Mr. VOLKMER changed his vote from "yea" to "nay."

So the Journal was approved.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. EHLERS. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 366, I missed the vote because I was detained in a doctor's office. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes."

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. KINGSTON). Will the gentlewoman from New York [Mrs. MALONEY] come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mrs. MALONEY led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The message from the Senate by Mr. Lundregan, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed without amendment a bill of the House of the following title:

H.R. 1051. An act to provide for the extension of certain hydroelectric projects located in the State of West Virginia.

The message also announced that the Senate had passed with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested, bills of the House of the following titles:

H.R. 782. An act to amend title 18 of the United States Code to allow members of employee associations to represent their views before the United States Government;

H.R. 1642. An act to extend nondiscriminatory treatment (most-favored-nation treatment) to the products of Cambodia, and for other purposes;

H.R. 2980. An act to amend title 18, United States Code, with respect to stalking;

H.R. 3166. An act to amend title 18, United States Code, with respect to the crime of false statement in a Government matter;

H.R. 3448. An act to provide tax relief for small businesses, to protect jobs, to create opportunities, to increase the take home pay of workers, to amend the Portal-to-Portal Act of 1947 relating to the payment of wages to employees who use employer owned vehicles, and to amend the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to increase the minimum wage rate and to prevent job loss by providing flexibility to employers in complying with minimum wage and overtime requirements under that Act; and

H.R. 3603. An act making appropriations for Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1997, and for other purposes.

The message also announced that the Senate insists upon its amendments to the bill (H.R. 3603) "An act making appropriations for Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1997, and for other purposes," requests a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon, and appoints Mr. COCHRAN, Mr. SPECTER, Mr. BOND, Mr. GORTON, Mr. MCCONNELL, Mr. BURNS, Mr. HATFIELD, Mr. BUMPERS, Mr. HARKIN, Mr. KERREY, Mr. JOHNSTON, Mr. KOHL, and Mr. BYRD to be the conferees on the part of the Senate.

The message also announced that the Senate insists upon its amendments to the bill (H.R. 3448) "An act to provide tax relief for small businesses, to protect jobs, to create opportunities, to increase the take home pay of workers, to amend the Portal-to-Portal Act of 1947 relating to the payment of wages to employees who use employer owned vehicles, and to amend the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to increase the minimum wage rate and to prevent job loss by providing flexibility to employers in complying with minimum wage and overtime requirements under that Act," requests a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon, and appoints from the Committee on Labor and Human Resources: Mrs. KASSEBAUM, Mr. JEFFORDS, and Mr. KENNEDY; and from the Committee on Finance: Mr. ROTH, Mr. CHAFEE, Mr. GRASSLEY, Mr. HATCH, Mr. SIMPSON, Mr. PRESSLER, Mr. MOYNIHAN, Mr. BAUCUS, Mr. BRADLEY, Mr. PRYOR, and Mr. ROCKEFELLER to be the conferees on the part of the Senate.

The message also announced that the Senate insists upon its amendment to the bill (H.R. 3103) "An act to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to improve portability and continuity of health insurance coverage in the group and individual markets, to combat waste, fraud, and abuse in health insurance and health care delivery, to promote the use of medical savings accounts, to improve access to long-term care services and coverage, to simplify the administration of health insurance, and for other purposes," disagreed to by the House, and agrees to the conference asked by the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon, and appoints Mr. ROTH, Mrs. KASSEBAUM, Mr. LOTT, Mr. KENNEDY, and Mr. MOYNIHAN to be the conferees on the part of the Senate.

The message also announced that the Senate has passed bills of the following titles in which the concurrence of the House is requested:

S. 1577. An act to authorize appropriations for the National Historical Publications and Records Commission for fiscal years 1998, 1999, 2000, and 2001;

S. 1784. An act to amend the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, and for other purposes.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain five 1-minutes on each side.

EVIDENCE OF CASTRO'S ROLE IN DRUG TRAFFICKING

(Mr. DIAZ-BALART asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. DIAZ-BALART. Mr. Speaker, yesterday's Miami Herald revealed vast new evidence of Cuban dictator Castro's personal involvement in cocaine trafficking into the United States. Drug dealers busted with thousands of pounds of cocaine from Cuba not only say the cocaine was brought into the United States with Castro's coordination, there are photos of Castro with the traffickers and video of Castro-assisted drug operations.

Mr. Speaker, our DEA and Customs people on the front line are doing an admirable job, but until when is the Clinton administration going to cover up the fact that Castro is today a major cocaine trafficker?

Where are the indictments against Castro's henchmen for trafficking that the U.S. Attorney in south Florida has had ready for issuance for 3 years? I know this administration would like the drug problem to just go away, but the cover-up on Castro's role in drug trafficking will not hold any longer.

President Clinton must face up to this issue of grave consequences to the American people.

COMMISSION NEEDED ON CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM

(Mrs. MALONEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, we have another session of Congress and another failed effort at campaign finance reform.

The more things change, the more they stay the same. We could shrug our shoulders and give up or we could put our shoulders to the wheel and work on the only viable option left for this Congress, a comprehensive commission on campaign finance reform.

I have introduced a bipartisan bill to do just that. It is modeled after Congressman ARMEY'S Military Base Closing Commission. The Commission would consider all relevant aspects of campaign finance reform and present a comprehensive bill for an up-or-down vote on the floor.

