TO A DEDICATED HERO SHERIFF
RIECK KENDALL

HON. GLENN POSHARD

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 23, 1997

Mr. POSHARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a true hero, Sheriff Rieck Kendall of Moultrie County, IL. He is responsible for saving two young children, Timothy and Cheryl Poppett, after they were abducted by their father from their custodial mother in July 1994.

In 1996, Sheriff Kendall discovered money that was intended for the abductor which was regularly funneled to an address in the Honduras. He contacted Honduran authorities and persuaded them to assist in the investigation. International cooperation, involving Interpol and fostered by Sheriff Kendall, led the authorities to discover that the children were living on a small island off the coast of Honduras with no electricity, running water, routine medical attention, or schooling. When word got to the children's father that the authorities were on to him, he piled them and their few belongings into a boat and headed for another hideaway. During the escape, the boat capsized. Local fishermen found the children and their father floating in the water and clinging to a gas can. Police rescued the children and arrested their kidnapper.

Truly, finding Tim and Cheryl was no easy task. Sheriff Kendall's devotion to recovering the Poppett children involved more than following leads, but taking the time to make daily phone calls and reassuring the Poppett family that he was pursuing their children's case. It takes a brave and dedicated man to not give up and simply go home after his other work is done. He persevered and put the Poppett children and their family first. Mr. Speaker, because of Sheriff Kendall the Poppett children were recovered and are home with their family.

Mr. Speaker, I want to honor Sheriff Kendall for all his valiant efforts and persistence. According to the National Crime Information Center [NCIC] there were a total of 955,252 missing persons in 1996 alone. In that same year more than 99 percent of all missing child cases were resolved successfully. We can thank people like Sheriff Kendall for his inspiring statistic, because they refused to give up and provided support for the families who had to struggle through such terrible crises. It is an honor to represent Rieck Kendall in the U.S. Congress.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO MR. MARVIN
HARPER AND AMERICAN LEGION
POST NO. 102 OF BARNARD, MO

HON. PAT DANNER

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 23, 1997

Ms. DANNER. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of my colleagues, I would like to have printed in the RECORD the following article from the Nodaway News Leader paying tribute to Mr. Marvin Harper and American Legion Post No. 102 at Barnard, MO, for their efforts in providing Nodaway R-IV students an unique public speaking program.

[From the Nodaway News Leader, Mar. 8, 1997]

SOUTH NODAWAY FIRST GRADE STUDENTS
LEARN PUBLIC SPEAKING EARLY

You're never too young to learn, especially when it comes to communication. The American Legion is helping South Nodaway R-IV students get a head start on developing their speaking skills.

Marvin Harper, who serves on the Department of Missouri Oratorical Commission for the American Legion, has created a unique program that provides young students an opportunity to speak in public.

"The point of this is to develop skills to learn how to talk in front of people," Harper told South Nodaway's first grade students.

Harper visited the class last week and discussed the American Legion and the importance of being an effective communicator in everyday conversations. Each child was then given a chance to stand up in front of the class and speak for about 30 seconds. Many of them talked about the U.S. flag, Abraham Lincoln and President Clinton.

First grade teacher Bonny Acklin believes the program is very beneficial.

"It's a good experience for them," she said. "It is different for the students to talk in front of someone else they don't know."

This is the third year Harper has conducted the program. During the first year, he worked with a few students in a pilot program. Last year, the kindergarten all had a chance to give a short speech. This year, Harper has visited both the kindergarten and first grade class.

"Hopefully we'll work right on up to the sixth grade," he said. Harper said he was not aware of any other program of this type in the United States. Later this year he will submit a report to the state oratorical commission about the effectiveness of the project.

The American Legion sponsors a national oratorical contest for high school students. Participants in that contest speak about the U.S. Constitution and can earn scholarship money. Harper stressed that the project for elementary students was not a contest.

"We want to develop students so they can have effective communication skills in whatever they want to do," he explained.

Kindergarten teacher Barb Sherry said she has seen growth in the student's public speaking skills. Both she and Acklin believe the program also provides an opportunity to highlight the importance of patriotism.

"We try to teach a sense of community and respect for our country," Acklin said. "Every morning we say the Pledge of Allegiance and talk about how lucky we are to live in a free country."

Harper told the first grade students he was so impressed with their accomplishment of speaking in front of a group that they would have a party and talk about how to take care of the flag.

HON. ESTEBAN EDWARD TORRES

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 23, 1997

Mr. TORRES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the city of Industry on its 40th anniversary. On Saturday, June 21, 1997, the residents and businesses of the city of Industry will join to celebrate this momentous occasion.

The city of Industry was incorporated June 18, 1957. A city devoted to the business community, its basic purpose is to provide a well organized center for industry and commerce of all types. During the last decade, the city of Industry has emerged as one of the leading industrial centers of the "Pacific Empire Industrial Corridor."

In 1990, the residential population of the city of Industry was 631. This small residential community is represented by five city council members: Mayor Tom J. Durant, Mayor Pro Tem John P. Ferrero, Councilman Lawrence Mayo, Councilman Manuel Garcia, and Councilman Dean M. Winn.

The community will pause its celebration, on Saturday, in remembrance of a dear friend and outstanding civic leader of the city of Industry. Mayor John Ferrero, 1912-96, served as mayor of the city of Industry for 39 years. His distinguished service on the city council is marked with dedication and commitment to the city of Industry.

Among Mayor Ferrero's many accomplishments during his tenure was the official public opening of the Workman House Homestead. The homestead is a testimonial to the rich history of the region. Through interpretative programs, history comes alive as visitors explore the social and cultural life of three decades, significant to the site and the Nation: the 1840's, 1870's, and 1920's.

The business community of the city of Industry is served by the Industry Manufacturers Council [IMC], originally formed as the Industry chamber of commerce in 1962. In 1970, the chamber expanded to include the IMC and retained its name. The IMC is composed of individual firms located in the city and governed by the board of directors: President William White, Vice President Boyd Clarke, Secretary
