

(1970), it is peculiarly the right of States to establish the qualifications of voters in state elections. In the absence of a constitutional violation such as an outright denial of the right to vote, the States should have control over voter registration. This sort of unfunded mandate is simply not justified, particularly since even though this law unquestionably interferes with the States' internal affairs, it has not appreciably increased turnout at the polls.

The Tenth Amendment Enforcement Act helps turn the tide in favor of State prerogatives. Particularly noteworthy is the proposal's focus upon agency rulemaking. This is important in two respects. First, many of the most intrusive instances of federal preemption come not by virtue of congressionally-enacted legislation, but through extensive regulations promulgated by administrative agencies and expanding upon the congressional authorization.

Second, statutes seeking to limit subsequent congressional enactments are of limited efficacy, since each subsequent Congress is not bound by the acts of its predecessors. However, focusing upon the regulatory process does not present this problem. My only suggestion would be to include a review or sunset provision requiring every agency to ensure that all of its current rules comply with this new requirement by some date certain, or risk having them invalidated. This would ensure that agencies review the numerous existing federal regulations currently impinging upon Tenth Amendment values—which is, after all, what led to this proposal.

I appreciate your willingness to carry this proposal forward, and encourage you to continue your efforts to restore a proper balance in our federal system.

Sincerely,

GALE A. NORTON,
Colorado Attorney General.

By Mr. WELLSTONE (for himself and Mr. WYDEN):

S. 1630. A bill to prevent discrimination against victims of abuse in all lines of insurance; to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources.

THE VICTIMS OF ABUSE INSURANCE PROTECTION ACT

• Mr. WELLSTONE. Mr. President, I am very pleased to be joined by Senator RON WYDEN today in introducing the Victims of Abuse Insurance Protection Act, legislation that will outlaw discrimination by insurance companies against the victims of domestic violence in all lines of insurance.

With this legislation, we are trying to correct an abhorrent practice by many insurance companies—the denial of coverage to battered women. It is plain, old fashioned discrimination. It is profoundly unjust and wrong. And, it is the worst of blaming the victim. Denying women access to the insurance they require to foster their mobility out of an abusive situation must be stopped.

There are many stories of women who have been physically abused and have sought proper medical care only to be turned away by insurance companies who said they were too high risk to insure.

In Minnesota, three insurance companies denied an entire women's shelter insurance because, "as a battered women's shelter, we were high risk."

The Women's Shelter in Rochester, MN, was told that it was considered uninsurable because its employees are almost all battered women.

Another shelter in rural Minnesota purchased a car so that women and children in danger who were trying to leave an abusive situation could use this anonymous vehicle and thus the abuser could not track their automobile to find them. The shelter could not find a company to provide them with automobile insurance once the companies knew of the risks surrounding battered women.

A woman in Iowa named Sandra was denied life insurance after the company found out that she had been beaten up twice. In one incident, she had been so badly beaten by an ex-boyfriend that her cheekbones were splintered, and one of her eyes had to be put back in its socket. Her mother, Mary, was the one who originally applied for the life insurance policy, explaining

I didn't ask for a lot of coverage. I just wanted to apply for thousand dollar coverage, just enough that if something happened, God forbid, that we could at least bury her.

Mary was angry about the denial, so she wrote to State officials and the Iowa Insurance Commissioners Office tried to intervene on their behalf. In four separate letters, the insurance company officials stated they denied the coverage because of a history of assaults. In one letter they defended their decision by citing numerous documents which showed that people involved in domestic violence incidents are at a higher risk of death and injury than others, and, therefore, not a good risk.

There are so many stories about victims of domestic abuse being denied fire insurance, homeowners insurance, life insurance, and health insurance—denied because they were victims of a crime. Domestic violence is the leading cause of injury to women, more common than auto accidents, muggings, and rapes by a stranger combined. It is the No. 1 reason that women go to emergency rooms.

This bill goes a long way toward treating domestic violence as the crime that it is—not a voluntary risky behavior that can be easily changed and not as a preexisting condition. Insurance company policies that deny coverage to victims only serve to perpetuate the myth that victims are responsible for their abuse.

In order to address the practice of insurers using domestic violence as a basis for determining whom to cover and how much to charge with respect to health, life, disability, homeowners and auto insurance, this legislation prohibits insurance companies from discriminating against victims in any of the following ways: Denying or terminating insurance; limiting coverage or denying claims; charging higher premiums; or terminating health coverage for victims of abuse in situations where coverage was originally issued in the abuser's name, and acts of the abuser would cause the victim to lose coverage.

This legislation also keeps victims' information confidential by prohibiting insurers from improperly using, disclosing, or transferring abuse-related information for any purpose unrelated to the direct provision of health care services.

Mr. President, insurance companies should not be allowed to discriminate against anyone for being a victim of domestic violence. We may never know the full extent of the problem, but it is grossly unfair practice and should be prohibited.

I ask unanimous consent that the full text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1630

(2) The term "abuse-related medical condition" means a medical condition which arises in whole or in part out of an action or pattern of abuse.

(3) The term "abuse status" means the fact or perception that a person is, has been, or may be a subject of abuse, irrespective of whether the person has sustained abuse-related medical conditions or has incurred abuse-related claims.

(4) The term "health benefit plan" means any public or private entity or program that provides for payments for health care, including—

(B) any other health insurance arrangement, including any arrangement consisting of a hospital or medical expense incurred policy or certificate, hospital or medical service plan contract, or health maintenance organization subscriber contract;

(C) workers' compensation or similar insurance to the extent that it relates to workers' compensation medical benefits (as defined by the Federal Trade Commission); and

(D) automobile medical insurance to the extent that it relates to medical benefits (as defined by the Federal Trade Commission).

(5) The term "health carrier" means a person that contracts or offers to contract on a risk-assuming basis to provide, deliver, arrange for, pay for or reimburse any of the cost of health care services unless the person assuming the risk is accepting the risk from a duly licensed health carrier.

SEC. 3. DISCRIMINATORY ACTS PROHIBITED.

(a) IN GENERAL.—No insurer or health carrier may, directly or indirectly, engage in any of the following acts or practices on the basis that the applicant or insured, or any person employed by the applicant or insured or with whom the applicant or insured is known to have a relationship or association, is, has been, or may be the subject of abuse:

(1) Denying, refusing to issue, renew or re-issue, or canceling or otherwise terminating an insurance policy or health benefit plan.

(2) Restricting, excluding, or limiting insurance or health benefit plan coverage for losses as a result of abuse or denying a claim incurred by an insured as a result of abuse, except as otherwise permitted or required by State laws relating to life insurance beneficiaries.

(3) Adding a premium differential to any insurance policy or health benefit plan.

