TRIBUTE TO TIMOTHY MARQUIS, JOANNE MILLETTE, SYMA MIRZA, AND KENNETH JOHNSON, NEW HAMPSHIRE 1996 PRESI-DENTIAL SCHOLARS

• Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today to congratulate four outstanding New Hampshire high school students on receiving the 1996 Presidential Scholar Award. Timothy Marquis and Joanne Millette from Winnacunnet High School in Hampton; and Syma Mirza and Kenneth Johnson from Alvirne High School in Hudson were all honored with this prestigious award.

The U.S. Presidential Scholars Program was founded by Executive order of the President in 1964 to recognize outstanding high school students in America. These four New Hampshire students should be very proud of this honor because the selection process is quite rigorous. Based on student scores from SAT and ACT testing, the top 20 men and women from each State are invited to apply for the Presidential Scholar Program. An independent review committee, composed of various academics such as guidance counselors and college admissions officers, then review the applications of these students and determine 500 semifinalists for the award. The committee uses a variety of criteria to evaluate each student such as personal character, academic achievement, leadership service in school as well as the community, and an essay analysis. From the pool of semifinalists a 32-member commission appointed by the President chooses 141 scholars to be honored for their accomplishments during National Recognition Week.

These four hard working New Hampshire students will be guests of the White House Commission on Presidential Scholars in Washington, DC, from June 18 through June 23. While in Washington, the students will be involved in various activities such as informative panel discussions, a ceremony at the White House, and an evening at the Kennedy Center featuring performances by the Scholars in the Performing Arts.

As a former high school teacher myself, I applaud the hard work and dedication of Timothy, Joanne, Syma, and Kenneth. Their outstanding academic performance have won them this distinguished national honor. I commend these special students for achieving excellence in their schools and communities, and wish them great success in their future endeavors. Their contributions to New Hampshire and the Nation serve as a role model for others to follow.

CAMP RAMAH DAROM

• Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, on May 27, the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism will commemorate a milestone in the life of the conservative Judaic community in the South. May 27 marks the opening of Camp Ramah

Darom, near Clayton, GA, as well as the installation of the board and officers of this very special institution.

Camp Ramah Darom has been made possible by the hard work and dedication of many individuals to a shared dream. The camp will provide a unique center for the conservative Jewish community throughout the South to share and strengthen their community ties. The camp will be a place for the children to foster bonds with friends throughout the region and a retreat for families separated by distance but bound by a strong common heritage. At a time when it is so critical to preserve and reinforce the family and community values that are the basis of our great Nation, the dedication of Camp Ramah Darom is especially important.

I know my colleagues from the South and the rest of the Nation will join me in commemorating the inauguration of this special event and in congratulating and thanking the many who made Camp Ramah Darom a reality.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE REPORT OF SENATOR PAUL SIMON

• Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, it has been my practice in each of the 41 years I have spent in public life to volunteer a detailed accounting of my finances.

I ask that my financial report for 1995 be printed in the RECORD.

The financial report and related announcement follow:

ANNOUNCEMENT

For the 41st consecutive year that he has held public office, U.S. Senator Paul Simon, D-III., has released a detailed description of his income, assets and liabilities—the last such report that he will file before retiring from the Senate when his term ends in January 1997.

Simon has been making the voluntary annual statements longer than any other national officeholder. Simon set his policy when he left the newspaper publishing business he had established to enter public service and has followed the practice during his eight years in the Illinois House of Representatives, six years in the Illinois Senate. four years as lieutenant governor, 10 years in the U.S. House of Representatives and now 11 years in the U.S. Senate. The listing predates disclosure requirements of state and federal law and continues to exceed those requirements. Senate rules today require only the listing of income within broad brackets. Simon's practice also has set the standard for many officeholders in Illinois.

Simon also continues to exceed Senate requirements by listing detailed income for his wife, Jeanne.

The Illinois Senator lists 1995 income for himself and Jeanne Simon totaling $196,300.60, down from $206,287 in 1994. The figure includes Paul Simon's Senate salary, Jeanne Simon's per diem compensation as chair of the Naional Commission on Library and Information Science, and reimbursements to Paul and Jeanne Simon for travel and other expenses.

The Simons had assets of $551,837.35 and liabilities of $106,979.79 for a net worth of $444,857.56. Earlier disclosures have shown Simon to be one of the least wealthy members of the United States Senate.

1996

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 12 noon on Thursday, May 23; further, that immediately following the prayer, the Journal of the proceedings be deemed approved to date, no resolutions come over under the rule, the call of the calendar be dispensed with, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, and the Senate then resume consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution 57.

I further ask unanimous consent that the Senate then proceed to vote on or
