

FDA. It enjoys broad bipartisan congressional support, and the full support of the administration. I urge quick passage today of the Animal Drug Availability Act. Thank you; I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. BLILEY. Mr. Speaker, we now take up a bill that is important to protect animal health at home and on the farm. The animal health industry keeps our pets healthy—including some 130 million dogs and cats—and agricultural animals that are vital to our food supply. The animal health industry protects human health by safeguarding the health of food and domestic animals.

I have heard repeated concern from Members on both sides of the aisle that our FDA system for reviewing animal drug products needs significant improvement. Their concern reflects the frustration of diverse groups including agricultural interests, the animal drug industry, veterinarians, and animal producer groups.

Our arsenal of drugs to fight animal disease is not growing.

The FDA review process for animal drugs is much too slow—instead of 6 months, the process has averaged up to 5 years.

Some industry has become discouraged and divested animal drug development capability.

Mr. ALLARD, Mr. GANSKE, Mr. KLUG, have been among those who said that it's time to take action and make changes. I particularly want to thank Mr. GANSKE who has come from his hospital bed to be here today to demonstrate his support. Even the administration recognized the need to reform to streamline animal drug regulation and made its own proposals that were consistent with our views.

The committee considered animal drug regulations as part of a broader initiative to streamline FDA regulation. We have made significant progress and I am very pleased that today we take up the completed animal drug reforms in H.R. 2508.

The committee efforts have been helped by collaboration from the administration, the animal health coalition, veterinarians, and others interested in safeguarding our animals. I would like to thank each of them and their dedicated staff for their hard work.

H.R. 2508 will facilitate the approval and marketing of new animal drugs and medicated feeds. It builds needed flexibility into the FDA animal drug review processes to enable more efficient approval and more expeditious marketing of safe and effective animal drugs.

H.R. 2508 accomplishes streamlines without decreasing FDA's existing authority to ensure that animal drug products are safe for the animals that use them and for the humans who consume animal food products.

Our reforms are sensible, pragmatic, and above all else, protective of public health. Of this accomplishment, I believe we can rightly be proud.

Mr. STENHOLM. Mr. Speaker, H.R. 2508 is an example of how serious reform can and should occur. The Animal Drug Availability Act of 1995 enjoys broad support from camps that do not always see things from the same viewpoint, however, both the FDA and the regulated community agree on the reform embodied in H.R. 2508. Additionally, the users of animal drugs, the veterinarians, and the various animal agriculture groups representing farmers and ranchers that raise beef, pork, and poultry all support this bill. The Animal Drug Availability Act represents what can be accomplished when all involved, regulators, those regulated, and the end users sit down and sincerely listen to each other. Unfortunately, the larger issue of FDA reform has been slowed for a variety of reasons. Hopefully, this bill should serve as an example of how future Congresses can approach larger FDA reform and of the progress that can result from bipartisan discussion open to all stakeholders.

H.R. 2508, the Animal Drug Availability Act of 1995, represents common sense reform that reduces regulatory hurdles for efficacy testing and preserves safety testing. Let me say that again. The Animal Drug Availability Act does not reduce evaluation of products on the basis of human safety, nor does it reduce the FDA's ability to require target animal safety information. Essential safety standards for humans and animals would not be weakened in any way. The effect of the reform should be a speedier approval process without jeopardizing safety confidence.

Animal health products many times do not command lucrative markets and it is difficult to justify investment into research and development for a new product or an additional approved use on a label if markets are limited or absent. Currently a large commitment in time and money is required to prove a product's efficacy claims. This bill would give the FDA greater flexibility in determining the type and number of studies it can accept as proof of an animal drug's efficacy. Streamlining the process and eliminating unnecessary field trials should speed the time to an approval decision and hopefully reduce some negative economic pressures being applied by the regulatory system.

Small markets or limited economic incentives, do not mean that drugs for animals are not important. Take for instance the cattleman who has experienced difficult times with low cattle prices who may be trying to diversify and is starting to raise ostriches or pheasants, or a farmer who is involved in aquaculture, or even the wildlife or zoo veterinarian who deals with very unique patients. These are examples of animals that as a species represent few in number and generate very little economic incentive for a drug manufacturer to pursue R&D in that area . . . the so-called minor use/minor species problem of animal drugs. The legislation that legalized extra label drug use in animals by veterinarians was sponsored by this Member and others in the last Congress—the Animal Medicinal Drug Clarification Act of 1994. Extra label drug use will always be necessary, however, this bill will potentially help reduce the reliance on using drugs extra label. It can offer an opportunity for FDA to evaluate how the Animal Medicinal Drug Use Clarification Act and the Animal Drug Availability Act could efficiently work together.

It is with some pride, as sponsor of the legislation that dealt with extra label use of animal drugs and now as one of the original co-sponsors of the Animal Drug Availability Act, that this House is here addressing this issue on the Suspension Calendar. I am proud that animal drug regulatory reform may very well become an example of how larger FDA regulatory reform can be accomplished. I ask my colleagues to support H.R. 2508 and encourage the Senate to act quickly so that the President can sign this appropriate reform into law.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this legislation which is vital to the future health of the Nation's livestock and poultry industry in rural districts throughout this country. H.R. 2508, the Animal Drug Availability Act, is a noncontroversial, bipartisan bill that streamlines and significantly improves the process by which animal drugs are approved. The bill expands the types of studies FDA can accept as proof of a drug's efficacy; requires FDA and drug companies to agree to test protocols before a company submits a drug application for approval; eliminates time-consuming field investigations, unless they are the only way to prove a drug's efficacy; eliminates some efficacy testing when a company seeks to use two individually approved drugs in combination; creates veterinary feed directive drugs which increase veterinarian involvement in dispensing animal drugs; and eliminates much of the licensing paperwork for feed mills that dispense animal drugs.

The bottom line: this bill is perhaps the most significant thing this Congress can do to help the livestock and poultry industry reduce their cost of production and become more competitive.

The cumbersome and lengthy process of getting animal drug approvals from FDA has led to several U.S. animal drug companies setting up plants overseas. Passage of this bill will also help stem the flow of jobs—well paying jobs—from this country.

I am pleased to finally get a chance to discuss and vote on this important piece of legislation and I would strongly urge my colleagues to vote in favor of its passage.

Mr. MANTON. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Florida [Mr. BILIRAKIS] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2508, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 2508.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

“(2) STOWAWAYS.—An arriving alien who is a stowaway is not eligible to apply for admission or to be admitted and shall be ordered removed upon inspection by an immigration officer. Upon such inspection if the alien indicates an intention to apply for asylum under section 208 or a fear of persecution, the officer shall refer the alien for an interview under subsection (b)(1)(B). A stowaway may apply for asylum only if the stowaway is found to have a credible fear of persecution under subsection (b)(1)(B). In no case may a stowaway be considered an applicant for admission or eligible for a hearing under section 240.

“(3) INSPECTION.—All aliens (including alien crewmen) who are applicants for admission or otherwise seeking admission or readmission to or transit through the United States shall be inspected by immigration officers.

“(4) WITHDRAWAL OF APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.—An alien applying for admission may, in the discretion of the Attorney General and at any time, be permitted to withdraw the application for admission and depart immediately from the United States.

“(5) STATEMENTS.—An applicant for admission may be required to state under oath any information sought by an immigration officer regarding the purposes and intentions of the applicant in seeking admission to the United States, including the applicant's intended length of stay and whether the applicant intends to remain permanently or become a United States citizen, and whether the applicant is inadmissible.

“(b) INSPECTION OF APPLICANTS FOR ADMISSION.—

“(1) INSPECTION OF ALIENS ARRIVING IN THE UNITED STATES AND CERTAIN OTHER ALIENS WHO HAVE NOT BEEN ADMITTED OR PAROLED.—

“(A) SCREENING.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—If an immigration officer determines that an alien (other than an alien described in subparagraph (F)) who is arriving in the United States or is described in clause (iii) is inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(C) or 212(a)(7), the officer shall order the alien removed from the United States without further hearing or review unless the alien indicates either an intention to apply for asylum under section 208 or a fear of persecution.

“(ii) CLAIMS FOR ASYLUM.—If an immigration officer determines that an alien (other than an alien described in subparagraph (F)) who is arriving in the United States or is described in clause (iii) is inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(C) or 212(a)(7) and the alien indicates either an intention to apply for asylum under section 208 or a fear of persecution, the officer shall refer the alien for an interview by an asylum officer under subparagraph (B).

“(iii) APPLICATION TO CERTAIN OTHER ALIENS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General may apply clauses (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph to any or all aliens described in subclause (II) as designated by the Attorney General. Such designation shall be in the sole and unreviewable discretion of the Attorney General and may be modified at any time.

“(II) ALIENS DESCRIBED.—An alien described in this clause is an alien who is not described in subparagraph (F), who has not been admitted or paroled into the United States, and who has not affirmatively shown, to the satisfaction of an immigration officer, that the alien has been physically present in the United States continuously for the 2-year period immediately prior to the date of the determination of inadmissibility under this subparagraph.

“(B) ASYLUM INTERVIEWS.—

“(i) CONDUCT BY ASYLUM OFFICERS.—An asylum officer shall conduct interviews of aliens referred under subparagraph (A)(ii), either at a port of entry or at such other place designated by the Attorney General.

“(ii) REFERRAL OF CERTAIN ALIENS.—If the officer determines at the time of the interview that an alien has a credible fear of persecution (within the meaning of clause (v)), the alien shall be detained for further consideration of the application for asylum.

“(iii) REMOVAL WITHOUT FURTHER REVIEW IF NO CREDIBLE FEAR OF PERSECUTION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subclause (III), if the officer determines that an alien does not have a credible fear of persecution, the officer shall order the alien removed from the United States without further hearing or review.

“(II) RECORD OF DETERMINATION.—The officer shall prepare a written record of a determination under subclause (1). Such record shall include a summary of the material facts as stated by the applicant, such additional facts (if any) relied upon by the officer, and the officer's analysis of why, in the light of such facts, the alien has not established a credible fear of persecution. A copy of the officer's interview notes shall be attached to the written summary.

“(III) REVIEW OF DETERMINATION.—The Attorney General shall provide by regulation and upon the alien's request for prompt review by an immigration judge of a determination under subclause (1) that the alien does not have a credible fear of persecution. Such review shall include an opportunity for the alien to be heard and questioned by the immigration judge, either in person or by telephonic or video connection. Review shall be concluded as expeditiously as possible, to the maximum extent practicable within 24 hours, but in no case later than 7 days after the date of the determination under subclause (1).

“(IV) MANDATORY DETENTION.—Any alien subject to the procedures under this clause shall be detained pending a final determination of credible fear of persecution and, if found not to have such a fear, until removed.

“(iv) INFORMATION ABOUT INTERVIEWS.—The Attorney General shall provide information concerning the asylum interview described in this subparagraph to aliens who may be eligible. An alien who is eligible for such interview may consult with a person or persons of the alien's choosing prior to the interview or any review thereof, according to regulations prescribed by the Attorney General. Such consultation shall be at no expense to the Government and shall not unreasonably delay the process.

“(v) CREDIBLE FEAR OF PERSECUTION DEFINED.—For purposes of this subparagraph, the term ‘credible fear of persecution’ means that there is a significant possibility, taking into account the credibility of the statements made by the alien in support of the alien's claim and such other facts as are known to the officer, that the alien could establish eligibility for asylum under section 208.

“(C) LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B)(iii)(III), a removal order entered in accordance with subparagraph (A)(i) or (B)(iii)(I) is not subject to administrative appeal, except that the Attorney General shall provide by regulation for prompt review of such an order under subparagraph (A)(i) against an alien who claims under oath, or as permitted under penalty of perjury under section 1746 of title 28, United States Code, after having been warned of the penalties for falsely making such claim under such conditions, to have been lawfully admitted for permanent residence, to have been admitted as a refugee under section 207, or to have been granted asylum under section 208.

“(D) LIMIT ON COLLATERAL ATTACKS.—In any action brought against an alien under section 275(a) or section 276, the court shall not have jurisdiction to hear any claim attacking the validity of an order of removal entered under subparagraph (A)(i) or (B)(iii).

“(E) ASYLUM OFFICER DEFINED.—As used in this paragraph, the term ‘asylum officer’ means an immigration officer who—

“(i) has had professional training in country conditions, asylum law, and interview techniques comparable to that provided to full-time adjudicators of applications under section 208, and

“(ii) is supervised by an officer who meets the condition described in clause (i) and has had substantial experience adjudicating asylum applications.

“(F) EXCEPTION.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to an alien who is a native or citizen of a country in the Western Hemisphere with whose government the United States does not have full diplomatic relations and who arrives by aircraft at a port of entry.

“(2) INSPECTION OF OTHER ALIENS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraphs (B) and (C), in the case of an alien who is an applicant for admission, if the examining immigration officer determines that an alien seeking admission is not clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to be admitted, the alien shall be detained for a proceeding under section 240.

“(B) EXCEPTION.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to an alien—

“(i) who is a crewman,

“(ii) to whom paragraph (1) applies, or

“(iii) who is a stowaway.

“(C) TREATMENT OF ALIENS ARRIVING FROM CONTIGUOUS TERRITORY.—In the case of an alien described in subparagraph (A) who is arriving on land (whether or not at a designated port of arrival) from a foreign territory contiguous to the United States, the Attorney General may return the alien to that territory pending a proceeding under section 240.

“(3) CHALLENGE OF DECISION.—The decision of the examining immigration officer, if favorable to the admission of any alien, shall be subject to challenge by any other immigration officer and such challenge shall operate to take the alien whose privilege to be admitted is so challenged, before an immigration judge for a proceeding under section 240.

“(c) REMOVAL OF ALIENS INADMISSIBLE ON SECURITY AND RELATED GROUNDS.—

“(1) REMOVAL WITHOUT FURTHER HEARING.—If an immigration officer or an immigration judge suspects that an arriving alien may be inadmissible under subparagraph (A) (other than clause (ii)), (B), or (C) of section 212(a)(3), the officer or judge shall—

“(A) order the alien removed, subject to review under paragraph (2);

“(B) report the order of removal to the Attorney General; and “(C) not conduct any further inquiry or hearing until ordered by the Attorney General.

“(2) REVIEW OF ORDER.—(A) The Attorney General shall review orders issued under paragraph (1).

“(B) If the Attorney General—

“(i) is satisfied on the basis of confidential information that the alien is inadmissible under subparagraph (A) (other than clause (ii)), (B), or (C) of section 212(a)(3), and

“(ii) after consulting with appropriate security agencies of the United States Government, concludes that disclosure of the information would be prejudicial to the public interest, safety, or security, the Attorney General may order the alien removed without further inquiry or hearing by an immigration judge.

“(C) If the Attorney General does not order the removal of the alien under subparagraph (B), the Attorney General shall specify the further inquiry or hearing that shall be conducted in the case.

“(3) SUBMISSION OF STATEMENT AND INFORMATION.—The alien or the alien's representative may submit a written statement and additional information for consideration by the Attorney General.

“(d) AUTHORITY RELATING TO INSPECTIONS.—

“(1) AUTHORITY TO SEARCH CONVEYANCES.—Immigration officers are authorized to board and search any vessel, aircraft, railway car, or other conveyance or vehicle in which they believe aliens are being brought into the United States.

“(2) AUTHORITY TO ORDER DETENTION AND DELIVERY OF ARRIVING ALIENS.—Immigration officers are authorized to order an owner, agent, master, commanding officer, person in charge, purser, or consignee of a vessel or aircraft bringing an alien (except an alien crewmember) to the United States—

“(A) to detain the alien on the vessel or at the airport of arrival, and

“(B) to deliver the alien to an immigration officer for inspection or to a medical officer for examination.

“(3) ADMINISTRATION OF OATH AND CONSIDERATION OF EVIDENCE.—The Attorney General and any immigration officer shall have power to administer oaths and to take and consider evidence of or from any person touching the privilege of any alien or person he believes or suspects to be an alien to enter, reenter, transit through, or reside in the United States or concerning any matter which is material and relevant to the enforcement of this Act and the administration of the Service.

“(4) SUBPOENA AUTHORITY.—(A) The Attorney General and any immigration officer shall have power to require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses before immigration officers and the production of books, papers, and documents relating to the privilege of any person to enter, reenter, reside in, or pass through the United States or concerning any matter which is material and relevant to the enforcement of this Act and the administration of the Service, and to that end may invoke the aid of any court of the United States.

“(B) Any United States district court within the jurisdiction of which investigations or inquiries are being conducted by an immigration officer may, in the event of neglect or refusal to respond to a subpoena issued under this paragraph or refusal to testify before an immigration officer, issue an order requiring such persons to appear before an immigration officer, produce books, papers, and documents if demanded, and testify, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.”

(b) GAO STUDY ON OPERATION OF EXPEDITED REMOVAL PROCEDURES.—

(1) STUDY.—The Comptroller General shall conduct a study on the implementation of the expedited removal procedures under section 235(b)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended by subsection (a). The study shall examine—

(A) the effectiveness of such procedures in deterring illegal entry,

(B) the detention and adjudication resources saved as a result of the procedures,

(C) the administrative and other costs expended to comply with the provision,

(D) the effectiveness of such procedures in processing asylum claims by undocumented aliens who assert a fear of persecution, including the accuracy of credible fear determinations, and

(E) the cooperation of other countries and air carriers in accepting and returning aliens removed under such procedures.

(2) REPORT.—By not later than 18 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General shall submit to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and the Senate a report on the study conducted under paragraph (1).

“APPREHENSION AND DETENTION OF ALIENS

“SEC. 236. (a) ARREST, DETENTION, AND RELEASE.—On a warrant issued by the Attorney General, an alien may be arrested and detained pending a decision on whether the alien is to be removed from the United States. Except as provided in subsection (c) and pending such decision, the Attorney General—

“(1) may continue to detain the arrested alien; and

“(2) may release the alien on—

“(A) bond of at least $1,500 with security approved by, and containing conditions prescribed by, the Attorney General; or

“(B) conditional parole; but

“(b) REVOCATION OF BOND OR PAROLE.—The Attorney General at any time may revoke a bond or parole authorized under subsection (a), rearrest the alien under the original warrant, and detain the alien.

“(c) DETENTION OF CRIMINAL ALIENS.—

“(1) CUSTODY.—The Attorney General shall take into custody any alien who—

“(A) is inadmissible by reason of having committed any offense covered in section 212(a)(2),

“(B) is deportable by reason of having committed any offense covered in section 237(a)(2)(A)(ii), (A)(iii), (B), (C), or (D),

“(2) RELEASE.—The Attorney General may release an alien described in paragraph (1) only if the Attorney General decides pursuant to section 3521 of title 18, United States Code, that release of the alien from custody is necessary to provide protection to a witness, a potential witness, a person cooperating with an investigation into major criminal activity, or an immediate family member or close associate of a witness, potential witness, or person cooperating with such an investigation, and the alien satisfies the Attorney General that the alien will not pose a danger to the safety of other persons or of property and is likely to appear for any scheduled proceeding. A decision relating to such release shall take place in accordance with a procedure that considers the severity of the offense committed by the alien.

“(d) IDENTIFICATION OF CRIMINAL ALIENS.—(1) The Attorney General shall devise and implement a system—

“(A) to make available, daily (on a 24-hour basis), to Federal, State, and local authorities the investigative resources of the Service to determine whether individuals arrested by such authorities for aggravated felonies are aliens;

“(B) to designate and train officers and employees of the Service to serve as a liaison to Federal, State, and local law enforcement and correctional agencies and courts with respect to the arrest, conviction, and release of any alien charged with an aggravated felony; and

“(e) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—The Attorney General’s discretionary judgment regarding the application of this section shall not be subject to review. No court may set aside any action or decision by the Attorney General under this section regarding the detention or release of any alien or the grant, revocation, or denial of bond or parole.”

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall become effective on the title III-A effective date.

(2) NOTIFICATION REGARDING CUSTODY.—If the Attorney General, not later than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, notifies in writing the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and the Senate that there is insufficient detention space and Immigration and Naturalization Service personnel available to carry out section 236(c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended by subsection (a), or the amendments made by section 440(c) of Public Law 104-132, the provisions in paragraph (3) shall be in effect for a 1-year period beginning on the date of such notification, instead of such section or such amendments. The Attorney General may extend such 1-year period for an additional year if the Attorney General provides the same notice not later than 10 days before the end of the first 1-year period. After the end of such 1-year or 2-year periods, the provisions of such section 236(c) shall apply to individuals released after such periods.

when the alien is released, without regard to whether the alien is released on parole, supervised release, or probation, and without regard to whether the alien may be arrested or imprisoned again for the same offense.

(B) RELEASE.—The Attorney General may release the alien only if the alien is an alien described in subparagraph (A)(ii) or (A)(iii) and—

(i) the alien was lawfully admitted to the United States and satisfies the Attorney General that the alien will not pose a danger to the safety of other persons or of property and is likely to appear for any scheduled proceeding, or

“(B) the alien shall have a reasonable opportunity to examine the evidence against the alien, to present evidence on the alien’s own behalf, and to cross-examine witnesses presented by the Government but these rights shall not entitle the alien to examine such national security information as the Government may proffer in opposition to the alien’s admission to the United States or to an application by the alien for discretionary relief under this Act, and

“(C) a complete record shall be kept of all testimony and evidence produced at the proceeding.

“(5) CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO APPEAR.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Any alien who, after written notice required under paragraph (1) or (2) of section 239(a) has been provided to the alien or the alien’s counsel of record, does not attend a proceeding under this section, shall be ordered removed in absentia if the Service establishes by clear, unequivocal, and convincing evidence that the written notice was so provided and that the alien is removable (as defined in subsection (e)(2)). The written notice by the Attorney General shall be considered sufficient for purposes of this subparagraph if provided at the most recent address provided under section 239(a)(1)(F).

“(B) NO NOTICE IF FAILURE TO PROVIDE ADDRESS INFORMATION.—No written notice shall be required under subparagraph (A) if the alien has failed to provide the address required under section 239(a)(1)(F).

“(C) RESCISSION OF ORDER.—Such an order may be rescinded only—

“(i) upon a motion to reopen filed within 180 days after the date of the order of removal if the alien demonstrates that the failure to appear was because of exceptional circumstances (as defined in subsection (e)(1)), or

“(c) DECISION AND BURDEN OF PROOF.—

“(B) CERTAIN MEDICAL DECISIONS.—If a medical officer or civil surgeon or board of medical officers has certified under section 232(b) that an alien has a disease, illness, or addiction which would make the alien inadmissible under paragraph (1) of section 212(a), the decision of the immigration judge shall be based solely upon such certification.

“(2) BURDEN ON ALIEN.—In the proceeding the alien has the burden of establishing—

“(A) if the alien is an applicant for admission, that the alien is clearly and beyond doubt entitled to be admitted and is not inadmissible under section 212; or

“(B) by clear and convincing evidence, that the alien is lawfully present in the United States pursuant to a prior admission.

In meeting the burden of proof under subparagraph (B), the alien shall have access to the alien’s visa or other entry document, if any, and any other records and documents, not considered by the Attorney General to be confidential, pertaining to the alien’s admission or presence in the United States.

“(3) BURDEN ON SERVICE IN CASES OF DEPORTABLE ALIENS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—In the proceeding the Service has the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that, in the case of an alien who has been admitted to the United States, the alien is deportable. No decision on deportability shall be valid unless it is based upon reasonable, substantial, and probative evidence.

“(B) PROOF OF CONVICTIONS.—In any proceeding under this Act, any of the following documents or records (or a certified copy of such an official document or record) shall constitute proof of a criminal conviction:

for departure or repatriation of the stowaway and removal of the stowaway will not be unreasonably delayed.