(4) Terminating health coverage for a subject of abuse because coverage was originally issued in the name of the abuser and the abuser has divorced, separated from, or lost custody of the subject of abuse or the abuser's coverage has terminated voluntarily or involuntarily and the subject of abuse does not qualify for extension of coverage under part 6 of subtitle B of title I or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1161 et seq.) or 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Nothing in this paragraph prohibits the insurer from requiring the subject of abuse to pay the full premium for the subject's coverage under the health plan. The insurer may terminate group coverage after the continuation coverage required by this paragraph has been in force for 18 months if it offers conversion to an equivalent individual plan. The continuation of health coverage required by this paragraph shall be satisfied by any extension of coverage under part 6 of subtitle B of title I or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1161 et seq.) or 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 provided to a subject of abuse and is not intended to be in addition to any extension of coverage provided under part 6 of subtitle B of title I or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1161 et seq.) or 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(b) USE OF INFORMATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—No insurer may use, disclose, or transfer information relating to an applicant's or insured's abuse status or abuse-related medical condition or the applicant's or insured's status as a family member, employer or associate, person in a relationship with a subject of abuse for any purpose unrelated to the direct provision of health care services unless such use, disclosure, or transfer is required by an order of an entity with authority to regulate insurance or an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or by abuse reporting laws. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as limiting or precluding a subject of abuse from obtaining the subject's own medical records from an insurer.

(2) AUTHORITY OF SUBJECT OF ABUSE.—A subject of abuse, at the absolute discretion of the subject of abuse, may provide evidence of abuse to an insurer for the limited purpose of facilitating treatment of an abuse-related condition or demonstrating that a condition is abuse-related. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as authorizing an insurer or health carrier to disregard such provided evidence.

SEC. 4. REASONS FOR ADVERSE ACTIONS.

An insurer that takes any adverse action relating to any plan or policy of a subject of abuse, shall advise the subject of abuse applicant or insured of the specific reasons for the action in writing. Reference to general underwriting practices or guidelines does not constitute a specific reason.

SEC. 5. LIFE INSURANCE.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit a life insurer from declining to issue a life insurance policy if the applicant or prospective owner of the policy is or would be designated as a beneficiary of the policy, and if—

(1) the applicant or prospective owner of the policy lacks an insurable interest in the insured; or

(2) the applicant or prospective owner of the policy is known, on the basis of police or court records, to have committed an act of abuse.

SEC. 6. SUBROGATION WITHOUT CONSENT PROHIBITED.

Except where the subject of abuse has already recovered damages, subrogation of claims resulting from abuse is prohibited with the informed consent of the subject of abuse.

SEC. 7. ENFORCEMENT.

(a) FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.—The Federal Trade Commission shall have the power to examine and investigate any insurer to determine whether such insurer has been or is engaged in any act or practice prohibited by this Act. If the Federal Trade Commission determines an insurer has been or is engaged in any act or practice prohibited by this Act, the Commission may take action against such insurer by the issuance of a cease and desist order as if the insurer was in violation of section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act. Such cease and desist order may include any individual relief warranted under the circumstances, including temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive and compensatory relief.

(b) PRIVATE CAUSE OF ACTION.—An applicant or insured claiming to be adversely affected by an act or practice of an insurer in violation of this Act may maintain an action against the insurer in a Federal or State court of original jurisdiction. Upon proof of such conduct by a preponderance of the evidence, the court may award appropriate relief, including temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief and compensatory and punitive damages, as well as the costs of suit and reasonable fees for the aggrieved individual's attorneys and expert witnesses. With respect to compensatory damages, the aggrieved individual may elect, at any time prior to the rendering of final judgment, to recover in lieu of actual damages, an award of statutory damages in the amount of $5,000 for each violation.●

By Mr. PELL:

S. 1631. A bill to authorize the Secretary of Transportation to issue a certificate of documentation with appropriate endorsement for employment in the coastwise trade for the vessel Extreme, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation.

COASTWISE TRADING PRIVILEGES LEGISLATION

Mr. PELL. Mr. President, I am introducing a bill today to direct that the vessel Extreme, official No. 1022278, be accorded coastwise trading privileges and be issued a coastwise endorsement under 46 U.S.C. 12106 through 12108.

The Extreme is 70.9 feet in length, 18 feet in breadth, has a depth of 10.8 feet, and is self-propelled.

The purpose of the legislation I am introducing is to allow the Extreme to engage in coastwise trade and fisheries of the United States. When the owners purchased the boat, they were unaware of the coastwise trade and fisheries restrictions of the Jones Act. They assumed that there would be no restrictions on engaging the vessel in such limited operation. Although the vessel was constructed in North Carolina, it was built for a foreign customer; thus it did not meet the coastwise license endorsement in the United States. Such documentation is mandatory to enable the owner to use the vessel for its intended purpose.

The owners of the Extreme are therefore seeking a waiver of the existing law because they wish to engage the vessel in limited commercial use. Their desired intentions for the vessel's use will not adversely affect the coastwise trade in U.S. waters. If they are granted this waiver, it is their intention to comply fully with U.S. documentation and safety requirements.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill and my statement be printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1631

section 8 of the Act of June 19, 1886 (24 Stat. 81, chapter 421; 46 U.S.C. App. 289), and sections 12106 through 12108 of title 46, United States Code, the Secretary of Transportation may issue a certificate of documentation with appropriate endorsement for employment in the coastwise trade for the vessel EXTREME, United States official number 1022278.

TITLE II—MANAGEMENT OF NATIONAL GRASSLANDS

SEC. 201. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the "National Grasslands Management Act of 1995".

SEC. 202. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

(A) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) the inclusion of the National Grasslands within the National Forest System has prevented the Secretary of Agriculture from effectively administering and promoting grassland agriculture on National Grasslands as originally intended under the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act;

(2) the National Grasslands can be more effectively managed by the Secretary of Agriculture if administered as a separate entity outside of the National Forest System; and

(3) a grazing program on National Grasslands can be responsibly carried out while protecting and preserving recreational, environmental, and other multiple uses of the National Grasslands.

(b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this title is to provide for improved management and more efficient administration of grazing activities on National Grasslands while preserving and protecting multiple uses of such lands, including but not limited to preserving hunting, fishing, and recreational activities, and protecting wildlife habitat in accordance with applicable laws.

SEC. 203. DEFINITIONS.

As used in this title, the term—

(1) "National Grasslands" means those areas managed as National Grasslands by the Secretary of Agriculture under title III of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act (7 U.S.C. 1010-1012) on the day before the date of enactment of this title; and

(2) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture.

SEC. 204. REMOVAL OF NATIONAL GRASSLANDS FROM NATIONAL FOREST SYSTEM.

Section 11(a) of the Forest Rangeland Renewable Resource Planning Act of 1974 (16 U.S.C. 1609(a)) is amended by striking the phrase "the national grasslands and land utilization projects administered under title III of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act (50 Stat. 525, 7 U.S.C. 1010-1012)".

SEC. 205. MANAGEMENT OF NATIONAL GRASSLANDS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary, acting through the Chief of the Forest Service, shall manage the National Grasslands as a separate entity in accordance with this title and the provisions and multiple use purposes of title III of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act (7 U.S.C. 1010-1012).

