The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. Are there any amendments to title II?

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word to try to make certain that we understand what our business is going to be.

Mr. Chairman, I want to try to enter into a colloquy with the gentleman from New York [Mr. LAZIO], my friend and chairman about our plans for the rest of the evening, and I hope for our plans involving tomorrow's business.

I wonder if the gentleman might enlighten us as to what his plans for the subcommittee are for the rest of the evening.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, if the gentleman would yield, I would be happy to enter into a discussion with my friend, the distinguished ranking member, Mr. KENNEDY.

I will be happy to make the unanimous consent request.

Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that debate on all amendments to the bill, and any amendment thereto, be limited to 10 minutes, equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, except that: the modified amendment No. 7 offered by Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts be considered under the terms of the previous order of the committee, amendment No. 17 offered by Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts be debatable for 1 hour, amendments Nos. 33 and 34 offered by Ms. VELÁZQUEZ of New York may be considered en bloc and debatable for 20 minutes, amendment No. 22 offered by Mr. ROEMER of Indiana be debatable for 20 minutes, and amendment No. 9 by Mr. HAYWORTH of Arizona be debatable for 20 minutes.

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, reserving the right to object, I appreciate the efforts that the gentleman from New York and the staff of the committee have made to try to get this bill under control for tomorrow's business. I think we have an agreement in terms of the committee's work that everyone that has offered or intends to offer an amendment can work within.

I would also like to put on the RECORD the minority's understanding of the floor schedule for testimony. That the House intends to meet at 10 a.m. That the House will take up the housing bill until completion and that the House will vote on the product liability veto override. Then the House will take up the rule on general debate only on the adoption bill and the House may take up the science rule only, and that will be it in terms of the order of business for the day.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, if the gentleman would yield, it is my understanding that the schedule will follow closely, or approximately, what the gentleman has simply set forth.

It looks like those issues will be resolved and I think we will probably only get to the rule vote on the science bill, tomorrow so we are hoping to wrap up. And I also want to thank the gentleman from Massachusetts for working cooperatively to ensure that we have a rational debate process for the remained of this bill before us right now.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, although I am a little suspect about approximatelys and hopefuls, but anyway, I appreciate working with the gentleman from New York and look forward to a shorter day tomorrow.

Mr. Chairman, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. HAYWORTH) having assumed the chair, Mr. HOBSON, Chairman pro tempore of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill, (H.R. 2406), to repeal the United States Housing Act of 1937, deregulate the public housing program and the program for rental housing assistance for low-income families, and increase community control over such programs, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

REPEAL OF GAS TAX

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentlewoman from Texas [Ms. JACKSON-LEE] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, very briefly, we have had almost 10 days of vigorous discussion on one of the striking concerns or outcries of the American public. It is not that the American public is not willing to pay their fair share, it is a question of fairness, and that is, of course, with the increasing cost of gasoline at the gas pump.

Many of us on both sides of the aisle have agreed that we need to assess the gasoline tax and seek its repeal. We also have heard from the President of the United States, who indicated his willingness to consider such repeal because he too believes in fairness. But we have not yet been able to resolve how we should move forward to come together on behalf of the American people.

I must take great issue with one representation by those of the majority that we will repeal and take it out of education. If there is ever a contradiction, that is one. The American people wholeheartedly support the education of their children. They, too, realize that education is the cornerstone of success in the 21st century.

So it is the evening that I have filed legislation to repeal the gasoline tax of 4.3 percent and to allow that offset to come from our defense budget, which is in excess of the budget requested by the Department of Defense. Again, the American people simply want fairness, and that fairness is to address their outcry in a manner that balances the burdens and benefits across this Nation.

I think that we should address it, ensure that we continue to educate our children, and be able to find a responsible offset that allows for a continued move toward a fiscally responsible government and one that responds to the concerns of working America, people who work every single day and simply want a fair shake.

□ 2300

Mr. Speaker, I hope my colleagues will join me in supporting my legislation and acknowledging that it is time now to give America its fair shake and repeal the 4.3-cent gasoline tax.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. [Mr. HAYWORTH]. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. WALKER] is recognized for 5 minutes.
