

SPENDING SUBJECT TO APPROPRIATIONS ACTION

The bill would authorize the appropriation of $280 million for intelligence and intelligence-related activities for 1997 as well as such sums as may be necessary to establish the Commission to Assess the Organization of the Federal Government to Combat the Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction.

Section 104 would authorize appropriations of $95.5 million for 1997 for the Community Management Account of the Director of Central Intelligence. Similarly, section 201 specifies an authorization of appropriations for the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability Fund of $184.2 million. In addition, CBO estimates costs of $3 million over two years to establish the new commission.

7. Pay-as-you-go considerations: The Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 sets up pay-as-you-go procedures for legislation affecting direct spending or receipts through 1998. The bill would have the following pay-as-you-go impact:

[By fiscal year, in millions of dollars]

	1996	1997	1998
Change in outlays .....	0	(1)	(1)
Change in receipts .....	0	(1)	(1)

<sup>1</sup> CBO cannot estimate the direct spending and revenue impacts of the bill. Title V would affect both spending and revenues through fines and forfeitures associated with economic espionage. Over time, these effects would be offsetting except for civil fines as described in the text.

8. Estimated cost to State, local, and tribal governments: Section 4 of Public Law 104-4 excludes from application of that act legislative provisions that are necessary for the national security. CBO has determined that all the provisions of S. 1718 either fit within this exclusion or do not contain intergovernmental mandates as defined by Public Law 104-4.

9. Estimated impact on the private sector: CBO has determined that all the provisions of S. 1718 either fit within the national security exclusion or do not contain private-sector mandates as defined by Public Law 104-4.

10. Previous CBO estimate: None.

11. Estimate prepared by: Federal Cost Estimate: Jeannette Van Winkle. Impact on State, Local, and Tribal Governments: Karen McVey. Impact on Private Sector: Neil Singer.

12. Estimate approved by: Robert A. Sunshine for Paul N. Van de Water, Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.●

AMENDMENT NO. 4044

(Purpose: To make a minor technical amendment)

Mr. SPECTER. Madam President, in behalf of Senator FORD, I send an amendment to the desk.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Pennsylvania [Mr. SPECTER], for Mr. FORD, proposes an amendment numbered 4044.

In section 1 strike “, and the Olympic Torch may be displayed on the Capitol Grounds overnight.”.

Mr. FORD. Madam President, The amendment that I offer to House Concurrent Resolution 172 conforms the language of the resolution to the authority sought by the sponsors of the Olympic Torch Relay. The plans for the relay has been modified since the introduction of the original resolution in the House. This amendment reflects those changes.

It is my understanding that the House leadership is prepared to accept this amendment and will expedite action on this measure when it is received in the House. Consequently, this amendment will not result in any delay of the Olympic Torch Relay events.

I commend my colleague from Georgia, Senator NUNN, for his efforts to facilitate this event and thank my colleagues for their assistance.

Mr. SPECTER. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be agreed to, the resolution, as amended, be agreed to, and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table; further, that any statements relating thereto be placed at an appropriate place in the RECORD as if read.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

If the Senate does not receive the papers from the House by that time, then a vote on the adoption of the conference report would then occur on Thursday, June 13, at a time to be determined by the majority leader after consultation with the Democratic leader.

The Senate may also be asked to turn to the consideration of any other items cleared for action. Therefore, other rollcall votes are possible on Wednesday.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDER FOR ADJOURNMENT

Mr. SPECTER. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order following the remarks of Senator CRAIG.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Idaho is recognized.

TRIBUTE TO SENATOR BOB DOLE

Mr. CRAIG. Madam President, I will not keep us long in the closing hours of the U.S. Senate in what will certainly be recognized and reported as a historic day.

Madam President, this evening I want to add to my earlier remarks two thoughts that I think are appropriate as many of our colleagues have come to the floor today to express their sadness, their reminiscent thoughts, and in some instances our joy that BOB DOLE is now free to lead our party, my party, the Republican Party, in his quest for the Presidency.

Over the last 2 years I have had the privilege of developing a unique relationship with leader BOB DOLE. I chair the steering committee here in the Senate, better known as the conservatives, or a group of conservatives, and there have been many occasions when I have been instructed by that group to go sit down with our leader and express our concern over a given issue.

It has been over the course of that time that I have gotten to know BOB DOLE for the person that so many have spoken to today: a man whose leadership, and his concern about our country and this institution, the Senate, was always foremost. He did so in style and dignity. BOB DOLE is one of those people who could tell you no with as much sincerity as he could tell you yes; that he would take your issue and carry it forward, or that he did not believe what you were discussing with him was appropriate at the time and that sometime in the future it might fit. That was the kind of person who I have grown to know and respect in my first term here in the U.S. Senate.

Another issue that BOB DOLE has been more than fair to this Senator on is the issue of my leadership on the balanced budget amendment. I had started that effort in the House in the 1980's, but it was some years after BOB DOLE had already presented the idea here in the U.S. Senate. I, along with the Presiding Officer at this moment, had felt the importance of this issue and had worked hard to make it a national issue.

When I arrived here in the Senate in 1990 as the citizens of Idaho chose me as one of their U.S. Senators, BOB DOLE was very quick to say, "LARRY, that is your issue, and we want you to lead." As our committee meetings went forward, or as there were press conferences, or as there were other gatherings in behalf of a balanced budget amendment, BOB DOLE attended them religiously. But with his seniority and with his prestige, he was always willing to step back and say to people like myself, or Orrin HATCH, or others, or PAUL SIMON, "This is your issue. You lead with it. You carry it."

When we convened the historic 104th session, as BOB DOLE become the majority leader of the U.S. Senate, he was very quick to say to me and others, "This is an issue that will be one of our lead issues this year, and I want you, LARRY CRAIG, or ORRIN HATCH, or PAUL SIMON, to lead me."

What I am saying is that in all of the opportunities that BOB DOLE had to be in the forefront, there were many occasions when he was very willing to step back and let others lead, and I think that is the sign of a leader. I think that is the expression of the confidence that he had in himself, but at the same time the willingness to share that with all of us as he saw the importance of broadening our base and carrying these issues forward.

I, along with every Senator in this body, will miss BOB DOLE as our majority leader.

But I say that I am excited about the future. And I am excited about the opportunity someday, as I believe I will have that opportunity, to say to BOB DOLE, "Mr. President, it is my pleasure to serve you."

With those thoughts, I yield back my time with the understanding that the Senate will stand in adjournment.