(b) CONSULTATION.—The Secretary shall provide timely opportunities for consultation and cooperation with interested State and local governmental entities, and other interested individuals and organizations in the development and implementation of land use policies and plans, and land conservation programs for the National Grasslands.

(c) GRAZING ACTIVITIES.—In furtherance of the purposes of this title, the Secretary shall administer grazing permits and implement grazing management decisions in consultation, cooperation, and coordination with local grazing associations and other grazing permit holders.

(d) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary shall promulgate regulations to manage and protect the National Grasslands, taking into account the unique characteristics of the National Grasslands and grasslands agriculture conducted under the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act (7 U.S.C. 1010). Such regulations shall facilitate the efficient administration of grazing and provide protection for the environment, wildlife, wildlife habitat, and Federal lands equivalent to that on the National Grasslands on the day prior to the date of enactment of this act.

(e) CONFORMING AMENDMENT TO BANKHEAD-JONES ACT.—Section 31 of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act (7 U.S.C. 1010) is amended to read as follows:

"To accomplish the purposes of title III of this Act, the Secretary is authorized and directed to develop a separate program of land conservation and utilization for the National Grasslands, in order thereby to correct maladjustments in land use, and thus assist in promoting grassland agriculture and secure occupancy and economic stability of farms and ranches, controlling soil erosion, reforestation, preserving and protecting natural resources, protecting fish and wildlife and their habitat, developing and protecting recreational opportunities and facilities, mitigating floods, preventing impairment of dams and reservoirs, developing energy resources, conserving surface and subsurface moisture, protecting the watersheds of navigable streams, and protecting the public lands, health, safety and welfare, but not to build industrial parks or commercial enterprises."

(f) HUNTING, FISHING, AND RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES.—Nothing in this title shall be construed as limiting or precluding hunting or fishing activities on National Grasslands in accordance with applicable Federal and State laws, nor shall appropriate recreational activities be limited or precluded.

(g) VALID EXISTING RIGHTS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Nothing in this title shall affect valid existing rights, reservations, agreements, or authorizations. Section 1323(a) of Public Law 96-487 shall continue to apply to nonfederal land and interests therein within the boundaries of the National Grasslands.

(2) INTERIM USE AND OCCUPANCY.—

(A) Until such time as regulations concerning the use and occupancy of the National Grasslands are promulgated pursuant to this title, the Secretary shall regulate the use and occupancy of such lands in accordance with regulations applicable to such lands on May 25, 1995, to the extent practicable and consistent with the provisions of this Act.

(B) Any applications for National Grasslands use and occupancy authorizations submitted prior to the date of enactment of this Act, shall continue to be processed without interruption and without reinitiating any processing activity already completed or begun prior to such date.

SEC. 206. FEES AND CHARGES.

Fees and charges for grazing on the National Grasslands shall be determined in accordance with section 135, except that the Secretary may adjust the amount of a grazing fee to compensate for approved conservation practices expenditures."

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

THE TULALIP SUPERFUND SITE

• Mr. GORTON. Mr. President, I ask that a copy of a letter from Elliot Laws, EPA Assistant Administrator, on the subject of the Tulalip Superfund site be printed in the RECORD immediately following my remarks.

The letter from EPA clarifies that the Agency fully intends to comply with the report language included in the fiscal year 1996 Senate VA-HUD and independent agencies report on the Tulalip Superfund site. In addition, the letter promises to provide further information on the liability of the Tulalip Tribe for the cleanup of the Superfund site.

The letter follows:

U.S. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY,

Washington, DC, March 19, 1996.

Hon. SLADE GORTON,
U.S. Senate,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR GORTON: Thank you for inviting us to meet with you on Monday, March 11, 1996, concerning the Tulalip Landfill Superfund Project. This is to summarize the meeting with Timothy Fields, Jr., Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response, and Kathryn Schmoll, Comptroller, and to reiterate the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) commitment to work closely with you and to carefully and thoroughly consider issues you have raised regarding this matter.

The meeting focused on three key issues you raised: conducting alternative dispute resolution (ADR) with the interested parties, performing a baseline risk assessment, and incorporating the results of these activities into a new review of remedial alternatives for the site. We also discussed EPA's recent decision to issue an Interim Record of Decision (ROD) for the source areas of the site, and other issues relating to allocation of remedial costs.

EPA has already taken a number of steps consistent with the goals you have laid out. For example, we have engaged the potentially responsible parties (PRPs) and others in an extensive dialogue on Tulalip. The Region extended the public comment period on the proposed remedial action plan from 30 days to 80 days, held two public meetings, reviewed and responded to voluminous comments, and thoroughly documented the remedy selection process before publishing the interim ROD. The Agency also generated an extensive record of written communications with the PRPs addressing the cleanup alternatives and the differences between the reviews which the PRPs and EPA have performed. Senior EPA Headquarters management also met with representatives of the PRPs in order to hear and respond to their concerns with the remedy selection process.

Publishing the interim ROD is part of a comprehensive effort to identify and address all actual and potential risks associated with this site. It is designed to control migration of contaminants from the source areas of the site and follows the Agency's guidance of presumptive remedies for landfills. This allows for a prompt remedy selection process based on a brief site characterization and risk assessment effort.

Nevertheless, the Agency is currently conducting a full baseline risk assessment to evaluate the off-source portions of the site. Thus, concurrent with this interim action to prevent further environmental degradation, EPA is evaluating the impacts of the site on the surrounding area and the risks associated with those impacts. This baseline risk assessment is scheduled for completion in the Summer of 1996. It will form the basis for the final ROD, which will address all remaining aspects of the site. EPA expects to issue this final ROD in Summer 1997, after receiving and responding to public comment on the risk evaluation. Again, the issuance of the interim ROD was in no way intended to interfere with our ability to address the interests and concerns raised by yourself and by other parties.

Since, the interim remedy will address the source contamination at the Tulalip site in the most timely and cost-effective manner, EPA designed the baseline risk assessment assuming the interim action would be taken for the on-source areas while continuing investigation of off-source areas. The findings of the baseline risk assessment will be used as the basis for review of the interim ROD, to the extent practicable, and the selection of the final remedy.

EPA has furthermore initiated an ADR settlement project for Tulalip. In cooperation with many of the principal respondents for the site, the Agency has employed a neutral, third-party facilitator to assist in allocating remediation costs. The PRPs are currently working to establish the criteria which the facilitator will use to assign liability for the costs of the cleanup. We understand that the facilitator will most likely consider a combination of factors in assigning liability which will probably include both tonnage (contribution) and the degree of involvement/responsibility for the activities which led to the current site conditions.

However, the exact terms of this agreement are the subject of ongoing discussions among the PRPs and their representatives.