“(3) REMOVAL UPON ORDER.—An owner, agent, master, commanding officer, person in charge, purser, or consignee of a vessel, aircraft, or other transportation line shall comply with an order of the Attorney General to take on board, guard safely, and transport to the destination specified any alien ordered to be removed under this Act.

“(e) PAYMENT OF EXPENSES OF REMOVAL.—

“(1) COSTS OF REMOVAL AT TIME OF ARRIVAL.—In the case of an alien who is a stowaway or who is ordered removed either without a hearing under section 235(a)(1) or 235(c) or pursuant to proceedings under section 240 initiated at the time of such alien's arrival, the owner of the vessel or aircraft (if any) on which the alien arrived in the United States shall pay the transportation cost of removing the alien. If removal is on a vessel or aircraft not owned by the owner of the vessel or aircraft on which the alien arrived in the United States, the Attorney General may—

“(A) pay the cost from the appropriation ‘Immigration and Naturalization Service—Salaries and Expenses’; and

“(B) recover the amount of the cost in a civil action from the owner, agent, or consignee of the vessel or aircraft (if any) on which the alien arrived in the United States.

“SEC. 242. (a) APPLICABLE PROVISIONS.—

“(1) GENERAL ORDERS OF REMOVAL.—Judicial review of a final order of removal (other than an order of removal without a hearing pursuant to section 235(b)(1)) is governed only by chapter 158 of title 28 of the United States Code, except as provided in subsection (b) and except that the court may not order the taking of additional evidence under section 2347(c) of such title.

“(2) MATTERS NOT SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW.—

“(A) REVIEW RELATING TO SECTION 235(b)(1).—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court shall have jurisdiction to review—

“(i) except as provided in subsection (e), any individual determination or to entertain any other cause or claim arising from or relating to the implementation or operation of an order of removal pursuant to section 235(b)(1),

“(ii) except as provided in subsection (e), a decision by the Attorney General to invoke the provisions of such section,

“(iii) the application of such section to individual aliens, including the determination made under section 235(b)(1)(B), or “(iv) except as provided in subsection (e), procedures and policies adopted by the Attorney General to implement the provisions of section 235(b)(1).

“(B) DENIALS OF DISCRETIONARY RELIEF.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court shall have jurisdiction to review—

“(i) any judgment regarding the granting of relief under section 212(h), 212(i), 240A, 240B, or 245, or

“(ii) any other decision or action of the Attorney General the authority for which is specified under this title to be in the discretion of the Attorney General, other than the granting of relief under section 208(a).

“(C) ORDERS AGAINST CRIMINAL ALIENS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court shall have jurisdiction to review any final order of removal against an alien who is removable by reason of having committed a criminal offense covered in section 212(a)(2) or 237(a)(2)(A)(iii), (B), (C), or (D), or any offense covered by section 237(a)(2)(A)(ii) for which both predicate offenses are, without regard to their date of commission, otherwise covered by section 237(a)(2)(A)(i).

“(3) TREATMENT OF CERTAIN DECISIONS.—No alien shall have a right to appeal from a decision of an immigration judge which is based solely on a certification described in section 240(c)(1)(B).

“(b) REQUIREMENTS FOR REVIEW OF ORDERS OF REMOVAL.—With respect to review of an order of removal under subsection (a)(1), the following requirements apply:

“(1) DEADLINE.—The petition for review must be filed not later than 30 days after the date of the final order of removal.

“(2) VENUE AND FORMS.—The petition for review shall be filed with the court of appeals for the judicial circuit in which the immigration judge completed the proceedings. The record and briefs do not have to be printed. The court of appeals shall review the proceeding on a typewritten record and on typewritten briefs.

“(3) SERVICE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The respondent is the Attorney General. The petition shall be served on the Attorney General and on the officer or employee of the Service in charge of the Service district in which the final order of removal under section 240 was entered.

“(B) STAY OF ORDER.—Service of the petition on the officer or employee does not stay the removal of an alien pending the court's decision on the petition, unless the court orders otherwise.

“(C) ALIEN'S BRIEF.—The alien shall serve and file a brief in connection with a petition for judicial review not later than 40 days after the date on which the administrative record is available, and may serve and file a reply brief not later than 14 days after service of the brief of the Attorney General, and the court may not extend these deadlines except upon motion for good cause shown. If an alien fails to file a brief within the time provided in this paragraph, the court shall dismiss the appeal unless a manifest injustice would result.

“(4) SCOPE AND STANDARD FOR REVIEW.—Except as provided in paragraph (5)(B)—

“(A) the court of appeals shall decide the petition only on the administrative record on which the order of removal is based,

“(B) the administrative findings of fact are conclusive unless any reasonable adjudicator would be compelled to conclude to the contrary,

“(C) a decision that an alien is not eligible for admission to the United States is conclusive unless manifestly contrary to law, and

“(D) the Attorney General's discretionary judgment whether to grant relief under section 208(a) shall be conclusive unless manifestly contrary to the law and an abuse of discretion.

“(5) TREATMENT OF NATIONALITY CLAIMS.—

“(A) COURT DETERMINATION IF NO ISSUE OF FACT.—If the petitioner claims to be a national of the United States and the court of appeals finds from the pleadings and affidavits that no genuine issue of material fact about the petitioner's nationality is presented, the court shall decide the nationality claim.

“(B) TRANSFER IF ISSUE OF FACT.—If the petitioner claims to be a national of the United States and the court of appeals finds that a genuine issue of material fact about the petitioner's nationality is presented, the court shall transfer the proceeding to the district court of the United States for the judicial district in which the petitioner resides for a new hearing on the nationality claim and a decision on that claim as if an action had been brought in the district court under section 2201 of title 28, United States Code.

“(C) LIMITATION ON DETERMINATION.—The petitioner may have such nationality claim decided only as provided in this paragraph.

“(6) CONSOLIDATION WITH REVIEW OF MOTIONS TO REOPEN OR RECONSIDER.—When a petitioner seeks review of an order under this section, any review sought of a motion to reopen or reconsider the order shall be consolidated with the review of the order.

“(7) CHALLENGE TO VALIDITY OF ORDERS IN CERTAIN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If the validity of an order of removal has not been judicially decided, a defendant in a criminal proceeding charged with violating section 243(a) may challenge the validity of the order in the criminal proceeding only by filing a separate motion before trial. The district court, without a jury, shall decide the motion before trial.

“(B) CLAIMS OF UNITED STATES NATIONALITY.—If the defendant claims in the motion to be a national of the United States and the district court finds that—

“(i) no genuine issue of material fact about the defendant's nationality is presented, the court shall decide the motion only on the administrative record on which the removal order is based and the administrative findings of fact are conclusive if supported by reasonable, substantial, and probative evidence on the record considered as a whole; or

“(ii) a genuine issue of material fact about the defendant's nationality is presented, the court shall hold a new hearing on the nationality claim and decide that claim as if an action had been brought under section 2201 of title 28, United States Code.

The defendant may have such nationality claim decided only as provided in this subparagraph.

“(C) CONSEQUENCE OF INVALIDATION.—If the district court rules that the removal order is invalid, the court shall dismiss the indictment for violation of section 243(a). The United States Government may appeal the dismissal to the court of appeals for the appropriate circuit within 30 days after the date of the dismissal.

“(D) LIMITATION ON FILING PETITIONS FOR REVIEW.—The defendant in a criminal proceeding under section 243(a) may not file a petition for review under subsection (a) during the criminal proceeding.

“(8) CONSTRUCTION.—This subsection—

“(A) does not prevent the Attorney General, after a final order of removal has been issued, from detaining the alien under section 241(a);

“(B) does not relieve the alien from complying with section 241(a)(4) and section 243(g); and

“(C) does not require the Attorney General to defer removal of the alien.

“(9) CONSOLIDATION OF QUESTIONS FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW.—Judicial review of all questions of law and fact, including interpretation and application of constitutional and statutory provisions, arising from any action taken or proceeding brought to remove an alien from the United States under this title shall be available only in judicial review of a final order under this section.

“(c) REQUIREMENTS FOR PETITION.—A petition for review or for habeas corpus of an order of removal—

“(1) shall attach a copy of such order, and

“(2) shall state whether a court has upheld the validity of the order, and, if so, shall state the name of the court, the date of the court's ruling, and the kind of proceeding.

“(d) REVIEW OF FINAL ORDERS.—A court may review a final order of removal only if—

“(1) the alien has exhausted all administrative remedies available to the alien as of right, and

“(2) another court has not decided the validity of the order, unless the reviewing court finds that the petition presents grounds that could not have been presented in the prior judicial proceeding or that the remedy provided by the prior proceeding was inadequate or ineffective to test the validity of the order.

“(e) JUDICIAL REVIEW OF ORDERS UNDER SECTION 235(b)(1).—

“(1) LIMITATIONS ON RELIEF.—Without regard to the nature of the action or claim and without regard to the identity of the party or parties bringing the action, no court may—

“(A) enter declaratory, injunctive, or other equitable relief in any action pertaining to an order to exclude an alien in accordance with section 235(b)(1) except as specifically authorized in a subsequent paragraph of this subsection, or

“(B) certify a class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in any action for which judicial review is authorized under a subsequent paragraph of this subsection.

“(2) HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS.—Judicial review of any determination made under section 235(b)(1) is available in habeas corpus proceedings, but shall be limited to determinations of—

“(A) whether the petitioner is an alien,

“(B) whether the petitioner was ordered removed under such section, and “(C) whether the petitioner can prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, has been admitted as a refugee under section 207, or has been granted asylum under section 208, such status not having been terminated, and is entitled to such further inquiry as prescribed by the Attorney General pursuant to section 235(b)(1)(C).

“(3) CHALLENGES ON VALIDITY OF THE SYSTEM.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Judicial review of determinations under section 235(b) and its implementation is available in an action instituted in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, but shall be limited to determinations of—

“(i) whether such section, or any regulation issued to implement such section, is constitutional; or

“(ii) whether such a regulation, or a written policy directive, written policy guideline, or written procedure issued by or under the authority of the Attorney General to implement such section, is not consistent with applicable provisions of this title or is otherwise in violation of law.

“(B) DEADLINES FOR BRINGING ACTIONS.—Any action instituted under this paragraph must be filed no later than 60 days after the date the challenged section, regulation, directive, guideline, or procedure described in clause (i) or (ii) of subparagraph (A) is first implemented.

“(C) NOTICE OF APPEAL.—A notice of appeal of an order issued by the District Court under this paragraph may be filed not later than 30 days after the date of issuance of such order.

“(D) EXPEDITIOUS CONSIDERATION OF CASES.—It shall be the duty of the District Court, the Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court of the United States to advance on the docket and to expedite to the greatest possible extent the disposition of any case considered under this paragraph.

“(4) DECISION.—In any case where the court determines that the petitioner—

“(A) is an alien who was not ordered removed under section 235(b)(1), or

“(B) has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that the alien is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, has been admitted as a refugee under section 207, or has been granted asylum under section 208, the court may order no remedy or relief other than to require that the petitioner be provided a hearing in accordance with section 240. Any alien who is provided a hearing under section 240 pursuant to this paragraph may thereafter obtain judicial review of any resulting final order of removal pursuant to subsection (a)(1).

“(5) SCOPE OF INQUIRY.—In determining whether an alien has been ordered removed under section 235(b)(1), the court's inquiry shall be limited to whether such an order in fact was issued and whether it relates to the petitioner. There shall be no review of whether the alien is actually inadmissible or entitled to any relief from removal.

“(f) LIMIT ON INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Regardless of the nature of the action or claim or of the identity of the party or parties bringing the action, no court (other than the Supreme Court) shall have jurisdiction or authority to enjoin or restrain the operation of the provisions of chapter 4 of title II, as amended by the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996, other than with respect to the application of such provisions to an individual alien against whom proceedings under such chapter have been initiated.

(2) PARTICULAR CASES.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court shall enjoin the removal of any alien pursuant to a final order under this section unless the alien shows by clear and convincing evidence that the entry or execution of such order is prohibited as a matter of law.

“(g) EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION.—Except as provided in this section and notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court shall have jurisdiction to hear any cause or claim by or on behalf of any alien arising from the decision or action by the Attorney General to commence proceedings, adjudicate cases, or execute removal orders against any alien under this Act.”

(b) REPEAL OF SECTION 106.—Section 106 (8 U.S.C. 1105a) is repealed.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—

the first $43,000,000 to States on October 6, 1994, 32 days before the 1994 general election, and then failed to disburse the remaining $87,000,000 until January 31, 1996, 123 days after the end of fiscal year 1995.

(B) While H.R. 2880, the continuing appropriation measure funding certain operations of the Federal Government from January 26, 1996 to March 15, 1996, included $66,000,000 to reimburse States for the cost of incarcerating documented illegal immigrant felons, the Department of Justice failed to disburse any of the funds to the States during the period of the continuing appropriation.

(2) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(A) the Department of Justice was disturbingly slow in disbursing fiscal year 1995 funds under the State Criminal Alien Assistance Program to States after the initial grants were released just prior to the 1994 election; and

(B) the Attorney General should make it a high priority to expedite the disbursement of Federal funds intended to reimburse States for the cost of incarcerating illegal immigrants, aiming for all State Criminal Alien Assistance Program funds to be disbursed during the fiscal year for which they are appropriated.

SEC. 330. PRISONER TRANSFER TREATIES.

(A) is a national of a country that is party to such a treaty; and

(B) has been convicted of a criminal offense under Federal or State law and who—

(i) is not in lawful immigration status in the United States; or

(ii) on the basis of conviction for a criminal offense under Federal or State law, or on any other basis, is subject to deportation or removal under the Immigration and Nationality Act, for the duration of the prison term to which the alien was sentenced for the offense referred to in subparagraph (B). Any such agreement may provide for the release of such alien pursuant to parole procedures of that country.

(2) In entering into negotiations under paragraph (1), the President may consider providing for appropriate compensation, subject to the availability of appropriations, in cases where the United States is able to independently verify the adequacy of the sites where aliens will be imprisoned and the length of time the alien is actually incarcerated in the foreign country under such a treaty.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) the focus of negotiations for such agreements should be—

(A) to expedite the transfer of aliens unlawfully in the United States who are (or are about to be) incarcerated in United States prisons,

(B) to ensure that a transferred prisoner serves the balance of the sentence imposed by the United States courts,

(C) to eliminate any requirement of prisoner consent to such a transfer; and

(D) to allow the Federal Government or the States to keep their original prison sentences in force so that transferred prisoners who return to the United States prior to the completion of their original United States sentences can be returned to custody for the balance of their prison sentences;

(2) the Secretary of State should give priority to concluding an agreement with any country for which the President determines that the number of aliens described in subsection (a) who are nationals of that country in the United States represents a significant percentage of all such aliens in the United States; and

(3) no new treaty providing for the transfer of aliens from Federal, State, or local incarceration facilities to a foreign incarceration facility should permit the alien to refuse the transfer.

(c) PRISONER CONSENT.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as required by treaty, the transfer of an alien from a Federal, State, or local incarceration facility under an agreement of the type referred to in subsection (a) shall not require consent of the alien.

(d) ANNUAL REPORT.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Attorney General shall submit a report to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and of the Senate stating whether each prisoner transfer treaty to which the United States is a party has been effective in the preceding 12 months in bringing about the return of deportable incarcerated aliens to the country of which they are nationals and in ensuring that they serve the balance of their sentences.

(e) TRAINING FOREIGN LAW ENFORCEMENT PERSONNEL.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the President shall direct the Border Patrol Academy and the Customs Service Academy to enroll for training an appropriate number of foreign law enforcement personnel, and shall make appointments of foreign law enforcement personnel to such academies, as necessary to further the following United States law enforcement goals:

(A) Preventing of drug smuggling and other cross-border criminal activity.

(B) Preventing illegal immigration.

(C) Preventing the illegal entry of goods into the United States (including goods the sale of which is illegal in the United States, the entry of which would cause a quota to be exceeded, or the appropriate duty or tariff for which has not been paid).

(2) The appointments described in paragraph (1) shall be made only to the extent there is capacity in such academies beyond what is required to train United States citizens needed in the Border Patrol and Customs Service, and only of personnel from a country with which the prisoner transfer treaty has been stated to be effective in the most recent report referred to in subsection (d).

(f) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out this section.

SEC. 331. PRISONER TRANSFER TREATIES STUDY.

(a) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State and the Attorney General shall submit to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and of the Senate a report that describes the use and effectiveness of the prisoner transfer treaties with the three countries with the greatest number of their nationals incarcerated in the United States in removing from the United States such incarcerated nationals.

(b) USE OF TREATY.—The report under subsection (a) shall include—

(1) the number of aliens convicted of a criminal offense in the United States since November 30, 1977, who would have been or are eligible for transfer pursuant to the treaties;

(2) the number of aliens described in paragraph (1) who have been transferred pursuant to the treaties;

In considering the recommendations under this subsection, the Secretary and the Attorney General shall consult with such State and local officials in areas disproportionately impacted by aliens convicted of criminal offenses as the Secretary and the Attorney General consider appropriate. Such recommendations shall address—

(1) changes in Federal laws, regulations, and policies affecting the identification, prosecution, and deportation of aliens who have committed criminal offenses in the United States;

(2) changes in State and local laws, regulations, and policies affecting the identification, prosecution, and deportation of aliens who have committed a criminal offense in the United States;

(3) changes in the treaties that may be necessary to increase the number of aliens convicted of criminal offenses who may be transferred pursuant to the treaties;

(4) methods for preventing the unlawful reentry into the United States of aliens who have been convicted of criminal offenses in the United States and transferred pursuant to the treaties;

(5) any recommendations by appropriate officials of the appropriate government agencies of such countries regarding programs to achieve the goals of, and ensure full compliance with, the treaties;

(2) the number of illegal aliens convicted of felonies in any Federal or State court, but not sentenced to incarceration, in the year before the report was submitted, stating the number convicted for each type of offense;

(II) may limit the election to hiring occurring in certain States (or geographic areas) covered by the program (or programs) and in specified divisions within the Department, so long as all hiring by such divisions and in such locations is covered.

(iii) ROLE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Attorney General shall assist and coordinate elections under this subparagraph in such manner as assures that—

(I) a significant portion of the total hiring within each Department within States covered by a pilot program is covered under such a program, and

(II) there is significant participation by the Federal Executive branch in each of the pilot programs.

(B) LEGISLATIVE BRANCH.—Each Member of Congress, each officer of Congress, and the head of each agency of the legislative branch, that conducts hiring in a State in which a pilot program is operating shall elect to participate in a pilot program, may specify which pilot program or programs (if there is more than one) in which the Member, officer, or agency will participate, and shall comply with the terms and conditions of such an election.

(2) APPLICATION TO CERTAIN VIOLATORS.—An order under section 274A(e)(4) or section 274B(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act may require the subject of the order to participate in, and comply with the terms of, a pilot program with respect to the subject's hiring (or recruitment or referral) of individuals in a State covered by such a program.

(3) CONSEQUENCE OF FAILURE TO PARTICIPATE.—If a person or other entity is required under this subsection to participate in a pilot program and fails to comply with the requirements of such program with respect to an individual—

(A) such failure shall be treated as a violation of section 274A(a)(1)(B) with respect to that individual, and

(B) a rebuttable presumption is created that the person or entity has violated section 274A(a)(1)(A).

Subparagraph (B) shall not apply in any prosecution under section 274A(f)(1).

(f) CONSTRUCTION.—This subtitle shall not affect the authority of the Attorney General under any other law (including section 274A(d)(4)) to conduct demonstration projects in relation to section 274A.

SEC. 403. PROCEDURES FOR PARTICIPANTS IN PILOT PROGRAMS.

(a) BASIC PILOT PROGRAM.—A person or other entity that elects to participate in the basic pilot program described in this subsection agrees to conform to the following procedures in the case of the hiring (or recruitment or referral) for employment in the United States of each individual covered by the election:

(1) PROVISION OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.—The person or entity shall obtain from the individual (and the individual shall provide) and shall record on the I-9 or similar form—

(A) the individual's social security account number, if the individual has been issued such a number, and

(B) if the individual does not attest to United States citizenship under section 274A(b)(2), such identification or authorization number established by the Immigration and Naturalization Service for the alien as the Attorney General shall specify, and shall retain the original form and make it available for inspection for the period and in the manner required of I-9 forms under section 274A(b)(3).

(2) PRESENTATION OF DOCUMENTATION.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The person or other entity, and the individual whose identity and employment eligibility are being confirmed, shall, subject to subparagraph (B), fulfill the requirements of section 274A(b) with the following modifications:

(i) A document referred to in section 274A(b)(1)(B)(ii) (as redesignated by section 412(a)) must be designated by the Attorney General as suitable for the purpose of identification in a pilot program.

(ii) A document referred to in section 274A(b)(1)(D) must contain a photograph of the individual.

(iii) The person or other entity has complied with the requirements of section 274A(b)(1) with respect to examination of a document if the document reasonably appears on its face to be genuine and it reasonably appears to pertain to the individual whose identity and work eligibility is being confirmed.

(B) LIMITATION OF REQUIREMENT TO EXAMINE DOCUMENTATION.—If the Attorney General finds that a pilot program would reliably determine with respect to an individual whether—

(i) the person with the identity claimed by the individual is authorized to work in the United States, and

(ii) the individual is claiming the identity of another person, if a person or entity could fulfill the requirement to examine documentation contained in subparagraph (A) of section 274A(b)(1) by examining a document specified in either subparagraph (B) or (D) of such section, the Attorney General may provide that, for purposes of such requirement, only such a document need be examined. In such case, any reference in section 274A(b)(1)(A) to a verification that an individual is not an unauthorized alien shall be deemed to be a verification of the individual's identity.

(3) SEEKING CONFIRMATION.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The person or other entity shall make an inquiry, as provided in section 404(a)(1), using the confirmation system to seek confirmation of the identity and employment eligibility of an individual, by not later than the end of 3 working days (as specified by the Attorney General) after the date of the hiring (or recruitment or referral, as the case may be).

(B) EXTENSION OF TIME PERIOD.—If the person or other entity in good faith attempts to make an inquiry during such 3 working days and the confirmation system has registered that not all inquiries were received during such time, the person or entity can make an inquiry in the first subsequent working day in which the confirmation system registers that it has received all inquiries. If the confirmation system cannot receive inquiries at all times during a day, the person or entity merely has to assert that the entity attempted to make the inquiry on that day for the previous sentence to apply to such an inquiry, and does not have to provide any additional proof concerning such inquiry.

(4) CONFIRMATION OR NONCONFIRMATION.—

(A) CONFIRMATION UPON INITIAL INQUIRY.—If the person or other entity receives an appropriate confirmation of an individual's identity and work eligibility under the confirmation system within the time period specified under section 404(b), the person or entity shall record on the I-9 or similar form an appropriate code that is provided under the system and that indicates a final confirmation of such identity and work eligibility of the individual.

(B) NONCONFIRMATION UPON INITIAL INQUIRY AND SECONDARY VERIFICATION.—

(i) NONCONFIRMATION.—If the person or other entity receives a tentative nonconfirmation of an individual's identity or work eligibility under the confirmation system within the time period specified under 404(b), the person or entity shall so inform the individual for whom the confirmation is sought.

(ii) NO CONTEST.—If the individual does not contest the nonconfirmation within the time period specified in section 404(c), the nonconfirmation shall be considered final. The person or entity shall then record on the I-9 or similar form an appropriate code which has been provided under the system to indicate a tentative nonconfirmation.

(iii) CONTEST.—If the individual does contest the nonconfirmation, the individual shall utilize the process for secondary verification provided under section 404(c). The nonconfirmation will remain tentative until a final confirmation or nonconfirmation is provided by the confirmation system within the time period specified in such section. In no case shall an employer terminate employment of an individual because of a failure of the individual to have identity and work eligibility confirmed under this section until a nonconfirmation becomes final. Nothing in this clause shall apply to a termination of employment for any reason other than because of such a failure.

