SIONAL DISTRICT WITH PER-FECT ATTENDANCE

HON. NYDIA M. VELÁZQUEZ

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 1997

Ms. VELÁZQUEZ. Mr. Speaker, it is a pleasure to acknowledge the achievement of a very special graduate of the 12th Congressional District who has had perfect attendance for 6 years; since enrolling in kindergarten at Edward Bush Public School 18 in Brooklyn, NY. This graduate has been undaunted by obstacles and has demonstrated a true commitment to her educational goals.

She has learned that education is priceless and that she will be provided with the tools and opportunities to be successful in any endeavor she pursues by dedicating herself to her studies. Her success is a tribute not only to her strength and discipline but also to the supportive parents and teachers who have encouraged her. I am confident that the combination of these forces will lead her to many more achievements.

Mr. Speaker, as congressional Representatives we often discuss solutions to the plight of our Nation's educational system. We diligently strive to encourage educational excellence and dedication to higher learning. This student's unique achievement can serve as an example to others and I ask my colleagues in the U.S. House Representatives to join me in congratulating her. May her future be filled with many more successes. Congratulations to Kimberly Rodriguez.

A TRIBUTE TO JAMES D. ERICSON

HON. THOMAS M. BARRETT

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 1997

Mr. BARRETT of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, I pay tribute today to one of Milwaukee's truly outstanding citizens, Mr. James D. Ericson. As the Wisconsin Chapter of the State of Israel Bonds gathers this evening to present Mr. Ericson with its 1997 LaSociete Award, I would like to take a moment to reflect on his remarkable contributions to the State of Israel Bonds, the city of Milwaukee, and the State of Wisconsin.

As the president and CEO of Northwestern Mutual Life since 1990, Jim Ericson has skillfully led one of the Nation's largest and most respected insurance companies to unprecedented levels of success. Named the "Most Admired Company" among insurance executives in a recent Fortune magazine survey, Northwestern Mutual has been a responsible and innovative corporate citizen, thanks in no small part to Jim Ericson's hands-on leadership and management capabilities. During the past 5 years, Northwestern Mutual has contributed more than $20 million to an array of educational, health, community, and civic endeavors. And as the president of Northwestern Mutual, Jim Ericson has always encouraged the company's 3,500 employees to volunteer their time and energy to make a real difference in our community. To honor the efforts of his employees, Jim Ericson established the Agent Community Service awards to recognize specific agents for volunteer commitment to their local communities.

Jim Ericson is known throughout Milwaukee and all of Wisconsin for his impressive civic accomplishments. From his initial organization of the Milwaukee Redevelopment Commission, to his successful work to bring professional baseball back to Milwaukee, Jim Ericson has always been at the forefront of all matters important to the economic progress of our city. In addition to his undeniable commitment to the State of Israel Bonds, Jim Ericson has served on more than a dozen boards and advisory panels. Most notably, he is a director of the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce, and serves on the boards of the United Way of Milwaukee, Wisconsin Literacy Services, and the Blood Center of Milwaukee, just to name a few. In 1996, Jim Ericson received the prestigious St. Francis Children's Center Community Service Award for his leadership and personal commitment to our community.

The State of Israel Bonds plays a vital role in Wisconsin by creating a public awareness about the importance of maintaining a strong state of Israel. The organization also raises critical capital through Israel bonds which will ensure the long-term economic security and viability of the country. Jim Ericson has always recognized the importance of Israel bonds, and is well deserving of the organization's appreciation.

I would like to congratulate Jim Ericson's wife Patricia, their four children, and four grandchildren on this most special occasion. Thank you Jim Ericson, for all of your hard work and dedication. Your selfless efforts and persistence epitomizes Milwaukee's spirit of giving and sense of community.

REV. DR. EDWARD D. SMART, JR.—
A MAN OF PRINCIPLE AND COURAGE

HON. DONALD M. PAYNE

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 1997

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to bring to the attention of my colleagues an event that was held this past Saturday. It was a reception held for Rev. Dr. Edward D. Smart, Jr. Rev. Dr. Smart is the shepherd of the Israel Memorial AME Church in Newark, NJ.

Rev. Dr. Smart is the epitome of leadership. He is courageous and committed to serving the members of our community, especially our young people. Serving by example is his method. He attended Fisk University where he was a Fisk Jubilee singer. He is a graduate of Penn State University with a degree in political science. He did graduate work at Shippensburg University and received his ministerial preparation at Gettysburg Theological Seminary. He holds a doctorate from the University of California. He is a member of the Essex County Welfare to Workfare Task Force. He is the co-chairperson of the Newark Fighting Back Partnership, a program to reduce the demand for illicit drugs and alcohol. He has been involved since its inception. He has been integrally involved with the development of the Interfaith Clergy Community Alliance which is an effort to increase the aftercare for people in recovery by the faith community.