In the meeting, you asked a hypothetical question regarding the Tulalip tribe's liability for a portion of the cleanup costs. With respect to estimates of liability, EPA notes that it has published costs estimates only for de minimis settlers as part of an early settlement offer. If other PRPs have estimates of their potential liability, these may represent their own estimates, made for business and planning purposes. However, they are not EPA estimates, and we have not reviewed or concurred with the assumptions on which they may have been based. Again, these issues relating to liability for cleanup costs are to be resolved through the ADR process. We will provide a further update on this issue to you in the future.

As a final note, EPA also seriously evaluated the lower-cost options which several of the PRPs have supported. These alternatives do not provide a cap for the site and would therefore not comply with the minimum applicable State landfill closure requirements. I have enclosed letters from the State of Washington and tribal representatives that present their views in support of EPA's remedy selection decisions.

I believe this letter is responsive to the concerns you raised at the March 11 meeting, and I appreciate your continued interest in the Superfund program and the Tulalip Landfill Superfund cleanup.

Sincerely,

ELLIOTT P. LAWS,
Assistant Administrator.●

COMMENDING TUNISIA ON ITS 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF INDEPENDENCE

● Mr. INOUE. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize the country of Tunisia which will celebrate its 40th anniversary of independence on March 20, 1996. I would like to congratulate this country, which has made tremendous strides in socio-economic development and in furthering the Middle East peace process.

In the last four decades, Tunisia has played a key role in preserving stability and peace in North Africa. Tunisia is also playing a key role in the Middle East peace process. It was the first Arab country to host a United Nations multilateral meeting in the peace process. Tunisia also hosted an official Israeli delegation in Tunis to encourage the dialog between Arabs and Israelis. Most recently, in January 1996, Tunisia and Israel agreed to establish formal diplomatic relations, and interest sections will be opened in Tunis and Tel Aviv by mid-April 1996.

Tunisia has been a leader in the struggle against terrorism, intolerance, and blind violence. Tunisia appealed to the world community, within the framework of the United Nations, the Organization of African Unity, the Arab League, and the Organization of Islamic Countries, to adopt strict measures in order to combat terrorism and extremism.

I would also like to commend Tunisia on its social and economic achievements. Tunisia has devoted the bulk of its resources to improving the quality of life of its people and to the development of its economy. Education is a key issue in Tunisia. The Government appropriates approximately 30 percent of the annual budget to education, social services, housing, and health care. This results in a highly skilled labor force. Today, 23 percent of Tunisian job seekers are university graduates and 42 percent are vocational training school graduates.

The private sector is playing a key role in the economic development of Tunisia, and as a result, Tunisians have created a diversified, market-oriented economy. Manufacturing accounts for 21 percent of domestic production, agriculture for 15 percent, and tourism for 7 percent. Domestic growth rates have averaged more than 4 percent per year, and the budget deficit has been halved in the last 4 years.

Tunisia welcomes and encourages foreign investment and has preferential access to a number of important regional markets. Tunisia is a member of the World Trade Organization. It enjoys duty free access for Tunisian products in European Union countries and most Arab countries. The United States assisted Tunisian economic growth through focused development programs such as the Generalized System of Preferences. As a result, Tunisia has proudly graduated from United States economic assistance and is now entering an era of economic partnership with the United States.

Tunisia has been a close and reliable ally of the United States and has cooperated with the United States in advancing tolerance, openness, peace, and stability. The bonds that have been created over the years between our two countries have continued to improve. I can only share the aspirations of all Tunisians for a prosperous and peaceful future on this, the 40th anniversary of independence.●

THE ATKINSON GRADUATE SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT AC- CREDITATION

● Mr. HATFIELD. Mr. President, this year Willamette University's Atkinson Graduate School of Management celebrates its 20th anniversary with an extremely prestigious award. Already considered a pioneering spirit in management education, the Atkinson School can profess a singularly unique achievement: accreditation from both the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration [NASPAA] and the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business [AACSB]. It is the first school in the country to receive both accreditations—it is my alma mater, located in Salem, OR.

Representatives from both the AACSB and the NASPAA visited the school in February 1995 and initiated an intense review process. After the review, the two organizations awarded the Atkinson school unanimous recommendations for accreditation. The two review boards commended the school for the program's focus on teamwork and practical application, the teaching staff's commitment to quality instruction and growth of their students, the uniqueness of the school's mission, and the outstanding facilities. The admissions and placement services received high praise as well.

These two distinguished national and international accreditations testify to the impressive and ground-breaking work being done at the Atkinson School. Long recognized as a leading institute of management education, the accreditations provide the school with recognition world wide, recognition that is duly deserved and places the school among the elite institutions of the Pacific region. Out of the more than 700 business schools in the Nation, the AACSB accredits 292. Among the Nation's 220 programs offering master's degrees in public management, the NASPAA accredits about half.

The Atkinson School offers a curriculum that features quality instruction in both business and public management that will prepare students for the future in our global business community. It is telling that in a school that recognizes the importance of global management and multinational influence, international students comprise 25 percent of the total student body. The Atkinson School has distinguished itself as a model for the expanded role of an American institution, a role that embraces the cultures and perspectives of other nations.

The Willamette University, nestled in the fertile Willamette Valley of Oregon, has long cultivated and developed inquisitive minds. The Atkinson School continues this storied tradition as its devotion to quality business management education aims for the 21st century. I wish to congratulate all the staff, supporters, and students who have participated in the unequalled success of the Atkinson School. I would also like to mention the outstanding leadership of the Atkinson School dean, G. Dave Weight, and the agenda of former Willamette University president, George Herbert Smith, whose vision led to the creation of the Atkinson School. A promising future faces the Atkinson School as it prepares its students to compete successfully in the demanding global business environment.

Mr. President, I ask that the Atkinson School's formal mission statement be printed in the RECORD.

The statement follows:

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the Atkinson Graduate School of Management is to identify and convey principles of management shared by successful enterprises in the business, government and not-for-profit sectors. Consistent with these principles, the School educates managers to cooperate as well as compete, to create as well as to operate, and to learn as well as to know. Atkinson extends to management education the teaching and learning traditions of Willamette University, a small, liberal arts institution. Pursuing Willamette's mission to serve its community with distinctive graduate, professional education, the Atkinson School aims to be the preeminent small, independent management program in the Pacific region.●

MICHAEL SHEA

● Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, Michael Shea, age 8, of Dillon MT, was tragically killed in an accident on June 30, 1995.

Although Michael's life was taken, he helped save the lives of four other people. All are in good health, leading normal lives today because Michael was an organ donor.

On the day of his death his heart was flown from Montana to Seattle to be transplanted in a 4-year-old girl, Paige Roberts. Paige, who was born with a complex heart defect, had been waiting for a donor for 3 months. This 4-year-old little girl is alive today thanks to Michael.

Michael also donated his liver to a Baltimore woman. One of his kidneys was given to a girl in Seattle and the other to a woman in southwest Washington. All are now in good health.

