

Members of the United States Senate, SAM NUNN, on his retirement.

Few members have worked so doggedly to protect the defense and security of our country as Senator NUNN. When he came to the Senate in 1972, Sam brought a commitment to make this Nation more secure by strengthening America's defenses, by reducing the threat of nuclear war, by eliminating wasteful Pentagon spending and by fostering pride in America.

While his accomplishments are numerous, I view his leadership in the effort to support the dismantling of nuclear weapons in the former Soviet Union as one of his most important and far reaching contributions. Without exaggeration, this initiative significantly reduced the risk of accidental nuclear war. For this alone, all Americans owe him a debt of gratitude.

Through his dedication to our men and women in uniform, Senator NUNN proved that there is more than one way to defend your country. And by securing the enactment of National Service legislation, which offers generous education benefits in exchange for public service, Senator NUNN is helping to instill in our young people the importance of public service and as well as a respect for American values.

Mr. President, I have tremendous respect for Senator NUNN's work on behalf of the people of Georgia and the United States. Though we have not always shared the same view on defense policy, I have always admired his careful analysis, deliberation and evaluation.

His 24 years of public service in the Senate will undoubtedly leave a lasting imprint on the national security and defense policy of our Nation. I know that I join with all of his Senate colleagues in saying that Senator NUNN's presence will be sorely missed. I extend my best wishes as SAM leaves the Senate and begins the next phase of his career.

TRIBUTE TO SENATOR BILL COHEN

Mr. President, I rise today to honor a distinguished Member of this body, Senator BILL COHEN, who will be leaving the Senate at the end of the 104th Congress.

Mr. President, the Senate is losing one of its most respected and dedicated members. BILL COHEN is the kind of person that Americans want, and America needs, in Government. He is someone with unquestioned integrity, who has always done what he believes to be right, even if his own party disagrees with him.

BILL COHEN first came to national attention at one of our Nation's darkest hours, during the Watergate scandal. As a member of the House Judiciary Committee, he was one of the first Republicans to break ranks with President Nixon, and he led a group of moderate Members who supported a resolution of impeachment. It was the right thing to do. And it was typical of the kind of independent thinking that has marked BILL COHEN's career ever since.

From his days on the Watergate Committee, BILL COHEN has worked hard to promote ethics in Government, and he has made an enormous contribution in this area. He has helped strengthen the Office of Government Ethics, and he worked to enact legislation that substantially increased reporting requirements for lobbyists. Senator COHEN also joined me in the successful effort to ban most gifts to Members of Congress.

Mr. President, BILL COHEN is one of the most thoughtful Members of this body, someone who thoroughly studies an issue before announcing a position. Consequently, when BILL COHEN comes to this floor, people listen. They admire his judgment, his fairness, his integrity, and so do I. I have not agreed with BILL COHEN on every issue, but I have always respected his scholarship, his leadership, his statesmanship.

It has been a privilege to serve with BILL COHEN in the Senate, and it is unfortunate that people of his stature have decided to leave this body. But I want to wish BILL all the best as he leaves this body for new challenges. He has served his country with distinction, we will all miss him very much.

TRIBUTE FOR SENATOR PAUL SIMON

Mr. LAUTENBERG. Mr. President, I rise to pay tribute to my colleague and friend, PAUL SIMON. When I think of PAUL's extraordinary career in the Senate, I'm reminded of a remark by Toni Morrison, "As you enter positions of trust and power, dream a little before you think." Although PAUL's intellectual abilities are well known, he even holds 39 honorary degrees, he is also a great dreamer. For he has dreamed of a country where no child has to live in poverty, where no young person is denied an education because of financial reasons and where no senior citizen is bankrupted by a medical emergency.

And PAUL has tirelessly fought to make those dreams reality. It is not surprising that in 1983, during his 10 years in the House, Time magazine noted that SIMON passed more legislation that year than other Members of the House of Representatives.

In the Senate, PAUL has been particularly concerned with affording every American the opportunity of an affordable education. Among his accomplishments in this area, he recently enacted major education and job training legislation which includes the National Literacy Act, the School-to-Work Opportunities Act and the Job Training Partnership Act Amendments. He was also the leading champion of the new direct college loan program, enacted in 1991 as a pilot program and expanded in 1993 as a replacement for the guaranteed student loan program.

Mr. President, PAUL and I have personally fought many battles together. And although I could speak about his support on any number of issues, I want to especially recall his constant and consistent efforts on the issue of gun control. I knew that I could always count on Senator SIMON's support in the continuing struggle to take guns off our streets.

When I think of PAUL's retirement from the Senate, I remember the words of Thomas Jefferson. When Jefferson presented his credentials as U.S. Minister to France, the French Premier remarked, "I see that you have come to replace Benjamin Franklin. Jefferson corrected him; saying, "No one can replace Dr. Franklin, I am only succeeding him."

In much the same way, Paul SIMON is also irreplaceable. As he begins the next phase of his career, I wish my friend continued success and best wishes.

TRIBUTE FOR SENATOR DAVID PRYOR

Mr. President, I rise to offer my best wishes to Senator PRYOR on his retirement from the Senate. All of his colleagues will miss DAVID's candor and commitment, but his presence in Washington will be especially missed by the people of Arkansas and by our Nation's senior citizens.

Senator PRYOR's motto has always been "Arkansas Comes First." And as he's noted, it's more than a slogan—it's a way of life. Throughout his career, he's been a fighter for Arkansas' interests and for her people. As a member of the Agricultural Committee, DAVID's leadership led to the development of innovative programs and legislation to aid Arkansas' farmers and to protect her resources.

Senator PRYOR is also considered one of Washington's leading advocates for older Americans. Starting in 1989, he served for 6 years as chairman of the Senate Special Committee on Aging. He is nationally recognized for his work to help save the Social Security system, to reform the nursing home industry and to lower the price of prescription drugs. He also endeavored to ensure that Government institutions preserve the essential dignity of our country's elderly.

Mr. President, as a member of the Finance Committee, Senator PRYOR also wrote the Taxpayer Bill of Rights, the first piece of legislation in over 40 years which guaranteed certain rights to individuals when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service.

If I had to sum up DAVID PRYOR's Senate career, including the 6 years he held the number three leadership post, in a single word, that word would be service. And that reminds me of a remark by the great humanitarian, Albert Schweitzer. He noted, "The only ones among you who will be truly happy are those who have sought out, and found how to serve." If that's true, then DAVID PRYOR is definitely the happiest of men.

As he leaves the Senate, I wish my colleague well as he begins the next stage of his career, and his life.
