

little hometown which has a sign greeting you as you enter the borough: "Everett's Churches Welcome You", reflecting the value of religion and faith in our community.

Bob Robertson's guidance and sense of vision has been a rock on which the town has built itself as a great place to live and work. Bob is a selfless man who always puts the welfare of others in front of his own. His wife, Barbara, and their children have also played a key role in making our community a better place to live. I personally know of many of his good deeds to help people in need, deeds which have never been publicized but have touched the lives and hearts of many. He is an unsung hero who exemplifies the best there is in those who have dedicated their lives to their God, their church, and the people they serve.

TRIBUTE TO A.G. "BUD"
HARRISON

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 31, 1997

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, it is my privilege and honor to pay tribute to the exceptional public service career of my dear friend and one of San Mateo County's most dedicated public servants, A.G. "Bud" Harrison, upon his retirement from the Burlington City Council. His extraordinary devotion to serving his community, as well as his longtime commitment to educating young people about the importance of civic involvement, make him a genuine hero to all of us who care about the Bay Area.

Bud's strong belief in public service is rooted in his background and has been proven repeatedly throughout the course of his 67 years. Born in San Francisco, his future political intentions were foreshadowed at a young age when his classmates at Balboa High School elected Bud president of the senior class. After his graduation in 1948, he volunteered for a far more meaningful type of service in the U.S. Air Force. Bud spent 4 years in the military, aided his country during the Korean war, and was discharged in 1952 as a staff sergeant.

After his military career ended, Bud enrolled at the University of San Francisco, where he graduated in 1957 with a secondary teaching credential. It was then that he began his career which was destined to influence the lives of literally thousands of young men and women, as he became a political science teacher at Capachino High School.

Both of my daughters, Annette and Katrina, were privileged to be among those fortunate students in Bud's classes, and they recall his lessons with great fondness and appreciation. Remembered Annette: "In a time of great cynicism, he infused his pupils with a strong sense of civic activism and an appreciation for the remarkable role of politics in America." Katrina described Bud's "enthusiastic spirit which imbued his students with a love of public service."

In Bud's 33 years at Capachino High School, and in his 16 years as a political science instructor at the College of San Mateo, he made a lasting contribution not only to lives of thousands of young people but also to the success and stability of our democratic system of government. For this, Mr. Speaker, we are all in his debt.

Bud's most significant lessons were those of his own example. He did not preach mere platitudes about public service to his students; rather, he was an inspiring example of the impact that a sole individual can have by becoming involved in his or her community. His 35-year career spanned a wide variety of local offices and an even broader array of well-represented and appreciative constituents. The citizens of Burlingame elected Bud to three terms as their mayor, as well as to 12 years of service as a city councilman. In addition, Bud worked tirelessly as a San Mateo County supervisor, as a Burlingame planning commissioner, civil service commissioner, and a member of the Library Board of Trustees, and as a longtime member of the board of directors of ReCare, formerly Easter Seals, and as the director of the San Mateo County Convention and Visitors Bureau, and in a host of other important civic positions.

Through all of these challenging posts, and all of Bud's dynamic efforts to make Burlingame and San Mateo County a better place to live and raise a family, he has been loyally and lovingly supported by his wife of 44 years, Doris, by his four children, Chuck, Mary, Terry, and Cheri, and by his six grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, as Bud Harrison's distinguished career in public service comes to a conclusion with his retirement from the Burlingame City Council, I ask all of my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to this outstanding man, an example of the best that our communities have to offer, and a true role model to all those he has taught in his classes and in his life of community activism.

EDUCATION: A COMMUNITY AFFAIR

HON. DALE E. KILDEE

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 31, 1997

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commemorate the 16th Annual Community Education Day to be observed on Tuesday, November 18, 1997. In my hometown of Flint, MI the day will be celebrated at a breakfast meeting for more than 300 people. Hosted by the Genesee Area Community Education Association and the National Center for Community Education, the program will be keynoted by my very dear friend, Dorothy Reynolds, President of the Community Foundation of Greater Flint.

"Education: A Community Affair," is the theme of this year's celebration. Sponsored by the National Community Education Association (NCEA), this special day was established in 1982 to recognize and promote strong working partnerships between schools and communities.

Community Education Day in 1997 focuses on the importance of community members and institutions working together to not only support schools and enhance learning opportunities for students but to provide those opportunities for everyone. The learning community in turn is empowered to build and maintain the support systems—social, economic, health—that make it a nurturing, caring vital place, a place where communities can prosper.