(iv) RECORDING OF CONCLUSION ON FORM.—If a final confirmation or nonconfirmation is provided by the confirmation system under section 404(c) regarding an individual, the person or entity shall record on the I-9 or similar form an appropriate code that is provided under the system and that indicates a confirmation or nonconfirmation of identity and work eligibility of the individual.

(C) CONSEQUENCES OF NONCONFIRMATION.—

(i) TERMINATION OR NOTIFICATION OF CONTINUED EMPLOYMENT.—If the person or other entity has received a final nonconfirmation regarding an individual under subparagraph (B), the person or entity may terminate employment (or recruitment or referral) of the individual. If the person or entity does not terminate employment (or recruitment or referral) of the individual, the person or entity shall notify the Attorney General of such fact through the confirmation system or in such other manner as the Attorney General may specify.

(ii) FAILURE TO NOTIFY.—If the person or entity fails to provide notice with respect to an individual as required under clause (i), the failure is deemed to constitute a violation of section 274A(a)(1)(B) with respect to that individual and the applicable civil monetary penalty under section 274A(e)(5) shall be (notwithstanding the amounts specified in such section) no less than $500 and no more than $1,000 for each individual with respect to whom such violation occurred.

(iii) CONTINUED EMPLOYMENT AFTER FINAL NONCONFIRMATION.—If the person or other entity continues to employ (or to recruit or refer) an individual after receiving final nonconfirmation, a rebuttable presumption is created that the person or entity has violated section 274A(a)(1)(A). The previous sentence shall not apply in any prosecution under section 274A(f)(1).

(b) CITIZEN ATTESTATION PILOT PROGRAM.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraphs (3) through (5), the procedures applicable under the citizen attestation pilot program under this subsection shall be the same procedures as those under the basic pilot program under subsection (a).

(2) RESTRICTIONS.—

(A) STATE DOCUMENT REQUIREMENT TO PARTICIPATE IN PILOT PROGRAM.—The Attorney General may not provide for the operation of the citizen attestation pilot program in a State unless each driver's license or similar identification document described in section 274A(b)(1)(D)(i) issued by the State—

(i) contains a photograph of the individual involved, and

(ii) has been determined by the Attorney General to have security features, and to have been issued through application and issuance procedures, which make such document sufficiently resistant to counterfeiting, tampering, and fraudulent use that it is a reliable means of identification for purposes of this section.

(B) AUTHORIZATION TO LIMIT EMPLOYER PARTICIPATION.—The Attorney General may restrict the number of persons or other entities that may elect to participate in the citizen attestation pilot program under this subsection as the Attorney General determines to be necessary to produce a representative sample of employers and to reduce the potential impact of fraud.

(3) NO CONFIRMATION REQUIRED FOR CERTAIN INDIVIDUALS ATTESTING TO U.S. CITIZENSHIP.—In the case of a person or other entity hiring (or recruiting or referring) an individual under the citizen attestation pilot program, if the individual attests to United States citizenship (under penalty of perjury on an I-9 or similar form which form states on its face the criminal and other penalties provided under law for a false representation of United States citizenship)—

(A) the person or entity may fulfill the requirement to examine documentation contained in subparagraph (A) of section 274A(b)(1) by examining a document specified in either subparagraph (B)(i) or (D) of such section; and

(B) the person or other entity is not required to comply with respect to such individual with the procedures described in paragraphs (3) and (4) of subsection (a), but only if the person or entity retains the form and makes it available for inspection in the same manner as in the case of an I-9 form under section 274A(b)(3).

(4) WAIVER OF DOCUMENT PRESENTATION REQUIREMENT IN CERTAIN CASES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In the case of a person or entity that elects, in a manner specified by the Attorney General consistent with subparagraph (B), to participate in the pilot program under this paragraph, if an individual being hired (or recruited or referred) attests (in the manner described in paragraph (3)) to United States citizenship and the person or entity retains the form on which the attestation is made and makes it available for inspection in the same manner as in the case of an I-9 form under section 274A(b)(3), the person or entity is not required to comply with the procedures described in section 274A(b).

(B) RESTRICTION.—The Attorney General shall restrict the election under this paragraph to no more than 1,000 employers and, to the extent practicable, shall select among employers seeking to make such election in a manner that provides for such an election by a representative sample of employers.

(5) NONREVIEWABLE DETERMINATIONS.—The determinations of the Attorney General under paragraphs (2) and (4) are within the discretion of the Attorney General and are not subject to judicial or administrative review.

(c) MACHINE-READABLE-DOCUMENT PILOT PROGRAM.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (3), the procedures applicable under the machine-readable-document pilot program under this subsection shall be the same procedures as those under the basic pilot program under subsection (a).

(2) STATE DOCUMENT REQUIREMENT TO PARTICIPATE IN PILOT PROGRAM.—The Attorney General may not provide for the operation of the machine-readable-document pilot program in a State unless driver's licenses and similar identification documents described in section 274A(b)(1)(D)(i) issued by the State include a machine-readable social security account number.

(3) USE OF MACHINE-READABLE DOCUMENTS.—If the individual whose identity and employment eligibility must be confirmed presents to the person or entity hiring (or recruiting or referring) the individual a license or other document described in paragraph (2) that includes a machine-readable social security account number, the person or entity must make an inquiry through the confirmation system by using a machine-readable feature of such document. If the individual does not attest to United States citizenship under section 274A(b)(2), the individual's identification or authorization number described in subsection (a)(1)(B) shall be provided as part of the inquiry.

(d) PROTECTION FROM LIABILITY FOR ACTIONS TAKEN ON THE BASIS OF INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE CONFIRMATION SYSTEM.—No person or entity participating in a pilot program shall be civilly or criminally liable under any law for any action taken in good faith reliance on information provided through the confirmation system.

SEC. 404. EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY CONFIRMATION SYSTEM.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General shall establish a pilot program confirmation system through which the Attorney General (or a designee of the Attorney General, which may be a nongovernmental entity)—

(1) responds to inquiries made by electing persons and other entities (including those made by the transmittal of data from machine-readable documents under the machine-readable pilot program) at any time through a toll-free telephone line or other toll-free electronic media concerning an individual's identity and whether the individual is authorized to be employed, and

(2) maintains records of the inquiries that were made, of confirmations provided (or not provided), and of the codes provided to inquirers as evidence of their compliance with their obligations under the pilot programs.

To the extent practicable, the Attorney General shall seek to establish such a system using one or more nongovernmental entities.

(b) INITIAL RESPONSE.—The confirmation system shall provide confirmation or a tentative nonconfirmation of an individual's identity and employment eligibility within 3 working days of the initial inquiry. If providing confirmation or tentative nonconfirmation, the confirmation system shall provide an appropriate code indicating such confirmation or such nonconfirmation.

(c) SECONDARY VERIFICATION PROCESS IN CASE OF TENTATIVE NONCONFIRMATION.—In cases of tentative nonconfirmation, the Attorney General shall specify, in consultation with the Commissioner of Social Security and the Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, an available secondary verification process to confirm the validity of information provided and to provide a final confirmation or nonconfirmation within 10 working days after the date of the tentative nonconfirmation. When final confirmation or nonconfirmation is provided, the confirmation system shall provide an appropriate code indicating such confirmation or nonconfirmation.

(d) DESIGN AND OPERATION OF SYSTEM.—The confirmation system shall be designed and operated—

(1) to maximize its reliability and ease of use by persons and other entities making elections under section 402(a) consistent with insulating and protecting the privacy and security of the underlying information;

(2) to respond to all inquiries made by such persons and entities on whether individuals are authorized to be employed and to register all times when such inquiries are not received;

(3) with appropriate administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to prevent unauthorized disclosure of personal information; and

(4) to have reasonable safeguards against the system's resulting in unlawful discriminatory practices based on national origin or citizenship status, including—

(A) the selective or unauthorized use of the system to verify eligibility;

(B) the use of the system prior to an offer of employment; or

(C) the exclusion of certain individuals from consideration for employment as a result of a perceived likelihood that additional verification will be required, beyond what is required for most job applicants.

(e) RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY.—As part of the confirmation system, the Commissioner of Social Security, in consultation with the entity responsible for administration of the system, shall establish a reliable, secure method, which, within the time periods specified under subsections (b) and (c), compares the name and social security account number provided in an inquiry against such information maintained by the Commissioner in order to confirm (or not confirm) the validity of the information provided regarding an individual whose identity and employment eligibility must be confirmed, the correspondence of the name and number, and whether the individual has presented a social security account number that is not valid for employment. The Commissioner shall not disclose or release social security information (other than such confirmation or nonconfirmation).

(f) RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE.—As part of the confirmation system, the Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, in consultation with the entity responsible for administration of the system, shall establish a reliable, secure method, which, within the time periods specified under subsections (b) and (c), compares the name and alien identification or authorization number described in section 403(a)(1)(B) which are provided in an inquiry against such information maintained by the Commissioner in order to confirm (or not confirm) the validity of the information provided, the correspondence of the name and number, and whether the alien is authorized to be employed in the United States.

(g) UPDATING INFORMATION.—The Commissioners of Social Security and the Immigration and Naturalization Service shall update their information in a manner that promotes the maximum accuracy and shall provide a process for the prompt correction of erroneous information, including instances in which it is brought to their attention in the secondary verification process described in subsection (c).

(h) LIMITATION ON USE OF THE CONFIRMATION SYSTEM AND ANY RELATED SYSTEMS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, nothing in this subtitle shall be construed to permit or allow any department, bureau, or other agency of the United States Government to utilize any information, data base, or other records assembled under this subtitle for any other purpose other than as provided for under a pilot program.

(2) NO NATIONAL IDENTIFICATION CARD.—Nothing in this subtitle shall be construed to authorize, directly or indirectly, the issuance or use of national identification cards or the establishment of a national identification card.

SEC. 405. REPORTS.

The Attorney General shall submit to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and of the Senate reports on the pilot programs within 3 months after the end of the third and fourth years in which the programs are in effect. Such reports shall—

(1) assess the degree of fraudulent attesting of United States citizenship,

(2) include recommendations on whether or not the pilot programs should be continued or modified, and

(3) assess the benefits of the pilot programs to employers and the degree to which they assist in the enforcement of section 274A.

TITLE V—RESTRICTIONS ON BENEFITS FOR ALIENS

SEC. 500. STATEMENTS OF NATIONAL POLICY CONCERNING WELFARE AND IMMIGRATION.

(a) STATEMENTS OF CONGRESSIONAL POLICY.—The Congress makes the following statements concerning national policy with respect to welfare and immigration:

(1) Self-sufficiency has been a basic principle of United States immigration law since this country's earliest immigration statutes.

(2) It continues to be the immigration policy of the United States that—

(A) aliens within the nation's borders not depend on public resources to meet their needs, but rather rely on their own capabilities and the resources of their families, their sponsors, and private organizations; and

(B) the availability of public benefits not constitute an incentive for immigration to the United States.

(3) Despite this principle of self-sufficiency, aliens have been applying for and receiving public benefits from Federal, State, and local governments at increasing rates.

(4) Current eligibility rules for public assistance and unenforceable financial support agreements have proved incapable of assuring that individual aliens do not burden the public benefits system.

(5) It is a compelling government interest to enact new rules for eligibility and sponsorship agreements in order to assure that aliens are self-reliant in accordance with national immigration policy.

(6) It is a compelling government interest to remove the incentive for illegal immigration provided by the availability of public benefits.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—With respect to the authority of a State to make determinations concerning the eligibility of aliens for public benefits, it is the sense of the Congress that a court should apply the same standard of review to an applicable State law as that court uses in determining whether an Act of Congress regulating the eligibility of aliens for public benefits meets constitutional scrutiny.

(2) STRICT SCRUTINY.—In cases where a court holds that a State law determining the eligibility of aliens for public benefits must be the least restrictive means available for achieving a compelling government interest, a State that chooses to follow the Federal classification in determining the eligibility of aliens for public benefits, pursuant to the authorization contained in this title, shall be considered to have chosen the least restrictive means available for achieving the compelling government interest of assuring that aliens are self-reliant in accordance with national immigration policy.

Subtitle A—Ineligibility of Excludable Deportable, and Nonimmigrant Aliens From Public Assistance and Benefits

SEC. 501. MEANS-TESTED PUBLIC BENEFITS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subsection (b), and notwithstanding any other provision of law, an ineligible alien (as defined in subsection (d)) shall not be eligible to receive any means-tested public benefits (as defined in subsection (e)).

(b) EXCEPTIONS.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to any of the following benefits:

(1)(A) Medical assistance under title XIX of the Social Security Act (or any successor program to such title) for care and services that are necessary for the treatment of an emergency medical condition of the alien involved and are not related to an organ transplant procedure.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "emergency medical condition" means a medical condition (including emergency labor and delivery) manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity (including severe pain) such that the absence of immediate medical attention could reasonably be expected to result in—

(i) placing the patient's health in serious jeopardy;

(ii) serious impairment to bodily functions; or

(iii) serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part.

(2) Short-term noncash emergency disaster relief.

(3) Assistance or benefits under any of the following (including any successor program to any of the following as identified by the Attorney General in consultation with other appropriate officials):

(A) The National School Lunch Act (42 U.S.C. 1751 et seq.).

(B) The Child Nutrition Act of 1966 (42 U.S.C. 1771 et seq.).

(C) Section 4 of the Agriculture and Consumer Protection Act of 1973 (Public Law 93-86; 7 U.S.C. 612c note).

(D) The Emergency Food Assistance Act of 1983 (Public Law 98-8; 7 U.S.C. 612c note).

(E) Section 110 of the Hunger Prevention Act of 1988 (Public Law 100-435; 7 U.S.C. 612c note).

SEC. 652. MAIL-ORDER BRIDE BUSINESS.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:

(1) There is a substantial "mail-order bride" business in the United States. With approximately 200 companies in the United States, an estimated 2,000 to 3,500 men in the United States find wives through mail-order bride catalogs each year. However, there are no official statistics available on the number of mail-order brides entering the United States each year.

(2) The companies engaged in the mail-order bride business earn substantial profits.

(3) Although many of these mail-order marriages work out, in many other cases, anecdotal evidence suggests that mail-order brides find themselves in abusive relationships. There is also evidence to suggest that a substantial number of mail-order marriages are fraudulent under United States law.

(4) Many mail-order brides come to the United States unaware or ignorant of United States immigration law. Mail-order brides who are battered often think that if they flee an abusive marriage, they will be deported. Often the citizen spouse threatens to have them deported if they report the abuse.

(5) The Immigration and Naturalization Service estimates that the rate of marriage fraud between foreign nationals and United States citizens or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence is 8 percent. It is unclear what percentage of these marriage fraud cases originate as mail-order marriages.

(b) INFORMATION DISSEMINATION.—

(1) REQUIREMENT.—Each international matchmaking organization doing business in the United States shall disseminate to recruits, upon recruitment, such immigration and naturalization information as the Immigration and Naturalization Service deems appropriate, in the recruit's native language, including information regarding conditional permanent residence status and the battered spouse waiver under such status, permanent resident status, marriage fraud penalties, the unregulated nature of the business engaged in by such organizations, and the study required under subsection (c).

(2) CIVIL PENALTY.—

(A) VIOLATION.—Any international matchmaking organization that the Attorney General determines has violated subsection (b) shall be subject, in addition to any other penalties that may be prescribed by law, to a civil money penalty of not more than $20,000 for each such violation.

(B) PROCEDURES FOR IMPOSITION OF PENALTY.—Any penalty under subparagraph (A) may be imposed only after notice and opportunity for an agency hearing on the record in accordance with sections 554 through 557 of title 5, United States Code.

(c) STUDY.—The Attorney General, in consultation with the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization and the Director of the Violence Against Women Initiative of the Department of Justice, shall conduct a study of mail-order marriages to determine, among other things—

(1) the number of such marriages;

(2) the extent of marriage fraud in such marriages, including an estimate of the extent of marriage fraud arising from the services provided by international matchmaking organizations;

(3) the extent to which mail-order spouses utilize section 244(a)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (providing for suspension of deportation in certain cases involving abuse), or section 204(a)(1)(A)(iii) of such Act (providing for certain aliens who have been abused to file a classification petition on their own behalf);

(4) the extent of domestic abuse in mail-order marriages; and

(5) the need for continued or expanded regulation and education to implement the objectives of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 and the Immigration Marriage Fraud Amendments of 1986 with respect to mail-order marriages.

(d) REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall submit a report to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and of the Senate setting forth the results of the study conducted under subsection (c).

(e) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(i) an exchange of names, telephone numbers, addresses, or statistics;

(ii) selection of photographs; or

(iii) a social environment provided by the organization in a country other than the United States.

SEC. 653. REVIEW AND REPORT ON H-2A NON-IMMIGRANT WORKERS PROGRAM.

(a) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that the H-2A nonimmigrant worker program should be reviewed and may need improvement in order to meet the need of producers of labor-intensive agricultural commodities and livestock in the United States for an adequate workforce.

(b) REVIEW.—The Comptroller General shall review the effectiveness of the H-2A nonimmigrant worker program to ensure that the program provides a sufficient supply of agricultural labor in the event of future shortages of domestic workers after the enactment of this Act. Among other things, the Comptroller General shall review the H-2A nonimmigrant worker program to determine—

(1) whether the program ensures that an adequate supply of qualified United States workers is available at the time and place needed for employers seeking such workers after the date of enactment of this Act;

(2) whether the program ensures that there is timely approval of applications for temporary foreign workers under the program in the event of shortages of United States workers after the date of the enactment of this Act;

(3) whether the program ensures that implementation of the program is not displacing United States agricultural workers or diminishing the terms and conditions of employment of United States agricultural workers;

(4) if, and to what extent, the program is contributing to the problem of illegal immigration; and

(5) that the program adequately meets the needs of agricultural employers for all types of temporary foreign agricultural workers, including higher-skilled workers in occupations which require a level of specific vocational preparation of 4 or higher (as described in the 4th edition of the Dictionary of Occupational Title, published by the Department of Labor).

(c) REPORT.—Not later than December 31, 1996, or 3 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, whichever occurs earlier, the Comptroller General shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of the Congress setting forth the conclusions of the Comptroller General from the review conducted under subsection (b).

(d) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(1) The term “Comptroller General” means the Comptroller General of the United States.

(2) The term “H-2A nonimmigrant worker program” means the program for the admission of nonimmigrant aliens described in section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

SEC. 654. REPORT ON ALLEGATIONS OF HARASSMENT BY CANADIAN CUSTOMS AGENTS.

(a) STUDY AND REVIEW.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 30 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commissioner of the United States Customs Service shall initiate a study of harassment by Canadian customs agents allegedly undertaken for the purpose of deterring cross-border commercial activity along the United States-New Brunswick border. Such study shall include a review of the possible connection between any incidents of harassment and the discriminatory imposition of the New Brunswick provincial sales tax on goods purchased in the United States by New Brunswick residents, and with any other actions taken by the Canadian provincial governments to deter cross-border commercial activities.

(2) CONSULTATION.—In conducting the study under paragraph (1), the Commissioner of the United States Customs Service shall consult with representatives of the State of Maine, local governments, local businesses, and any other knowledgeable persons who the Commissioner considers to be important to the completion of the study.

(b) REPORT.—Not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Commissioner of the United States Customs Service shall submit to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and of the Senate a report on the study and review conducted under subsection (a). The report shall include recommendations for steps that the United States Government can take to help end any harassment by Canadian customs agents that is found to have occurred.

SEC. 655. SENSE OF CONGRESS ON DISCRIMINATORY APPLICATION OF NEW BRUNSWICK PROVINCIAL SALES TAX.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:

(1) In July 1993, Canadian customs officers began collecting an 11 percent New Brunswick provincial sales tax on goods purchased in the United States by New Brunswick residents, an action that has caused severe economic harm to United States businesses located in proximity to the border with New Brunswick.

(2) This impediment to cross-border trade compounds the damage already done from the Canadian Government's imposition of a 7 percent tax on all goods bought by Canadians in the United States.

(3) Collection of the New Brunswick provincial sales tax on goods purchased outside of New Brunswick is effected only along the United States-Canadian border, not along New Brunswick's borders with other Canadian provinces; the tax is thus being administered by Canadian authorities in a manner uniquely discriminatory to Canadians shopping in the United States.

(4) In February 1994, the United States Trade Representative publicly stated an intention to seek redress from the discriminatory application of the New Brunswick provincial sales tax under the dispute resolution process in chapter 20 of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), but the United States Government has still not made such a claim under NAFTA procedures.

(5) Initially, the United States Trade Representative argued that filing a New Brunswick provincial sales tax claim was delayed only because the dispute mechanism under NAFTA had not yet been finalized, but more than a year after such mechanism has been put in place, the claim has still not been put forward by the United States Trade Representative.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) the provincial sales tax levied by the Canadian province of New Brunswick on Canadian citizens of that province who purchase goods in the United States—

(A) raises questions about a possible violation of the North American Free Trade Agreement in the discriminatory application of the tax to cross-border trade with the United States; and

(B) damages good relations between the United States and Canada; and

(2) the United States Trade Representative should move forward without further delay in seeking redress under the dispute resolution process in chapter 20 of the North American Free Trade Agreement for the violation.

(iv) MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS.—The standards established under this subparagraph—

(I) at a minimum, shall require certification of the birth certificate by the State or local custodian of record that issued the certificate, and shall require the use of safety paper, the seal of the issuing custodian of record, and other features designed to limit tampering, counterfeiting, and photocopying, or otherwise duplicating, the birth certificate for fraudulent purposes;

(II) may not require a single design to which birth certificates issued by all States must conform; and

(III) shall accommodate the differences between the States in the manner and form in which birth records are stored and birth certificates are produced from such records.

(2) GRANTS TO STATES.—

(A) ASSISTANCE IN MEETING FEDERAL STANDARDS.—

In developing the capability described in the preceding sentence, a State that receives a grant under this subparagraph shall focus first on individuals born after 1950.

(ii) ALLOCATION AND AMOUNT OF GRANTS.—The Secretary shall provide grants to States under this subparagraph in proportion to the populations of the States applying to receive a grant and in an amount needed to provide a substantial incentive for States to develop the capability described in clause (i).

(I) who is a citizen or national of the United States at birth; and

(II) whose birth is registered in the United States; and

(B) that—

(1) STANDARDS FOR ACCEPTANCE BY FEDERAL AGENCIES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—A Federal agency may not accept for any identification-related purpose a driver's license, or other comparable identification document, issued by a State, unless the license or document satisfies the following requirements:

(iii) FORM.—The license or document otherwise shall be in a form consistent with requirements set forth in regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Transportation after consultation with the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators. The form shall contain security features designed to limit tampering, counterfeiting, photocopying, or otherwise duplicating, the license or document for fraudulent purposes and to limit use of the license or document by impostors.

(B) EXCEPTION.—The requirement in subparagraph (A)(ii) shall not apply with respect to a driver's license or other comparable identification document issued by a State, if the State—

(i) does not require the license or document to contain a social security account number; and

(ii) requires—

(I) every applicant for a driver's license, or other comparable identification document, to submit the applicant's social security account number; and

(II) an agency of the State to verify with the Social Security Administration that such account number is valid.

JOINT EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The managers on the part of the House and the Senate at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 2202) to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to improve deterrence of illegal immigration to the United States by increasing border patrol and investigative personnel, by increasing penalties for alien smuggling and for document fraud, by reforming exclusion and deportation law and procedures, by improving the verification system for eligibility for employment, and through other measures, to reform the legal immigration system and facilitate legal entries into the United States, and for other purposes, submit the following joint statement to the House and the Senate in explanation of the effect of the action agreed upon by the managers and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

The Senate amendment struck all of the House bill after the enacting clause and inserted a substitute text.

