holding Company or any subsidiary of the Holding Company, shall be collected solely for the benefit of the Association and shall be immediately deposited by the Holding Company or such subsidiary to an account under the sole control of the Association.

“(D) ENCUMBRANCE OF ASSETS.—Notwithstanding any Federal or State law, rule, or regulation, or legal or equitable principle, doctrine, or theory to the contrary, under no circumstances shall the assets of the Association be available or used to pay claims or debts of or incurred by the Holding Company. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed to limit the right of the Association to pay dividends not otherwise prohibited under this subparagraph or to limit any liability of the Holding Company explicitly provided for in this section.

“(E) HOLDING COMPANY ACTIVITIES.—After the reorganization effective date and prior to the dissolution date, all business activities of the Holding Company shall be conducted through subsidiaries of the Holding Company.

“(F) CONFIDENTIALITY.—Any information provided by the Association pursuant to this section shall be subject to the same confidentiality obligations contained in section 439(r)(12).

“(G) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘associated person’ means any person, other than a natural person, who is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the Association.

“(9) ISSUANCE OF STOCK WARRANTS.—On the reorganization effective date, the Holding Company shall issue to the Secretary of the Treasury a number of stock warrants that is equal to one percent of the outstanding shares of the Association, determined as of the last day of the fiscal quarter preceding the date of enactment of this section, with each stock warrant entitling the holder of the stock warrant to purchase from the Holding Company one share of the registered common stock of the Holding Company or the Holding Company's successors or assigns, at any time on or before September 30, 2008. The exercise price for such warrants shall be an amount equal to the average closing price of the common stock of the Association for the 20 business days prior to the date of enactment of this section on the exchange or market which is then the primary exchange or market for the common stock of the Association. The number of shares of Holding Company common stock subject to each warrant and the exercise price of each warrant shall be adjusted as necessary to reflect—

“(A) the conversion of Association common stock into Holding Company common stock as part of the plan of reorganization approved by the Association’s shareholders; and

“(B) any issuance or sale of stock (including issuance or sale of treasury stock), stock split, recapitalization, reorganization, or other corporate event, if agreed to by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Association.

“(10) RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF ASSOCIATION SHARES AND BANKRUPTCY OF ASSOCIATION.—After the reorganization effective date, the Holding Company shall not sell, pledge, or otherwise transfer the outstanding shares of the Association, or agree to or cause the liquidation of the Association or cause the Association to file a petition for bankruptcy under title 11, United States Code, without prior approval of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Education.

“(d) TERMINATION OF THE ASSOCIATION.—In the event the shareholders of the Association approve a plan of reorganization under subsection (b), the Association shall dissolve, and the Association’s separate existence shall terminate on September 30, 2008, after discharge of all outstanding debt obligations and liquidation pursuant to this subsection. The Association may dissolve pursuant to this subsection prior to such date by notifying the Secretary of Education and the Secretary of the Treasury of the Association’s intention to dissolve, unless within 60 days after receipt of such notice the Secretary of Education notifies the Association that the Association continues to be needed to serve as a lender of last resort pursuant to section 439(q) or continues to be needed to purchase loans under an agreement with the Secretary described in paragraph (6). On the dissolution date, the Association shall take the following actions:

“(1) ESTABLISHMENT OF A TRUST.—The Association shall, under the terms of an irrevocable trust agreement that is in form and substance satisfactory to the Secretary of the Treasury, the Association and the appointed trustee, irrevocably transfer all remaining obligations of the Association to the trust and irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited into such trust, to be held as trust funds solely for the benefit of holders of the remaining obligations, money or direct noncallable obligations of the United States or any agency thereof for which payment the full faith and credit of the United States is pledged, maturing as to principal and interest in such amounts and at such times as are determined by the Secretary of the Treasury to be sufficient, without consideration of any significant reinvestment of such interest, to pay the principal of, and interest on, the remaining obligations in accordance with their terms. To the extent the Association cannot provide money or qualifying obligations in the amount required, the Holding Company shall be required to transfer money or qualifying obligations to the trust in the amount necessary to prevent any deficiency.

“(2) USE OF TRUST ASSETS.—All money, obligations, or financial assets deposited into the trust pursuant to this subsection shall be applied by the trustee to the payment of the remaining obligations assumed by the trust.

“(3) OBLIGATIONS NOT TRANSFERRED TO THE TRUST.—The Association shall make proper provision for all other obligations of the Association not transferred to the trust, including the repurchase or redemption, or the

THE SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. GREENE of Utah). Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from California [Mr. MCKEON] and the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. CLAY] each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. MCKEON].

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 1720, the Government Sponsored Enterprise Privatization Act of 1996.

This important legislation will: privatize two government sponsored enterprises, Sallie Mae and Connie Lee; eliminate over 40 unfunded higher education programs including the State Postsecondary Review Entities or SPREE's; consolidate and improve Federal library and museum programs; and extend for 1 year the National Literacy Act, the Adult Education and Literacy Act, and the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Education Act, which otherwise will expire on September 30 of this year.

I would like to focus my remarks on the higher education provisions in this legislation, and in particular the privatization of Sallie Mae and Connie Lee.

The Student Loan Marketing Association, or Sallie Mae, was established in 1972 under a Federal charter authorized by part B of title IV of the Higher Education Act. At that time, there was a tremendous need for a secondary market that would purchase student loans from lenders, freeing up capital so that those lenders could continue to make student loans. Under its Federal charter, Sallie Mae gained certain advantages, including the ability to raise large amounts of capital in a cost effective way. People across the nation invested in this public-private partnership, knowing that their investment was also fostering access to higher education.