The tragedy of Michael's death has given other people the hope of life. We so easily forget how fragile life is. We take for granted the advancement of medicine in this country. Michael's heart was used for the second pediatric heart transplant in Children's history. It is so easy to forget that medicine is about saving people's lives. We get caught up in debates about health care and forget the real importance of it—it is about saving people's lives.

I would also like to mention Michael's mother, Eileen, for her strength. The void left by the absence of Michael can not be easily filled for Eileen or any of the Shea family. It is certainly not easy to lose a child that should—in theory—outlive you. Eileen is a model mother. She took the time to explain death to Michael when his grandfather died, to explain the significance of being a donor for herself and let him come to his own decision on the subject. And Michael told her he wanted to be an organ donor. I admire her courage when faced with the death of a son, she understood the importance of giving life to others.

While the sound of Michael's footsteps racing up and down the stairs may have been silenced in Eileen's house, the echo of his generosity reminds us all of the fragility of life and the importance of medicine. Although modern medicine could not save Michael, it did help save four other people's lives.

We can all learn from Michael's generosity and remember the importance of being a donor. This 8-year-old boy from Dillon, MT, is a heroic example for children and adults alike. We should all take the time to fill out a donor card. It is as easy as writing to Living Bank, P.O. Box 6725, Houston, TX 77265.●

BALANCED BUDGET DOWNPAYMENT ACT, II

● Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, yesterday the Senate voted to adopt H.R. 3019, a bill to make continuing appropriations for the remainder of fiscal year 1996. During consideration of this legislation, the Senate debated and then voted upon two amendments which I would like to discuss at this time. The first was an amendment by Senators BOND and MIKULSKI and the second was an amendment by Senator GRAMM.

The Bond-Mikulski amendment included provisions to boost funding for environment and housing programs. These increases include funding directed to the States to clean up our Nation's water and funding to streamline the programs at the Department of Housing and Urban Development. I believe the EPA funding level approved in last year's appropriations bill represented a reasonable, responsible allocation for environmental programs and oversight. At the same time, I understand how important the Superfund program and the EPA's State revolving loan fund for waste and drinking water infrastructure are to the State of Michigan and States across the country. Therefore, largely because the additional funding was fully offset, I supported this measure.

On the other hand, my support of this en bloc amendment should not be interpreted as support for several of the programs listed, including additional funding for the National Corporation of National Community Service. Paying Americans tens of thousands of dollars per year to volunteer for community service may be President Clinton's idea of a good program, but it's not mine, and I would prefer to see this funding eliminated.

The Gramm amendment would have struck that spending which remained in title IV of the bill following the adoption of the Bond/Mikulski and Specter amendments. This funding included $235 million for the Advanced Technology Program and several hundred million in international accounts. The President has indicated that without additional funding for programs like the ATP—which provides direct subsidies to some of America's wealthiest corporations—he would veto the overall bill and shut down the Federal Government once again. I think it is unconscionable that the President is willing to threaten all the programs of the Federal Government in order to provide McDonalds, AT&T, and Eastman Kodak with millions in direct subsidies, and for that reason I supported Senator GRAMM. Earlier amendments by Senators SPECTER and BOND had gone a long way toward meeting the demands of the President with regard to education, the environment, and housing. While some programs remaining in title IV are worthy of support, an overwhelming amount of the funding would have gone to corporate subsidies and other unnecessary spending.●

SEC. 801. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the "Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995".

SEC. 802. APPROPRIATE REMEDIES FOR PRISON CONDITIONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 3626 of title 18, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§3626. Appropriate remedies with respect to prison conditions

"(a) REQUIREMENTS FOR RELIEF.—

"(1) PROSPECTIVE RELIEF.—(A) Prospective relief in any civil action with respect to prison conditions shall extend no further than necessary to correct the violation of the Federal right of a particular plaintiff or plaintiffs. The court shall not grant or approve any prospective relief unless the court finds that such relief is narrowly drawn, extends no further than necessary to correct the violation of the Federal right, and is the least intrusive means necessary to correct the violation of the Federal right. The court shall give substantial weight to any adverse impact on public safety or the operation of a criminal justice system caused by the relief.

"(B) The court shall not order any prospective relief that requires or permits a government official to exceed his or her authority under State or local law or otherwise violates State or local law, unless—

"(i) Federal law permits such relief to be ordered in violation of State or local law;

"(ii) the relief is necessary to correct the violation of a Federal right; and

"(iii) no other relief will correct the violation of the Federal right.

"(C) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the courts, in exercising their remedial powers, to order the construction of prisons or the raising of taxes, or to repeal or detract from otherwise applicable limitations on the remedial powers of the courts.

"(2) PRELIMINARY INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.—In any civil action with respect to prison conditions, to the extent otherwise authorized by law, the court may enter a temporary restraining order or an order for preliminary injunctive relief. Preliminary injunctive relief must be narrowly drawn, extend no further than necessary to correct the harm the court finds requires preliminary relief, and be the least intrusive means necessary to correct that harm. The court shall give substantial weight to any adverse impact on public safety or the operation of a criminal justice system caused by the preliminary relief and shall respect the principles of comity set out in paragraph (1)(B) in tailoring any preliminary relief. Preliminary injunctive relief shall automatically expire on the date that is 90 days after its entry, unless the court makes the findings required under subsection (a)(1) for the entry of prospective relief and makes the order final before the expiration of the 90-day period.

“(3) PRISONER RELEASE ORDER.—(A) In any civil action with respect to prison conditions, no prisoner release order shall be entered unless—

“(3) LIMITATION.—Prospective relief shall not terminate if the court makes written findings based on the record that prospective relief remains necessary to correct a current or ongoing violation of the Federal right, extends no further than necessary to correct the violation of the Federal right, and that the prospective relief is narrowly drawn and the least intrusive means to correct the violation.

Such compensation and costs shall be paid with funds appropriated to the Judiciary.

“(5) REGULAR REVIEW OF APPOINTMENT.—In any civil action with respect to prison conditions in which a special master is appointed under this subsection, the court shall review the appointment of the special master every 6 months to determine whether the services of the special master continue to be required under paragraph (1). In no event shall the appointment of a special master extend beyond the termination of the relief.

“(6) LIMITATIONS ON POWERS AND DUTIES.—A special master appointed under this subsection—

“(A) may be authorized by a court to conduct hearings and prepare proposed findings of fact, which shall be made on the record;

“(B) shall not make any findings or communications ex parte;

RESCISSION ACT

SEC. 201. (a) PUBLIC AND INDIAN HOUSING
MODERNIZATION.—

(1) EXPANSION OF USE OF MODERNIZATION FUNDING.—Subsection 14(q) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 is amended to read as follows:

“(q)(1) In addition to the purposes enumerated in subsections (a) and (b), a public housing agency may use modernization assistance provided under section 14, and development assistance provided under section 5(a) that was not allocated, as determined by the Secretary, for priority replacement housing, for any eligible activity authorized by this section, by section 5, or by applicable Appropriations Acts for a public housing agency, including the demolition, rehabilitation, revitalization, and replacement of existing units and projects and, for up to 10 percent of its allocation of such funds in any fiscal year, for any operating subsidy purpose authorized in section 9. Except for assistance used for operating subsidy purposes under the preceding sentence, assistance provided to a public housing agency under this section shall principally be used for the physical improvement, replacement of public housing, other capital purposes, and for associated management improvements, and such other extraordinary purposes as may be approved by the Secretary. Low-income and very low-income units assisted under this paragraph shall be eligible for operating subsidies, unless the Secretary determines that such units or projects do not meet other requirements of this Act.

