(b) VACANCIES AFTER ENACTMENT.—Notwithstanding the amendments made by this Act, with respect to the first vacancy which occurs in the office of United States marshal in any district, during the period beginning on the date of the enactment of this Act and ending on December 31, 1999, the President shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a marshal to fill that vacancy for a term of 4 years. Any marshal appointed by the President under this subsection shall, unless that marshal resigns or is removed from office by the President, continue to perform the duties of that office after the end of the four-year term to which such marshal was appointed or until a successor is appointed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MCCOLLUM] and the gentleman from Florida [Mr. WEXLER] each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MCCOLLUM].

(Mr. MCCOLLUM asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members have 5 legislative days to revise and extend their remarks on the bill under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

Mr. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, founded in 1789, the United States Marshals Service is the Nation's oldest Federal law enforcement agency. The Marshals Service is charged with many significant and difficult law enforcement responsibilities, many of which the average citizen is not even aware. For example, it is the U.S. Marshals Service, not the FBI or other Federal agencies, which successfully runs the witness security program, a program more important now than ever in the battle against retaliatory gang murders.

Since its inception in 1971, more than 6,600 witnesses, and this number does not include family members, have been protected and relocated by the Marshals Service under the witness security program. The Marshals Service is very proud of its record, Mr. Speaker, because they have never lost a Federal witness who remained in the program and followed the rules. Other critical Marshals Service duties include protection of the Federal judiciary, apprehension of Federal fugitives, management of seized and forfeited assets, and transportation of Federal prisoners.

The U.S. Marshals Service and U.S. marshals are currently appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate. There is no criteria for the selection of U.S. marshals; neither managerial nor law enforcement experience is necessary.

H.R. 927, the United States Marshals Service Improvement Act, would change the selection process of the Nation's 94 U.S. marshals to appointment by the Attorney General. This bill would depoliticize the U.S. Marshals Service by requiring that U.S. marshals be selected on a competitive basis from among the career managers within the Marshals Service rather than being nominated by the administration and approved by the Senate.

Under this legislation, incumbent U.S. marshals would continue to perform duties of their office until their terms expire, unless they resigned or were removed by the President. Marshals selected between the date of enactment of the bill on December 31, 1999 will also be appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate and will serve for 4 years.

Unlike all other Marshals Service employees, the presidentially appointed marshal is not subject to disciplinary actions, cannot be reassigned, and can only be removed by the President or upon appointment of a successor. This lack of accountability has resulted in numerous problems, including budgetary irresponsibility among individual marshals. Moreover, many U.S. marshals lack experience in Federal law enforcement. This inexperience, coupled with an unfamiliarity of the very demands of the Marshals Service necessitates a glut of middle managers to assist the U.S. marshals.

Chief deputy U.S. marshals, the career managers within the Marshals Service, provide the requisite leadership in the offices. They in turn are assisted by supervisory deputy U.S. marshals.

H.R. 927 would professionalize the Marshals Service by insuring that only knowledgeable career personnel would become marshals; thus there would no longer be a need for a surplus of middle managers and Federal dollars would be saved. In fact, the Congressional Budget Office estimates that once fully implemented, this bill would save approximately $3 million a year.

□ 1445

Mr. Speaker, I believe that H.R. 927 is a commonsense approach to professionalizing the U.S. Marshals Service. This identical bill was passed overwhelmingly in the 104th Congress by the U.S. House on May 1, 1996.

This legislation is a priority of the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association and is supported by the Fraternal Order of Police. This bill is a small but important step in this committee's ongoing efforts to improve the administration of Federal law enforcement, and I urge my colleagues to support it.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. WEXLER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 1 minute.

Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to make the post of the U.S. marshal a professional position rather than a political appointment. Currently, marshals are typically designated by the Senators of the respective States. Under this bill, they would instead be appointed by the Director of the Marshals Service.

This bill was originally proposed by the President as part of his reinventing Government initiative. It is supported by the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association because they believe it will improve the Marshals Service. I agree with them, and I urge support of this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CAMP). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MCCOLLUM] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 927.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. COBLE] and the gentleman from Florida [Mr. WEXLER] each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida [Mr. COBLE].

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on the bill under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. COBLE asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 672, to make technical amendments to certain provisions of title 17 of the United States Code. An amended version of this bill is presented for passage under suspension of the rules.

The amendment to the reported bill corrects an error contained in the bill as introduced, which inadvertently strikes a provision of present law which should remain for purposes of maintaining consistency between certain sections in title 17. It reaffirms the current practice of the Copyright Office to allow participants in a rate-making proceeding to share the cost of that proceeding in direct proportion to their share of the distribution.

Mr. Speaker, I am unaware of any opposition to this amendment.