However, times have changed. Today, there is an extremely competitive secondary market for student loans, and the practice of securitization has made it far easier for financial institutions to raise capital for student loans. Now there is ample private capital available for student loans, and virtually every eligible student has access to student loans. The Federal charter which initially helped Sallie Mae assist students is now hampering Sallie Mae's ability to put its expertise to work in the private market to provide services outside of the student loan arena. Clearly the time has come when it is advantageous to both the taxpayer and Sallie Mae to allow Sallie Mae to become a fully private company with no Federal ties and no government sponsored advantages.

The legislation before us today gives Sallie Mae's stockholders the right to vote to reorganize and become a private company. Upon voting to reorganize, the existing Government Sponsored Enterprise [GSE] will continue to purchase student loans until September 30, 2007. On September 30, 2008, the GSE will dissolve, and 1 year later the charter legislation found in the Higher Education Act will be repealed. In the event Sallie Mae's stockholders vote against reorganization, Sallie Mae will have until July 1, 2013 to wind down its business and dissolve the GSE.

In privatizing Sallie Mae, both the taxpayer and Sallie Mae are clearly winners. Sallie Mae is freed from a burdensome Federal charter and allowed to apply its expertise to compete in new markets. And, as Sallie Mae profits, so will the taxpayer. Upon privatization, Sallie Mae will be required to pay for the use of the Sallie Mae name. In addition, the Government will receive stock warrants from Sallie Mae. If a new and private Sallie Mae is successful and the price of its stock rises, the Treasury will be able to cash in these warrants, and the taxpayer will profit along with the new company.

As with Sallie Mae, the College Construction Loan Insurance Association, or Connie Lee, is another example of a successful public-private partnership which has served its purpose. Connie Lee was created by Congress under title VII of the Higher Education Amendments of 1986. At that time, the deterioration of physical infrastructure such as buildings and physical plants was a pressing problem for institutions of higher education, and financing facilities improvements was an option only for schools of the highest credit caliber. Connie Lee was created to underwrite the financing of these needed improvements; leveraging large amounts of capital with little risk to the government.

However, Connie Lee has never enjoyed the advantages of most government sponsored enterprises. In fact, the only Government help Connie Lee has received was start-up capital, in return for which Government received stock in Connie Lee. And, the law which created Connie Lee also narrowly limited the business activities which Connie Lee could pursue. Clearly, Connie Lee was always meant to be a private company.

For Connie Lee, privatization means the ability to determine its own destiny. Privatization will allow Connie Lee to use its expertise in facilities underwriting to help secure funding for elementary and secondary schools, higher education facilities, and local municipal projects. In return, the taxpayer is relieved of any implicit risk, should Connie Lee have future financial difficulties.

This legislation simply repeals the authorizing legislation which created Connie Lee, thereby freeing Connie Lee of from the restrictions of the Higher Education Act which limit the types of business in which Connie Lee can engage. The Treasury is directed to sell the stock currently owned by the U.S. Government within a set period of time in order to fully sever all Federal ties. In the event that the Treasury Department is unable to sell this stock, this legislation requires Connie Lee to buy it back at a price that is fair to both Connie Lee and the taxpayer. Connie Lee will no longer have any Federal charter or any ties to the Federal Government.

Privatizing Sallie Mae and Connie Lee is simply good government for the 1990's. This legislation frees the American taxpayer from subsidizing activities which will flourish long after government sponsorship has ceased. It also shows a willingness on the part of this Congress to take a public-private partnership and turn it into a fully private venture when Government support is no longer necessary. This legislation represents a carefully crafted compromise between Connie Lee and Sallie Mae, the administration, and the potential competitors of these newly privatized firms. In the process, it paves the way to a future of smaller, less intrusive government. Both of these companies want to be fully private firms. It is time for us as a Congress to sever our ties to them.

In addition to privatizing two Government sponsored enterprises, the legislation before us today begins to streamline the Higher Education Act by eliminating over 40 programs which are completely unfunded. I am pleased to note that among these programs is the State Postsecondary Review Entities, or SPREES, which creates excessive and burdensome paperwork requirements for schools, represents an unwarranted State intrusion into their campuses, and in some cases poses a threat to their educational missions. As with the SPREES, all of these programs were enacted with the best of intentions. However, eliminating these unfunded provisions will simplify our higher education law and help reduce the size of government.

Unfortunately, the legislation before us today represents only a fraction of the reform in the area of job training and education that I, along with other members on the Opportunities Committee, worked so hard in moving forward during the last 2 years. Under H.R. 1617, otherwise referred to as the Careers Act, over 120 programs would have been consolidated into block grants to States and localities; communities would have had more flexibility to target resources where they were most needed; and thousands of Americans would have been able to secure training vouchers in order to upgrade their skills at educational institutions of their choosing. Unfortunately, change is always difficult, and there was a ground swell of support for the status quo—which is why today we are able to move only a small portion of the original Careers legislation. But let me make this very clear. I fully intend to continue this endeavor. I will push forward with a job training system which provides flexibility to States; maintains accountability and empowers individuals to learn.

Madam Speaker, the Government Sponsored Enterprise Privatization Act is straight-forward, commonsense legislation. It represents a modest but earnest effort to reduce the size and scope of government, and it does so in a way that benefits both the taxpayer and private enterprise. This legislation does not cost the government or the taxpayer a dime, and in fact it will save money, but it will also pave the way to a future of smaller, less intrusive government. I urge my colleagues to support this legislation and vote "yes" on H.R. 1720.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I reluctantly rise in support of H.R. 1720 which provides straight reauthorizations for three education programs scheduled to expire at the end of this year. Those programs are the National Literacy Act, the Adult Education Act, and the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Education Act. The 1-year extensions included in this bill will help add some certainty to these programs as they continue to compete for funding through the appropriations process.

