(The text of the amendment is printed in today's RECORD under "Amendments Submitted.")

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the amendment is agreed to.

The amendment (No. 5155) was agreed to.

Mr. PRESSLER. Mr. President, I am proud to be a cosponsor of H.R. 3269, a bill to make technical corrections in the law that governs the Impact Aid Program. This bill represents the culmination of months of hard work. I would like to thank the Chair of the Labor and Human Resources Committee, Senator KASSEBAUM for her diligent work in bringing this extremely important bill to the floor. Her efforts helped to ensure that federally impacted schools will get the financial assistance they deserve and need.

Impact Aid is an important program for many schools. Impact Aid is a Federal responsibility. The program reimburses school districts that lost tax base due to a Federal presence, such as a military base or Indian reservation. This program provides funds for day-to-day school operations, such as buying books and paying teachers. These are not special funds for extra projects. This is a program based on the basic principle of fairness. We should fund the basics of education before we spend money on extra programs.

The expeditious passage of this bill today would ensure that many Federally impacted schools will have the funds needed to keep their doors open, literally, this fall. School districts depend on Impact Aid for basic operating expenses. This bill would ensure that payments are made in a timely manner.

I am particularly concerned about Section 2 of the Impact Aid program as it pertains to two school districts in South Dakota. Specifically, without passage of this critical bill, two South Dakota schools, Bonesteel-Fairfax and Wagner, could stand to lose together almost $1 million. That must not be allowed to happen. Essentially, the bill before us would allow these school districts to claim eligibility under Section 8003. The Bonesteel-Fairfax and Wagner districts were in fact eligible for Impact Aid funds, but were unaware of their eligibility because of a change in the Federal statute. Unfortunately, the Department of Education could not allow these districts to amend their applications. Consequently, they were denied funds that they deserved due to the simple error of not checking the proper eligibility box. This bill would correct this situation and provide these districts the opportunity to reapply for Impact Aid funds. As always, I will fight to see that both these schools and all other federally impacted schools in South Dakota get the funding they need under the Impact Aid program. This is the fair thing to do. It was not the intention of Congress to deny schools funds due to administrative errors or technical oversights. Quite simply, this is a fairness issue.

The bill before us would not create new criteria to implement the intent of Congress. These technical corrections permit the Department of Education to administer the Impact Aid program consistent with the intent of Congress. The technical amendments provide recourse for the schools to receive funds to which they are entitled under the intent of the law.

I am pleased that we are taking action on this legislation. The schools that would benefit from this bill need and deserve the assistance. The Federal Government has placed these schools in a very difficult position, through no fault of their own. That's why impact aid must remain a top Federal responsibility.

Unfortunately, getting this bill through has not been easy, in part because the current administration does not have its priorities straight. For the fourth consecutive year, the Clinton administration's budget called for the Federal Government to lessen its commitment to impact aid. For the next year, the Clinton administration requested only $617 million for impact aid. It recommended the elimination of payments for Federal lands. This means 23 South Dakota school districts would not have been eligible for Federal funds. That is wrong. How can President Clinton claim he is the education President when his budgets would deny the most basic needs to schools in South Dakota? Federally impacted districts and the children they serve cannot withstand further reductions in the program.

It is my understanding that the President will not sign this legislation, but allow it to become law. This is yet another indication of the administration's hostility to the Impact Aid Program. Obtaining the appropriate level of funding is a struggle every year. There will be more battles over impact aid funding. I'm ready. I will continue to fight for our Nation's children and federally impacted school districts. This is my commitment to those schools and the families they serve.

Again, I thank the chair of the Labor and Human Resources Committee, its ranking member and their counterparts in the House for their good work to get this bill through Congress and to the President. This bill enjoys widespread, bipartisan support. With the support of my colleagues, we can fulfill our legislative responsibility to federally impacted school districts and pass this impact aid technical corrections.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be deemed read the third time and passed, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and any statements relating to the bill be placed at the appropriate place in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The bill (H.R. 3269) was deemed read the third time and passed, as amended.
