The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER
PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. EWING). Pursuant to clause 5 of rule I the Chair redesignates the time for further proceedings on the two questions postponed earlier today to a time later today.

FEDERAL LAW ENFORCEMENT DEPENDENTS ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1996

Mr. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on the Judiciary be discharged from further consideration of the Senate bill (S. 2101) to provide educational assistance to the dependents of Federal law enforcement officials who are killed or disabled in the performance of their duties, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there any objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, and I shall not object, will the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MCCOLLUM] explain the purpose of the request?

Mr. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, will the gentlewoman yield?

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. I yield to the gentleman from Florida.

Mr. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides educational assistance to spouses and children of officers who have been killed or disabled in the line of duty; that is law enforcement officers.

This legislation is an attempt to give some measure of comfort to Federal law enforcement officers so they can know that if they are killed while in the line of duty they will not have failed in the duty to their family.

This legislation is limited to any child under the age of 27, and dependents can only receive educational benefits for up to 45 months. The process under this bill is simple. A dependent submits an application to the Attorney General and, subject to regulations promulgated by the Attorney General, a dependent is notified whether or not he or she is eligible.

Many States already provide these benefits to law enforcement officers, and this bill extends the same protections to Federal law enforcement officers and their families.

That is the entire essence of it, and I do not think it is controversial in any way.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his explanation and I recognize that this supports our Federal agents who have died in the line of duty, and that this protects their family and gives them additional opportunity for education.

Mr. STUDDS. Mr. Speaker, 4 years ago, on August 21, 1992, Deputy United States Marshal William F. Degan lost his life in the performance of his duty during the violent confrontation at Ruby Ridge, ID, between Federal marshals and white separatist Randy Weaver.

While many intervening tragedies have since captured the public's attentions, Bill is well remembered in his hometown of Quincy, Massachusetts, as a patriot who responded to the call of duty, and a husband and father devoted to the family he left behind.

It is in recognition of his supreme sacrifice that I joined with Senator SPECTER and Congressman Fox in introducing this important bill, which will provide educational assistance to the dependents of Federal law enforcement officials who are killed or disabled in the performance of their duties.

Years ago, the Congress established an educational assistance program for the survivors and dependents of members of the armed forces who are killed or disabled in the line of duty. Surely the brave men and women who put their lives on the line to ensure our domestic tranquility deserve no less.

This legislation will ensure that Bill Degan's sons, William Jr. and Brian, and others in their situation, are able to afford the kind of education their parents would have wanted them to have. It will be a fitting tribute to a man who did so much to make our country a better and safer place in which to live.

Mr. Speaker, thanks are in order to many people who have made it possible for this bill to reach the floor: to the chairman and ranking member of the committee and the subcommittee; to the gentleman from Pennsylvania, Mr. FOX; to Senator SPECTER and his Senate cosponsors; and to the entire Massachusetts delegation for their cosponsorship of this legislation;

To President Clinton, who has indicated his support for the bill and has always shown such concern for the safety and well-being of those whom it will benefit; and

To the men and women of the U.S. marshals service and their colleagues throughout the law enforcement community, who have