The House recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate with an amendment that is a substitute for the House bill and the Senate amendment. The differences between the House bill, the Senate amendment, and the substitute agreed to in conference are noted below, except for clerical corrections, conforming changes made necessary by agreements reached by the conferees, and minor drafting and clerical changes.

TITLE I—IMPROVEMENTS TO BORDER CONTROL, FACILITATION OF LEGAL ENTRY, AND INTERIOR ENFORCEMENT

SUBTITLE A—IMPROVED ENFORCEMENT AT THE BORDER

Section 101—House recedes to sections 101 (a) and (b) of the Senate amendment, with modifications, and the Senate recedes to House section 101(c) with modifications. This section increases the number of Border Patrol agents by 1000 per year from FY 1997 through 2001. It further provides that the Attorney General, in each fiscal year from 1997 through 2001, may increase by 300 the number of support personnel for the Border Patrol. The additional border patrol agents are to be deployed in sectors along the border in proportion to the level of illegal crossings of the border in such sectors. Border Patrol resources should be used primarily at the border to deter illegal crossings and to apprehend at the earliest possible juncture those who have made such crossings. This section also requires the forward deployment of Border Patrol agents to provide a visible deterrent to illegal immigration, and includes the requirement in Senate amendment section 109 regarding the preservation of immigration enforcement functions in interior areas. The managers intend that for purposes of this section, border sectors shall include coastal areas of the United States. The managers also intend, as a further deterrent to repeat illegal crossings, that available resources be made used to detain and prosecute aliens who repeatedly violate section 275(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Section 102—Senate amendment section 108 recedes to House section 102, with modifications, including the substantive provisions of sections 109 and 327 of the Senate amendment. This section requires the Attorney General to install additional fences and roads to deter illegal immigration. In the San Diego sector, it calls for extension of the new fencing to a point 14 miles east of the Pacific Ocean, and the construction of second and third fences, with roads between the fences, to provide an additional deterrent. This section includes a proviso (from Senate amendment section 108) that the design of such fencing incorporate features necessary to ensure the safety of Border Patrol agents. This section also includes provisions based on Senate amendment section 327 to enhance the Attorney General's ability to acquire property along the border for purposes of improving border controls. This section also provides for a limited waiver of the Endangered Species Act of 1973 and the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 in order to facilitate a uniform construction of necessary fences and roads.

Section 103—Senate amendment section 179 recedes to House section 103. This section authorizes the acquisition by the Attorney General of improved equipment and technology to deter illegal immigration on the border.

Section 104—Senate recedes to House sections 104(a) and 104(b). This section requires improvement in the Border Crossing Identification Card, a document issued in lieu of a visa to aliens from Canada and Mexico for short-term visits within a designated distance from the border. Such cards are frequently counterfeited and used by impostors. The new cards issued under this section will be machine-readable and contain security features to prevent use by impostors.

Section 105—Senate recedes to House section 105. This section provides for civil money penalties for aliens apprehended while entering or attempting to enter the United States other than at a lawful port of entry.

Section 106—House section 107 recedes to Senate amendment section 107. This section requires the Attorney General to review within 60 days of enactment all hiring standards of the INS, and within 180 days of enactment all training standards of the INS. The Attorney General shall submit a certification in each of fiscal years 1997 through 2000 that all personnel hired in that year were hired in accordance with appropriate standards. The Attorney General also shall submit a report based on the review of training standards describing the status of efforts to improve such standards.

Section 107—Senate recedes to House section 108, with modification. This section requires the Comptroller General, with the cooperation of the Attorney General and in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense, to track, monitor, and evaluate efforts to deter illegal entry into the United States. The Comptroller General shall report his findings to the Committees on the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Representatives within 1 year from the date of enactment and every year thereafter through FY 2000. The report shall include recommendations to increase border security at the land border and at ports of entry.

Section 108—House recedes to Senate amendment section 304. This section amends chapter 35 of title 18 to add a new section 758, making high-speed flight from an INS checkpoint a felony punishable by up to 5 years in prison. This section also amends INA section 241(a)(2)(A) to make an alien convicted of this offense deportable.

Section 109—House recedes to Senate amendment section 173. This section requires the Attorney General, together with the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, and representatives of the air transport industry, to develop a plan for automated data collection at ports of entry. The Attorney General shall report to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and the Senate within 9 months of the date of enactment regarding the outcome of this joint initiative, including recommendations for legislation.

Section 110—House recedes to Senate amendment section 174, with modifications to include most of the substantive requirements from House section 113. This section will require the Attorney General within 2 years of enactment to establish an automated entry and exit control system that will (1) collect a record of departure for every alien departing the United States and match the record of departure with the record of the alien's arrival in the United States, and (2) enable the identification of lawfully admitted nonimmigrants who remain in the United States beyond the period authorized by the Attorney General. The Commissioner of the INS must submit an annual report to the Committees on the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Representatives on the operation of the system, including information on the number of departure records collected, the number of records successfully matched to records of arrival, and the number of nonimmigrants and other visitors for whom no matching departure record was obtained. All of this information shall include accounting by country of nationality of the arriving and departing aliens. Information on visa overstays identified through the entry and exit control system shall be integrated into appropriate data bases of the INS and the Department of State, including those used at ports of entry and consular offices.

Section 111—House recedes to Senate amendment section 322, with modifications. This section requires the Attorney General to submit a report by September 30, 1996, to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and of the Senate regarding the redeployment of border patrol agents.

Section 112—House recedes to Senate amendment section 120C. This section authorizes the appropriation of funds to ensure that the "IDENT" program operated by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) is expanded to apply to all apprehended illegal and criminal aliens.

Section 113—Senate recedes to House section 106, with modification.

SUBTITLE B—FACILITATION OF LEGAL ENTRY

Section 121—House section 701 recedes to Senate amendment section 103, with modification. This section will require the Attorney General and Secretary of the Treasury to increase in FY 1997 and 1998 the number of full-time land border inspectors of the INS and the Customs Service to levels adequate to assure full staffing during peak crossing hours of all border crossing lanes currently in use, under construction, or authorized to be constructed.

Section 122—Senate amendment section 213 recedes to House section 702, with modifications. This section will extend the authority under INA section 286(q) for commuter lane pilot programs through FY 2000, and raise to 6 the maximum number of such pilots. It also includes the authorization in Senate amendment section 213(b)(2) for the Attorney General to conduct pilot projects for automated entry, using card reading or similar technology, at land border ports of entry after hours of normal operation have ended.

Section 123—Senate recedes to House section 703, with modifications. This section amends the INA to create a new section 235A, providing for the establishment within 2 years of enactment of preinspection stations at 5 of the 10 foreign airports serving as the last points of departure for the greatest number of inadmissible passengers arriving by air in the United States. Not later than 4 years after enactment, the Attorney General shall establish preinspection stations in at least 5 additional foreign airports, on the basis of most effectively reducing the number of inadmissible aliens who arrive in the United States. This section also requires the Attorney General to compile data arising from the operation of preinspection stations, and to establish a carrier consultant program to deter boarding by aliens inadmissible to the United States.

Section 124—Senate recedes to House section 704. This section amends INA section 286(h)(2)(A)(iv) to provide that funds may be expended from the Immigration User Fee Account for the training of commercial airline personnel in the detection of fraudulent documents, and that not less than 5 percent of the funds expended out of the Account in a given fiscal year shall be for this purpose. This section also amends INA section 212(f) to provide that if a commercial airline has failed to comply with regulations of the Attorney General relating to the detection of fraudulent documents, including the training of personnel, the Attorney General may suspend the entry of aliens transported to the U.S. by the airline.

Section 125—House recedes to Senate amendment section 330. This section amends INA section 103(a) to provide that the Attorney General may authorize officers of a foreign country to be stationed at preclearance stations in the United States to ensure that persons traveling from or through the United States to that foreign country comply with that country's immigration and related laws.

Such officers shall be authorized to perform duties, and shall enjoy such privileges and immunities necessary for the performance of such duties, as are granted to United States immigration officers in that foreign country under reciprocal agreement.

SUBTITLE C—INTERIOR ENFORCEMENT

Section 131—House sections 121 and 404 recede to Senate amendment section 102, with modifications. This section will authorize an increase in the number of INS investigators and support personnel assigned to investigate violations of INA sections 274A (employer sanctions) and 274C (civil document fraud) by 300 in each of FY 1997, 1998, and 1999. Not less than half of these newly-hired investigators shall be assigned to investigate potential violations of section 274A.

This section amends INA section 287 to permit the Attorney General to enter into written agreements with State and local authorities to designate qualified officers or employees of the State or locality to perform immigration enforcement functions pertaining to the investigation, apprehension, or detention of aliens unlawfully in the United States, including the transportation of aliens across State lines to detention centers. Such functions shall be carried out at State or local expense and the designated officers and employees shall operate under the direction of the Attorney General.

Section 134—House recedes to Senate amendment section 316, with modification. This amendment directs that each State be allocated at least 10 active-duty INS agents.

TITLE II—ENHANCED ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES AGAINST ALIEN SMUGGLING AND DOCUMENT FRAUD

SUBTITLE A—ENHANCED ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES AGAINST ALIEN SMUGGLING

Section 201—House section 201 recedes to Senate amendment section 121. This section amends 18 U.S.C. 2516(l) to give INS the authority under such section to use wiretaps in investigations of alien smuggling and document fraud offenses.

Section 202—Senate amendment section 122 recedes to House section 202, with modifications. This section amends 18 U.S.C. 1961(l) to include as racketeering offenses acts indictable as document fraud crimes under title 18 (including the naturalization and citizenship document offenses specified in the Senate bill) or as alien smuggling offenses under section 274, 277, and 278 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. The offenses under the INA may be considered as RICO predicates only if committed for the purpose of financial gain.

Section 203(a)—Senate recedes to House section 203(a)(1). This provision amends INA section 274(a)(1) to increase criminal penalties in cases where an offense relating to alien smuggling, harboring, inducement, or transportation is done for the purpose of financial gain.

Section 203(b)—House section 203(a)(2) recedes to Senate amendment sections 123(a)(1) and (2). This provision amends INA section 274 to specify criminal penalties for those who engage in a conspiracy to violate alien smuggling, inducement, harboring, and transportation prohibitions, and for those who aid and abet such crimes. Senate amendment sections 123(a)(3)(B) and 123(b) recede to House section 203(b), as modified. This provision will increase penalties under section 274(b) to up to 10 years imprisonment, and up to 15 years for a third or subsequent offense, for certain alien smuggling violations. House recedes to Senate amendment section 123(a)(4), with modifications. This provision creates a new offense for an employer to hire an alien who the employer knows is not authorized to be employed in the United States, and who the employer also knows was brought into the United States in violation of INA section 274(a). In order to be liable under this provision, the employer must have actual knowledge both of the alien's unauthorized status and of the fact that the alien was brought into the United States illegally.

Section 203(c)—Senate recedes to that portion of House section 203(b) that creates a new offense under INA section 274(a) for smuggling an alien with reason to believe that the alien will commit a crime in the United States.

Section 203(d)—Senate amendment section 123(a)(3) recedes to House section 203(c). This provision will change the standard for calculating penalties for alien smuggling crimes. Henceforth, an offense will be counted for each alien smuggled, not, as under current law, for each transaction regardless of the number of aliens involved.

Section 203(e)-(f)—House recedes to Senate amendment sections 123(c)-(e), with modifications. These provisions require the United States Sentencing Commission to promulgate or amend guidelines for offenders convicted of smuggling, harboring, inducement, or transportation of illegal aliens; provide emergency authority to the Sentencing Commission to complete this task; and make section 203 of this Act (and the amendments made thereby) applicable to offenses occurring on or after the date of enactment.

Section 204—Senate amendment section 120 recedes to House section 204, with modifications. This section provides that the number of Assistant United States Attorneys shall be increased in fiscal year 1997 by at least 25, and that such attorneys shall prosecute persons involved in smuggling or harboring of illegal aliens, or other crimes involving illegal aliens, which would include immigration document fraud offenses relating to false identification documents, visas, passports, and citizenship and naturalization documents.

Section 205—Senate amendment section 169 recedes to House section 205. This section provides authority for the INS to use appropriated funds for the establishment and operation of undercover proprietary corporations or business entities.

SUBTITLE B—ENHANCED ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES AGAINST DOCUMENT FRAUD

Section 211—Senate amendment section 127(a)(1) recedes to House section 211(a). This provision increases the maximum term of imprisonment for fraud and misuse of government-issued identification documents from 5 years to 15 years. The sentence is increased to 20 years if the offense is committed to facilitate a drug-trafficking crime, and to 25 years if committed to facilitate an act of international terrorism. House recedes to Senate amendment section 127(a)(2)-(4), as modified. These provisions will increase penalties for document fraud crimes under sections 1541-1544, 1546(a), and 1425-1427 of title 18 to 10 years for a first or second offense, 15 years for a third or subsequent offense, with the same enhancements for crimes committed to facilitate drug trafficking (20 years) or international terrorism (25 years). House section 211(b) recedes to Senate section 127(b)-(d). These provisions require the United States Sentencing Commission to promulgate or amend guidelines for offenders convicted of document fraud offenses, provide emergency authority to the Sentencing Commission to complete this task, and make section 211 (and the amendments made thereby) applicable to offenses occurring on or after the date of enactment.

Section 212—House sections 212 and 213 recede to Senate amendment section 130, as modified. This section amends INA section 274C, regarding civil penalties for document fraud, to expand liability to those who engage in document fraud for the purpose of obtaining a benefit under the INA. New liability is established for those who prepare, file, or assist another person in preparing or filing an application for benefits with knowledge or in reckless disregard of the fact that such application or document was falsely made. New liability also is established for aliens who destroy travel documents en route to the United States after having presented such documents to board a common carrier to the United States. A waiver from civil document fraud penalties may be granted to an alien who is granted asylum or withholding of deportation. The amendments made by this section shall apply to offenses occurring on or after the date of enactment.

Section 213—House section 214 recedes to Senate amendment section 129. This section amends INA section 274C by adding a new subsection (e), providing that a person who fails to disclose or conceals his role in preparing, for a fee or other remuneration, a false application for benefits under the INA is subject to imprisonment of not more than 5 years, and is prohibited from preparing, whether or not for a fee or other remuneration, any other such application. A person convicted under this section who later prepares or assists in preparing an application for immigration benefits, regardless of whether for a fee or other remuneration, is subject to imprisonment of not more than 15 years, and is prohibited from preparing any other such application.

Section 214—Senate amendment section 128 recedes to House section 215. This section amends section 1546(a) of title 18 to provide that the penalty for knowingly presenting a document which contains a false statement also extends to a document which fails to contain any reasonable basis in law or fact.

Section 215—Senate recedes to House section 216. This section amends section 1015 of title 18 by adding new subparagraphs (e) and (f). New subparagraph (e) makes it unlawful for any person to make a false claim to United States citizenship or nationality for the purpose of obtaining, for himself or any other person, any Federal benefit or service or employment in the United States. New subsection (f) makes it unlawful for any person to make a false claim to United States citizenship in order to vote or register to vote in any Federal, State, or local election, including an initiative, recall, or referendum.

Section 216—House recedes to Senate amendment section 217(a). This section amends title 18 to add a new section 611, making it unlawful for any alien to vote in any election for Federal office, and subjects violators to fines and a term of imprisonment of not more than 1 year.

Section 217—This section merges House section 221 and Senate amendment section 126. This section amends 18 U.S.C. 982(a) by adding a new paragraph (6), providing that a person who is convicted of a violation of or of a conspiracy to violate sections 1425, 1426, 1427, 1541, 1542, 1543, 1544, or 1546 of title 18, or section 1028 of title 18, or section 274(a) of the INA, if committed in connection with passport or visa issuance or use, shall forfeit any conveyance used in the commission of the offense, as well as any property, real or personal, which was used or intended to be used in facilitating the violation, and any property constituting, derived from, or traceable to the proceeds of the violation. The criminal forfeiture shall be governed by the provisions of section 413 (other than subsections (a) and (d)) of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970 (21 U.S.C. 853).

Section 218—House recedes to Senate amendment section 131. This section increases penalties for violations of sections 1581, 1583, 1584, and 1588 of title 18 (regarding involuntary servitude, peonage, and slave trade offenses) from a maximum of 5 years to 10 years imprisonment. The section also requires the United States Sentencing Commission to ascertain if there exists an unwarranted disparity between sentences for such crimes and the sentences for kidnapping and alien smuggling offenses, and further requires the Commission to amend the Sentencing Guidelines to reduce or eliminate any such unwarranted disparity and to ensure that the Sentencing Guidelines reflect the heinous nature of such offenses as well as aggravating factors such as large numbers of victims and prolonged periods of peonage or involuntary servitude. The section also provides emergency authority to the Sentencing Commission to effect such changes.

Section 219—House recedes to Senate amendment section 124. This section permits the introduction of videotaped deposition testimony, in trials involving offenses under section 274 of the INA, of witnesses who have been deported from the United States or who are otherwise unavailable to testify, provided that there was an opportunity for cross-examination at such deposition. This provision will permit the introduction, in trials for alien smuggling and related offenses, of critical testimony from aliens who have been smuggled into the United States, eliminating the need to detain such aliens in the United States.

Section 220—House recedes to Senate amendment section 120A(a)(2). This provision amends section 274C (pertaining to civil penalties for document fraud) to provide that immigration officers designated by the Attorney General may use subpoena authority to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents in connection with investigating a complaint of civil document fraud.

TITLE III—INSPECTION, APPREHENSION, DETENTION, ADJUDICATION, AND REMOVAL OF INADMISSIBLE AND DEPORTABLE ALIENS

SUBTITLE A—REVISION OF PROCEDURES FOR REMOVAL OF ALIENS

Sec. 301(a)—Senate recedes to House section 301(a), with modifications. Subsection (a) of this section amends INA section 101(a)(13) by replacing the definition of "entry" with a definition for "admission" and "admitted": the lawful entry of an alien into the United States after inspection and authorization by an immigration officer. An alien who is paroled under INA section 212(d)(5) shall not be considered to have been admitted. With certain specified exceptions (including in the case of an individual who has been absent from the United States for a period of greater than 180 days or has committed an offense identified in section 212(a)(2)), a returning lawful permanent resident alien (LPR) shall not be considered to be seeking admission.

Sec. 301(b)—Senate amendment sections 143(b) and 317 recede to House section 301(c), with modifications. This subsection redesignates paragraph (9) of INA section 212(a) as paragraph (10), and inserts a new paragraph (9). Under this subsection, an alien ordered removed under revised INA section 235(b)(1) (see explanation of section 302 of this Act below), or at the end of proceedings under new section 240 (see explanation of section 304 of this Act below) that were initiated upon the alien's arrival in the United States, is inadmissible for a period of 5 years (or for 20 years in the case of a second or subsequent removal and permanently in the case of an alien convicted of an aggravated felony). An alien otherwise ordered removed from the United States, or who has departed the United States while an order of removal is outstanding, shall be barred from admission for 10 years (or for 20 years in the case of a second or subsequent removal, and permanently in the case of an alien convicted of an aggravated felony). These bars to readmission can be waived (as in current law) if the Attorney General has given prior consent to the alien's reapplying for admission.

This subsection also provides that an alien unlawfully present in the United States for a period of more than 180 days but less than 1 year who voluntarily departed the United States is barred from admission for 3 years. An alien unlawfully present for 1 year or more who voluntarily departs is barred from admission for 10 years. An alien is unlawfully present if the alien has been present in the United States without admission or parole, or remains in the United States beyond an authorized period of stay. No period of time in which the alien was present in the United States under the age of 18, as a bona fide applicant for asylum under section 208, or as a beneficiary of family unity protection, shall count towards the aggregate 1-year period. The calculation of time is suspended if the alien has filed a bona fide application for change or extension of status, and such application is approved. This bar shall not apply to an alien described in new INA section 212(a)(6)(A)(ii) (battered spouse or child). The bar also may be waived, in the sole and unreviewable discretion of the Attorney General, for an immigrant who is the spouse or son or daughter of a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident, and the refusal of admission to the alien would cause extreme hardship to that citizen or lawfully resident spouse or parent.

This subsection also provides that an alien who has been present unlawfully in the United States for more than 1 year or has been ordered removed from the United States, and who subsequently enters or attempts to enter the United States without being lawfully admitted, is permanently barred from admission. Such an alien may be admitted not earlier than 10 years after the alien's last departure from the United States, but only if the Attorney General gives prior consent to the alien's reapplying for admission.

Section 301(c)—Senate recedes to House section 301(b), with modifications. This subsection states that an alien who is present in the U.S. without being admitted or paroled, or who has arrived in the U.S. at any time or place other than as designated by the Attorney General, is inadmissible. This ground of inadmissibility shall not apply if: (I) the alien qualifies for immigrant status as the spouse or child of a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident; (II) the alien or the alien's child has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty; and (III) there was a substantial connection between the cruelty or battery and the alien's unlawful entry into the United States. As a matter of transition, the requirements under (II) and (III) shall not apply if the alien establishes that he or she first entered the United States prior to the effective date of Title III of this legislation, as set forth in section 309(a). This subsection also provides that an alien who without reasonable cause fails to attend or remain in attendance at any proceeding regarding the alien's removal from the United States is barred from admission for 5 years.

Section 301(d)—Senate recedes to House section 301(g), which makes a number of conforming references regarding the change in nomenclature in INA section 212(a) from "excludable" to "inadmissible." Subparagraph (B) of INA section 241(a)(1) (entry without inspection) will be amended to state that an alien present in the United States in violation of law is deportable. The current category of persons who are deportable because they have made an entry without inspection will, under the amendments made by section 301(c) of this bill, instead be considered inadmissible under revised paragraph (6)(A) of subsection 212(a).

Section 302—Senate recedes to House section 302, with modifications. This section will amend INA section 235, regarding the inspection of aliens arriving in the U.S. New section 235(a) provides that an alien present in the United States who has not been admitted to the U.S., or who arrives in the United States, (whether or not at a designated port of arrival and including an alien who is brought to the United States after having been interdicted in international or United States waters), shall be deemed an applicant for admission.

An arriving alien who is a stowaway is not eligible to apply for admission or to be admitted and shall be ordered removed upon inspection by an immigration officer. A stowaway shall not be eligible to apply for asylum in the United States unless the stowaway establishes a credible fear of persecution pursuant to the expedited review process in section 235(b)(1).

Aliens seeking admission, readmission, or transit through the United States shall be inspected by an immigration officer, who shall have the same authority to take statements and receive evidence as under current INA section 235. An alien applying for admission may, at the discretion of the Attorney General, be permitted to withdraw the application for admission and depart immediately from the United States.

New section 235(b) establishes new procedures for the inspection and in some cases removal of aliens arriving in the United States.

Expedited Removal of Arriving Aliens: New paragraph (b)(1) provides that if an examining immigration officer determines that an arriving alien is inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(C) (fraud or misrepresentation) or 212(a)(7) (lack of valid documents), the officer shall order the alien removed without further hearing or review, unless the alien states a fear of persecution or an intention to apply for asylum. This provision shall not apply to an alien arriving by air who is a national of a Western Hemisphere nation with which the United States does not have diplomatic relations. The provisions also may be applied, in the sole and unreviewable discretion of the Attorney General, to an alien who has not been paroled or admitted into the United States and who cannot affirmatively show to an immigration officer that he or she has been continuously present in the United States for a period of 2 years immediately prior to the date of the officer's determination. The purpose of these provisions is to expedite the removal from the United States of aliens who indisputably have no authorization to be admitted to the United States, while providing an opportunity for such an alien who claims asylum to have the merits of his or her claim promptly assessed by officers with full professional training in adjudicating asylum claims.