In addition, the legislation includes changes to other programs that were worked out through bipartisan negotiations involving both the House and the Senate earlier this year.

This bill provides for the privatization of two Government-sponsored enterprises, Sallie Mae and Connie Lee. I have already voted in support of privatization and will do so again today, but, as I said, with reluctance. Let me explain my apprehension.

Last Thursday, in response to a request by a member of my staff for harmless information from Sallie Mae regarding privatization revenue, Sallie Mae mistakenly faxed him a document which strongly suggests possible partisan work by Sallie Mae officials on behalf of the Republicans.

There are at least two very disturbing things about the document. First, the document is referred to as a "candidate's package," and it is a highly charged, partisan document that will help Republicans attack the direct loan program and gives them ammunition to defend themselves against the accurate charges that they have tried to cut student loans.

The second alarming thing about the fax is that it includes a cover page showing that the document was sent to a Republican representative, the gentleman from Virginia, Mr. TOM DAVIS, by one of Sallie Mae's House lobbyists. That fax page has a note on it to Mr. DAVIS that says, and I quote, "Here's the full candidate's package." Other details about this bizarre and potentially illegal activity are described in this morning's Washington Post.

However, I might say in defense of Sallie Mae that the president and chief executive officer wrote a letter to me dated September 18, where he says that, and I quote, "The document which I have subsequently read is completely inappropriate in its language and tone, and I am at a loss to express my disappointment that this should have happened. This material was not sanctioned nor reviewed by either myself or senior management."

Also, the chairman of the board wrote to President Clinton and he noted that he had directed that an internal investigation be conducted and that appropriate disciplinary action be taken against those individuals responsible for this document.

Madam Speaker, I think that the appropriate agencies and congressional committees have an obligation to fully investigate this matter, and until that happens, a dark cloud will hang over the issue of Sallie Mae's privatization.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. GUNDERSON], a strong supportive member of the committee.

(Mr. GUNDERSON asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GUNDERSON. Madam Speaker, I regret we are not here passing a comprehensive careers bill. I regret, like Mr. CLAY, that there was any political activity that was in any way involved in this, and I think we all ought to make sure that does not happen again.

But having said all that, I rise in strong support of this bill because if this is the best that we can do this session, then this is exactly what we should do.

Many of us are aware that we tried to define priorities in this Congress, balancing the budget, figuring out what programs ought to still be a primary Federal role and which ones ought not.

I think there is little doubt in this body on a bipartisan basis that we have come to that point in time when Sallie Mae and Connie Lee no longer justify being Government-sponsored enterprises. More than that, they do not want to continue to be Government-sponsored enterprises constrained by those restrictions. And, more than that, by privatizing them, we actually can make some money that we can direct toward other human resource programs that are so important.

So we have done that in this bill, we have done it with Sallie Mae over a period of time, making sure that before the year 2005 they would continue to use Sallie Mae for its primary purposes. Any other business activities would have to occur by a separately created business enterprise.

Likewise with Connie Lee. We have made it clear that, as we look at the changing dynamics in school construction certainly on the higher education level, that they ought to be freed up once they disavow themselves of any Federal Government bonds to go into that private sector and provide that kind of insurance.

But this bill also does some other things that everyone ought to be for. For example, we not only reauthorize the library and museum programs, but we move them into important incentives for distance learning and the Internet use. We target funds for the disabled and the illiterate, and we limit administrative expenses so that more dollars can actually be spent on services and delivery of services to people.

Finally, as was mentioned by our leader, the gentleman from California [Mr. MCKEON], we do important things in adult education and literacy. I encourage all of my colleagues to vote for this bill.

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Florida [Mr. DEUTSCH].

Mr. DEUTSCH. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of this legislation. As all of us are aware, the existence of the direct student loan program is limiting the market for guaranteed student loans. Sallie Mae's restrictive Federal charter provides it with no viable option for replacing business loss to direct lending and to other student loan financing vehicles and to the other 40 or more secondary markets. These factors dim Sallie Mae's future financial prospects. Sallie Mae's privatization will relieve taxpayers of over $50 billion in implicit liabilities.

On September 20, in a speech in Portland, OR, President Clinton said, and I quote:

"We're going to privatize organizations that can now work better in the private sector, like Sallie Mae. We've got the direct student loan program. They need to be able to do some other things as well."

In return for its privatization, Sallie Mae will pay to the Government $5 million for the use of the Sallie Mae name and issue 500,000 stock warrants to the Government, allowing taxpayers to benefit from the future success of the fully private Sallie Mae; subsidizing an effort that will no longer need subsidizing; and making the Government more efficient.

Madam Speaker, I urge the support of the bill.

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. KLUG].

Mr. KLUG. Madam Speaker, I thank my colleague from California for yielding me this time and congratulate him and also the chairman of the full committee, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING] for this important piece of legislation on privatizing Sallie Mae.

When the Speaker asked me at the beginning of the last session of Congress to lay out a number of targets of opportunity for privatization, this was high on everyone's list, and we have actually had a fair amount of success this Congress with the naval petroleum reserves and selling off the United States Enrichment Corporation, getting the National Weather Service out in some specialty crop forecasting, asking the IRS to use private debt collection firms to augment its collection of outstanding taxpayer bills. But this piece of legislation today I think is extraordinarily important for one major reason, and that is for the first time in history we have a Government-sponsored enterprise stepping forward and saying we no longer want any ties with the Government; we want the ability to stand on our own.