“(2) A public housing agency may provide assistance to developments that include units for other than units assisted under this Act (except for units assisted under section 8 hereof) (‘mixed income developments’), in the form of a grant, loan, operating assistance, or other form of investment which may be made to—

“(A) a partnership, a limited liability company, or other legal entity in which the public housing agency or its affiliate is a general partner, managing member, or otherwise participates in the activities of such entity; or

“(B) any entity which grants to the public housing agency the option to purchase the development within 20 years after initial occupancy in accordance with section 42(i)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

“Units shall be made available in such developments for periods of not less than 30 years, by master contract or by individual lease, for occupancy by low-income and very low-income families referred from time to time by the public housing agency from its central or site-based waiting list. The number of such units shall be:

“(i) in the same proportion to the total number of units in such development that the total financial commitment provided by the public housing agency bears to the value of the total financial commitment in the development, or

“(ii) not be less than the number of units that could have been developed under the conventional public housing program with the assistance involved, or

“(iii) as may otherwise be approved by the Secretary.

“(3) A mixed income development may elect to have all units subject only to the applicable local real estate taxes, notwithstanding that the low-income units assisted by public housing funds would otherwise be subject to section 6(d) of the Housing Act of 1937.

“(4) If an entity that owns or operates a mixed-income project under this subsection enters into a contract with a public housing agency, the terms of which obligate the entity to operate and maintain a specified number of units in the project as public housing units in accordance with the requirements of this Act for the period required by law, such contractual terms may provide that, if, as a result of a reduction in appropriations under section 9, or any other change in applicable law, the public housing agency is unable to fulfill its contractual obligations with respect to those public housing units, that entity may deviate, under procedures and requirements developed through regulations by the Secretary, from otherwise applicable restrictions under this Act regarding rents, income eligibility, and other areas of public housing management with respect to a portion or all of those public housing units, to the extent necessary to preserve the viability of those units while maintaining the low-income character of the units, to the maximum extent practicable.”

(2) APPLICABILITY.—Section 14(q) of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended by subsection (a) of this section, shall be effective only with respect to assistance provided from funds made available for fiscal year 1996 or any preceding fiscal year.

(3) APPLICABILITY TO IHAS.—In accordance with section 201(b)(2) of the United States Housing Act of 1937, the amendment made by this subsection shall apply to public housing developed or operated pursuant to a contract between the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and an Indian housing authority.

(b) ONE-FOR-ONE REPLACEMENT OF PUBLIC AND INDIAN HOUSING.—

(2) Section 18(f) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 is amended by adding at the end the following new sentence:

“No one may rely on the preceding sentence as the basis for reconsidering a final order of a court issued, or a settlement approved by, a court.”

(3) APPLICABILITY.—In accordance with section 201(b)(2) of the United States Housing Act of 1937, the amendments made by this subsection and by sections 1002 (a), (b), and (c) of Public Law 104-19 shall apply to public housing developed or operated pursuant to a contract between the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and an Indian housing authority.

(4) identified as distressed housing that the public housing agency cannot assure the long-term viability as public housing through reasonable revitalization, density reduction, or achievement of a broader range of household income; and

(5) for which the estimated cost of continued operation and modernization of the developments as public housing exceeds the cost of providing tenant-based assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 for all families in occupancy, based on appropriate indicators of cost (such as the percentage of total development cost required for modernization).

(b) IMPLEMENTATION AND ENFORCEMENT.—

(1) STANDARDS FOR IMPLEMENTATION.—The Secretary shall establish standards to permit implementation of this section in fiscal year 1996.

(2) CONSULTATION.—Each public housing agency shall consult with the applicable public housing tenants and the unit of general local government in identifying any public housing developments under subsection (a).

(6) CESSATION OF UNNECESSARY SPENDING.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if, in the determination of the Secretary, a development meets or is likely to meet the criteria set forth in subsection (a), the Secretary may direct the public housing agency to cease additional spending in connection with the development, except to the extent that additional spending is necessary to ensure decent, safe, and sanitary housing until the Secretary determines or approves an appropriate course of action with respect to such development under this section.

(d) CONVERSION TO TENANT-BASED ASSISTANCE.—

(1) The Secretary shall make authority available to a public housing agency to provide tenant-based assistance pursuant to section 8 to families residing in any development that is removed from the inventory of the public housing agency and the annual contributions contract pursuant to subsection (b).

(2) Each conversion plan under subsection (c) shall—

(A) require the agency to notify families residing in the development, consistent with any guidelines issued by the Secretary governing such notifications, that the development shall be removed from the inventory of the public housing agency and the families shall receive tenant-based or project-based assistance, and to provide any necessary counseling for families; and

(B) ensure that all tenants affected by a determination under this section that a development shall be removed from the inventory of a public housing agency shall be offered tenant-based or project-based assistance and shall be relocated, as necessary, to other decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing which is, to the maximum extent practicable, housing of their choice.

(e) IN GENERAL.—

(1) The Secretary may require a public housing agency to provide such information as the Secretary considers necessary for the administration of this section.

(2) As used in this section, the term “development” shall refer to a project or projects, or to portions of a project or projects, as appropriate.

(2) "capital investment" means a capitalized cost funded by Federal appropriations that—

(A) is for a project, facility, or separable unit or feature of a project or facility;

(B) is a cost for which the Administrator is required by law to establish rates to repay to the United States Treasury through the sale of electric power, transmission, or other services;

(C) excludes a Federal irrigation investment; and

(D) excludes an investment financed by the current revenues of the Administrator or by bonds issued and sold, or authorized to be issued and sold, by the Administrator under section 13 of the Federal Columbia River Transmission System Act (16 U.S.C. 838k);

(3) "new capital investment" means a capital investment for a project, facility, or separable unit or feature of a project or facility, placed in service after September 30, 1996;

(4) "old capital investment" means a capital investment the capitalized cost of which—

(B) was for a project, facility, or separable unit or feature of a project or facility, placed in service before October 1, 1996;

(5) "repayment date" means the end of the period within which the Administrator's rates are to assure the repayment of the principal amount of a capital investment; and

(6) "Treasury rate" means—

(A) for an old capital investment, a rate determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, taking into consideration prevailing market yields, during the month preceding October 1, 1996, on outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States with periods to maturity comparable to the period between October 1, 1996, and the repayment date for the old capital investment; and

(B) for a new capital investment, a rate determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, taking into consideration prevailing market yields, during the month preceding the beginning of the fiscal year in which the related project, facility, or separable unit or feature is placed in service, on outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States with periods to maturity comparable to the period between the beginning of the fiscal year and the repayment date for the new capital investment.

