H.R. 1757

OFFERED BY: MR. SANDERS

AMENDMENT NO. 8: After title XVII insert the following new title:

TITLE XVIII—SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING THE IMPRISONMENT OF NGAWANG CHOEPHEL IN CHINA

SEC. 1801. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING THE IMPRISONMENT OF NGAWANG CHOEPHEL IN CHINA.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The Chinese Government sentenced Ngawang Choephel to an 18-year prison term plus 4 years subsequent deprivation of his political rights on December 26, 1996, following a secret trial.

(2) Mr. Choephel is a Tibetan national whose family fled Chinese oppression to live in exile in India in 1968.

(3) Mr. Choephel studied ethnomusicology at Middlebury College in Vermont as a Fulbright Scholar, and at the Tibetan Institute of Performing Arts in Dharamsala, India.

(4) Mr. Choephel returned to Tibet in July 1995 to prepare a documentary film about traditional Tibetan performing arts.

(5) Mr. Choephel was detained in August 1995 by the Chinese authorities and held incommunicado for over a year before the Government of the People's Republic of China admitted to holding him, and finally charged him with espionage in October 1996.

(6) There is no evidence that Mr. Choephel's activities in Tibet involved anything other than purely academic research.

(7) The Government of the People's Republic of China denies Tibetans their fundamental human rights, as reported in the State Department's Country Reports on Human Rights Practices, and by human rights organizations, including Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch, Asia.

(8) The Government of the People's Republic of China is responsible for the destruction of much of Tibetan civilization since its invasion of Tibet in 1949.

(9) The arrest of a Tibetan scholar such as Mr. Choephel, who worked to preserve Tibetan culture, reflects the systematic attempt by the Government of the People's Republic of China to repress cultural expression in Tibet.

(10) The Government of the People's Republic of China, through direct and indirect incentives, has established discriminatory development programs which have resulted in an overwhelming flow of Chinese immigrants into Tibet, including those areas incorporated into the Chinese provinces of Sichuan, Yunnan, Gansu, and Qinghai, and have excluded Tibetans from participation in important policy decisions, which further threatens traditional Tibetan life.

(11) The Government of the People's Republic of China withholds meaningful participation in the governance of Tibet from Tibetans and has failed to abide by its own constitutional guarantee of autonomy for Tibetans.

(12) The Dalai Lama of Tibet has stated his willingness to enter into negotiations with the Chinese and has repeatedly accepted the framework Deng Xiaoping proposed for such negotiations in 1979.

(13) The United States Government has not developed an effective plan to win support in international fora, such as the United States Commission on Human Rights, to bring international pressure to bear on the Government of the People's Republic of China to improve human rights and to negotiate with the Dalai Lama.

(14) The Chinese have displayed provocative disregard for the concerns of the United States by arresting and sentencing prominent dissidents in close proximity to visits to China by senior United States Government officials.

(15) The United States Government policy seeks to foster negotiations between the Governments of the People's Republic of China and the Dalai Lama, and processes China to respect Tibet's unique religious, linguistic, and cultural traditions.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) Ngawang Choephel and other prisoners of conscience in Tibet, as well as in China, should be released immediately and unconditionally;

(2) to underscore the gravity of this matter, in all official meetings with representatives of the Government of the People's Republic of China, United States officials should request Mr. Choephel's immediate and unconditional release;

June 10, 1997

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — HOUSE

(3) the United States Government should sponsor and promote a resolution at future meetings of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights and other appropriate international fora regarding China and Tibet which specifically political prisoners and negotiations with the Dalai Lama, until those situations in China and Tibet improve substantially;

(4) the United States Department of State should advise American citizens that Tibet is not currently a safe destination for American travelers;

(5) an exchange program should be established in honor of Ngawang Choephel, involving students of the Tibetan Institute of Performing Arts and appropriate educational institutions in the United States; and

(6) the United States Government should seek access for internationally recognized human rights groups to monitor human rights in Tibet.