And it makes sense because when Sallie Mae was first established in 1972 to create a secondary market for federally guaranteed student loans, there was a huge shortage in the marketplace. But since that time there are now 47 different participants and thousands of lenders nationwide who are now originating loans and financing them in a variety of ways.

Madam Speaker, Sallie Mae at this point is essentially handicapped from being able to enter new lines of business. It is a Government-sponsored enterprise which is withering on the vine. Today we will get the Government regulations out of the way and allow Sallie Mae and also Connie Lee to compete in the private sector, and perhaps fundamentally more important, we will remove nearly $50 billion, that is $50 billion, in implicit liabilities now insured by U.S. taxpayers.

I know that my colleagues on the Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunities were disappointed that they could not move forward a comprehensive career bill, but I think at the end of the day, privatizing Sallie Mae is a tremendous accomplishment for both the committee itself and also this Congress as a whole.

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentlewoman from Florida [Mrs. MEEK].

Mrs. MEEK of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise to sort of prick the Congress' conscience about some of the things that happen in H.R. 1720.

I was one of the 79 people on this floor who voted against this bill when it came before us before, and today, as I read the conference report on the Privatization Act, I do not see too many changes in the concerns which I had the very first time.

I voted against the bill at that time not because of the Sallie Mae situation, in that I thought that was a progressive move to try to consolidate and to try to make the entire program move more smoothly, but I cannot sit here and not tell my colleagues that some of the things that they left out of this bill which were so appealing and so begged for in their committee, they still did not make any changes this time.

First of all, I disagree vehemently about the way they decided to close out some of the programs which are currently funded as if they were just by Topsy, be able to adjust themselves to the changes which they have made or did not make in 1790 that were so many.

First of all, I want to give my colleagues just a little bit of information. I worked in higher education for 40 odd years straight through, and I saw how these Federal programs worked as far as the scholarship programs, financial aid, all of them worked. Many of them worked very haphazardly, and many students were left out, but at least we did much better than we are doing in 1720 because in 1720 we are stopping most of these programs; I think about 40 of them have been eliminated. I may have that figure wrong, but about 53 of them have been eliminated according to their report here.

Now I call Members' attention to the fellowships which allow many students to not be able to continue. I also call their attention to the fact that they have completely ignored the needs of disabled students who desire and who really must have some access to higher education. Disabled students have their rights. They passed the American Disabilities Act some time ago, so these disabled students really need the rights which they had in the first in the beginning, and they decided to eliminate those at this time. They repeal the development grants which would allow faculty people to be trained so that they could work with disabled students. There are many, many disabled students throughout the colleges and institutions in this country could benefit if they had faculty members who were trained to the point that they could help these students. Disabled students, I want my colleagues to understand, desire and need the ability to have good teaching and good instruction as well as any other students. So they do need teachers who are trained to teach them how to read, just as one would any other students.

I thought some of the dissenting views at the back of this bill really incorporated the kinds of things that I am calling to my colleagues' attention this morning, and there will be others this morning who will disagree and not support this bill, not because of the privatization of Sallie Mae. That is not why. But they will because they failed to pay any attention to the needs of students throughout this country.

Now if it were not for some of the minority education programs that they have funded in the past, many minorities and women would not have received postgraduate education. It is because they really received some Federal aid in terms of education. So there is a reciprocal reward for people having received graduate education and how to be able to train women to teach women and to do minorities and to allow them to get the professional training and graduate training which they need to carry this on.

I could go on and on because of the 53 programs that they cut out, but I cannot sit down without appealing a little bit for the libraries of this country. My colleagues have heard, and I know my time is out so I will say, by their repealing 53 programs, they made no attempt to put them back is not a good thing.

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, just in response to my dear friend from Florida, let me just say that this maybe is a different version of the bill than she has seen. Of the 41 programs on the list that we have in this bill, four of them did receive a total of $8.8 million in fiscal year 1995. However, in 1996 the administration did not request any funds for these four programs nor were funds requested for fiscal year 1997, and none were provided. So there is no funding for any of the programs that we have cut.

Madam Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. HASTERT] who has been very supportive in getting this bill to the floor.

Mr. HASTERT. Madam Speaker, I wish to thank the majority leader, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARMEY], the Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunity chairman, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING], and certainly the opportunity to work with the chairman of the opportunity subcommittee in answering my request in bring legislation to authorize library services to the House floor. H.R. 1720, the Government sponsored Enterprise Privatization Act improves the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act. This bill authorizes $150 million for library services for fiscal year 1977 and insures the authorization necessary for fiscal years 1998 through the year 2002.

Madam Speaker, the program has wide bipartisan support in both houses of congress, and it is important that we continue it. I am very pleased it will be continued. Many local libraries have used these funds to assist them with expansion projects and to purchase new equipment. This legislation will make these programs even more effective by making these programs more flexible and easier to use. At the same time it will give libraries the ability to keep up with the information age with access to new technologies and allowing them to share resources.

Communities in my district have greatly benefitted from this program. In the past year along Elgin, Aurora, and Mendota have greatly improved their community services in libraries in addition to towns like Geneva and St. Charles and Warrenville in order to better serve the needs of its residents. Because of these grants, Mendota Graves Hume Public Library is proceeding with its Multi-county Rural Cooperative Collection Management program. This program allows libraries to fill specific needs for one another; Aurora public library's implementing its changing resources and changing world, and in Elgin, the public library's district resources through shared technology.

Madam Speaker, I ask for a positive vote on this bill.

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. KANJORSKI].

Mr. KANJORSKI. Madam Speaker, first of all may I congratulate both the gentlemen on the majority side and minority side for taking up in the closing moments of the 104th Congress a very important piece of legislation that will allow for the privatizing of Sallie Mae. There are members of the minority such as the gentleman from Florida [Mr. PETERSON] and the gentleman from Texas [Mr. EDWARDS] and myself who have worked diligently during this session of the Congress to promote privatization of Sallie Mae. It is an institution that has matured, and under this legislation it will meet new needs of college students and colleges and universities after the privatization of both Sallie Mae and Connie Lee. It is an effort that we can all move forward with pride.

It is, I think, a very good example of the privatization from the standpoint that I think what the American people really want us to do is to recognize when organizations become mature and can be self-sufficient and can enter into the private market to assume risks that government no longer has to underwrite. This is a perfect example of this accomplishment. It also allows for direct lending to continue, but it provides that Sallie Mae, by being able to enter into other activities, can make itself much more self-sufficient and supportive of the obligations that presently exist in the marketplace and otherwise would have to be guaranteed by the United States Government.

To my friend from Florida, I should say, "Dr. MEEK," we are remiss if we did not call to her attention that some of the programs that have been left out of this bill pending on the floor are only programs that have been reauthorized, and they are being now deauthorized, but this legislation will not have an adverse impact and is nothing nearly as severe as what previously came out of the committee.

What is now being offered is a very streamlined bill. It provides primarily for privatization, of Sallie Mae and Connie Lee, and then it does reauthorize some programs and, of course, provides for the development of a program for library services.

I would urge my colleagues both on the minority side and the majority side, in the spirit of the statements of the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. GUNDERSON] to the full House just a few minutes ago to the effect that here is an opportunity for all of us in a very mature manner who have studied this for a long period of time to see something done right. Passage of this bill does mean reform or change, and it means privatization, but in none of those instances is it radical or extreme. It is using the marketplace and the free market system to perform what government had to perform before, and it does so in a very positive, straightforward and open method.

So I simply compliment the leadership on the majority side and the minority side for having attained this compromise, and I urge my colleagues to support the bill, in spite of the fact that there were some political problems that did arise. None of us are innocent of those kinds of problems. Sometimes our staff and some of our friends have excesses, we have to allow for that, but I think everybody on both sides of the aisle and the White House are comfortable with this bill. I urge all my colleagues to support its passage.

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from California [Mr. CUNNINGHAM], a good friend who is chairman of the Subcommittee on Early Childhood, Youth, and Families, and has responsibility for the library portion of the bill.

[Mr. CUNNINGHAM asked and was given permission to add extraneous materials.]

Mr. CUNNINGHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1720. Let me tell the Members why. I think especially there are three main parts: The creation of the Institute for Museum and Library Services; adult education and literacy programs; privatization of Sallie Mae.

We had a monumental debate here on the House floor with the issue of 85-15, which I believe will be resolved in this particular case. Rather than speak from my notes, Madam Speaker, let me tell the Members why I think it is even more important.

In education we have less than 12 percent of our schools that have even a single phone jack. If we are going to prepare our children for the 21st century, there must be the fiber optics and the modernization. Even there the schools do not have library services enough to meet those needs.

If we can link up those libraries in our colleges, our public libraries, and yes, even here in Washington, DC, think about how that will help this country. When we talk about the delta, the difference between the successful and the poor, the answer is education. We will find chronologically gifted folks at libraries; we will find the very young at libraries, as well. Whether it is through job training or whether it is through education services, this bill goes a long way to help that.

I think the telecommunications bill that we passed encourages that, and I think there are ways we can work with Members on the other side of the aisle as far as reform in our tax system, to where we can encourage those private enterprises that will invest in our children, which is a way of investing in the future. Part of that is our library services and our job training.

Perhaps we have not gone far enough in this particular Congress in job training. I will give that to my colleagues on the other side of the aisle. But I think there is an area which we can work on in the next Congress that will be beneficial as far as the libraries.

The library portion was being threatened because it was in a portion of the bill that we placed it in that may not make it through by the end of this Congress. This legislation, I think, helps remedy that. It has bipartisan support. I would like to thank the gentlemen on both sides of the aisle.

Madam Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1720. I would like to bring attention to four important parts of this legislation: The creation of the Institute for Museum and Library Services, the renewal of certain adult education and literacy programs, the privatization of Sallie Mae, and the resolution of the so-called 85-15 issue.

The Institute of Museum and Library Services:

With the close help of America's museum and library communities, this legislation creates an Institute of Museum and Library Services. It merges the Institute of Museum Services and our Federal Library Services and Construction Act programs into one organization. We do this for three reasons.

First, museums and libraries are first and foremost deliverers of information. Through books and exhibits, microfiche, video, and the Internet, they can and do work together for the benefit of citizens and communities.

Second, the advance of the information age is transforming how people obtain information. So we have placed a new focus on the Federal role in these programs toward electronically linking libraries and museums to one another, to other agencies and services, and to communities, schools, and citizens. We all know that the printing press revolutionized Europe in the Middle Ages by making books available to everyone. Today's Internet has that same potential: to bring people and information together from a whole world apart, with the simple point and click of a mouse.

And third, the IMLS simplifies the administration of Federal museum and library programs, while maintaining their unique and useful character. Its leadership will alternate from leaders in libraries or museums. The IMLS library division will make simplified grants to State library agencies. And the IMLS museum portion will continue awarding grants to local museum organizations.