An alien who states a fear of persecution or an intention to apply for asylum shall be referred for interview by an asylum officer, who is an immigration officer who has had professional training in asylum law, country conditions, and interview techniques comparable to that provided to full-time adjudicators of asylum applications. The officer shall be, for purposes of determinations made under this section, under the supervision of an immigration officer with similar training and substantial experience in adjudicating asylum applications. If the officer finds that the alien has a credible fear of persecution, the alien shall be detained for further consideration of the application for asylum under normal non-expedited removal proceedings. If the alien does not meet this standard and, if the alien requests administrative review, the officer's decision is upheld by an immigration judge, the alien will be ordered removed. To the maximum extent practicable, review by the immigration judge shall be completed within 24 hours, but in no case shall such review take longer than 7 days. Throughout this process of administrative review, the alien shall be detained by the INS. An alien may consult with a person of his or her choosing before the interview, at no expense to the Government and without unreasonably delaying the interview. A "credible fear of persecution" means that there is a significant possibility, taking into account the credibility of the statements made by the alien in support of the alien's claim and such other facts as are known to the officer, that the alien could establish eligibility for asylum.

There is no other administrative review of a removal order entered under this paragraph, but an alien claiming under penalty of perjury to be lawfully admitted for permanent residence, or to have been admitted as a refugee or granted asylum, shall be entitled to administrative review of such an order as the Attorney General shall provide by regulation. An alien ordered removed under this paragraph may not make a collateral attack against the order in a prosecution under section 275(a) (illegal entry) or 276 (illegal reentry).

The availability of judicial review is described below in the explanation of section 306 of this Act.

New paragraph (b)(2) provides that an alien determined to be inadmissible by an immigration officer (other than an alien subject to removal under paragraph (b)(1), or an alien crewman or stowaway) shall be referred for a hearing before an immigration judge under new section 240.

Subsection (c) restates the provisions of current INA section 235(c) regarding the removal of aliens arriving in the United States who are inadmissible on national security grounds. This subsection is not intended to apply in the case of aliens who are inadmissible under new section 212(a)(6)(A) because they are already present in the United States without having been admitted or paroled. Such aliens could, however, be subject to the special removal procedures provided in Subtitle B of this Title.

New subsection (d) restates provisions currently in INA section 235(a) authorizing immigration officers to search conveyances, administer oaths, and receive evidence, and to issue subpoenas enforceable in a United States district court.

Section 303—Senate recedes to House section 303, with modifications. This section amends INA section 236, as described in the next paragraphs below. (The provisions in current section 236 regarding hearings on the exclusion of aliens are reflected in new section 240, as amended by section 304 of this report.)

New section 236(a) restates the current provisions in section 242(a)(1) regarding the authority of the Attorney General to arrest, detain, and release on bond an alien who is not lawfully in the United States. (The current authority in section 242(a) for a court in habeas corpus proceedings to review the conditions of detention or release pending the determination of the alien's inadmissibility or deportability is not retained.) The minimum bond for an alien released pending removal proceedings is raised from $500 to $1500. New section 236(b) restates the current provisions in section 242(a)(1) that the Attorney General may at any time revoke an alien's bond or parole.

New section 236(c) provides that the Attorney General must detain an alien who is inadmissible under section 212(a)(2) or deportable under new section 237(a)(2). This requirement does not apply to an alien deportable under section 237(a)(2)(A)(i) on the basis of an offense for which the alien has not been sentenced to at least 1 year in prison. This detention mandate applies whenever such an alien is released from imprisonment, regardless of the circumstances of the release. This subsection also provides that such an alien may be released from the Attorney General's custody only if the Attorney General decides in accordance with 18 U.S.C. 3521 that release is necessary to provide protection to a witness, potential witness, a person cooperating with an investigation into major criminal activity, or a family member or close associate of such a witness or cooperator, and such release will not pose a danger to the safety of other persons or of property, and the alien is likely to appear for any scheduled proceeding.

New section 236(d) restates the current provisions in section 242(a)(3) regarding the identification of aliens arrested for aggravated felonies and amends those provisions to require that information on aliens convicted of aggravated felonies and deported be provided to the Department of State for inclusion in its automated visa lookout system.

New section 236(e) states that no discretionary judgment of the Attorney General made under the authority of section 236 shall be subject to judicial review, and that no court shall set aside a decision of the Attorney General regarding detention or release of an alien, or the granting or denial of bond or parole.

Section 304—Senate recedes to House section 304, with modifications. This section redesignates current INA section 239 (designation of ports of entry for aliens arriving by civil aircraft) as section 234, redesignates INA section 240 (records of admission) as section 240C, and inserts new INA sections 239, 240, 240A, and 240B.

New section 239 restates the provisions of current subsections (a) and (b) of section 242B regarding the provision of written notice to aliens placed in removal proceedings. These provisions are conformed to the establishment of a single removal hearing to replace the two current proceedings under current section 236 (exclusion) and 242 (deportation). The requirement that the written notice be provided in Spanish as well as English is not retained. The INS will determine when a language other than English should be used and when the services of a translator are necessary. The mandatory period between notice and date of hearing is reduced to 10 days. Service is sufficient if there is proof of mailing to the last address provided by the alien.

New section 240 restates provisions in current sections 236 (exclusion proceedings) and 242 and 242B (deportation proceedings). Section 240(a) provides that there shall be a single proceeding for deciding whether an alien is inadmissible under section 212(a) or deportable under section 237 (formerly section 241(a)). This subsection shall not affect proceedings under new section 235(c) (aliens inadmissible on national security grounds), new section 238 (currently section 242A) (aliens convicted of aggravated felonies), or new section 235(b)(1) (arriving aliens, or aliens present in the United States without having been admitted or paroled, who are inadmissible for fraud or lack of documents).

Section 240(b) provides that the removal proceeding under this section shall be conducted by an immigration judge in largely the same manner as currently provided in sections 242 and 242B. Under paragraph (b)(2), the proceeding may take place in person, or through video or telephone conference. (Hearings on the merits could be conducted by telephone conference only with the consent of the alien). In addition, with the consent of the parties, the proceeding may take place in the alien's absence. Under paragraph (b)(4), an alien shall have a reasonable opportunity to examine the evidence presented against the alien, and to cross-examine Government witnesses, but not to examine national security information provided in opposition to the alien's admission to the United States, or in opposition to an alien's application for discretionary relief. Under paragraph (b)(5), an alien who fails to appear for a hearing may be ordered removed if the Service establishes by clear, unequivocal, and convincing evidence that notice under section 239 was provided and that the alien is inadmissible or deportable. There is no requirement to provide written notice if the alien has failed to provide the address required under section 239(a)(1)(F). Under paragraph (b)(5)(C), an in absentia order can only be rescinded through a motion to reopen filed within 180 days if the alien demonstrates that the failure to appear was due to exceptional circumstances (as defined in section 240(e)), or a motion to reopen filed at any other time if the alien demonstrates that the alien either did not receive notice of the hearing or was in Federal or State custody and could not appear. An alien who fails to appear shall, in the absence of exceptional circumstances, be ineligible for 10 years for any relief under new sections 240A (voluntary departure) and 240B (cancellation of removal), and sections 245, 248, and 249.

Section 240(c) provides that the immigration judge shall make a decision on removability based only upon the evidence at the hearing. An alien applicant for admission shall have the burden to establish that he or she is beyond doubt entitled to be admitted. An alien who is not an applicant for admission shall have the burden to establish by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is lawfully present in the U.S. pursuant to a prior lawful admission. If the alien meets this burden, the Service has the burden to establish by clear and convincing evidence that the alien is deportable. This subsection also clarifies the types of evidence of criminal convictions that are admissible in immigration proceedings.

An alien is limited to one motion to reconsider the decision of the immigration judge. Such motion shall be filed within 30 days of the final administrative order of removal and shall specify the errors of law or fact in the order. An alien is limited to one motion to reopen proceedings. Such motion shall be filed within 90 days of the final administrative order of removal and shall state the new facts to be proven at a hearing if the motion is granted. The deadline for a motion to reopen may be extended in the case of an application for asylum or withholding of removal that is based on new evidence of changed country conditions, evidence that was not available at the time of the initial hearing. In the case of an in absentia order of removal under section 240(b)(5), the deadline for a motion to reopen shall be as set forth in section 240(b)(5)(C).

Section 240(d) provides that the Attorney General shall provide by regulation for the entry by an immigration judge of an order of removal stipulated to by the alien and the INS. Such an order shall be a conclusive determination of the alien's removability from the U.S.

Section 240(e) defines as "exceptional circumstances" the serious illness of the alien or the serious illness or death of the spouse, parent, or child of the alien, and other exceptional circumstances that are not less compelling. The subsection defines "removable" to mean in the case of an alien who has not been admitted, that the alien is inadmissible under section 212, and in the case of an alien who has been admitted, that the alien is deportable under redesignated section 237.

New section 240A establishes revised rules for the type of relief that is currently available to excludable and deportable aliens under section 212(c) and 244(a)—(d). Senate amendment section 150 recedes to these House provisions, with modifications.

Section 240A(a) provides that the Attorney General may cancel removal in the case of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence for not less than 5 years, if the alien has resided in the United States continuously for 7 years since being lawfully admitted in any status and has not been convicted of an aggravated felony. This provision is intended to replace and modify the form of relief now granted under section 212(c) of the INA.

Section 240A(b)(1) provides that the Attorney General may cancel removal in the case of an alien who (1) has been physically present in the United States for a continuous period of at least 10 years immediately preceding the date of applying for such relief, (2) has been a person of good moral character, (3) has at no time been convicted of an offense that would render the alien inadmissible under section 212(a)(2)(A) or deportable under redesignated sections 237(a)(2) or 237(a)(3), and (4) establishes that removal would result in exceptional and extremely unusual hardship to the alien's spouse, parent, or child who is a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence.

Section 240A(b)(1) replaces the relief now available under INA section 244(a) ("suspension of deportation"), but limits the categories of illegal aliens eligible for such relief and the circumstances under which it may be granted. The managers have deliberately changed the required showing of hardship from "extreme hardship" to "exceptional and extremely unusual hardship" to emphasize that the alien must provide evidence of harm to his spouse, parent, or child substantially beyond that which ordinarily would be expected to result from the alien's deportation. The "extreme hardship" standard has been weakened by recent administrative decisions holding that forced removal of an alien who has become "acclimated" to the United States would constitute a hardship sufficient to support a grant of suspension of deportation. See Matter of O-J-O, Int. Dec. 3280 (BIA 1996). Such a ruling would be inconsistent with the standard set forth in new section 240A(b)(1). Similarly, a showing that an alien's United States citizen child would fare less well in the alien's country of nationality than in the United States does not establish "exceptional" or "extremely unusual" hardship and thus would not support a grant of relief under this provision. Our immigration law and policy clearly provide that an alien parent may not derive immigration benefits through his or her child who is a United States citizen. The availability in truly exceptional cases of relief under section 240A(b)(1) must not undermine this or other fundamental immigration enforcement policies.

Section 240A(b)(2) restates the provisions in current section 244(a)(3), enacted in section 40703(a)(3) of the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994. It provides that the Attorney General may cancel removal if the inadmissible or deportable alien has been subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by a spouse or parent who is a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident; has been physically present in the United States for a continuous period of at least 3 years; has been a person of good moral character during such period; is not deportable or inadmissible on grounds related to criminal activity, national security, or marriage fraud; and establishes that removal would result in extreme hardship.

Section 240A(b)(3) states that the Attorney General may adjust to the status of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence an alien who meets the requirements for cancellation of removal under section 240A(b)(1) or (2). The number of such adjustments shall not exceed 4,000 in any fiscal year.

Section 240A(c) provides that the following categories of aliens shall not be eligible for cancellation of removal under subsections (a) and (b)(1): an alien who entered as a crewman after June 30, 1964; an alien who was admitted as a nonimmigrant exchange alien under 101(a)(15)(J) in order to receive graduate medical education; an alien who otherwise was admitted as a nonimmigrant exchange alien under section 101(a)(15)(J), is subject to the two-year foreign residence requirement of section 212(e), and has not fulfilled that requirement or received a waiver; an alien who is inadmissible under section 212(a)(3) or deportable under redesignated section 237(a)(4) (national security and related grounds); an alien who is a persecutor as described in new section 241(b)(3)(B)(i); or an alien who has previously been granted relief under this section, or under INA sections 212(c) or 244(a) before the effective date of this Act.

Section 240A(d) provides that the period of continuous residence or physical presence ends when an alien is served a notice to appear under section 239(a) (for the commencement of removal proceedings under section 240), or when the alien is convicted of an offense that renders the alien deportable from the United States, whichever is earliest. A period of continuous physical presence under section 240A(b) is broken if the alien has departed from the United States for any period of 90 days, or for any periods in the aggregate exceeding 180 days. The continuous physical presence requirement does not apply to an alien who has served 24 months in active-duty status in the United States armed forces, was in the United States at the time of enlistment or induction, and was honorably discharged.

Section 240A(e) limits the granting of cancellation of removal and suspension of deportation under current section 244 to not more than an aggregate total of 4,000 aliens per fiscal year. This limitation shall apply regardless of when the alien applied for such relief.

New section 240B establishes new conditions for the granting of voluntary departure, currently governed by section 242(b) and 244(e) of the INA. Senate amendment section 150 recedes to these House provisions, with modifications.

Section 240B(a) provides that the Attorney General may permit an alien voluntarily to depart the United States at the alien's expense in lieu of being subject to removal proceedings under section 240 or prior to the completion of such proceedings, if the alien is not deportable because of conviction for an aggravated felony or on national security and related grounds. Permission to depart voluntarily under this subsection shall not be valid for a period exceeding 120 days and an alien may be required to post a voluntary departure bond, to be surrendered upon proof that the alien has departed the U.S. within the time specified. No alien arriving in the United States for whom removal proceedings under section 240 are instituted at the time of arrival is eligible for voluntary departure under this section. Such an alien may withdraw his or her application for admission to the United States in accordance with section 235(a)(4).

Section 240B(b) provides that the Attorney General may permit an alien voluntarily to depart the United States at the conclusion of proceedings under section 240 if the alien has been physically present (before the notice to appear) for at least one year in the United States, the alien has been a person of good moral character for the 5 years preceding the application, the alien is not deportable because of conviction for an aggravated felony or on national security and related grounds, and the alien has established by clear and convincing evidence that the alien has the means to depart the United States and intends to do so. The period for voluntary departure cannot exceed 60 days and a voluntary departure bond is required.

Section 240B(c) provides that an alien is not eligible for voluntary departure if the alien was previously granted voluntary departure after having been found inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(A) (present without admission or parole).

Section 240B(d) provides that if an alien is permitted to depart voluntarily and fails to do so, the alien shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000 and shall not be eligible for any further relief under this section or sections 240A, 245, 248, or 249 for a period of 10 years. The order granting voluntary departure shall inform the alien of these penalties.

Section 240B(e) provides that the Attorney General may by regulation limit eligibility for voluntary departure for any class or classes of aliens.

Section 304(c) of this Act amends INA section 242A (to be redesignated as section 238) to further streamline procedures for administrative deportation of certain criminal aliens.

Section 305—Senate recedes to House section 305, with modifications. Subsection (a) of this section strikes section 237, redesignates section 241 as section 237, and inserts a new section 241.

New section 241 restates and revises provisions in current sections 237, 242, and 243 regarding the detention and removal of aliens.

Section 241(a) provides that the Attorney General shall remove an alien within 90 days of the alien being ordered removed. The removal period shall begin when the alien's order is administratively final, when the alien is released from non-immigration related detention or confinement, or, if the alien has appealed his order to a court and removal has been stayed, the date of the court's final order. The removal period is extended beyond 90 days if the alien refuses to apply for travel documents or takes other steps (other than appeals) to prevent removal.

The alien shall be detained during the removal period. If the alien is not removed within 90 days, the alien shall be subject to supervision under conditions similar to those currently in section 242(d). An alien who has been ordered removed may be detained beyond the 90-day period if the alien is inadmissible under section 212, is removable under redesignated sections 237(a)(1)(c), 237(a)(2), or 237(a)(4), or, in the Attorney General's determination, is unlikely to comply with the order of removal or is a risk to the community.

The Attorney General may not remove an alien who is sentenced to imprisonment until the alien is released, but parole, supervised release, probation, or the possibility of arrest are not grounds to defer removal. However, under section 241(a)(4)(B), an alien may be removed prior to the completion of sentence if the alien has been convicted of a nonviolent offense (except for certain aggravated felonies) and removal of the alien is appropriate and in the best interests of the United States or of the State in whose custody the alien is held. There is no right of action against the United States or any State, or any officials thereof, to compel the release or removal of any alien under this provision.

If an alien reenters the United States illegally after having been removed or departed voluntarily under an order of removal, the prior order of removal is reinstated and the alien shall be removed under the prior order, which shall not be subject to review. The alien is not eligible to apply for any relief under the INA.

An alien who is subject to an order of removal may not be granted authorization to work in the United States unless there is no country willing to accept the alien, or the removal is otherwise impracticable or contrary to the public interest.

Section 241(b) establishes the countries to which an alien may be removed. Subsection (b)(1) restates the provisions in current section 237(a); subsection (b)(2) restates the provisions in current sections 243(a) and (b). Subsection (b)(3) restates, with some modifications, the provisions in current section 243(h) regarding withholding of deportation to a country where the alien's life or freedom would be threatened. Subsection (b)(3)(B) specifies that an alien is barred from this form of relief if, having been convicted of a particularly serious crime, the alien is a danger to the community. An aggravated felony or felonies for which the alien has been sentenced to an aggregate of 5 years imprisonment is deemed to be such a crime, but the Attorney General retains the authority to determine other circumstances in which an alien has been convicted of a particularly serious crime, regardless of the length of sentence.

Section 241(c) provides that an alien arriving in the United States who is ordered removed shall be removed immediately by the vessel or aircraft that brought the alien, unless it is impracticable to do so or the alien is a stowaway who has been ordered removed by operation of section 235(b)(1) but has a pending application for asylum. This subsection also restates and revises the provisions in section 237(d) regarding stay of removal, and the provisions in section 237(a) regarding cost of detention and maintenance pending removal. These provisions make it clear that actual physical detention of an alien who has been permitted to land in the United States shall be the sole responsibility of the Attorney General and shall take place in INS facilities or contract facilities, even in cases where the liability for cost of detention is assigned to a private entity such as a carrier. It is expected that the rate of reimbursement charged to the carrier or other entity made responsible for the cost of detention of an alien shall be at the same per diem rate charged to the government for the cost of detention.

In the case of an alien stowaway, the carrier shall be liable for the cost of detention incurred by the Attorney General. If the stowaway does not claim asylum, the only task is to arrange for the stowaway's departure from the United States. This could occur directly on the vessel of arrival, particularly in the case of aircraft. Due to commercial requirements, safety concerns, and other factors, it is often not practicable for the stowaway to be removed on the vessel of arrival, particularly in the case of commercial maritime vessels. For this reason, section 241(d)(2)(B) provides that an alien stowaway may be allowed to land in the United States for detention by the Attorney General or departure or removal of the stowaway. In such a case, the carrier shall be responsible, under section 241(c)(3)(A)(ii)(II), for the cost of detention by the Attorney General for the time reasonably necessary to arrange for repatriation or removal of the alien, including obtaining necessary travel documents. The carrier's liability shall not extend beyond the date on which it is ascertained that such travel documents cannot be obtained. It is expected that the carrier and the INS will work cooperatively in order to obtain such travel documents in an expeditious manner. In some circumstances, foreign governments do not cooperate in issuing such documents. Since circumstances in such cases vary, this legislation does not designate a time period beyond which the financial responsibility for continued detention shifts from the carrier to the INS. It is expected that the INS, through regulations or internal policy guidance, will set a reasonable time line and other criteria that will be applied uniformly in all INS districts. Such guidelines should include an obligation on the part of the carrier to continue efforts to obtain travel documents and make other arrangements for the departure of the stowaway from the U.S.

In the case of a stowaway who has claimed asylum and is being detained to pursue an application for asylum, the carrier shall be liable, under section 241(c)(3)(A)(iii)(III), for a period not to exceed 15 business days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The 15-day period shall begin when the alien is determined, under section 235(b)(1), to have a credible fear of persecution and thus be eligible to apply for asylum, but not later than 72 hours after the actual arrival of the stowaway in the U.S. The 72-hour period is intended to provide adequate time for the Attorney General to determine if the stowaway has a credible fear of persecution and thus will be detained by the INS to pursue an asylum application. (As stated in new INA section 235(b)(1), this Act intends that the credible fear screening process, including administrative review, will ordinarily be completed within 24 hours or shortly thereafter. Additional time may be required in the case of a stowaway because of the unusual and sometimes dangerous circumstances in which a stowaway arrives in the United States.) Under no circumstances shall the carrier be required to reimburse the INS for a period of detention greater than 15 business days, plus the portion of the initial 72-hour period required to determine if the stowaway is eligible to apply for asylum. The obligation of the carrier to pay for detention costs does not include an obligation for the carrier to pay for the cost of translators, legal counsel, or other assistance in preparing and presenting the stowaway's claim for asylum. It is expected that the INS will adopt, through regulations consistent with the provisions of this legislation, clear policy guidance regarding the conduct of interviews to determine if a stowaway has a credible fear of persecution.

Section 241(d) restates the provisions in current section 237(b) requiring the owner of the vessel or aircraft bringing an alien to the United States to comply with orders of an immigration officer regarding the detention or removal of the alien. This subsection also restates the provisions in section 243(e) that any carrier (not limited to the carrier who has brought an alien) comply with an order of the Attorney General to remove to a specific destination an alien who has been ordered removed.

Section 241(d) also revises and restates the requirements in section 273(d) regarding permission for a stowaway to land in the U.S. A carrier who has brought a stowaway shall, pending completion of the inspection of the stowaway, detain the stowaway on board the vessel or at another place designated by the INS. The carrier may not permit the stowaway to land except temporarily for medical treatment, for detention of the stowaway by the Attorney General, or for departure and removal of the stowaway. However, a carrier shall not be required to detain a stowaway who has been permitted to remain in the U.S. to pursue an application for asylum, who shall be detained by the Attorney General subject to the reimbursement requirements set forth in section 241(c). Furthermore, the Attorney General shall grant a timely request by a carrier to remove the stowaway on a vessel other than that on which the alien has arrived in the U.S., provided that the carrier pays the cost of removal and obtains all necessary travel documents. In this way, the stowaway can be rapidly repatriated to the country of origin, instead of being forced to remain on the vessel while it makes other ports of call.

Section 241(e) restates the provisions in current sections 237(c) and 243(c) regarding the payment of expenses for removal of aliens who have been ordered removed.

Section 241(f) restates the provisions in section 243(f) regarding the employment of persons to provide personal care to aliens requiring such care during the removal process.

Section 241(g) amends and restates the authority in current section 242(c) for construction and operation of detention facilities. The amendment states that before the construction of new facilities, the Commissioner of the INS shall consider the availability of existing facilities for purchase or lease.

Section 241(h) provides that nothing in section 241 shall be construed to create any substantive or procedural right or benefit that is legally enforceable against the United States, its agencies or officers, or any other person. This provision is intended, among other things, to prohibit the litigation of claims by aliens who have been ordered removed from the U.S. that they be removed at a particular time or to a particular place.

Section 305(b) amends INA section 276(b) to establish a penalty of 10 years imprisonment for aliens who reenter the United States without authorization after having been removed prior to the completion of their term of imprisonment under new section 241(a)(4)(B).

Section 306—Senate amendment sections 141(b) and 142 recedes to House section 306, with modifications. This section amends INA section 242 to revise and restate the provisions in current section 106, which is repealed.

Section 242(a) provides that a final order of removal, other than an order or removal under section 235(b)(1), is governed by chapter 158 of title 28. This is consistent with current section 106(a). This subsection also provides that, subject to the conditions stated in new section 242(e), no court shall have jurisdiction to review any individual determination or cause or claim arising from the implementation or operation of an order of removal under INA section 235(b)(1), or to review, except as provided in subsection (e), a decision by the Attorney General to invoke section 235(b)(1), the application of such section to individual aliens (including the determination under section 235(b)(1)(B) regarding credible fear of persecution), or, except as provided in subsection (e), procedures and policies to implement section 235(b)(1). Individual determinations under section 235(b)(1) may only be reviewed under new subsection 242(e)(1)–(2).

This subsection also bars judicial review (1) of any judgment whether to grant relief under section 212(h) or (i), 240A, 240B, or 245, (2) of any decision or action of the Attorney General which is specified to be in the discretion of the Attorney General (except a discretionary judgment whether to grant asylum as described in section 242(b)), or (3) of any decision in the case of an alien who, by virtue of having committed a criminal offense, is inadmissible under section 212(a)(2) or deportable under redesignated section 237(a)(2) (with the exception of section 237(a)(2)(A)(i)).

Section 242(b) provides that a petition for review must be filed within 30 days after the final order of removal in the Federal court of appeals for the circuit in which the final order of removal under section 240 was entered. As provided in Senate amendment section 142, the filing of a petition does not stay the removal of the alien unless the court orders otherwise. As further provided in the Senate amendment, the alien shall serve and file a brief not later than 40 days after the final administrative record becomes available, and may file a reply brief not later than 14 days after service of the brief of the Attorney General. These deadlines may be extended for good cause. The petition shall be decided solely upon the administrative record and the administrative findings of fact are conclusive unless any reasonable adjudicator would be compelled to conclude to the contrary. A discretionary judgment of the Attorney General whether to grant asylum under section 208 is conclusive unless manifestly contrary to law and an abuse of discretion. Judicial review of all questions of law and fact, including constitutional and statutory claims, arising out of an action to remove an alien from the United States, is available only as part of the judicial review of a final order of removal under this section.

Section 242(b) also revises and restates the provisions in current section 106 regarding form, service, decisions about eligibility for admission, treatment of a petitioner's claim that he or she is a national of the United States, consolidation of motions to reopen and reconsider with orders of removal, challenges to the validity of orders of removal in criminal proceedings, and detention and removal of alien petitioners.

Section 242(c) restates the provisions in the second sentence of subsection (c) of current section 106 that a petition for review must state whether a court has upheld the validity of an order of removal, and if so, identifying the court and date and type of proceeding.

Section 242(d) restates the provisions in the first and third sentences of subsection (c) of current section 106 requiring that a petitioner have exhausted administrative remedies and precluding a court from reviewing an order of removal that has been reviewed by another court absent a showing that the prior review was inadequate to address the issues presented in the petition, or that the petition presents new grounds that could not have been presented in the prior proceeding.

Section 242(e) provides rules for judicial review of orders of removal under section 235(b)(1). No court shall have jurisdiction or authority to enter declaratory, injunctive, or other equitable relief against the operation of section 235(b)(1) (other than that specifically authorized in this subsection), or to certify a class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in any action for which judicial review is authorized in this section. Except as provided in section 242(e)(3) (see next paragraph), judicial review is available in habeas corpus, limited to whether the petitioner is an alien, whether the petitioner was ordered removed under revised INA section 235(b)(1), and whether the petitioner can prove by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, or has been admitted as a refugee or granted asylum. If the court determines that the petitioner was not ordered removed under section 235(b)(1) or is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence or a refugee or asylee, the court may order no relief other than to require that the alien be provided a hearing under section 240. The habeas corpus proceeding shall not address whether the alien actually is admissible or entitled to any relief from removal.

Section 242(e)(3) provides for limited judicial review of the validity of procedures under section 235(b)(1). This limited provision for judicial review does not extend to determinations of credible fear and removability in the case of individual aliens, which are not reviewable. Section 242(e)(3) provides that judicial review is available only in an action instituted in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, and is limited to whether section 235(b)(1), or any regulations issued pursuant to that section, is constitutional, or whether the regulations, or a written policy directive, written policy guidance, or written procedures issued by the Attorney General are consistent with the INA or other law. Any action seeking such review must be filed within 60 days of the implementation of the regulations, directive, guidance, or procedures.

Section 242(f) provides that no court other than the Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction or authority to enjoin or restrain the operation of the provisions in chapter 4 of Title II of the INA, as amended by this legislation, other than with respect to the application of the provisions to an individual alien against whom removal proceedings have been initiated. Section 242(g) provides that no court shall have jurisdiction to hear any cause or claim on behalf of any alien arising from the decision of the Attorney General to commence proceedings, adjudicate cases, or execute removal orders against any alien.

Section 306(b) of this Act repeals INA section 106. Section 306(c) establishes that the amendments in subsections (a) and (b) shall apply to all final orders of exclusion, deportation, or removal, and all motions to reopen or reconsider, filed on or after the date of enactment of this Act. The jurisdictional bar in new section 242(g) shall apply without limitation to all past, pending, or future exclusion, deportation, or removal proceedings under the INA. Section 306(d) makes a technical amendment to sections 440(a), (c), (d), (g), and (h) of the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996, Public Law 104-132, 110 Stat. 1214 (April 24, 1996) (Public Law 104-132) ("AEDPA"), to clarify the circumstances in which aliens with multiple criminal convictions are barred from relief or subject to special procedures to effect their removal from the United States.

Section 307—Senate recedes to House section 307. Section 307(a) amends INA section 243(a) to restate the provisions in current INA section 242(e) regarding penalties for failure to depart within 90 days of the order of removal. New section 243(b) restates the provisions in the third (and final) sentence of current INA section 242(d) regarding penalties for failure to comply with the terms of release under supervision pursuant to section 241(a)(3) (currently the first two sentences of section 242(d)). New section 243(c) restates the provisions in the second and third sentences of current section 237(d) and the final clause of current section 243(e) regarding penalties for failure to comply with an order to remove an alien from the U.S., including civil money penalties and limitations on the clearance of vessels. New section 243(d) revises and restates the provisions in current section 243(g) regarding sanctions against a country that refuses to accept an alien ordered removed who is a citizen, subject, national, or resident of that country. Under the amendment, the Secretary of State shall order that the issuance of both immigrant and nonimmigrant visas to citizens, nationals, subjects, or nationals of that country be suspended until the country has accepted the alien.

Section 308—Senate recedes to House section 308. This section makes a series of redesignations and conforming amendments in addition to those made in other sections. (The following list includes amendments made in other sections).

Current section 232 is redesignated as section 232(a).

Current section 234 is redesignated as section 232(b).

Current section 238 is redesignated as section 233.

Current section 240 is redesignated as section 240C.

Current section 242A is redesignated as section 238, with conforming amendments.

Current section 242B is stricken.

Current section 244 is stricken.

Current section 244A is redesignated as section 244.

The provisions in current section 237(e) regarding the removal of an arriving alien who is helpless from sickness or mental or physical disorder are restated as a new section 232(c). Section 212(a)(10)(B), the redesignated ground of inadmissibility for an alien who is ordered to accompany such a helpless alien during removal, also is amended to conform to the amendments in new section 232(c).

Section 273(a) is amended by adding a new paragraph (2) to restate the provisions in current section 237(b)(5) prohibiting a carrier from taking any consideration contingent on whether an alien is admitted to or ordered removed from the U.S. Section 273(d) is repealed.

Section 309—Senate recedes to House section 309. This section establishes general effective dates and transition provisions for the amendments made by this subtitle. Subsection (a) provides that, except as otherwise provided, the changes made in this subtitle shall take effect on the first day of the first month beginning more than 180 days after the date of enactment. Subsection (b) provides that the Attorney General shall promulgate regulations to carry out this subtitle at least 1 month before the effective date in subsection (a). Subsection (c) provides for the transition to new procedures in the case of an alien already in exclusion or deportation proceedings on the effective date. In general, the amendments made by this subtitle shall not apply and the proceedings (including judicial review) shall continue to be conducted without regard to such amendments. The Attorney General may elect to apply the new procedures in a case in which an evidentiary hearing under current section 236 (exclusion) or sections 242 and 242B (deportation) has not been commenced as of the effective date. The Attorney General shall provide notice of such election to the alien, but the prior notice of hearing and order to show cause served upon the alien shall be effective to retain jurisdiction over the alien.

The Attorney General also may elect, in a case in which there has been no final administrative decision, to terminate proceedings without prejudice to the Attorney General's ability to initiate new proceedings under the amendments made by this subtitle. Determinations in the terminated proceeding shall not be binding in the new proceeding.

This subsection also provides that in the case where a final order of exclusion or deportation is entered more than 30 days after the date of enactment and before the Title III-A effective date (180 days after enactment), transitional rules similar to those established in section 305 of this Act (revised INA section 241) shall apply to petitions for judicial review filed prior to the Title III-A effective date. Under these transitional rules, all judicial review, both of exclusion and deportation decisions, shall be by petition for review to the court of appeals for the judicial circuit in which the final administrative order was entered. The petition for review also must be filed not later than 30 days after the final order of exclusion or deportation. The new limitations on appeals in the case of claims for discretionary relief or in the case of criminal aliens, and the new rule providing for no automatic stay of removal, are to take effect in all cases for which a final order of exclusion, deportation, or removal is entered after the date of enactment. Regardless of the date of entry of the final order of exclusion or deportation, if the petition for review is filed after the Title III-A effective date, then the permanent changes made by section 306 of this bill shall apply exclusively to such petition for review.

The rules under new section 240A(d)(1) and (2) regarding continuous physical presence in the United States as a criterion for eligibility for cancellation of removal shall apply to any notice to appear (including an Order to Show Cause under current section 242A) issued after the date of enactment of this Act.

SUBTITLE B—CRIMINAL ALIEN PROVISIONS

Section 321—House section 802 recedes to Senate amendment section 161. This section amends INA section 101(a)(43) (as amended by section 440(e)) of the AEDPA (Public Law 104-132), the definition of "aggravated felony," by: adding crimes of rape and sexual abuse of a minor; lowering the fine threshold for crimes relating to money laundering and certain illegal monetary transactions from $100,000 to $10,000; lowering the imprisonment threshold for crimes of theft, violence, racketeering, and document fraud from 5 years to 1 year; and lowering the loss threshold for crimes of tax evasion and fraud and deceit from $200,000 to $10,000. This section also adds new offenses to the definition relating to gambling, bribery, perjury, revealing the identity of undercover agents, and transporting prostitutes. It deletes the requirement that a crime of alien smuggling be for commercial advantage in order to be considered an aggravated felony, but exempts a first offense involving solely the alien's spouse, child or parent. The amendment provides that the amended definition of "aggravated felony" applies to offenses that occurred before, on, or after the date of enactment.

This section also provides, in section 321(c), that there shall be no ex post facto application of this amended definition in the case of prosecutions under INA section 276(b) (for illegal re-entry into the United States after deportation when the deportation was subsequent to a conviction for an aggravated felony). Thus, an alien whose deportation followed conviction for a crime or crimes, none of which met the definition of aggravated felony under INA section 101(a)(43) prior to the enactment of this bill, but at least one of which did meet the definition after such enactment, may only be prosecuted under INA section 276(b) for an illegal entry that occurs on or after the date of enactment of this bill.

Section 322—Senate recedes to House section 351. This section amends section 101(a) of the INA to add a new paragraph (48), defining conviction to mean a formal judgment of guilt entered by a court. If adjudication of guilt has been withheld, a judgment is nevertheless considered a conviction if (1) the judge or jury has found the alien guilty or the alien has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere and (2) the judge has imposed some form of punishment or restraint on liberty. This section also provides that any reference in the INA to a term of imprisonment or sentence shall include any period of incarceration or confinement ordered by a court of law regardless of any suspension of the imposition or execution of that imprisonment or sentence.

This section deliberately broadens the scope of the definition of "conviction" beyond that adopted by the Board of Immigration Appeals in Matter of Ozkok, 19 I&N Dec. 546 (BIA 1988). As the Board noted in Ozkok, there exist in the various States a myriad of provisions for ameliorating the effects of a conviction. As a result, aliens who have clearly been guilty of criminal behavior and whom Congress intended to be considered "convicted" have escaped the immigration consequences normally attendant upon a conviction. Ozkok, while making it more difficult for alien criminals to escape such consequences, does not go far enough to address situations where a judgment of guilt or imposition of sentence is suspended, conditioned upon the alien's future good behavior. For example, the third prong of Ozkok requires that a judgment or adjudication of guilt may be entered if the alien violates a term or condition of probation, without the need for any further proceedings regarding guilt or innocence on the original charge. In some States, adjudication may be "deferred" upon a finding or confession of guilt, and a final judgment of guilt may not be imposed if the alien violates probation until there is an additional proceeding regarding the alien's guilt or innocence. In such cases, the third prong of the Ozkok definition prevents the original finding or confession of guilt to be considered a "conviction" for deportation purposes. This new provision, by removing the third prong of Ozkok, clarifies Congressional intent that even in cases where adjudication is "deferred," the original finding or confession of guilt is sufficient to establish a "conviction" for purposes of the immigration laws. In addition, this new definition clarifies that in cases where immigration consequences attach depending upon the length of a term of sentence, any court-ordered sentence is considered to be "actually imposed," including where the court has suspended the imposition of the sentence. The purpose of this provision is to overturn current administrative rulings holding that a sentence is not "actually imposed" in such cases. See Matter of Castro, 19 I&N Dec. 692 (BIA 1988); In re Esposito, Int. Dec. 3243 (BIA, March 30, 1995).

Section 323—Senate recedes to House section 363. This section amends section 263(a) to authorize the registration by the Attorney General of aliens who are or who have been on criminal probation or criminal parole within the U.S.

Section 324—House recedes to Senate amendment section 156(b). This section amends INA section 276(a)(1) to extend criminal liability for an alien who reenters the United States without authorization to an alien who has departed the United States while an order of exclusion or deportation is outstanding.

Section 325—House recedes to Senate amendment section 170B. This section amends section 2424 of title 18 to expand the registration requirements for those who control or harbor alien prostitutes to require earlier filing and to cover aliens of all nationalities.

Section 326—Senate recedes to House section 361. This section amends section 130002(a) of the Violent Crimes Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 (VCCLEA) to require that the criminal alien identification system be used to assist Federal, State, and local law enforcement agencies in identifying and locating aliens who may be removable on account of criminal or other grounds. The system shall provide for recording of fingerprints of aliens previously arrested and removed into appropriate automated identification systems.

Section 327—House recedes to Senate amendment section 313. This section amends section 130002(b) of VCCLEA (criminal alien tracking center) to establish an authorization for appropriations of $5 million per year for each of fiscal years 1997 through 2001.

Section 328—Senate recedes to House section 305(b) and 843, with modifications. This section amends redesignated INA section 241(i) to provide that funds under the State Criminal Alien Assistance Program may be used for the costs of imprisonment of criminal aliens in a State or local prison or jail, including a jail operated by a municipality. This section also states the sense of Congress that SCAAP funds be distributed on a more expeditious basis. The managers anticipate that States will consult with counties and municipalities regarding their respective costs of detaining illegal aliens.

Section 329—Senate amendment section 170D recedes to House section 356. This section provides authorization for the Attorney General to conduct a 6-month pilot project to identify criminal aliens incarcerated in local governmental prison facilities in Anaheim, California.

Section 330—House section 360 recedes to Senate amendment section 170. This section advises the President to negotiate and renegotiate bilateral prisoner transfer treaties to expedite the transfer to their countries of nationality of aliens subject to incarceration who are unlawfully in the United States or are subject to deportation or removal. The negotiations are to ensure that a transferred prisoner serves the balance of the sentence imposed by the United States, and to eliminate any requirement of prisoner consent to such transfer. The President shall submit an annual certification to the Committees on the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Representatives, on whether each prisoner transfer treaty in force is effective in returning criminal aliens to their countries of nationality.

Section 331—House recedes to Senate amendment section 170A. This section requires the Secretary of State and Attorney General, within 180 days of the date of enactment, to submit to the Committees on the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Representatives a report describing the use and effectiveness of the prisoner transfer treaties with the three countries with the greatest number of their nationals incarcerated in the United States. This section specifies information that shall be provided in such report, and requires the report to include recommendations to increase the effectiveness and use of, and compliance with, such treaties.

Section 332—House recedes to Senate amendment section 168. This section requires the Attorney General, not later than 12 months after the date of enactment, to issue a report detailing populations of alien felons incarcerated in Federal and State prisons, and programs and plans to remove such aliens who are inadmissible or deportable, and to prevent their illegal reentry into the United States.

Section 333—House recedes to Senate amendment section 320. This section requires the United States Sentencing Commission to review and amend current guidelines applicable to offenders convicted of conspiring with or aiding and abetting an alien in committing an offense under section 1010 of the Controlled Substance Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. 960).

Section 334—Senate recedes to House section 357. House recedes to Senate amendment section 156(b). This section instructs the Sentencing Commission to promptly promulgate amendments to the sentencing guidelines to reflect the amendments made in section 130001 and 130009 of the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994.

SUBTITLE C—REVISION OF GROUNDS FOR EXCLUSION AND DEPORTATION

Section 341—Senate recedes to House section 301(f). This subsection amends INA section 212(a)(1)(A) by adding a new clause (ii), making inadmissible any alien who seeks admission as an immigrant who does not present evidence of vaccination against mumps, measles, rubella, polio, tetanus and diphtheria toxoids, pertussis, influenza type B and hepatitis B, and any other vaccinations recommended by the Advisory Committee for Immunization Practices. This subsection also provides that this new ground of inadmissibility may be waived if the alien receives the required vaccination, if a civil surgeon or similar official designated in 42 CFR 34.2 certifies that the vaccination would not be medically appropriate, or, if the vaccination would be contrary to the alien's religious or moral beliefs. It is anticipated that this waiver authority would be exercised in appropriate cases to permit admission of aliens where, for example, an alien has been unable to receive a safe dosage or vaccine in the alien's country of nationality, the alien is a child who is required to complete a series of vaccinations over a course of time and has not had a reasonable opportunity to complete that course, or the alien is an active member of a religious faith that notifies the Attorney General that such vaccinations would contradict the fundamental tenets of such religion.

Section 342—House recedes to Senate section 158. This section amends the terrorist exclusion ground, section 212(a)(3)(B), to make inadmissible an alien who, with the intent to cause death or serious bodily harm, has incited terrorist activity.

Section 343—House section 811 recedes to Senate amendment section 155. This section amends section 212(a)(5) to make inadmissible to the United States any alien seeking admission for employment as a health-care worker unless the alien presents a certificate from the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools or an equivalent independent credentialing organization (approved by the Attorney General in consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services) verifying the alien's training, licensing, and experience, as well as a level of competency in English appropriate to the position in which the alien will be employed.

Notwithstanding any international trade agreements or treaties, a "health care worker" subject to prescreening under this section should include any alien seeking an immigrant or nonimmigrant visa as a nurse, physical therapist, occupational therapist, speech-language pathologist, medical technologist and technician, physician assistant, or other occupations designated in regulations. The Attorney General should not approve a credentialing organization unless the organization is independent and free of material conflicts of interest regarding whether an alien receives a visa. The organization also should demonstrate an ability to evaluate both the foreign credentials appropriate for the profession and the results of examinations for proficiency in English appropriate for the health care of the kind in which the alien will be engaged, and maintain comprehensive and current information on foreign educational institutions, ministries of health and foreign health care licensing jurisdictions. In addition, because this provision contemplates that alien health-care workers be screened before they arrive in the United States, such organizations should demonstrate an ability to conduct examinations outside the United States.

Section 344—House recedes to Senate amendment section 216. This section amends INA section 212(a)(6)(C) and 241(a)(3) to create new grounds of inadmissibility and deportability in the case of an alien who falsely represents himself to be a citizen of the United States.

Section 345—Senate recedes to House section 362, with modifications. Subsection (a) of this section amends subparagraph 212(a)(6)(F) and adds a new paragraph 212(d)(12), to provide that an alien who is inadmissible for having been subject to a final order for a violation of section 274C (civil document fraud) may have the ground of inadmissibility waived if the alien is a lawful permanent resident or an alien seeking admission as a family-sponsored or employment-based immigrant, and, if no civil money penalty had been imposed, the final order resulted from an offense that was committed solely to assist an individual who at the time of the document fraud offense was the alien's spouse or child (and not another individual). This statutory language makes clear that the family relationship must exist at the time of the civil document fraud offense, not merely at the time the application for the waiver is filed.

Subsection (b) amends subparagraph 241(a)(3)(C) (prior to redesignation as section 237(a)(3)(C)) to provide a similar waiver for an alien who is deportable due to a section 274C violation. The same limitations on family relationship are to apply. No court shall have jurisdiction to review a decision whether or not to grant a waiver under either of these subsections.

Section 346—House recedes to Senate amendment section 214(b), with modifications. This section amends INA section 212(a)(6) to add a new subparagraph (G), making inadmissible for 5 years any alien who obtains a visa as a nonimmigrant student under section 101(a)(15)(F)(i) and who violates a term or condition of the nonimmigrant status.

Section 347—House recedes to Senate amendment sections 217(b) and 217(c). This section adds new sections 212(a)(10)(F) and 241(a)(7) creating, respectively, new grounds of inadmissibility and deportability in the case of an alien who has voted in an election in violation of any Federal, State, or local constitutional provision, statute, ordinance, or regulation.

Section 348—Senate recedes to House section 301(h), with modifications. This section amends INA section 212(h) to limit waivers granted under that provision in the case of an immigrant previously admitted to the United States. An alien is ineligible for such a waiver if since admission as a lawful permanent residence, the alien has been convicted of an aggravated felony, or if the alien has not lawfully resided in the United States for a continuous period of 7 years prior to notification to the alien of proceedings to remove the alien from the United States. The managers intend that the provisions governing continuous residence set forth in INA section 240A as enacted by this legislation shall be applied as well for purposes of waivers under INA section 212(h).

Section 349—Senate recedes to House section 301(d), with modifications. This subsection revises INA section 212(i) to provide that the ground of inadmissibility under section 212(a)(6)(C) (fraud and misrepresentation) may be waived in the case of a spouse, son, or daughter of a United States citizen or of a lawful permanent resident, if the refusal of admission would result in extreme hardship to the citizen or lawfully resident spouse or parent. No court shall have jurisdiction to review a decision regarding such a waiver.

Section 350—House recedes to Senate amendment section 218 with modifications. This section amends INA section 241(a)(2) (prior to redesignation as section 237(a)(2)) to provide that an alien convicted of crimes of domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse is deportable. The crimes of rape and sexual abuse of a minor are elsewhere classified as aggravated felonies under INA section 101(a)(43), thus making aliens convicted of those crimes deportable and ineligible for most forms of immigration benefits or relief from deportation.

Section 351—This section amends INA sections 212(d)(11) and 241(a)(1)(E)(iii), regarding waivers, respectively, of excludability and deportability in the case of an alien who has engaged in alien smuggling if the act of smuggling was solely to aid certain close family members. The amendment clarifies that the family relationship must exist at the time of the act of smuggling. Thus, an alien does not qualify for the waiver if the spousal or parent-child relationship is established after the offense, but prior to the date of application for the waiver. The managers specifically disapprove of and intend to override the recent contrary holding of the Board of Immigration Appeals. See Matter of Farias, Int. Dec. 3269 (BIA 1996).

Section 352—Senate recedes to House section 301(e), with modification to make the ground of inadmissibility applicable to those who renounce citizenship after enactment.

Section 353—This section identifies other sections of this Act that make changes to grounds of inadmissibility or deportability.

