

$55 billion more? You said yourself, "we cannot ask the American people to spend more on education."

You are absolutely right, Mr. President, until we do a better job with the money we have now. You hit the nail on the head, we are not very good custodians of the $120 billion we are already spending on education. We can do a much better job. We need to find out what is working in education. We need to find out what is wasted in education. We need to identify the models that are working. We need to get rid of what is wasted and build on what is working, and when we do that, it is not an issue of more spending, it is an issue of being more effective.

When we do that, we will get to a surplus budget earlier, we will get to a point where we are not going to ask more American families to put another person to work, or for a person in an American family to work longer hours, to work overtime, so they can fund Washington bureaucracy. There is a better way to do this. You were right in March of 1996. If you would say this and repeat it in March 1997, you have a Congress that is willing and already working on this process, and willing to share the results with you.

This can be done. Our vision for our budget, our vision is to have a one-wage-earner family being able to support and fund this Government. We do not want any more spending. We want to get to a surplus budget as soon as we can, and we want to continue having a surplus so we can continue paying down the $5 trillion debt that we have built up for our kids.

It is simple: A one wage-earner family, a two-wage-earner family is an option. The budget for 1998 is a matter of choices. It is a choice between lessening the family tax burden or increasing Washington spending. It is about making those choices. It is about restraining spending. It is about saying no to new spending, and it is about doing a better job with the money we have now.

This President is asking for over $265 billion in new spending authority for the next 5 years. I really think that when we take a look at the $8 trillion we are going to spend over the next 5 years, that the Congress and the President can find savings of that $265 billion to fund some of those new priorities, those that we agree with. We can find $265 billion. We have just highlighted plenty of examples of where there is waste and abuse.

We do not need 760 programs. We do not need education coordinated through 39 different agencies. We do not need to be spending $130 billion instead of $120 billion. We do not need to be creating entrepreneurial opportunities and cottage industries. I love entrepreneurs in America, but this is not productive work, telling them how to get more money out of Washington.
