

Mr. Speaker, I hope that those future Americans will not have to look back in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD and see this speech and say it is too bad they did not recognize what was going on and complaining about the system. Instead, I hope that they never read that because the freedom and progress that we have is taken for granted and will be the same freedom and progress 100 years from now and 20 years from now that it was when our forefathers, Benjamin Franklin, that great technologist, Thomas Jefferson, these great champions of human liberties, not just for Americans but for all people, when they founded our country 225 years ago.