(b) NEW PRINCIPAL AMOUNTS.—

(1) PRINCIPAL AMOUNT.—Effective October 1, 1996, an old capital investment has a new principal amount that is the sum of—

(A) the present value of the old payment amounts for the old capital investment, calculated using a discount rate equal to the Treasury rate for the old capital investment; and

(B) an amount equal to $100,000,000 multiplied by a fraction whose numerator is the principal amount of the old payment amounts for the old capital investment and whose denominator is the sum of the principal amounts of the old payment amounts for all old capital investments.

(2) DETERMINATION.—With the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury based solely on consistency with this section, the Administrator shall determine the new principal amounts under subsection (b) and the assignment of interest rates to the new principal amounts under subsection (c).

(3) OLD PAYMENT AMOUNTS.—For the purposes of this subsection, “old payment amounts” means, for an old capital investment, the annual interest and principal that the Administrator would have paid to the United States Treasury from October 1, 1996, if this section had not been enacted, assuming that—

(A) the principal were repaid—

(i) on the repayment date the Administrator assigned before October 1, 1994, to the old capital investment, or

(ii) with respect to an old capital investment for which the Administrator has not assigned a repayment date before October 1, 1994, on a repayment date the Administrator shall assign to the old capital investment in accordance with paragraph 10(d)(1) of the version of Department of Energy Order RA 6120.2 in effect on October 1, 1994; and

(c) INTEREST RATE FOR NEW PRINCIPAL AMOUNTS.—

As of October 1, 1996, the unpaid balance on the new principal amount established for an old capital investment under subsection (b) bears interest annually at the Treasury rate for the old capital investment until the earlier of the date that the new principal amount is repaid or the repayment date for the new principal amount.

During the period October 1, 1996, through September 30, 2001, the total new principal amounts of old capital investments, as established under subsection (b), that the Administrator may pay before their respective repayment dates shall not exceed $100,000,000.

(f) INTEREST RATES FOR NEW CAPITAL INVESTMENTS DURING CONSTRUCTION.—

(1) NEW CAPITAL INVESTMENT.—The principal amount of a new capital investment includes interest in each fiscal year of construction of the related project, facility, or separable unit or feature at a rate equal to the one-year rate for the fiscal year on the sum of—

(A) construction expenditures that were made from the date construction commenced through the end of the fiscal year, and

(B) accrued interest during construction.

(2) PAYMENT.—The Administrator is not required to pay, during construction of the project, facility, or separable unit or feature, the interest calculated, accrued, and capitalized under subsection (f)(1).

(3) ONE-YEAR RATE.—For the purposes of this section, “one-year rate” for a fiscal year means a rate determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, taking into consideration prevailing market yields, during the month preceding the beginning of the fiscal year, on outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States with periods to maturity of approximately one year.

(g) INTEREST RATES FOR NEW CAPITAL INVESTMENTS.—

(2) PAYMENT OF CAPITAL INVESTMENT.—Except as provided in subsection (e), this section does not affect the authority of the Administrator to pay all or a portion of the principal amount associated with a capital investment before the repayment date for the principal amount.

"ABORTION-RELATED DISCRIMINATION IN GOVERNMENTAL ACTIVITIES REGARDING TRAINING AND LICENSING OF PHYSICIANS

"SEC. 245. (a) IN GENERAL.—The Federal Government, and any State or local government that receives Federal financial assistance, may not subject any health care entity to discrimination on the basis that—

"(1) the entity refuses to undergo training in the performance of induced abortions, to require or provide such training, to perform such abortions, or to provide referrals for such training or such abortions;

"(2) the entity refuses to make arrangements for any of the activities specified in paragraph (1); or

"(3) the entity attends (or attended) a postgraduate physician training program, or any other program of training in the health professions, that does not (or did not) perform induced abortions or require, provide or refer for training in the performance of induced abortions, or make arrangements for the provision of such training.

"(b) ACCREDITATION OF POSTGRADUATE PHYSICIAN TRAINING PROGRAMS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—In determining whether to grant a legal status to a health care entity (including a license or certificate), or to provide such entity with financial assistance, services or other benefits, the Federal Government, or any State or local government that receives Federal financial assistance, shall deem accredited any postgraduate physician training program that would be accredited but for the accrediting agency's reliance upon an accreditation standards that requires an entity to perform an induced abortion or require, provide, or refer for training in the performance of induced abortions, or make arrangements for such training, regardless of whether such standard provides exceptions or exemptions. The government involved shall formulate such regulations or other mechanisms, or enter into such agreements with accrediting agencies, as are necessary to comply with this subsection.

"(2) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—With respect to subclauses (1) and (1I) of section 705(a)(2)(B)(i) (relating to a program of insured loans for training in the health professions), the requirements in such subclauses regarding accredited internship or residency programs are subject to paragraph (1) of this subsection.

"(3) The term 'postgraduate physician training program' includes a residency training program."

SEC. 3014. (a) The Senate finds that:

(1) Record low temperatures across the country this winter, coupled with record snowfalls in many areas, have generated substantial and sustained demand among eligible low-income Americans for home heating assistance, and put many who face heating-related crises at risk.

(2) Home heating assistance for working and low-income families with children, the elderly on fixed incomes, the disabled, and others who need such help is a critical part of the social safety net in cold-weather areas.

(3) The President has released approximately $900,000,000 in regular Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) funding for this year, compared to a funding level of $1,319,000,000 last year, and a large LIHEAP funding shortfall remains which has adversely affected eligible recipients in many cold-weather States.

(4) LIHEAP is a highly targeted, cost-effective way to help approximately 6 million low-income Americans to pay their energy bills. More than two-thirds of LIHEAP-eligible households have annual incomes of less than $8,000; more than one-half have annual incomes below $6,000.

(5) LIHEAP program funding has been substantially reduced in recent years, and cannot sustain any further spending cuts if the program is to remain a viable means of meeting the home heating and other energy-related needs of low-income people in cold-weather States.

(6) Traditionally, LIHEAP has received advance appropriations for the next fiscal year. This allows States to properly plan for the upcoming winter and best serve the energy needs of low-income families.

(7) Congress was not able to pass an appropriations bill for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education by the beginning of this fiscal year and it was only because LIHEAP received advance appropriations last fiscal year that the President was able to release the $578,000,000 he did in December—the bulk of the funds made available to the States this winter.

(8) There is currently available to the President up to $300,000,000 in emergency LIHEAP funding, which could be made available immediately, on a targeted basis, to meet the urgent home heating needs of eligible persons who otherwise could be faced with heating-related emergencies, including shut-offs, in the coming weeks.

