AMENDMENTS

Under clause 6 of rule XXIII, proposed amendments were submitted as follows:

H.R. .

(Labor, HHS, and Education Appropriations, 1997)

OFFERED BY: MR. ISTOOK

AMENDMENT No. 1: At the end of the bill, insert after the last section (preceding the short title) the following new section:

SEC. . None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be made available to any entity under title X of the Public Health Service Act, when it is made known to the Federal official having authority to obligate or expend such funds that-

(1) any portion of such funds is knowingly being used by such entity to provide services after March 31, 1997, to a minor, other than a minor who-

(A) is emancipated under applicable State law:

(B) has the written consent of a custodial parent or legal guardian to receive such serv

(C) has an order of a court of competent jurisdiction to receive such services, based

(i) the court's assumption of custody over the minor; or

(ii) actions of a custodial parent or legal guardian that present a continuing threat to the health and safety of the minor and preclude the obtaining of consent under subparagraph (B); and

(2) The State in which such services are provided has not, after the date of the enactment of this section, enacted a statute that excludes the minor seeking a title X service from the parental consent requirements as to that particular service.

H.R.

OFFERED BY MR. CAMPBELL OF CALIFORNIA

(Legislative Branch, Appropriations, 1997)

AMENDMENT No. Before the short title at the end of the bill, add the following new sec-

. (a) In addition to any other estimates it may prepare of any proposed change in Federal revenue law, a fiscal estimate shall be prepared by the Joint committee on Taxation of each such proposed change on the basis of assumptions that estimate the probable behavioral responses of personal and business taxpayers and other relevant entities to that proposed change and the dynamic macroeconomic feedback effects of that proposed change, and it shall include a statement identifying those assumptions. The preceding sentence shall apply only to a proposed change that the Joint committee on Taxation determines, pursuant to a static fiscal estimate, has a fiscal impact in excess of $100,000,000 in any fiscal year.

- (b) In addition to any other estimates it may prepare of any proposed change in Federal revenue or spending law, a fiscal estimate shall be prepared by the Congressional Budget Office of each such proposed change on the basis of assumptions that estimate the probable behavioral responses of personal and business taxpayers and other relevant entities to that proposed change and the dynamic macroeconomic feedback effects of that proposed change, and it shall include a statement identifying those assumptions. The preceding sentence shall apply only to a proposed change that the Congressional Budget Office determines, pursuant to a static fiscal estimate, has a fiscal impact in excess of $100,000,000 in any fiscal year.
- (c) Any report to Congress or the public made by the Joint Committee on Taxation or the Congressional Budget Office that contains an estimate made under this concurrent resolution of the effect that any legislation will have on revenues or spending shall rely upon Congressional Budget Office data and shall be accompanied by a written statement fully disclosing the economic, technical, and behavioral assumptions that were made in producing that estimate.
- (d) In performing the tasks specified in subsections (a) and (b), the Joint Committee on Taxation and the Congressional Budget Office may, subject to the availability of appropriations, enter into contracts with universities or other private or public organizations to perform such estimations or to develop protocols and model for making such estimates.
