

Mr. President, the Monmouth Hawks represent one of New Jersey's fine institutions of higher learning. Monmouth University's appearance in the NCAA tournament this year is its first ever, and an accomplishment of which the college is deservedly proud. The Hawks, led by coach Wayne Szoke, have amassed an impressive 20-9 record this year with their well-run motion offense, long-range shooting, and tenacious defense. Back in November, nobody picked them to make it to the NCAA tournament, but they are a team on the rise. Their next opponent is sure to find that out. I am pleased that Monmouth University has this opportunity to get some well-deserved national recognition and wish the Hawks the best of luck in their game tonight.

The Princeton Tigers represent one of the finest universities in the world and are not new to the NCAA tournament. However, this appearance is a special one for the Tigers as it represents the last for their great coach, Pete Carril. Coach Carril has decided to retire after 29 magnificent years at Princeton and there is no doubt that Princeton and all of college basketball will sorely miss him. On behalf of his many fans in New Jersey, I wish him the best of luck in his future, and particularly in Princeton's game tonight.●