National Community Education Day is co-sponsored by over 35 national organizations, among them the American Association of School Administrators, the National Civil League, the Children's Aid Society, the U.S. Department of Education, and Youth Service America.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues in the House of Representatives to acknowledge the contributions that community education has made to millions of children and families. I am proud that the National Center for Community Education is located in my hometown of Flint. I applaud the efforts of Mr. Daniel Cady and the staff at the center for their commitment to education partnerships. We well know that when educators, families, and communities work together, schools get better. As a result, students get the high quality education they need to lead productive lives. Our children deserve nothing less.

TO THANK AMBASSADOR COWSIK
FOR AN EXCELLENT JOB

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 31, 1997

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, the Washington diplomatic corps is about to lose one of its brightest lights with the departure of Shymala B. Cowsik, the Deputy Chief of Mission of the Embassy of India. Ms. Cowsik will soon conclude her distinguished 2-year tour of duty in the United States. In her all too brief tenure, Ambassador Cowsik has been a force in the steadily improving relations between the world's two largest democracies, India and the United States.

Mr. Speaker, Ambassador Cowsik has been no stranger to Capitol Hill during her tenure. She has worked tirelessly to educate Members of Congress and their staff about the ongoing economic liberalization process in India, and the possibilities for an ever closer relationship in the fields of trade and investment. Of course, international relations are not just based on economic factors, and Ambassador Cowsik has played a major role in helping to guide a complex and expanding bilateral relationship based on shared values of democracy and human rights, respect for the rule of law, and a growing appreciation for the cultures and traditions of each other's country.

Ambassador Cowsik has had an eminent career in India's Foreign Service. She has served as India's Ambassador to the Philippines, and has held major posts in Thailand and Yugoslavia. She now moves on to serve as India's Ambassador to Cyprus.

As the co-chairman of the Congressional Caucus on India and Indian-Americans, and as a Member of Congress representing one of the largest Indian-American communities in the United States, I consider ties between the United States and India to be of the utmost importance in our Nation's foreign policy. While we still have a ways to go to give Indo-United States ties the priority they deserve, the momentum is clearly moving in the right direction. In the last 2 years, those efforts have made giant strides, and the excellent work of Ambassador Cowsik has played a major role. We will miss her, even as we wish her every success in continuing to represent and serve her nation with the highest distinction and dignity.

IN SUPPORT OF OXI DAY

SPEECH OF

HON. JOSEPH P. KENNEDY II

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 29, 1997

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, on October 28, 1940, the Greek prime minister was asked to surrender to the Italian Armed Forces. He refused to surrender Greece, replying simply, "Oxi"—the Greek word for "no".

Soon thereafter, Greece found herself battling Italian invading forces. What ensued went down in history as one of the most significant military victories of all time. Greek troops were outnumbered and under-equipped, but what they lacked in size and supplies they made up for in resourcefulness and determination. The world was amazed when Greece managed to repel the invading Italian forces, thus throwing a wrench into Hitler's plans for a swift take-over of the Balkans.

Oxi Day is an important milestone in Greece's long, proud history. We must not forget that throughout its history, Greece has been forced to defend its independence and its way of life. At the crossroads of Europe, the Mediterranean, and Asia, Greece has had to contend with an unending stream of aggressive neighbors. Greece has also weathered many challenges from within. The spirit that Greece demonstrated on Oxi Day is the same spirit that has guided Greece through the most difficult periods in its history.

Commemorating Oxi Day helps us reflect on Greece's great contribution to the Allied cause. It also provides an opportunity to thank the Greek people for their long tradition of friendship and partnership with the United States. We must continue to work to expand ties with Greece, support it in its relations with its neighbors, and work to bring about a peaceful resolution to the Cyprus crisis.

HONORING JOHN STURDIVANT

HON. JAMES P. MORAN

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 31, 1997

Mr. MORAN of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to John Sturdivant, who passed away on Tuesday. John's service with the Federal Government began in 1961 as an electronics technician with the Army Inter-agency Communications Agency. John's concern for the well-being of his fellow Federal employees was evident from the very beginning of his Government service. He soon became active in his local AFGE chapter. His passion soon earned him the respect of his peers, who elected him President of his local union in 1968.

John's continued success soon led him to AFGE's national office where he served in numerous positions culminating with his election as AFGE President in 1988. As the principal spokesman for Federal employees, John led the charge for countless reform proposals. In particular, John succeeded in reforming the Hatch Act, so that Federal employees could participate in the political process in their free time. He also pushed for locality pay, to bring Federal salaries more in line with the cost of living.