Israel Memorial AME Church has continued to grow under the stewardship of Reverend Smart. It has grown both financially and spiritually since his arrival in May 1991. He has faithfully worked to carry out its mission, "Israel Memorial AME Church strives to maintain a standard of Christian living within the metropolitan Newark area through evangelism, proclamation of the Word, stewardship, worship, bible study, and prayer meeting." He has been innovative in his approach to making life better for everyone he serves, which is the entire community. He is not one to take the safe way out always. He is a thoughtful risktaker when he feels he is justified in his position on certain issues. Because of this, he has garnered the respect and support of many.

Mr. Speaker, I am sure my colleagues would have joined me as I congratulated Reverend Smart on his dedication to his faith, our community, and our young people.

BLUE RIBBON SCHOOLS

HON. RON PACKARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 1997

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, I want to commend three schools in my California district which the Department of Education recognized as Blue Ribbon schools. All three schools share as their mission an integrated approach to working with the community and with parents to educate and assist children in realizing their full potential as responsible, productive, contributing members of society.

The Philip J. Reilly School in Mission Viejo stands as an example of excellence in the community. The school provides a consolidated facility allowing disabled and non-disabled students to learn side by side and from each other. Architects received awards for designing the school to be entirely physically accessible to all students.

School success rests squarely on both the efforts of teachers and parents. At Barcelona Hills Elementary School, volunteers contributed over 10,000 hours of service just last year alone. Community efforts allowed the school to upgrade and integrate technology into every area of the curriculum. In addition to building students' academic prowess, teachers place emphasis on promoting integrity, responsibility, good citizenship, and perseverance.

Similarly, Laguna Niguel's George L. White Elementary School sets high academic and behavioral standards. White Elementary earned three commendations during its first program quality review. Further, the school-teacher teaches children to give back to the community, sponsoring the kids in community service program. Projects include beach cleanups, corresponding with nursing home residents, and collecting food for the less fortunate.

As a former school board member, I am keenly aware of the challenges our schools face today. All of us in Congress agree that educating our youth should be one of this Nation's top priorities. A good solid education is the best tool to achieve success and ensure progress. With so many opportunities now available to our young women and men today, it would be a shame if they were not prepared and ready to take advantage of them. We must make sure that our education system is the absolute best it can be, providing students with the basic skills and academics to succeed in college and in the global marketplace.

IN HONOR OF THE GRAND OPENING OF PICKERING PLACE

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 1997

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, on June 18, 1997, the city of Fremont and the Mid-Peninsula Housing Coalition will celebrate the grand opening of Pickering Place, a 43 unit affordable housing development, in the city of Fremont in California's 13th Congressional District. I commend both the Mid-Peninsula Housing Coalition and the city of Fremont for coming together to complete this project.

Affordable housing is an urgent need in California and the Mid-Peninsula Housing Coalition has been a leader in the development of affordable housing. They have developed over 3,300 units in the Greater Bay Area and are currently working on eight more projects. This new project, Pickering Place, will provide 43 affordable townhouse apartments for low-income families in our community.

I would also like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Fremont City Council and the city of Fremont staff who worked together with the Mid-Peninsula Housing Coalition to develop the vision and the plan for Pickering Place. This development would not have been possible without the funding and support from a variety of sources in the community, including a loan from the Fremont Redevelopment Agency.

Mr. Speaker, Pickering Place is an example of an extraordinary partnership. I applaud all of those who were involved in bringing this project to our community.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION
OF HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 54,
PROHIBITING THE PHYSICAL
DESECRATION OF THE FLAG OF THE UNITED STATES

SPEECH OF

HON. VINCE SNOWBARGER

OF KANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 1997

Mr. SNOWBARGER. Mr. Speaker, today the House is debating an amendment to the Constitution which will give the people's elected Representatives the authority to protect our Nation's most important and enduring symbol. This emblem is a powerful distillation of our commitment to individual freedom and constitutional democracy. The fact this image is sewn onto the shirt sleeves of Boy Scouts and emblazoned on the heat resistant tiles that protect our Nation's space shuttle fleet, is further testimony to this symbol's relationship to the American character.

This American flag is more than a banner to lead armies. It is the rallying point for our national conversation about freedom. Many have died defending this Nation, not because some great royal family or despot commanded it, but so that each American would continue to enjoy the blessings of liberty. There is a reason why veterans' organizations like the American Legion support this measure. These men and women know, perhaps more than others, what it means to defend America. Their sacrifice is memorialized in the flag itself. The red stripes, which are so recognizable, are representative of the blood spilled by America's sons to defend our treasured liberty. These Kansans of the American Legion want us to stop hoodlums and thugs from desecrating the flag to attack their legacy.

This flag represents America's historic and principled past and these struggles to extend freedom to all Americans. However, it is more than just a symbol of past triumphs. This flag is important to all freedom loving people around the world who long to construct for themselves a similar constitutional order. When Chinese dissidents wanted to communicate the desire for American-style liberty, they chose our flag to convey that message. They didn't want to be Americans; they wanted the freedom that our flag represents.