President Clinton, Speaker GINGRICH and Senator Dole all have publicly endorsed the concept. Let us take advantage of this rare consensus. Mr. Speaker, it is either an independent commission or more of the same.

INVESTIGATE THE ROLE OF CUBA IN DRUG SMUGGLING

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, it comes as no surprise to those of us from south Florida that, as reported by the Miami Herald yesterday, the DEA is investigating a connection between Cuban tyrant Castro and the shipment of over 5,000 pounds of cocaine which was confiscated in Miami early January.

The Herald reported that United States drug enforcement agencies suspect the drugs were offloaded inside Cuban territory from a Colombian freighter and the agency is investigating a photo which documents a meeting between Castro and one of the drug smugglers arrested.

But will the mounting documentation on this and other cases result in an indictment of Castro?

As long as the administration refuses to confront, for political reasons, the role that the Cuban Communist regime plays in drug smuggling, our Nation will never win the war on drugs and stop the devastating effects that narcotics have on our children and society.

Unfortunately, the administration continues to drag its feet because the leadership at the top is not there and it ignores the facts in order to avoid a confrontation with Castro.

Once again, President Clinton fails the drug test.

It is time for the rhetoric to stop and action to be taken.

The finger points to Fidel Castro. Will President Clinton investigate?

ILL-ADVISED CHANGES IN LABOR LAW

(Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I am here from the Government and I am going to help you. I am a Republican and I am here to help the working people of America.

Both these statements are kind of hard to believe. We have a bill today on the calendar that will change 60 years of 40-hour week laws. The Republican majority this year alone opposed the minimum wage increase, cut occupational health and safety funding for safe workplaces, cut funding for fair labor standards enforcement, and now today they want to lower the wages by eliminating overtime wages.

This Congress is not the friend of the working people; they want to eliminate the working people.

AMERICAN PEOPLE NEED TO KNOW TRUTH ABOUT FILEGATE

(Mr. BALLENGER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BALLENGER. Mr. Speaker, one of the most interesting questions surrounding the Filegate matter was "Who hired Craig Livingstone?" In testimony before the House Government Reform and Oversight Committee, Bernard Nussbaum said he did not know who hired Mr. Livingstone.

That was the story last month, on June 26.

Yesterday, a very different picture emerged. Chairman Bill Clinger has now reported that based on his committee's investigation, Bernie Nussbaum was indeed very knowledgeable about Mr. Livingstone's employment at the White House.

The FBI has supplied evidence that completely contradicts his testimony.

Mr. Speaker, I think the American people deserve to hear the truth about Filegate. Instead of all the excuses and coverups; instead of all this bobbing and weaving; would it not be easier for the White House to come clean?

Think about it, Mr. Speaker, if they are truly innocent of any wrong doing, why do they not just tell the truth?

WORKING FAMILIES FLEXIBILITY ACT

(Mrs. SCHROEDER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, America's working families are under tremendous stress. The average working family feels like a hamster in a wheel, where they run faster and faster every year and their tongues are hanging out and they cannot make ends meet. And so the Republicans who were against flex time, were against family medical leave, were against everything else, have come up with this new warm fuzzy. It sounds wonderful.

They are talking about the Working Families Flexibility Act. Well, it is so flexible that a working woman who works 47.5 hours a week at $5 an hour takes a 22-percent pay cut. This is not what we need. It is wrong to try and trick America's families, who are under such stress, that you are trying to be so sympathetic toward them, when all you are really doing is giving their employers even more money and even more authority over the time and the hours that they work. This is wrong. It should be defeated.

Mr. Speaker, I hope everybody listens to it, and I hope we stop putting the kind of nice warm fuzzy names out over something that is really going to harm America's families. They are too precious to do that.

WELFARE REFORM LEGISLATION

(Mr. MILLER of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask President Clinton a simple question. Will you sign the welfare reform legislation? Everyone in this Chamber wants to save our children. Every one in America agrees the current welfare system has failed our children. We have worked on a bipartisan basis in both Chambers to deliver reforms that free the most vulnerable children in America from a life of dependency on a faceless, uncaring bureaucracy.

We are one step away. All we need is President Clinton's signature. Here's what he must decide. Is it fair to leave our most vulnerable children trapped in unsafe schools and unsafe homes? Is it fair to leave kids in a system where the only successful entrepreneurs in the neighborhoods are drug dealers?

President Clinton must decide who is more capable of delivering true compassion to these kids. Can a Washington bureaucracy that is saddled with outdated rules and regulations created to appease some special interest group really deliver compassion? I believe neighbors helping neighbors can dramatically change the lives of individual Americans. I hope the President makes the right decision for America's kids.

MINIMUM WAGE AND WELFARE

(Mr. MILLER of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, apparently the Republicans have gotten the message. America's families are working harder than ever, longer than ever, and earning less than at any time in the last 20 years. The reason for that is simply that wages have not kept up.

But what we now see is the Republicans fighting an effort to bring a minimum wage to a livable wage. We see it is Republicans now allowing employers to take away people's overtime, overtime that has become, unfortunately, more and more important to maintaining family wages in this country.

So, what we have is, we have a dual attack on working families, and now we see also that they are going to bring us a welfare bill that will plunge a million more children into poverty that are not in poverty today. Half of those children are in working families, but because their families cannot earn a better minimum wage, because they will not be allowed to earn more overtime, those families are now going to be put into poverty because they are