At this point, I would like to include for the RECORD letters of support from California.

Madam Speaker, our libraries and museums are a national treasure. They are a free and open institution of learning for every American, regardless of wealth or background. They provide information, help people find jobs, offer entertainment, and unite our communities. They represent the best in America. In short, they work. And while most of their funding is from local, State, and private resources, the Federal Government has a role. By adopting this legislation, we provide the catalyst to help bring our museums and libraries into the 21st century.

Renewal of adult education and literacy programs:

H.R. 1720 also continues the authorization for our Federal adult education and literacy programs. Adult education provides individuals who lack the most basic skills—such as literacy, English proficiency, or a high school equivalency diploma—the tools they need to have a fighting chance at the American dream. An individual who cannot read or perform basic math cannot hope to find a good job, or to benefit from job training.

Simply put, our investment in effective adult education transforms those who are dependent upon society into contributors to society. Like the library and museum portion of H.R. 1720, these provisions were included in the CAREERS legislation which is stalled in the Senate. It deserves our support.

Privatizing Sallie Mae:

Sallie Mae, the Student Loan Marketing Association, is a Government-sponsored enterprise, owned by private stockholders, that provides a secondary market for student loan financing. When President Clinton advanced his direct lending initiative, it limited Sallie Mae's traditional market, and impacted Sallie Mae stockholders.

I oppose President Clinton's direct lending plan because, over 7 years, it costs taxpayers $1 billion more to provide the same number of student loans as private markets. And while the President has sought to have direct lending replace private markets, Congress has limited the growth of direct lending. Nevertheless, direct lending is a fact of life today. Its existence unfairly impacts the thousands of senior citizens, private pensions, and other Americans who own stock in Sallie Mae.

Allowing Sallie Mae stockholders the opportunity to vote to privatize is simply a matter of fairness. The legislation structures any privatization carefully, so taxpayers and citizens alike get their money's worth.

Partial resolution of 85-15:

This legislation also contains a partial resolution of the so-called 85-15 issue. The 85-15 policy enacted by Congress has been implemented retroactively on for-profit institutions of higher learning. Such schools are made responsible for their compliance with regulations before they were published on May 1, 1994. This kind of retroactive enforcement is simply un-American.

Our bill ends retroactive, preregulatory enforcement of the 85-15 rule.

Unfortunately, H.R. 1720 does not make a further necessary reform which I support. The measure does not exclude Federal training money from the 15 percent of a for-profit school's income coming from sources other than the Higher Education Act. As we all know, Federal training programs are not authorized by the Higher Education Act. They are authorized under other legislation. But the Department of Education has been enforcing 85-15 contrary to the will and intent of Congress. I am confident we will revisit this issue.

Support H.R. 1720:

I urge all of my colleagues to support H.R. 1720. It's good for libraries and museums, for our children and our seniors, for students, and for many of our excellent for-profit educational institutions.

Madam Speaker, I include for the RECORD the following letters:

ESCONDIDO PUBLIC LIBRARY,

Thank you for continued efforts on behalf of California Library users.

Sincerely,

BARBARA L. LOOMIS,
Assistant City Librarian.

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to my friend, the gentleman from Virginia, Mr. TOM DAVIS.

(Mr. DAVIS asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DAVIS. Madam Speaker, let me first say that I think the incident the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. CLAY] has referred to was regrettable. We know it was not sanctioned from Sallie Mae. It was not requested from our office, I can tell the gentleman, in terms of a candidate package. We obviously are always happy to hear from our corporate constituents over any issue of concern, but somebody I think acted a little overzealously.

I want to thank the gentleman from Missouri for the way he has handled this and note how, on our side, when there were efforts to take away the tax exemption from the NEA, I was one of the Republicans who do not believe in getting even with your enemies, and am in support of their continued tax exemption, and the same with the PIRGS. In that spirit, we are moving ahead and staying with the issue.

Sallie Mae has permanent roots within the 11th Congressional District. When I was chairman of the county board we helped move their permanent headquarters out there, and they have been a great corporate citizen. I have seen the kind of partner they have been to our northern Virginia community, bringing hundreds of high technology jobs to our community and the promise of stable employment for years to come.

But they bring a lot with it. Already, their work in the Reston community with the Reston Interfaith Center and the Embry Rucker Shelter are legendary. I know their employees will touch many more northern Virginia charities as time goes on.

Sallie Mae is about to embark upon a great new adventure as a corporation, which will benefit northern Virginia and the American people. For northern Virginia, privatization will mean more jobs as Sallie Mae expands its business beyond student loans. It means that the state-of-the-art Reston technology center is a resource for more than just students and parents, but for more of Virginia's and America's families and businesses.

Congress should not miss this historic opportunity to recharter a Government-sponsored enterprise as a fully private company, but it must act while the company is still healthy and before it encounters further economic uncertainties. Sallie Mae is a company on the cutting edge of technology with a rare knowledge of the higher education community. I am confident that by allowing the company to build upon its student loan business, it will serve a number of public needs that could not be anticipated by this Congress or the next.

We should not pass up the chance to relieve the American taxpayer of nearly $50 billion or more in implicit liability for Sallie Mae's obligations. I therefore urge passage of this bill.

Madam Speaker, I would express my thanks to the chairman, the gentleman from California [Mr. MCKEON], the gentleman from California [Mr. CUNNINGHAM], the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. CLAY], and all those concerned.