It is curious to me, Mr. Speaker, that opposition to flag protection persists. Our country has long recognized the icons and trademarks of American business through the patent and copyrighted acts. These corporate symbols are a valuable form of property that companies spend millions of dollars each year to augment and enhance. We have given America's business community the right to protect and defend their own emblems. Why should the most sacred and important symbol of America be treated differently?

At the very least, we should be allowed to criminalize violent destruction of our flag. This act approximates a personal attack on veterans and patriotic Americans. Remember, as other members—like the distinguished chairman of the Judiciary Committee—have pointed out, we have carved out this type of narrow restriction on expression before. Consider our hate crime laws that prohibit individuals from engaging in certain types of abhorrent speech to which constitutional protection does not apply. Clearly, Mr. Speaker, acts of contempt like burning a cross or displaying racial epithets do not amount to "speech," in the common meaning of the word. To the contrary, these activities fall into a class of behavior meant only to frighten, intimidate, and discourage the very political discourse contemplated by the Framers of the Constitution.

To put all of these issues together, Mr. Speaker, when individuals see an American flag passing in a Labor Day parade or in the fist of an enthusiastic child cheering a returning hero, they feel proud. When Americans see or hear about the desecration of their flag, they feel a tremendous pain. This is not a question about free speech or the right of dissent. Burning a flag is not speech. Nor is it dissent. Dissent is saying how you disagree. It implies a dialog.

This amendment is about preventing an attack on American citizens, collectively and individually. That is why our Kansas Legislature, and the legislatures of 40 other States, have petitioned this Congress to act. We owe it to these Americans, and Americans yet to be born, to extend protection to this transcendent national symbol.

TRIBUTE TO CHICAGO

HON. CORRINE BROWN

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 1997

Ms. BROWN of Florida. Mr. Speaker, on Wednesday, June 18, 1997, the Congressional Black Caucus [CBC] will gather in the Rayburn House Office Building to celebrate the unprecedented success of the smash hit premiere national touring musical "Chicago's" in our Nation's Capital. The CBC will honor "Chicago's" brilliantly innovative and charismatic cast, and will pay special tribute to the stars: Jasmine Guy, Obba Babatundé, and Carol Woods.

A congressional reception was held April 8, 1997, hosted by the Illinois delegation and featuring the "Singing Senators," Senators TRENT LOTT, JOHN ASHCROFT, LARRY CRAIG, and JIM JEFFORDS to welcome the cast to Washington, DC. Also in attendance were the Honorable BILL BARRETT, HOWARD COBLE, JOHN CONYERS, ASA HUTCHINSON, HENRY HYDE, WILLIAM JENKINS, DENNIS KUCINICH, NITA LOWEY, MICHAEL McNULTY, CONSTANCE MORELLA, SILVESTRE REYES, TIM ROEMER, CARLOS ROMERO-BARCELÓ, JOHN SHIMKUS, LOUISE SLAUGHTER, and Secretary William Daley. "Chicago" cast members, Obba Babatundé and "The Girls," performed for the distinguished audience.

"Chicago" has broken box office records at the National Theatre and in New York City with its Broadway cast. "Chicago" is also the season's biggest musical hit.

The Broadway cast received six Tony Awards including Best Musical Revival, Best Director—Walter Bobbie, Best Choreography—Ann Reinking, and Best Lighting Design—Ken Billington. This wave of recognition continues with nominations from the prestigious New York Drama Desk for Outstanding Musical Revival, Outstanding Direction, Outstanding Choreography, Outstanding Actress in a Musical, Outstanding Actor in a Musical, Outstanding Supporting Actor in a Musical, Outstanding Supporting Actress in a Musical, and Outstanding Lighting Design. The New York Drama Critics Circle, the Nation's second oldest theatre award, after the Pulitzer Prize, voted a special award to the cast and creative team of "Chicago" for outstanding contribution to Broadway. "Chicago" continues to win raves and awards with five Outer Critics Circle Awards, including Best Musical Revival, Best Director, and Best Choreography.

The Musical is based on the 1926 play of the same name by Maurine Dallas Watkins. The play inspired the 1942 movie, "Roxie Hart," starring Ginger Rogers. The John Kander-Fred Ebb-Bob Fosse musical premiered in 1975 and the new revival, under the direction of Walter Bobbie and choreography—in the style of Bob Fosse—by Ann Reinking, opened on Broadway on November 14, 1996. "Chicago" has been hailed as "A triumph" by Time magazine. The New York Times raves "Chicago" is a musical for the ages with the sexiest, most sophisticated dancing seen on Broadway for years. It flies us right into musical heaven.

The Congressional Black Caucus will honor these talented and ambitious African-Americans for their inspiring success as artists and human beings. For it is individuals such as