One of John's greatest fights came in late 1995, when partisan politics caused two Government shutdowns. Shutting down the Government hurt all Americans, but Federal employees suffered first by being locked-out of their jobs. Federal employees should never be used as pawns in a political chess game. Without John's perseverance, Federal employees surely would have suffered even greater injustices.

Mr. Speaker, John should be remembered for all of his accomplishments, but I will remember him mostly as a friend. He was a compassionate man with a profound respect for equity and justice. Though pragmatic, he never lost sight of the very ideals that first led him to serve in his local union. John will be sorely missed.

UNFAIR WTO ACTION INITIATED BY THE MEXICAN MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY AGAINST UNITED STATES PAPER COMPANIES

HON. JAY DICKEY

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 31, 1997

Mr. DICKEY. Mr. Speaker, it has been brought to my attention that United States paper producers have encountered serious trade problems in Mexico relating to the World Trade Organization Antidumping code procedures. It appears that Mexico's Ministry of Commerce and Industry has ignored WTO rules relating to United States exports of apples and high fructose corn syrup. The result of not adhering to the rules on trade cases leads to lost business for our producers as their protectionism shields their domestic producers.

I wish to insert into the RECORD a copy of a letter from the American Forest and Paper Association [AF&PA] to Mr. Peter Allgeier, the Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for the Western Hemisphere, of a third case that involves U.S. cut-size bond. There are six paper mills in my district in Arkansas. All six are members of AF&PA. Two are currently exporting bond paper to Mexico and could be adversely affected if the WTO Antidumping Code is not followed. The result could be a loss of export sales for up to 6 months while the final decision on antidumping is being decided.

Free and fair trade with our neighbors must be the goal of each nation. We in Congress must insist that international rules of trade be adhered to. I will be following this matter closely to determine whether further action by Congress is not needed. Today, it may only be apples, corn syrup, and paper products. But, tomorrow, it could be a product produced in your district.

AMERICAN FOREST &
PAPER ASSOCIATION,

Washington, DC, October 9, 1997.

Mr. PETER ALLGEIER,
Assistant USTR for the Western Hemisphere,
Office of the U.S. Trade Representative,
Washington, DC.

DEAR PETER: On May 27, 1997 the Mexican Ministry of Commerce and Industry (SECOFI) initiated an anti-dumping investigation against U.S. producers of cut-size bond paper. While individual U.S. paper producers are responsible for responding to the anti-dumping questionnaire, AF&PA is closely monitoring Mexico's anti-dumping process to ensure that it does not violate international trade rules and is not used as a tool to limit imports of paper products from the U.S. We expect that the preliminary anti-dumping determination in this case will be issued in late November.

In this regard, we have noted with mounting concern reports regarding Mexico's actions in the anti-dumping investigation regarding high fructose corn syrup (on which USTR has sought consultations in the WTO) and, more recently, U.S. apples. AF&PA is deeply concerned that these actions by SECOFI are not isolated instances but rather may represent a developing trend toward politicization of the anti-dumping process in a manner calculated to roll back the market-opening benefits of NAFTA.

You may recall U.S. paper suppliers were already the target of Mexico's anti-dumping charges in Mexico in 1993-94. In that case, SECOFI arbitrarily used third country sales to calculate the residual dumping rate. Fortunately, the case was ultimately dismissed due to a negative final injury determination. Moreover, ISAC 12 cited the use of anti-dumping procedures against U.S. paper suppliers as a problem to be addressed in our submission for the Administration's NAFTA report.

We understand that USTR will meet with Mexican officials to discuss some of the issues in the apples case in the near future. At that time, we urge you to take an appropriate opportunity to indicate USTR's concern that similar irregularities be avoided in the pending investigation covering cut-size bond paper.

As always, your help with this problem is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

MAUREEN R. SMITH,
Vice President, International.

THE ROLE OF COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTERS

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 31, 1997

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to stand before you today to highlight and honor the work of community health centers [CHC's] and the vital role they play in meeting the unmet health care needs of the less privileged individuals in America.

Tailoring their services to meet the needs of the entire family, CHC's provide a full range of family-oriented, culturally appropriate, preventive and primary care services. Currently, over 3.5 million or approximately 44 percent of the individuals receiving services at CHC's are children from newborn infants to adolescents 19 years of age, including 1 million uninsured children.

Living in economically depressed, underserved communities, these children and their