(b) Therefore, it is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the President should release immediately a substantial portion of available emergency funding for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program for fiscal year 1996, to help meet continuing urgent needs for home heating assistance during this unusually cold winter; and

(2) not less than the $1,000,000,000 in regular advance-appropriated LIHEAP funding for next winter provided for in this bill should be retained in a House-Senate conference on this measure.

SEC. 3015. LAND EXCHANGE

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This section may be cited as the "Greens Creek Land Exchange Act of 1996".

(b) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act established the Admiralty Island National Monument and sections 503 and 504 of that Act provided special provisions under which the Greens Creek Claims would be developed. The provisions supplemented the general mining laws under which these claims were staked.

(2) The Kennecott Greens Creek Mining Company, Inc., currently holds title to the Greens Creek Claims, and the area surrounding these claims has further mineral potential which is yet unexplored.

(3) Negotiations between the United States Forest Service and the Kennecott Greens Creek Mining Company, Inc., have resulted in an agreement by which the area surrounding the Greens Creek Claims could be explored and developed under terms and conditions consistent with the protection of the values of the Admiralty Island National Monument.

SEC. 412. URANIUM TRANSFERS AND SALES.

(a) TRANSFERS AND SALES BY THE SECRETARY.—The Secretary shall not provide enrichment services or transfer or sell any uranium (including natural uranium concentrates, natural uranium hexafluoride, or enriched uranium in any form) to any person except as consistent with this section.

(b) RUSSIAN HEU.—(1) On or before December 31, 1996, the United States Executive Agent under the Russian HEU Agreement shall transfer to the Secretary without charge title to an amount of uranium hexafluoride equivalent to the natural uranium component of low-enriched uranium derived from at least 18 metric tons of highly enriched uranium purchased from the Russian Executive Agent under the Russian HEU Agreement. The quantity of such uranium hexafluoride delivered to the Secretary shall be based on a tails assay of 0.30 U²³⁵. Uranium hexafluoride transferred to the Secretary pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed under United States law for all purposes to be of Russian origin.

(2) Within 7 years of the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall sell, and receive payment for, the uranium hexafluoride transferred to the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (1). Such uranium hexafluoride shall be sold—

(A) at any time for use in the United States for the purpose of overfeeding;

(B) at any time for end use outside the United States;

(C) in 1995 and 1996 to the Russian Executive Agent at the purchase price for use in matched sales pursuant to the Suspension Agreement; or,

(D) in calendar year 2001 for consumption by end users in the United States not prior to January 1, 2002, in volumes not to exceed 3,000,000 pounds U₃O₈ equivalent per year.

(3) With respect to all enriched uranium delivered to the United States Executive Agent under the Russian HEU Agreement on or after January 1, 1997, the United States Executive Agent shall, upon request of the Russian Executive Agent, enter into an agreement to deliver concurrently to the Russian Executive Agent an amount of uranium hexafluoride equivalent to the natural uranium component of such uranium. An agreement executed pursuant to a request of the Russian Executive Agent, as contemplated in this paragraph, may pertain to any deliveries due during any period remaining under the Russian HEU Agreement. The quantity of such uranium hexafluoride delivered to the Russian Executive Agent shall be based on a tails assay of 0.30 U²³⁵. Title to uranium hexafluoride delivered to the Russian Executive Agent pursuant to this paragraph shall transfer to the Russian Executive Agent upon delivery of such material to the Russian Executive Agent, with such delivery to take place at a North American facility designated by the Russian Executive Agent. Uranium hexafluoride delivered to the Russian Executive Agent pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed under U.S. law for all purposes to be of Russian origin. Such uranium hexafluoride may be sold to any person or entity for delivery and use in the United States only as permitted in subsections (b)(5), (b)(6) and (b)(7) of this section.

(4) In the event that the Russian Executive Agent does not exercise its right to enter into an agreement to take delivery of the natural uranium component of any low-enriched uranium, as contemplated in paragraph (3), within 90 days of the date such low-enriched uranium is delivered to the United States Executive Agent, or upon request of the Russian Executive Agent, then the United States Executive Agent shall engage an independent entity through a competitive selection process to auction an amount of uranium hexafluoride or U₃O₈ (in the event that the conversion component of such hexafluoride has previously been sold) equivalent to the natural uranium component of such low-enriched uranium. An agreement executed pursuant to a request of the Russian Executive Agent, as contemplated in this paragraph, may pertain to any deliveries due during any period remaining under the Russian HEU Agreement. Such independent entity shall sell such uranium hexafluoride in one or more lots to any person or entity to maximize the proceeds from such sales, for disposition consistent with the limitations set forth in this subsection. The independent entity shall pay to the Russian Executive Agent the proceeds of any such auction less all reasonable transaction and other administrative costs. The quantity of such uranium hexafluoride auctioned shall be based on a tails assay of 0.30 U²³⁵. Title to uranium hexafluoride auctioned pursuant to this paragraph shall transfer to the buyer of such material upon delivery of such material to the buyer. Uranium hexafluoride auctioned pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed under United States law for all purposes to be of Russian origin.

(5) Except as provided in paragraphs (6) and (7), uranium hexafluoride delivered to the Russian Executive Agent under paragraph (3) or auctioned pursuant to paragraph (4), may not be delivered for consumption by end users in the United States either directly or indirectly prior to January 1, 1998, and thereafter only in accordance with the following schedule:

(6) Uranium hexafluoride delivered to the Russian Executive Agent under paragraph (3) or auctioned pursuant to paragraph (4) may be sold at any time as Russian-origin natural uranium in a matched sale pursuant to the Suspension Agreement, and in such case shall not be counted against the annual maximum deliveries set forth in paragraph (5).

(7) Uranium hexafluoride delivered to the Russian Executive Agent under paragraph (3) or auctioned pursuant to paragraph (4) may be sold at any time for use in the United States for the purpose of overfeeding in the operations of enrichment facilities.

(8) Nothing in this subsection (b) shall restrict the sale of the conversion component of such uranium hexafluoride.

(C) more than 800,000 separative work units contained in low-enriched uranium transferred under this subsection in any calendar year.

(d) INVENTORY SALES.—(1) In addition to the transfers authorized under subsections (c) and (e), the Secretary may, from time to time, sell natural and low-enriched uranium (including low-enriched uranium derived from highly enriched uranium) from the Department of Energy's stockpile.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (b), (c), and (e), no sale or transfer of natural or low-enriched uranium shall be made unless—

(A) the President determines that the material is not necessary for national security needs,

(B) the Secretary determines that the sale of the material will not have an adverse material impact on the domestic uranium mining, conversion, or enrichment industry, taking into account the sales of uranium under the Russian HEU Agreement and the Suspension Agreement, and

(C) the price paid to the Secretary will not be less than the fair market value of the material.

(e) GOVERNMENT TRANSFERS.—Notwithstanding subsection (d)(2), the Secretary may transfer or sell enriched uranium—