SUBTITLE D—REMOVAL OF ALIEN TERRORISTS

Section 354—Senate recedes to House section 321, with modifications. This section amends INA section 504, as enacted by section 401 of AEDPA (Public Law 104-132), to provide, among other things, that the special deportation procedures employed in the case of an alien terrorist may proceed in the event that no summary of classified evidence being used against the alien can be provided to the alien without disclosing classified information. In such circumstances, a special attorney shall be appointed for the alien (in addition to the attorney who may have been appointed to represent the alien in the main proceedings). The special attorney shall be entitled to review the classified evidence that is not disclosed or summarized for the alien, but may not disclose that information to any other person, including to the alien.

Section 355—Senate recedes to House section 331, with modifications. This section amends INA section 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(IV) as inserted by section 411(l)(C) of AEDPA to clarify that when a member of an organization which engages in or actively supports or advocates terrorist activity is excludable from the U.S.

Section 356—Senate recedes to House section 331, with modifications. This section amends section 219(b), as added by section 302(a) of AEDPA, to clarify the standard for judicial review of a designation of an organization as a terrorist organization.

Section 357—Senate recedes to House section 332. This section clarifies that relief under INA section 244(e)(2) (voluntary departure) is not available to an alien in proceedings under Title V of the INA, as inserted by AEDPA.

Section 358—This section provides that the effective date for the provisions in this subtitle shall be effective as if included in the enactment of subtitle A of title IV of AEDPA, as enacted on April 24, 1996.

SUBTITLE E—TRANSPORTATION OF ALIENS

Section 361—Senate amendment section 151(a) recedes to House section 341. This section amends INA section 101 to add a new paragraph (47), defining "stowaway" to mean any alien who obtains transportation without consent including through concealment. A passenger who boards with a valid ticket is not to be considered a stowaway.

Section 362—Senate recedes to House amendment section 343. This section amends INA section 238, before redesignation as section 233, to clarify that the authority of the INS to enter into contracts with carriers who transport aliens to the United States applies regardless of the point of departure of such aliens, and is not limited to departures from contiguous territories. The authority also is extended to cover transportation by rail.

SUBTITLE F—ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

Section 371—Senate amendment section 183 recedes to House section 352, with modifications. Subsection (a) amends paragraph (4) of section 101(b) to replace the definition of "special inquiry officer" with a definition of "immigration judge": an attorney designated by the Attorney General as an administrative judge within the Executive Office for Immigration Review to conduct proceedings, including proceedings under section 240. Subsection (b) substitutes the term "immigration judge" for "special inquiry officer" wherever it appears in the INA.

Subsection (c) establishes a four-level pay scale for immigration judges, beginning at 70 percent and reaching 92 percent of the next-to-highest rate of basic pay for the Senior Executive Service.

Section 372—House recedes to Senate amendment section 171(c). This section amends INA section 103(a) to provide that in the event of a mass influx of aliens off the coast of the United States or at a land border, the Attorney General may authorize a State or local law enforcement officer, with the consent of the officer's superiors, to perform duties of immigration officers under the INA.

Section 373—House recedes to Senate amendment section 329. This section amends INA section 103(a) to clarify the authority of the Attorney General to use appropriated funds for the care and security of individuals detained by the Service through agreements with State and local governments. This provision also grants authority for the Attorney General to contract with State and local authorities for construction, renovation, and acquisition of equipment in support of the detention of aliens held by the INS in State and local facilities.

Section 374—House recedes to Senate amendment section 165(a)(2)(A), with modifications, and Senate amendment section 167. This section extends the authority for judicial deportation under INA section 242A(c) (redesignated as section 238(c)) to any case in which an alien is deportable. This section also clarifies that no denial of a request for a judicial order of deportation (including a decision on the merits) shall preclude the Attorney General from initiating deportation proceedings before an immigration judge on the same or different ground of deportability. Finally, this section permits the entry of a stipulated order of deportation as part of a plea agreement.

Section 375—House recedes to Senate amendment section 181. This section amends INA section 245(c) to make ineligible for adjustment of status aliens who are not in lawful nonimmigrant status, who have violated the terms of their nonimmigrant visa, or who have engaged in unauthorized employment.

Section 376—Senate recedes to House section 808, with modifications. This section amends INA section 245(i) to provide that an alien applying for adjustment of status under this provision shall pay a fee of $1,000, not less than $800 of which shall be paid into an Immigration Detention Account. This section also amends INA section 286 to provide for creation and operation of the Immigration Detention Account.

Section 377—House recedes to Senate amendment section 180. This section amends INA section 245A to put an end to litigation seeking to extend the amnesty provisions of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, and to limit claims under that section to aliens who in fact filed an application for legalization under that section within the prescribed time limits, or attempted to do so but their application was refused by an immigration officer.

Section 378—Senate amendment section 176 recedes to House section 353. This section amends section 246(a) of the INA to clarify that the Attorney General is not required to rescind the lawful permanent resident status of a deportable alien separate and apart from the removal proceeding under section 240.

Section 379—House recedes to Senate amendment section 323, with modifications. This section amends sections 274A and 274C to clarify when the decision and order of an administrative law judge under these sections becomes final.

Section 380—Senate amendment section 143(a) recedes to House section 354. This section adds a new section 274D to the INA, providing that aliens under an order of removal who willfully fail to depart or to take actions necessary to permit departure (e.g., apply for travel documents) are subject to a civil penalty of up to $500 for each day in violation. This section would not diminish the criminal penalties at section 243(a) (for failure to depart) or at any other section of the INA.

Section 381—Senate recedes to House section 355. This section clarifies that the grant of jurisdiction under section 279 of the INA is to permit the Government to institute lawsuits for enforcement of provisions of the INA, not for private parties to sue the Government. This has no effect on other statutory or constitutional grounds for private suits against the Government.

Section 382—Senate recedes to House section 359. This section amends section 280(b) to provide for establishment of an Immigration Enforcement Account, into which shall be deposited the civil penalties collected under sections 240B(d), 274C, 274D, and 275(b), as amended by this bill. The collected funds shall be used for specified immigration enforcement purposes.

Section 383—House recedes to Senate amendment section 319, with modifications. This section amends section 301 of the Immigration Act of 1990 to exclude from "family unity" protection aliens who have committed certain serious offenses while juveniles.

Section 384—Senate amendment section 331 recedes to House section 364, with modifications. This section provides that the Attorney General shall not make an adverse determination of admissibility or deportability against an alien or an alien's child, using information furnished solely by certain individuals who have battered or subjected to extreme cruelty that alien or that alien's child, unless the alien has been convicted of a crime identified in redesignated section 237(a)(2). Neither shall the Attorney General permit use by, or disclosure to any person (other than an officer of the Department of Justice for official and certain other designated purposes) of any information that relates to an alien who is the beneficiary of an application for relief (which has not been denied) under section 204(a)(1)(A) and (B) (self-petition for immigrant visa by alien who has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty), section 216(c)(4)(C) (hardship waiver allowing removal of conditional permanent resident status based on qualifying marriage because alien spouse or child has been subject to battery or extreme cruelty), or section 244(a)(3) (suspension of deportation for alien spouse or child who has been subject to battery or extreme cruelty). Civil penalties are established for willful violations.

Section 385—Senate amendment section 148 recedes to House section 358. This section authorizes to be appropriated beginning in fiscal year 1996 the sum of $150,000,000 for costs associated with the removal of inadmissible or deportable aliens, including costs of detention of such aliens pending their removal. This section is intended to authorize sufficient funds in fiscal year 1996 for the hiring of 475 detention and deportation officers and support personnel and 475 investigators and support personnel.

Section 386—Subsection (a): House section 303(b) recedes to Senate amendment section 106. This section requires, subject to appropriations, an increase in INS detention facilities to 9,000 beds by the end of FY 1997. Subsection (b): House recedes to Senate amendment section 182, with modifications. This subsection requires that within 6 months of the date of enactment, and every 6 months thereafter, the Attorney General shall submit a report to the Committees on the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Representatives estimating the amount of detention space that will be required in the current fiscal year, and in each of the succeeding 5 fiscal years, to detain all aliens required to be detained under INA sections 236(c) (as amended by section 303(a) of this Act) and 241(a) (as amended by section 305(a) of this Act), to detain other illegal aliens in accordance with the detention priorities of the Attorney General, and to detain all inadmissible and deportable aliens subject to proceedings under INA sections 235(b)(1) or (2), 238, and 240. The report also shall include other specified information regarding the release of criminal aliens and other illegal aliens into the community.

Section 387—Senate amendment section 153 recedes to House section 112. This subsection requires a pilot program to determine the feasibility of using military bases available as a result of base closure laws as INS detention centers, and specifies that in selecting real property at a military base for such purpose, the Attorney General and Secretary of Defense consult with the redevelopment authority established for the base and give substantial deference to the redevelopment plan for the base. This section also requires a report not less than 30 months after enactment to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and the Senate on the feasibility of using closed military facilities as INS detention centers.

Section 388—Section 437 of AEDPA (Public Law 104-132), requires the Attorney General to implement within 180 days of enactment a program to repatriate aliens who have illegally entered the United States not less than 3 times, and who are being removed to a country contiguous to the United States, to a location not less than 500 kilometers from that country's border with the United States. In light of this enactment, the pilot programs in House section 111 and Senate amendment section 152 are unnecessary. The Senate recedes to House section 111(b), requiring a report to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and Senate regarding interior repatriation, with modification to refer to the mandate in section 437 of AEDPA.

TITLE IV—ENFORCEMENT OF RESTRICTIONS AGAINST EMPLOYMENTSUBTITLE A—PILOT PROGRAMS FOR EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY CONFIRMATION

Sections 401 through 405—Senate amendment sections 111–115 recede to House section 401, with modifications. Subtitle A sets up three pilot programs of employment eligibility confirmation which will last four years each. These programs generally will be operated according to the pilot program procedures set out in House section 401. Participation in the pilot programs will be voluntary on the part of employers, except with regard to the executive and legislative branches of the Federal Government and certain employers who have been found to be in violation of certain sections of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Volunteer employers may have their elections apply to all hiring in all State(s) in which a pilot program is operating, or to their hiring in only one or more pilot program States or places of hiring within any such States. The Attorney General may reject elections or limit their applicability where the pilot program would have insufficient resources available to allow the company to participate in the pilot to the extent desired. The Attorney General may permit a participating employer to have its election apply to hiring in States in which the chosen pilot program is not otherwise operating (if the State meets the requirements of the pilot program). If an electing employer fails to comply with its obligations under a pilot program, such as by not complying with the program requirements for all new employees covered by its election, the Attorney General may terminate the employer's participation in the pilot program. An employer may also choose to terminate its participation (in such form and manner as the Attorney General may specify). If an employer required to participate in a pilot program fails to comply, such failure will be treated as a paperwork violation of the Immigration and Nationality Act's employment verification requirement, and a rebuttable presumption will arise that the employer has hired aliens knowing that they are unauthorized to work in the United States.

An employer participating in a pilot program who receives confirmation of an employee's identity and employment eligibility under the program will benefit from a rebuttable presumption that the employer has not hired an alien knowing the alien is unauthorized to work. Also, the Attorney General shall designate one or more individuals in each INS District Office for a Service District in which a pilot program is being implemented to assist employers in electing and participating in the program, and in more generally complying with INA section 274A.

The first pilot program, the basic pilot program, originates in House section 401. Employers in (at a minimum) five of the seven States with the highest number of illegal aliens may elect to participate. As under current law, the employer will have to complete the document review process described in INA section 274A(b) (as modified to increase the reliability of identification documents). However, if the Attorney General determines that an employer participating in this (or either of the other two) pilot program(s) can reliably determine a new employee's identity and authorization to work in the United States relying only on the pilot program procedures (discussed below) and a document review process including only documents confirming identity, the Attorney General can exempt participating employers from having to review documents confirming employment authorization.

Under the basic pilot program, employers would then make inquiries (within three days of hire) to the Attorney General (or a designee) by means of toll-free telephone line or other toll-free electronic media to seek confirmation of the identity and employment eligibility of new employees. Employers would be given additional time to make inquiries in situations where the confirmation system did not receive their initial inquiry, for instance because the system's phone lines were overloaded or out of operation. While the pilot program could not require that participating employers pay any fee to participate, employers would be responsible for providing the equipment needed to make inquiries. In most cases, this would simply be a telephone. However, if an employer wanted to use, for instance, a computer and modem to make large numbers of inquiries at once, the employer would have to provide such equipment. When making an inquiry, an employer would provide a new employee's name and social security number (and, if the employee had not attested to being a citizen, the employee's INS-issued number).

Through the confirmation system, this information provided in the inquiry will be checked against existing Federal Government records in order to provide (or not provide) confirmation of identity and work authorization. No new types of records will be added to government databases. The confirmation system will respond within three days of an inquiry—either by providing confirmation of the employee's identity and authorization to work or by providing a tentative nonconfirmation (in both cases, an appropriate code will be provided the employer by the system). After being notified of the tentative nonconfirmation, the employee can choose to contest or not contest the finding. If the employee does not contest the finding, the nonconfirmation is considered final. If the employee does contest the finding, he or she—within a 10-day secondary verification period—will communicate with the Commissioner of Social Security and/or the Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service to resolve those issues preventing the confirmation system from confirming the employee's identity and work authorization. By the end of the secondary verification period, the confirmation system must provide either a final confirmation or a final nonconfirmation (and appropriate code) to the employer. An employer shall not terminate employment of an employee because of a failure to have identity and work authorization confirmed under the pilot program until a nonconfirmation becomes final. However, the employer can terminate the employee for other reasons (as consistent with applicable law), such as the failure of the employee to show up for work following a tentative nonconfirmation.

An employer, once provided with final nonconfirmation with regard to an employee, may either terminate the individual or continue his or her employment. If the employer continues to employ the individual, the employer must notify the Attorney General of this decision. Failure to notify will be deemed to be a paperwork violation and will be subject to enhanced paperwork violation penalties. Also, if the employer continues employment, a rebuttable presumption is created that the employer has hired the employee knowing the employee is unauthorized to work in the United States. The option of continued employment is only intended for the rare circumstance where an employer has knowledge independent of the confirmation process that the employee is eligible to work in the United States—such as knowing the employee since childhood.

The second pilot program, the citizenship-attestation pilot program, originates in Senate amendment section 112(a)(2)(G). It will operate in at least 5 States or, if fewer, all of the States that issue driver's licenses and identification cards with enhanced security features and procedures. However, employers can only participate in this pilot program in the sole discretion of the Attorney General. It will operate like the basic pilot program, with one important modification. If an employee attests to being a citizen, the employer is not required to (1) review documents confirming employment authorization when completing the 274A(b) document review process, or (2) make an inquiry through the confirmation system. This pilot program is designed to make the hiring process as easy and pitfall-free as possible for citizens and their employers. Its success depends in part on the effectiveness of this Act's heightened penalties for falsely attesting to U.S. citizenship.

A variation of the citizen-attestation pilot project will be open to election by a maximum of 1,000 employers chosen by the Attorney General. Under this program, employers do not have to comply with any part of the 274A(b) document review process with regard to new employees who attest to being citizens. Otherwise, the program is identical in nature to the citizen-attestation pilot program.

The third pilot program, the machine-readable document pilot program, originates in Senate section 112(a)(2)(F). It will operate as does the basic pilot program, except that if the new employee presents a State-issued identification document or driver's license that includes a machine-readable social security number, the employer will make an inquiry through the confirmation system by using a machine-readable feature of such document. The employer would have to procure the device needed to read the machine-readable document and to supply the information needed for the inquiry through the machine-readable feature of the document. Since the Social Security Administration does not keep up-to-date records of the employment eligibility of aliens, those employees who do not attest to citizenship will also have to provide their INS-issued numbers, which the employers will pass on when making inquiries through the confirmation system. Employees not possessing machine-readable documents will be confirmed as under the basic pilot program.

The machine-readable document pilot program is of course limited by the number of States which issue such enhanced documents and the fact that even in such States, not all individuals will have the machine-readable documents. Thus, it will only operate in at least 5 of the States (or, if fewer, all of the States) which issue driver's licenses and other identification documents with a machine-readable social security number (which need not be visible on the card). States are encouraged to issue such documents since use of machine-readable documents makes the confirmation process simpler and provides additional assurance that the documents are genuine.

Employers participating in any of the pilot programs are shielded from civil or criminal liability for actions taken in good faith reliance on information provided through the confirmation system—such as firing a new employee after receiving a final nonconfirmation of identity and/or work authorization through the confirmation system or continuing to employ an employee after receiving final confirmation.

Nothing in Subtitle A shall be construed to permit the Federal Government to utilize any information, data base, or other records assembled under the subtitle for any purpose other than as provided for under one of the three pilot programs. In addition, nothing in the subtitle shall be construed to authorize the issuance or use of national identification cards or the establishment of a national identification card. The confirmation system shall be designed and operated to, among other things, maximize its reliability and ease of use consistent with insulating and protecting the privacy and security of the underlying information, prevent the unauthorized disclosure of personal information, and ensure that the system not result in unlawful discriminatory practices based on national origin or citizenship status. Finally, the INS and Social Security Administration shall update their information in a manner that promotes maximum accuracy and shall provide a process for the prompt correction of erroneous information.

SUBTITLE B—OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO EMPLOYER SANCTIONS

Section 411—Senate recedes to House section 402, with modifications. This section provides those employers who in good faith make technical or procedural errors in complying with INA section 274A(b) an opportunity to correct those errors without penalty.

Section 412(a)—House section 403(a) recedes to Senate amendment section 116(b), with modifications. This provision reduces the number of documents that can be used to establish an individual's employment authorization and/or identity under section 274A(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. To establish both employment authorization and identity, an individual may present a 1) a U.S. passport, or 2) a resident alien card, alien registration card, or other document designated by the Attorney General, all of which must meet certain standards (including having certain security features). The other documents designated by the Attorney General may include an unexpired foreign passport which has an appropriate, unexpired endorsement of the Attorney General or an appropriate unexpired visa authorizing the individual's employment in the United States. To establish employment authorization, an individual may present a social security account number card or certain other documentation found acceptable by the Attorney General. No change has been made from current law as to the documents which may be presented to establish identity. Finally, the Attorney General may prohibit or place conditions on the use of any documents for purposes of section 274A(b) if they are found to not reliably establish employment authorization or identity or are being used fraudulently to an unacceptable degree.

Section 412(b)—Senate recedes to House section 403(b), with modifications. This provision provides a streamlined confirmation process under INA section 274A(b) for a new employee who is beginning work for a member of an employer association that has concluded a collective bargaining agreement with an organization representing the employee and the employee has within a specified period worked for another member of the association who has complied with the requirements of section 274A(b) with respect to the employee. If these conditions are met, the current employer is deemed to have complied with the requirements of section 274A(b) with respect to the employee.

Section 412(c)—Senate recedes to House section 403(c). This provision eliminates obsolete provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Section 412(d)—Senate recedes to House section 403(d). This provision clarifies that the Federal government must comply with section 274A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, which makes unlawful the knowing employment of aliens not authorized to work in the United States and requires employers to confirm the identity and employment authorization of new employees.

Section 413—Senate recedes to House section 404(c)(2). This provision requires the Attorney General to submit to Congress a report on additional authority or resources needed to enforce section 274A of the Immigration and Nationality Act and the Executive Order of February 13, 1996 (prohibiting Federal contractors from knowingly hiring aliens not authorized to work in the United States).

Section 414—Senate recedes to House section 405, with modifications. This provision requires the Commissioner of Social Security to prepare annual reports regarding social security account numbers issued to aliens not authorized to be employed, with respect to which, in a fiscal year, earnings were reported to the Social Security Administration, and a single report on the extent to which social security account numbers and cards are used by aliens for fraudulent purposes.

Section 415—Senate recedes to House section 406. This section authorizes the Attorney General to require aliens to provide their social security account numbers.

Section 416—House recedes to Senate amendment section 120A(a)(1). This section provides that certain immigration officers may compel by subpoena the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents while conducting investigations of potential violations by employers of section 274A(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

SUBTITLE C—UNFAIR IMMIGRATION-RELATED EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

Section 421—House section 407(b) recedes to Senate section 117. This provision provides that an employer's request of a new employee for more or different documents than are required to confirm an employee's identity and authorization to work in the United States under INA section 274A(b) or an employer's refusal to honor documents that reasonably appear to be genuine shall only be considered unfair immigration-related employment practices under INA section 274B(a)(1) if made for the purpose or with the intent of unlawfully discriminating against the employee on the basis of citizenship status or national origin.

TITLE V—RESTRICTIONS ON BENEFITS FOR ALIENS

Section 500—Senate recedes to House section 600 with modifications to divide this section into two parts: subsection (a), setting forth a series of statements of congressional policy regarding aliens and public benefits; and subsection (b), stating the sense of Congress that: (1) courts should apply the same standard of review to States choosing to restrict their public benefits programs pursuant to the authorizations contained in this Act as the court uses in determining whether an Act of Congress regulating the eligibility of aliens for public benefits is constitutional; and (2) if a court applies the strict scrutiny standard of constitutional review, the court shall consider the State law to be the least restrictive means available for achieving the compelling government interest of assuring that aliens be self-reliant in accordance with national immigration policy. The purpose of the congressional grants of authority to States regarding eligibility for public benefits contained in this Act is to encourage States to implement the national immigration policy of assuring that aliens be self-reliant and not become public charges—a fundamental part of U.S. immigration policy since 1882.

SUBTITLE A—ELIGIBILITY OF EXCLUDABLE, DEPORTABLE, NONIMMIGRANT ALIENS FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE AND BENEFITS

with modifications. These sections bar ineligible aliens (as defined herein) from Federal, State, and local public benefits programs, contracts, grants, loans, and licenses, with specified exemptions (as defined herein).

In general, ineligible aliens should not take advantage of taxpayers by accessing public benefits. However, the managers believe that certain public health, nutrition, and in-kind community service programs should be exempted from the general prohibition on ineligible aliens accessing public benefits. The exemption for public health assistance for immunizations is not intended to be limited to immunizations under the Public Health Service Act, but refers to all immunizations. In the subparagraph treating certain battered aliens (or certain aliens subjected to extreme cruelty) as eligible aliens, the managers believe that the phrase "an alien whose child has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty" includes children who have been sexually molested.

The managers intend that the inclusion of parolees who are paroled into the U.S. for a period of at least one year in the definition of eligible alien refers only to the period for which such aliens are authorized to remain in the U.S. after their parole. The statement contained in the Committee Report accompanying the Senate Amendment, that such reference referred to parolees who had been present in the U.S. for one year or more, does not reflect the intention of the managers as stated herein.

In defining "means-tested public benefit," (for purposes of sections 501, 551, 552), the managers do not intend to include programs which do not consider an applicant's income in the disbursement of assistance. For example, Title I grants under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 are provided to school districts with significant numbers of needy students. Since all students in that district will receive assistance from these funds—regardless of each student's financial status—neither "deeming" (see section 552) nor the prohibition on receipt by illegal aliens are applicable. ESEA is exempted under sections 551 and 552 only because certain means-tested benefits (such as Elleander Fellowships) are authorized under that Act as well.

Many States use Federal block grant monies to provide services to the poor which are not within the scope of what the managers consider "means-tested." For example, soup kitchens and homeless shelters serve needy individuals, but the operators do not require each applicant to demonstrate financial need. Similarly, if a State chose to use money from the Social Service Block Grant to fund the administrative costs of a youth soccer league in a poor area of that State, such a benefit would not be considered "means-tested" under this Act.

The exception for treatment of communicable diseases is very narrow. The managers intend that it only apply where absolutely necessary to prevent the spread of such diseases. The managers do not intend that the exception for testing and treatment for communicable diseases should include treatment for the HIV virus or acquired immune deficiency syndrome. This exception is only intended to cover short-term measures that would be taken prior to the departure of the alien from the United States. It does not provide authority for long-term treatment of such diseases or a means for illegal aliens to delay their removal from the country.