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, I want to take this time to thank the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. CLAY], ranking Member of the full committee, for his leadership and support in helping bring this bill to the floor, even though there were problems that have been discussed. I think he is to be commended for that. I appreciate it on a personal note.

Madam Speaker, I would like to urge a strong "yes" vote for this bill.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, today I rise in support of H.R. 1720, the Government-sponsored Enterprise Privatization Act of 1996. This legislation will privatize two Government-sponsored enterprises, the Student Loan Marketing Association "Sallie Mae" and the College Construction Loan Insurance Association "Connie Lee". In addition, it provides for the elimination of more than 40 unfunded programs found in the Higher Education Act, consolidates and improves Federal library and museum programs, and provides extensions for the National Literacy Act, the Adult Education and Literacy Act, and the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Act.

Sallie Mae and Connie Lee are both Government-sponsored enterprises chartered under the Higher Education Act. Both are for-profit, stockholder owned companies which have successfully fulfilled their intended purposes. After more than a year of discussions with the Treasury Department with respect to privatization, I am happy to support this bill that paves the way for a smooth transition to private sector status which works for Sallie Mae, Connie Lee, and the Federal Government.

The bill before us also extends the Adult Education Act for 1 year and although it does not make major improvements to the act, we have included one important change. H.R. 1720 clarifies that funds under the Adult Education Act may be used for family literacy programs.

If we are going to effectively reduce the number of adults who are illiterate, we must work with families. Children with parents who can help them with their school work have a greater likelihood of succeeding in school. Family literacy programs provide adults with the education and parenting skills necessary to help their children succeed in school. At the same time, they work with children to improve their academic skills. While some States do use their adult education funds for family literacy programs, it is important that we amend current law to clarify that this is an allowable use of funds.

Finally, this legislation extends the authorization for the National Institute for Literacy and revises current law to allow the Institute to more effectively assist with national efforts to improve the literacy level of our country's citizens.

My one regret about H.R. 1720, is that it represents only a small fraction of the reform in the area of job training and education that I have pushed for during this Congress. My committee devoted a huge amount of time to consolidating job training programs into block grants to States and localities that would have resulted in greater flexibility in this Country's efforts to enhance our job training system. Unfortunately, the Senate has been unable to bring H.R. 1617, the full CAREERS legislation, to the Senate floor, so today we are considering a small portion of that legislation.

With that one regret, I strongly support passage of H.R. 1720.

Mr. CUNNINGHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1720. I would like to bring attention to four important parts of this legislation: the creation of the Institute for Museum and Library Services, the renewal of certain adult education and literacy programs, the privatization of Sallie Mae, and the resolution of the so-called 85-15 issue.

THE INSTITUTE OF MUSEUM AND LIBRARY SERVICES

With the close help of America's museum and library communities, this legislation creates an Institute of Museum and Library Services. It merges the Institute of Museum Services and our Federal Library Services and Construction Act programs into one organization. We do this for three reasons.

First, museums and libraries are first and foremost deliverers of information. Through books and exhibits, microfiche, video, and the Internet, they can and do work together for the benefit of citizens and communities.

Second, the advance of the Information Age is transforming how people obtain information. So we have placed a new focus on the Federal role in these programs—toward electronically linking libraries and museums to one another, to other agencies and services, and to communities, schools, and citizens. We all know that the printing press revolutionized Europe in the Middle Ages by making books available to everyone. Today's Internet has that same potential—to bring people and information together from a whole world apart, with the simple point and click of a mouse.

And third, the IMLS simplifies the administration of Federal museum and library programs, while maintaining their unique and useful character. Its leadership will alternate from leaders in libraries or museums. The IMLS library division will make simplified grants to State library agencies. And the IMLS museums portion will continue awarding grants to local museum organizations.

I have already included for the RECORD letters of support from the California State Libraries, and others.

Mr. Speaker, our libraries and museums are a national treasure. They are a free and open institution of learning for every American, regardless of wealth or background. They provide information, help people find jobs, offer entertainment, and unite our communities. They represent the best in America. In short, they work. And while most of their funding is from local, State and private resources, the Federal Government has a role. By adopting this legislation, we provide the catalyst to help bring our museums and libraries into the 21st Century.

RENEWAL OF ADULT EDUCATION AND LITERACY PROGRAMS

H.R. 1720 also continues the authorization for our Federal adult education and literacy programs. Adult education provides individuals who lack the most basic skills—such as literacy, English proficiency, or a high school equivalency diploma—the tools they need to have a fighting chance at the American dream. An individual who cannot read or perform basic math cannot hope to find a good job, or to benefit from job training.

Simply put, our investment in effective adult education transforms those who are dependent upon society into contributors to society. Like the library and museum portion of H.R. 1720, these provisions were included in the CAREERS legislation which is stalled in the Senate. It deserves our support.

PRIVATIZING SALLIE MAE

Sallie Mae, the Student Loan Marketing Association, is a Government-sponsored enterprise, owned by private stockholders, that provides a secondary market for student loan financing. When President Clinton advanced his Direct Lending initiative, it limited Sallie Mae's traditional market, and impacted Sallie Mae stockholders.

I oppose President Clinton's direct lending plan because, over 7 years, it costs taxpayers $1 billion more to provide the same number of student loans as private markets. And while the President has sought to have direct lending replace private markets, Congress has limited the growth of direct lending. Nevertheless, direct lending is a fact of life today. Its existence unfairly impacts the thousands of senior citizens, private pensions, and other Americans who own stock in Sallie Mae.

Allowing Sallie Mae stockholders the opportunity to vote to privatize is simply a matter of fairness. The legislation structures any privatization carefully, so taxpayers and citizens alike get their money's worth.