All the provisions contained in this bill are necessary for the proper functioning of the U.S. Copyright Office and the copyright system, and I am unaware of any opposition to this legislation. I urge a favorable vote on H.R. 672.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. WEXLER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 672, a bill to make a number of technical corrections to title 17 of the United States Code, including corrections to drafting errors in the Satellite Home Viewer Act, section 104(a), dealing with restoration of copyright protection in certain preexisting works; licenses for nonexempt subscription transmissions; negotiated licenses for jukeboxes; notice time for infringement actions, copyright office fee schedules, court proceedings, and reports pursuant to the Audio Home Recording Act of 1992.

Mr. Speaker, I am aware of no objections to any of these amendments to law and recommend their adoption under suspension of the rules.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, I submit for the RECORD a letter from the Copyright Office of the United States regarding H.R. 672.

THE REGISTER OF COPYRIGHTS
OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Washington, DC, March 18, 1997.

Hon. HOWARD COBLE,
Chairman, Subcommittee on Courts and Intellectual Property, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. COBLE: We note that language in House Report 105-25 accompanying H.R. 672 regarding the Copyright Office not needing appropriations beginning in 1999 is not entirely correct. In contributing to those portions of the Report entitled "Summary" and "Estimated Cost to the Federal Government," it appears that the Congressional Budget Office did not realize that some Copyright Office operations—for example, administration of the mandatory deposit requirements of 17 U.S.C. §407—are not fee services, and would not be covered by a fee increase, even to full cost recovery as permitted (but not required) by Section 7 of H.R. 672.

We would appreciate your confirming on the floor of the House that it is not the intent of Congress that the Copyright Office become self-sustaining under H.R. 672, or that it raise fees to cover the full cost of all services that it provides. As the section-by-section analysis states correctly, the bill grants the Copyright Office, subject to contrary Congressional action, authority to "increase fees up to the reasonable costs incurred by the Copyright Office" plus a reasonable adjustment for future cost increases, provided those fees are "fair and equitable and give due consideration to the objectives of the copyright system." This allows the Register of Copyrights to "decide that fees may be less than the costs of the services provided, if that furthers the objectives of the copyright system."

Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

MARYBETH PETERS.

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. COBLE] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 672, as amended.

The question was taken.

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 5, rule I, and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

The point of no quorum is considered withdrawn.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA INSPECTOR GENERAL IMPROVEMENT ACT OF 1997

Mr. DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 514) to permit the waiver of District of Columbia residency requirements for certain employees of the Office of the Inspector General of the District of Columbia, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read as follows:

H.R. 514

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "District of Columbia Inspector General Improvement Act of 1997".

SEC. 2. WAIVER OF RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT FOR CERTAIN EMPLOYEES OF INSPECTOR GENERAL.

Section 906 of the District of Columbia Government Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act of 1978 (sec. 1-610.6, D.C. Code) is amended—

(1) in subsection (a), by inserting "or subsection (d)" after "subsection (c)"; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new subsection:

"(d) At the request of the Inspector General (as described in section 208(a) of the District of Columbia Procurement Practices Act of 1985), the Director of Personnel may waive the application of subsections (a) and (b) to employees of the Office of the Inspector General."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. DAVIS] and the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. SCOTT] each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. DAVIS].

(Mr. DAVIS of Virginia asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, my thanks to the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. BURTON] for permitting expeditious consideration of this bill.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 514 is straightforward legislation. It was part of H.R. 3664 which was approved by the Subcommittee on the District of Columbia and the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight last June 20. There are complications, however, with other parts of the bill and it was never taken before the full House.

This bill is being brought forward separately this year because there is an urgent need to pass section 2. That section allows the director of personnel of the District of Columbia to waive the residency requirement for employees of the Office of Inspector General at the request of the inspector general.

This legislation is necessary because the personnel in the IG's office are all defined as excepted personnel under the Merit Personnel Act and are required to reside in the District of Columbia within 12 months of employment. The bill would thus guarantee the widest possible talent pool for the inspector general to hire from. Considering the importance placed in this office when it was enhanced in the control board legislation, I agreed to pursue the waiver that this bill contains.

The IG's office currently consists of 35 individuals, a number of whom are not District residents. These individuals accepted employment on condition that their employment would not be barred by the residency requirement.

The Office of Personnel has determined that, lacking authority to grant a waiver, that the residency requirement will have to be enforced beginning as early as March 24. Thus, failure to pass this legislation, H.R. 514, at this time could result in a significant exodus of highly trained and qualified personnel at a time of numerous sensitive investigations. This would clearly be unacceptable, particularly in light of the fact that the inspector general has just announced her resignation from the District and this would really leave the office utterly rudderless.

The Congressional Budget Office has certified that this bill would not effect the Federal budget. I would urge passage of H.R. 514.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume. I would like to thank the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. BURTON], the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. DAVIS], and the gentleman from California [Mr. WAXMAN] for their work on the District of Columbia Inspector General Improvement Act.

Mr. Speaker, it is noncontroversial. A lot of work has gone into it, and Mr. Speaker, I would hope that the House would pass the bill.