The allowance for emergency medical services also is very narrow. The managers intend that it only apply to medical care that is strictly of an emergency nature, such as medical treatment for emergency treatment administered in an emergency room, critical care unit, or intensive care unit. Emergency medical services do not include pre-natal or delivery care, or post-partum assistance, that is not strictly of an emergency nature as specified herein—including State-funded or administered pre-natal and post-partum care. The managers intend that any provision of services under this exception for mental health disorders be limited to circumstances in which the alien's condition is such that he is a danger to himself or to others and has therefore been judged incompetent by a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Section 503—House section 602 recedes to Senate amendment section 201(b) with modifications to eliminate the crediting of employment for purposes of unemployment benefits for individuals in PRUCOL status.

Section 504—House recedes to Senate amendment section 201(c) with modifications. This section amends section 202 of the Social Security Act to provide that no Social Security benefits may be paid to an alien not lawfully present in the United States. This section also amends section 210 of the Social Security Act to provide that periods of unauthorized employment shall not count towards an alien's eligibility for Social Security retirement benefits. The managers intend to allow sufficient time for the Social Security Administration to comply with this provision in order for SSA field offices to develop appropriate screening procedures.

Section 505—Senate recedes to House section 601(c) with modifications to amend the SAVE program. This section requires proof of identity for all applicants in addition to the verification requirements for non-citizens under section 1137(d) of the Social Security Act.

Section 506—Senate recedes to House section 601(d). This section authorizes State and local governments to require proof of eligibility (including identity) from applicants for State and local public benefits programs.

Section 507—House recedes to Senate amendment section 201(a)(2) with modifications. This section provides that illegal aliens are not eligible for in-state tuition rates at public institutions of higher education.

Section 508—Senate recedes to House section 606. House recedes to Senate amendment section 205. This section requires that applicants for post-secondary financial assistance be subject to verification of their eligibility prior to receiving such assistance. The managers believe that House section 606 reflects the current practice of the Department of Education regarding the verification of student eligibility for postsecondary financial assistance.

Section 509—House recedes to Senate amendment sections 324 and 326. These sections amend the Social Security Act, and the Higher Education Act of 1986 to require the submission of photostatic or similar copies of documents or information specified by the INS for verification of an alien's immigration status.

Section 510—House recedes to Senate amendment section 201(e) with modifications. This section requires Federal, State, and local public benefits agencies to verify an applicant's eligibility (including the amount of eligibility) prior to the administration of public benefits by a non-profit charitable organization. The managers believe that non-profit charitable organizations themselves should not have to verify immigration status or determine the eligibility of aliens for public benefits, e.g., by "deeming" the income of sponsors to immigrant applicants for assistance (see section 552). The managers also believe, however, that the appropriate Federal or State agency must verify and determine the amount of eligibility of aliens for public benefits before a non-profit charitable organization may distribute means-tested benefits to such aliens.

Section 511—Senate recedes to House section 607, with modifications. This section requires the Comptroller General to submit a report to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and the Senate regarding the receipt of means-tested public benefits by ineligible aliens on behalf of U.S. citizens and eligible aliens. The managers note that illegal aliens often access public benefits, such as AFDC and Food Stamps, for which they themselves are ineligible, by applying for such benefits on behalf of their U.S. citizen or legal immigrant children.

SUBTITLE B—EXPANSION OF DISQUALIFICATION FROM IMMIGRATION BENEFITS ON THE BASIS OF PUBLIC CHARGE

Section 531—Senate recedes to House section 621 with modifications. This section amends INA section 212(a)(4) to expand the public charge ground of inadmissibility. Aliens have been excludable if likely to become public charges since 1882. Self-reliance is one of the most fundamental principles of immigration law. The managers believe that all family-sponsored immigrants, and certain employment-based immigrants, should have affidavits of support executed on their behalf as a condition of admission.

Section 532—House recedes to Senate amendment section 202 with modifications. This section amends INA section 241(a)(5) to expand the public charge ground of deportation. Aliens who access welfare have been deportable as public charges since 1917. However, only a negligible number of aliens who become public charges have been deported in the last decade. The managers believe that aliens who become public charges within 7 years of their admission to the United States should promptly be removed from the country. Just as with the definition of "eligible alien" in section 501, the exception in section 532 for battered children includes children who are victims of sexual molestation.

SUBTITLE C—AFFIDAVITS OF SUPPORT AND ATTRIBUTION OF INCOME

Section 551—House recedes to Senate amendment section 203 with modifications. This section creates a new, legally-binding affidavit of support in order to seek reimbursement from sponsors for the costs of providing public benefits. The managers intend that the affidavit of support be a legally-binding contract between an alien's sponsor, the sponsored alien, and the government. The managers also intend that public hospitals, private hospitals, and community health centers be allowed to seek reimbursement from sponsors for the costs of providing emergency medical services to the extent such services would, in the absence of the deeming requirements of section 552, be reimbursed by means-tested public benefit programs. The managers further intend that the new, legally enforceable, affidavit of support be used in all cases where an affidavit of support is required (including for non-immigrants and aliens granted parole under section 212(d)(5) of the INA), either by statute, regulation, or administrative practice. Exceptions to the definition of "means-tested public benefit" include public health assistance for immunizations and, if the Secretary of Health and Human Services determines that it is necessary to prevent the spread of a serious communicable disease, for testing and treatment of such disease. However, the exception applies in the case of HIV infection to testing only.

The provision is designed to encourage immigrants to be self-reliant in accordance with national immigration policy. The managers intend to establish a process that will authorize visas only for those applicants whose sponsors (both the petitioning sponsor as defined in subsection (g)(1), (g)(2), (g)(3), or (g)(4) and any non-petitioning sponsor as defined in subsection (g)(5)) demonstrate the means to meet the applicable income requirements (as set forth in subsection (g)). It is expected that an applicant whose sponsors fail to demonstrate the means to meet the applicable income requirements will be denied a visa, and that the next applicant in the queue will then be given an opportunity to qualify. The managers further intend that an applicant whose petitioning sponsor or non-petitioning sponsor (or both) is unable to meet the applicable income requirements in the initial interview may be afforded one additional opportunity to meet such requirements. If such applicant has already utilized a non-petitioning sponsor at the initial interview, and such non-petitioning sponsor was unable to meet the applicable income requirements, such applicant may be provided one additional opportunity to demonstrate that the non-petitioning sponsor meets the applicable income requirements, but may not be authorized in the second interview to substitute a new or different non-petitioning sponsor. The managers intend that applicants shall have no more than two opportunities to demonstrate that their sponsor (or sponsors) meets the applicable income requirements.

Section 552—House recedes to Senate amendment section 204 with modifications. This section deems that a sponsor's income is to be counted with a sponsored alien's in determining the alien's eligibility for public benefits. In subsection (c)(4), the managers intend for the Attorney General to enter information regarding the eligibility (including the amount of eligibility) of aliens for public benefits into the SAVE system as a means for all public benefits agencies to access such information for purposes of determining eligibility and seeking reimbursement. In subsection (d)(1), the managers believe that the scope of the exception to deeming in cases of indigence is very narrow, and only applies to situations where a sponsor and the sponsor's spouse cannot or will not provide needed support, and the sponsored alien could not obtain food or shelter without assistance from a public benefits agency. In determining whether a sponsored alien could obtain food or shelter in such a situation, the agency making the determination shall take into account whether the sponsored alien could obtain assistance for food or shelter from a privately-funded organization, and if so, shall refer the alien to such organization in lieu of providing benefits. The agency must notify the Attorney General when exercising this exception.

Under current law, all three programs which "deem" sponsor income exclude a portion of the sponsor's income in their calculations. This legislation rejects this approach. At entry, a sponsor and the sponsored alien are considered to be part of one family unit (living under the same roof), and all of the sponsor's income is considered to be available—just as would be available to the sponsor's spouse or child. The same approach should be used at adjudication for benefits. All of the income of the sponsor and the sponsor's spouse should be deemed to be available to the sponsored alien, as though the sponsored alien is a member of the same family unit (and lives under the same roof) as the sponsor.

Subsection (d) provides that the deeming rules shall not apply to Medicaid assistance used for emergency medical services. Under subsection 552(f), just as in the case of the definition of "eligible alien" in section 501, the exception to deeming rules for battered children includes children who are victims of sexual molestation.

Section 553—House recedes to Senate amendment section 204(e). This section authorizes State and local government to follow the Federal Government in deeming a sponsor's income to a sponsored alien who applies for public benefits. The managers intend to authorize States to enact sponsor-to-alien deeming laws as part of the national immigration policy that aliens be self-reliant. If a State deeming law, enacted pursuant to the authorization contained in this section, should be challenged in court, the managers intend that the court shall apply the standard of review described in section 500(b)(1) of this Act.

Section 554—House recedes to Senate amendment section 206. This section authorizes State and local governments to enact alienage restrictions in State and local cash public assistance programs. The managers intend to authorize States to prohibit or otherwise limit eligibility of aliens for general cash assistance as part of the national immigration policy that aliens be self-reliant, but only to the extent that such limit is not more restrictive than under comparable Federal programs. If a State restriction, enacted pursuant to the authorization contained in this section, should be challenged in court, the managers intend that the court shall apply the standard of review contained in section 500(b)(1) of this Act.

SUBTITLE D—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 561—House recedes to Senate amendment section 207 with modifications. This provision increases the maximum criminal penalties for forging or counterfeiting a Federal seal or facilitating the fraudulent obtaining of public benefits by aliens.

Section 562—Senate recedes to House section 812, with modification. This section amends INA section 412(c)(2) to specify that in the computation of targeted refugee resettlement assistance, each county shall receive the same amount of assistance for each refugee and entrant residing in the county at the beginning of each fiscal year (counting those refugees and entrants who arrived within 60 months prior to that fiscal year).

Section 563—Senate recedes to House section 604 with modifications. This provision allows public hospitals to seek reimbursement for costs incurred from providing emergency medical services to illegal aliens if the immigration status of individuals for whom reimbursement is sought has been verified, but is not intended to create an entitlement for such reimbursement.

Section 564—House recedes to Senate amendment section 211 with modifications. This provision allows States to be reimbursed for emergency ambulance service costs provided to certain illegal aliens who are injured while attempting to enter the U.S., but is not intended to create an entitlement for such reimbursement.

Section 565—House recedes to Senate amendment section 315 with modifications. This section establishes a pilot program to require bonds in addition to sponsorship and deeming requirements for the purposes of overcoming excludability as a public charge under INA section 212(a)(4). The managers believe that where bonds are used to overcome the grounds for exclusion as a public charge, whether in this pilot program or in current INA section 213, the bonds should be required in addition to, not in lieu of, the new sponsorship and deeming requirements created in this Act.

Section 566—The managers agree to require a series of reports by the Attorney General regarding the affidavit of support, attribution of sponsor income, public charge deportation, and non-profit charitable organization exemption provisions of this Act.

SUBTITLE E—HOUSING ASSISTANCE

Section 571—House recedes to Senate amendment section 221. This section provides a short title for the provisions contained in this subtitle.

Section 572—House recedes to Senate amendment section 222 with modifications. This section prorates public housing assistance based upon the number of eligible recipients within a family unit.

Section 573—House section 611 recedes to Senate amendment section 223 with modifications. This provision limits any deferrals of termination decisions to a single 3-month period.

Section 574—House section 612 recedes to Senate amendment sections 224 and 325 with modifications. This provision ensures that aliens are not allowed to receive public housing assistance until their eligibility has been verified. Aliens may not begin receiving such assistance while their applications are pending.

Section 575—House section 613 recedes to section 225 of the Senate amendment. This section prohibits sanctions against entities that make erroneous determinations of eligibility for housing assistance.

Section 576—House section 614 recedes to Senate amendment section 227 with modifications. This provision establishes regulations for carrying out the sections of this subtitle.

Section 577—House section 605 recedes to Senate amendment section 201(d). This provision requires a report describing the manner in which the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development is enforcing section 214 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980, which prevents illegal aliens from receiving public housing assistance.

SUBTITLE F—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 591—House recedes to Senate amendment section 231(a). This section provides that unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this title take effect on the date of enactment.

Section 592—Senate recedes to House section 634. This section clarifies that the provisions of this title do not set forth all requirements of eligibility for public assistance, or determine when such requirements are satisfied, but only relate to the general issue of eligibility or ineligibility on the basis of alienage.

Section 593—The managers agree to include a provision clarifying that Title V does not apply to programs of foreign assistance.

Section 594—House recedes to Senate amendment section 201(a)(3) with modifications to allow either individual or public notice of changes in eligibility for benefits recipients caused by this Act.

Section 595—This section provides that, for purposes of this title, the definitions of "alien," "State," "United States," "national," "naturalization," and "child" are the same definitions as set forth in the INA.

The managers acknowledge that some of the provisions contained in this Title differ from similar provisions enacted this year as part of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-193). To the extent possible, the managers intend to reconcile these differing provisions during the next Congress to avoid confusion in the implementation of these policies.

TITLE VI—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SUBTITLE A—REFUGEES, PAROLE, AND ASYLUM

Section 601—Senate recedes to House section 501. Subsection (a) amends the definition of refugee at section 101(a)(42) to provide that a person who has been forced to abort a pregnancy or to undergo involuntary sterilization, or who has been persecuted for failure or refusal to undergo such a procedure or for other resistance to a coercive population control program shall be deemed to have been persecuted on account of political opinion, and a person who has a well founded fear of being compelled to undergo such a procedure or being subject to such persecution shall be deemed to have a well founded fear of persecution on account of political opinion.

Subsection (b) amends section 207(a) to provide that not more than 1,000 refugees shall be admitted on the basis of persecution under coercive population control policies.

Section 602—House recedes to Senate amendment section 191 with modifications. This section amends INA section 212(d)(5) to provide that the Attorney General's parole authority may be exercised only on a case-by-case basis for urgent humanitarian reasons or significant public benefit. This section also requires that not later than 90 days after the end of the fiscal year, the Attorney General shall report to the Committees on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and the Senate describing the number and categories of aliens paroled into the United States under section 212(d)(5), along with other specified information.

Section 603—House recedes to Senate amendment section 192 with modifications. This section amends INA section 201(c) to provide, beginning in 1999, that aliens paroled into the United States in the second previous fiscal year who do not depart within 365 days and who have not yet become permanent resident aliens (or who, if they did become LPRs, did so under a provision of law other than 201(b) that did not count toward the worldwide level), will be counted towards the worldwide level of family-sponsored immigrants. If an alien is counted towards the worldwide level under this provision and subsequently adjusts to LPR status, the alien shall not be so counted again at the time of adjustment.

Section 604—Senate recedes to House section 511, with modifications. This section amends section 208 of the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide that an alien who is physically present in, or who arrives in, the United States may apply for asylum in accordance with section 208 or, where applicable, section 235(b)(1). However, an alien may not apply for asylum if the Attorney General determines that the alien can be returned to a safe third country pursuant to a bilateral agreement, unless the Attorney General finds that it is in the public interest for the alien to receive asylum in the United States. An applicant for asylum must demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that the application has been filed within 1 year of arriving in the United States (unless the alien can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that extraordinary circumstances caused the delay in filing an application prior to the deadline), and an alien is not eligible to apply for asylum if the alien has previously applied for and been denied asylum; these bars do not apply if the alien demonstrates the existence of changed circumstances which materially affect the applicant's eligibility for asylum. A determination by the Attorney General that an alien is ineligible to apply for asylum is not subject to judicial review.

Subsection (b) adopts the conditions for granting asylum outlined in House section 511(a). Subsection (c) clarifies the status of an alien granted asylum. It also provides that asylum may be terminated if the alien: is no longer a refugee under section 101(a)(42); is ineligible for asylum under subsection (b); may be returned to a safe third country; has voluntarily returned to his country of nationality or last habitual residence with lawful permanent resident or equivalent status; or has acquired a new nationality which confers protection on the alien. An alien whose asylum is terminated is subject to any applicable ground of inadmissibility or deportation.

Subsection (d) provides for the establishment of procedures for considering applications for asylum. The applicant may be required to submit fingerprints and a photograph. The House provisions regarding employment authorization, application fees, legal representation, and notice of the consequences of knowingly filing a frivolous application for asylum are included, as are the House provisions on consideration of asylum applications. If the Attorney General determines that an alien has knowingly made a frivolous application for asylum and the alien has received notice, the alien shall be permanently ineligible for any benefits under the INA. Nothing in subsection (d) shall be construed to create any substantive or procedural right or benefit that is enforceable by any party against the United States.

Subsection (b) makes conforming and clerical amendments. Subsection (c) provides that the amendments made by this section shall take effect on the first day of the first month beginning more than 180 days after the date of enactment.

Section 605—Senate recedes to House section 513. This section authorizes an increase in the number of asylum officers by at least 600 in FY 1997.

Section 606—House recedes to Senate amendment section 196. This section provides for the conditional repeal of the Cuban Adjustment Act upon the establishment of democracy in Cuba.

SUBTITLE B—MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT

Section 621—House recedes to Senate amendment section 185. This section amends INA section 214(j)(1) to double the number of "S" visas (pertaining to alien witness co-operators) that may be issued in a given fiscal year.

Section 622—House recedes to Senate amendment section 310. This section extends the period for waiver of the foreign country residence requirement for foreign medical graduates to June 1, 2002, and amends INA sections 212(e) and 214(k) to place additional conditions and restrictions on waivers requested by a United States Government or State agency. These additional restrictions are imposed, among other things, to ensure that aliens granted such waivers remain employed in positions deemed to be in the public interest.

Section 623—House section 809 recedes to Senate amendment section 175, with modifications. This section amends INA sections 245A(c)(5) and 210(b)(6)(C) to require the Attorney General to disclose information in an application for legalization to a law enforcement entity, upon written request, in connection with a criminal investigation or prosecution, or to a coroner in order to identify a deceased individual.

Section 624—House recedes to Senate amendment section 311. This section amends section 212(a)(5) to provide that in the case of certain professional athletes, a labor certification shall remain valid if the athlete is traded by his original sponsoring employer to another team in the same sport.

Section 625—House recedes to Senate amendment section 214(a), with modifications. This section amends INA section 214 to provide that an alien may not be given or validly remain in nonimmigrant status under INA section 101(a)(15)(F) if the alien is pursuing studies at a public elementary school or publicly-funded adult education program. The section also provides that an alien may not have such status at a public secondary school unless the period of such status does not exceed 12 months and the alien has paid reimbursement equal to the full unsubsidized per capita student cost. This amendment also provides that an alien who obtains an "F-1" visa to pursue studies at a private elementary or secondary school, or privately-funded language program, shall be considered to have violated the conditions of the visa if the alien terminates or abandons such studies and undertakes studies at a public school or publicly-funded adult education or language training program.

Section 626—House recedes to Senate amendment section 328. This section adds a new INA section 294 to permit the Attorney General to expend appropriated funds to pay for the transportation of the remains of any INS officer or Border Patrol agent killed in the line of duty to a place of burial in the United States, Puerto Rico, or U.S. territories or possessions, as well as other related and incidental costs.

SUBTITLE C—PROVISIONS RELATING TO VISA PROCESSING AND CONSULAR EFFICIENCY

Section 631—Senate recedes to House section 807. This section amends INA section 221(c) to provide that an immigrant visa shall be valid for a period of six months, and to provide that the period for validity of a nonimmigrant visa issued to an alien of one nationality who has been granted refugee status and been firmly resettled in another country shall be based on the treatment granted by the country of resettlement to alien refugees resettled in the U.S.

Section 632—House section 803(b) recedes to Senate amendment section 157. This section amends INA section 222 by adding a new subsection (g), providing that an alien who has remained in the U.S. beyond the authorized period of stay may not be readmitted to the United States on that nonimmigrant visa, and may only be readmitted as a nonimmigrant on the basis of a visa issued in a consular office located in the country of the alien's nationality (or, if there is no such office, at a consular office designated by the Secretary of State), or where extraordinary circumstances are found by the Secretary of State.

Section 633—House section 803(a) recedes to Senate amendment section 172. This section amends INA section 202(a)(1) to clarify that the Secretary of State has non-reviewable authority to establish procedures for the processing of immigrant visa applications and the locations where visas will be processed.

Section 634—House recedes to Senate amendment section 301, with modifications. This section amends INA sections 222(c) and (e) to make certain changes in the visa application process.

Section 635—House section 836 recedes to Senate amendment section 302. This section amends INA section 217(f) to extend the authorization for the Visa Waiver Pilot Program (VWPP) through September 30, 1997. This section also repeals current section 217(g) (regarding the probationary program), and adds a new section 217(g) to specify procedures for termination of a country's designation to participate in the VWPP. A country with a disqualification rate of between 2 and 3.5 percent shall be placed on probationary status for a period of not more than 3 years. (The disqualification rate is the percentage that the number of aliens from the country who were found inadmissible, withdrew their applications for admission, or were admitted as nonimmigrants and violated the terms of their admission in a given fiscal year, represents of the total number of nationals of that country who applied for admission as nonimmigrant visitors during the same fiscal year.) A country with a disqualification rate of greater than 3.5 percent shall be terminated from the VWPP at the beginning of the second fiscal year after this determination is made. If a country on probationary status by the end of the designated period fails to develop a machine-readable passport program or has a disqualification rate of greater than 2 percent, the country shall be terminated from the VWPP at the beginning of the first fiscal year after such determination is made. The Attorney General and Secretary of State retain the discretion to terminate any country's designation as a participant in the VWPP, or to deny a waiver to any individual from a country which is a participant.

Section 636—House recedes to Senate amendment section 306, with modifications. This section provides that the Secretary of State may establish a fee for diversity immigrant visas to be paid by each applicant for such a visa. The fee may be set to recover the cost of administering the diversity visa program, including the cost of processing all applications for diversity visas. It is intended that this fee would be paid by all entrants into the "lottery" for eligibility for a diversity visa.

Section 637—Senate recedes to House section 841, with modifications. This section provides that certain aliens selected as diversity immigrants during FY 1995, and whose applications for adjustment of status under INA section 245 were accepted by the Attorney General, shall be selected for diversity immigrant visas in FY 1997 and given priority over other aliens selected for such visas. The number of Polish nationals notified in FY 1995 that they were eligible for a diversity immigrant visa exceeded the number of visas that were available. The purpose of this provision is to place these individuals in the same position they would have been in FY 1995 had sufficient visas been available.

SUBTITLE D—OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 641—House recedes to Senate amendment section 215, with modifications. This section requires the Attorney General, in cooperation with the Secretaries of State and Education, to collect from colleges and universities certain information regarding nonimmigrant foreign students from designated countries who are enrolled at such institutions pursuant to visas under INA section 101(a)(15) (F), (J), or (M). The information shall include the alien's identity, current address, nonimmigrant classification, academic standing, and disciplinary action, if any. Institutions shall participate as a condition of their approval for participation in exchange student visa programs, and the collection of data shall be funded by a fee charged on all visas issued under section 101(a)(15) (F), (J), or (M).

Section 644—Senate recedes to House section 835. This section requires aliens from certain countries specified by the INS in consultation with the Secretary of State to be advised prior to or at the time of entry into the United States of the severe harm caused by female genital mutilation and the potential legal consequences in the United States

Section 647—Senate amendment section 307 recedes to House section 838. This section requires the Attorney General to make available funds up to $5,000 for demonstration projects in support of naturalization ceremonies to be conducted in fiscal years 1997 through 2001.

This section states the sense of Congress that the collection by Canadian Customs officials of a New Brunswick Provincial Sales Tax on goods purchased in the United States by residents of New Brunswick, but not on goods purchased by New Brunswick residents in other Canadian provinces, may violate the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) and that the United States Trade Representative should move without delay in seeking redress under the dispute resolution process in chapter 20 of NAFTA.