PARTIAL RESOLUTION OF 85-15

This legislation also contains a partial resolution of the so-called 85-15 issue. The 85-15 policy enacted by Congress has been implemented retroactively on for-profit institutions of higher learning. Such schools are made responsible for their compliance with regulations before they were published on May 1, 1994. This kind of retroactive enforcement is simply un-American.

Our bill ends retroactive, preregulatory enforcement of the 85-15 rule.

Unfortunately, H.R. 1720 does not make a further necessary reform which I support. The measure does not exclude Federal training money from the 15 percent of a for-profit school's income coming from sources other than the Higher Education Act. As we all know, Federal training programs are not authorized by the Higher Education Act. They are authorized under other legislation. But the Department of Education has been enforcing 85-15 contrary to the will and intent of Congress. I am confident we will revisit this issue.

SUPPORT OF 1720

I urge all my colleagues to support H.R. 1720. It is good for libraries and museums, for our children and our seniors, for students, and for many of our excellent for-profit educational institutions. Thank you, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. ROBERTS. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1720, the Government-Sponsored Enterprise Privatization Act of 1996. In particular, I am pleased that H.R. 1720 includes the privatization of the Student Loan Marketing Association, or Sallie Mae.

Sallie Mae has fulfilled the mission of its Federal charter. However, as a for-profit, stockholder owned company, Sallie Mae wishes to continue to operate without the support of U.S. taxpayers and without restrictions from the U.S. Government. Sallie Mae's interest in privatization clearly shows that it remains committed to continuing its strong record in providing student loan servicing for hundreds of thousands of Americans.

H.R. 1720 is an excellent example of how a properly managed Government program can use Federal resources to serve the American public and successfully make the transition to private business without Government assistance.

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. GREENE of Utah). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California [Mr. MCKEON], that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1720, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds of those having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill as amended, was passed.

The title was amended so as to read: "A bill to reorganize the Student Loan Marketing Association, to privatize the College Construction Loan Insurance Association, to amend the Museum Services Act to include provisions improving and consolidating Federal library service programs, and for other purposes."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. MCKEON. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 1720.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

WATER DESALINATION ACT OF 1996

Mr. DOOLITTLE. Madam Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the Senate bill (S. 811) to authorize research into the desalinization and reclamation of water and authorize a program for States, cities, or qualifying agencies desiring to own and operate a water desalinization or reclamation facility to develop such facilities, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read as follows:

S. 811

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Water Desalination Act of 1996".

SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

As used in this Act:

(1) DESALINATION OR DESALTING.—The terms "desalination" or "desalting" mean the use of any process or technique for the removal and, when feasible, adaptation to beneficial use, of organic and inorganic elements and compounds from saline or biologically impaired waters, by itself or in conjunction with other processes.

(2) SALINE WATER.—The term "saline water" means sea water, brackish water, and other mineralized or chemically impaired water.

(3) UNITED STATES.—The term "United States" means the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the territories and possessions of the United States.

(4) USUABLE WATER.—The term "usable water" means water of a high quality suitable for environmental enhancement, agricultural, industrial, municipal, and other beneficial consumptive or nonconsumptive uses.

(5) SECRETARY.—The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 3. AUTHORIZATION OF RESEARCH AND STUDIES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—In order to determine the most cost-effective and technologically efficient means by which usable water can be produced from saline water or water otherwise impaired or contaminated, the Secretary is authorized to award grants and to enter into contracts, to the extent provided in advance in appropriation Acts, to conduct, encourage, and assist in the financing of research to develop processes for converting saline water into water suitable for beneficial uses. Awards of research grants and contracts under this section shall be made on the basis of a competitive, merit-reviewed process. Research and study topics authorized by this section include—

- (1) investigating desalination processes;
- (2) ascertaining the optimum mix of investment and operating costs;
- (3) determining the best designs for different conditions of operation;
- (4) investigating methods of increasing the economic efficiency of desalination processes through dual-purpose co-facilities with other processes involving the use of water;
- (5) conducting or contracting for technical work, including the design, construction, and testing of pilot systems and test beds, to develop desalting processes and concepts;
- (6) studying methods for the recovery of byproducts resulting from desalination to offset the costs of treatment and to reduce environmental impacts from those byproducts; and
- (7) salinity modeling and toxicity analysis of brine discharges, cost reduction strategies for constructing and operating desalination facilities, and the horticultural effects of desalinated water used for irrigation.

(b) PROJECT RECOMMENDATIONS AND REPORTS TO THE CONGRESS.—As soon as practicable and within three years after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall recommend to Congress desalination demonstration projects or full-scale desalination projects to carry out the purposes of this Act and to further evaluate and implement the results of research and studies conducted under the authority of this section. Recommendations for projects shall be accompanied by reports on the engineering and economic feasibility of proposed projects and their environmental impacts.

(c) AUTHORITY TO ENGAGE OTHERS.—In carrying out research and studies authorized in this section, the Secretary may engage the necessary personnel, industrial or engineering firms, Federal laboratories, water resources research and technology institutes, other facilities, and educational institutions suitable to conduct investigations and studies authorized under this section.

(d) ALTERNATIVE TECHNOLOGIES.—In carrying out the purposes of this Act, the Secretary shall ensure that at least three separate technologies are evaluated and demonstrated for the purposes of accomplishing desalination.

SEC. 4. DESALINATION DEMONSTRATION AND DEVELOPMENT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—In order to further demonstrate the feasibility of desalination processes investigated either independently or in research conducted pursuant to section 3,
