

them would get up and defend the campaign finance reform bill that they are going to present before this House today. It is a disgrace.

We need to change our campaign finance system and we cannot get a bill to do it. They want to increase influence. Not one of their Members will come down and defend their bill. America is watching today, and Republicans will pay the price in November.

PERMISSION FOR SUNDRY COMMITTEES AND THEIR SUBCOMMITTEES TO SIT TODAY DURING THE 5-MINUTE RULE

Mr. HEFLEY. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the following committees and their subcommittees be permitted to sit today while the House is meeting in the Committee of the Whole under the 5-minute rule:

Committee on Agriculture; Committee on Banking and Financial Services; Committee on Commerce; Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunities; Committee on Government Reform and Oversight; Committee on International Relations; Committee on the Judiciary; Committee on Resources; Committee on Small Business; and Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure.

Madam Speaker, it is my understanding that the minority has been consulted and that there is no objection to these requests.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. MYRICK). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Colorado? There was no objection.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO THE CHAPLAIN OF THE HOUSE

(Mr. MYERS of Indiana asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MYERS of Indiana. Madam Speaker, in the wee hours of this morning as we were finding a way to adjourn and come back this morning, one in our midst passed over the big 65. He joined the Medicare-eligible society that several of us have already joined.

If it were possible to sing happy birthday under the rules of the House we would do that this morning, but since we can't, we do wish it to our Chaplain, Jim Ford, who is now eligible to go on Medicare. Of course he looks that old, but it is kind of shocking to realize that he really is, because we have known Jim for a good many years now since he finally graduated from West Point and came down to join us.

But, Jim, we wish you many more happy ones. Your birthday almost sneaked by us here, but after we woke up this morning we realized that you are passing the big one, we wanted to take this opportunity.

So, happy birthday, Jim.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. MYERS of Indiana. I yield to the gentlewoman from Colorado.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman so much for pointing that out. It is such fun to see people get older, is it not, but especially our Chaplain, and he wears it very well.

I think the gentleman should sing. Is it truly without the rules?

Mr. MYERS of Indiana. Reclaiming my time, it is against the rules of the House, yes.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, how sad.

Mr. MYERS of Indiana. Most of us cannot sing. The rules really protect us.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. The gentleman is the only one who could.

Mr. MYERS of Indiana. Thank goodness we have that rule, otherwise we would be trying to do it all the time.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. MYERS of Indiana. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on the bill (H.R. 3816) making appropriations for energy and water development for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1997, and for other purposes, and that I may be allowed to include tabular and extraneous materials.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Indiana?

There was no objection.

ENERGY AND WATER DEVELOPMENT APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 1997

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. MYRICK). Pursuant to House Resolution 483 and rule XXIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill, H.R. 3816.

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 3816) making appropriations for energy and water development for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1997, and for other purposes, with Mr. OXLEY in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The CHAIRMAN. When the Committee of the Whole rose on Wednesday, July 24, 1996, amendment No. 14 offered by the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. HILLEARY] had been disposed of.

SEQUENTIAL VOTES POSTPONED IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

ment by Mr. SCHAEFER of Colorado; and amendments No. 15 and 16 by Mr. MARKEY of Massachusetts.

The Chair will reduce to 5 minutes the time for any electronic vote after the first vote in this series.

AMENDMENT OFFERED BY MR. OBEY

The Clerk will redesignate the amendment.

Messrs. SCHUMER, RICHARDSON, and JEFFERSON changed their vote from "no" to "aye."

So the amendments en bloc were rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. VELÁZQUEZ. Mr. Chairman, during rollcall votes 357, 358, and 359, I was unavoidably detained. If I were present, I would have voted "yes" on all three amendments.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. FLAKE. Mr. Chairman, this morning I returned to J.F. Kennedy Airport, which is in my district, to be with the families of those who were downed in Flight 800. Thus, I missed the following votes: rollcall No. 357, I would have voted "yes"; rollcall No. 358, I would have voted "no"; rollcall No. 359, I would have voted "yes"; on final passage, I would have voted "yes"; and on the previous question, I would have voted "yes."

(Mr. JACOBS asked and was given permission to speak out of order.)

HALL OF FAME INDUCTION

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. Chairman, the time is August 4, 2 p.m. Eastern. The channel is ESPN. The occasion is sublime.

Our colleague, the gentleman from Kentucky [Mr. BUNNING] then and there will be inducted into baseball's Hall of Fame.

I know that my colleagues, like my wife and I, will be watching, and our VCR's will be watching as well.

And, Mr. Chairman, I want to join the gentleman who is about to speak in heaping the well-deserved encomiums on my dear friend forever in the past and forever in the future, the honorable, the very honorable gentleman from Indiana [Mr. MYERS].

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to strike the last word.

The CHAIRMAN. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Chairman, in 1966 the gentleman from Covington, IN, and the gentleman from Jasper, AL, were elected to Congress. Little did they know that over the next 30 years they would share so much responsibility and be so much a symbol to all of us of the best of the House of Representatives when it works together on a bipartisan basis. I say to my colleagues, "For 20 years it has been BEVILL and MYERS or MYERS and BEVILL, and it really didn't matter because you needed the two of them if you wanted to do anything, and for many of us, it meant we have been able to do a great deal. In fact they have done a great deal for the country."

Many of us have taken time during the last few hours of debate to express our appreciation, but I thought it might be appropriate when all the Members were gathered here in the Chamber if we give these two outstanding symbols of public service the standing ovation their careers warrant.

The CHAIRMAN. Are there other amendments permitted by the previous order of the House of Wednesday, July 24, 1996.

If not, pursuant to House Resolution 483, the Committee rises.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. UPTON) having assumed the chair, Mr. OXLEY, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 3816), making appropriations for energy and water development for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1997, and for other purposes, pursuant to House Resolution 483, he reported the bill back to the House with sundry amendments adopted by the Committee of the Whole.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the rule, the previous question is ordered.

Is a separate vote demanded on any amendment? If not, the Chair will put them en gros.

The amendments were agreed to.

The CHAIRMAN. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the passage of the bill.

Pursuant to clause 7 of rule XV, the yeas and nays are ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 391, nays 23, not voting 19, as follows:
