

TAX CUTS ON GILLIGAN'S ISLAND

(Mr. HEFLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, the debate we are hearing these days about tax cuts for people who pay no taxes is worthy of a scene from Gilligan's Island. One can just imagine Gilligan complaining to the Skipper and asking him why he is not getting a tax cut.

At this point the Skipper would have already taken off his cap and smacked Gilligan over the head and cried with exasperation, "Gilligan, don't be ridiculous!"

Then the Skipper, in his usual condescending way, would try to explain to his slow "Little Buddy" that it is impossible to cut taxes for someone who pays no taxes.

Gilligan would not need the Professor to explain to him the metaphysical impossibility of such a preposterous proposition, even though Gilligan lived in a fantasy land. All he would need is a good rap on the chest, a little common sense, and the advice, "Gilligan, don't be ridiculous!"

LET US START CARING ABOUT AMERICAN KIDS

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, Mexico's top narcotics organization has threatened to kidnap and murder American officials. The FBI said the Arellanno-Felix organization, in an effort to protect their drug shipments on our borders, will come in America and will kill.

Unbelievable here. America is overrun with heroin and cocaine, we have got kids dying in Chicago, Los Angeles, New York, and who cares, Congress? Who really cares?

And there is now a group of people trying to take the Traficant language out of the defense bill that authorizes, but not mandates, the use of the troops on our borders.

Are they nuts? Are they inhaling or what? Wake up, Congress. What has to happen? Will one of these narcotics organizations have to kidnap our drug czar?

America has no program, none, zero, and our borders are wide open.

Let us start caring for American kids.

CONSERVATIVE MAJORITY TO DELIVER TAX CUTS FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

(Mr. HAYWORTH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, it was good to be back home in the Sixth District of Arizona last week, being outside of the beltway and all of the speculation and all the imagined conversation, and to talk to honest to goodness Americans and Arizonans, people who are pleased at long last, Mr. Speaker, that this conservative majority will deliver on promises that should have been realized a long time ago: tax cuts for the American people, the first tax cuts in over a decade and a half.

Mr. Speaker, the people of the Sixth District viewed with alarm, concern and outright curiosity the claims by some about the notion of giving income tax cuts to people who do not pay income taxes. They said it in Show Low, Arizona, they said it in Eagar and Overgaard: How do we give an income tax cut to someone who does not pay income taxes? How indeed, Mr. Speaker?

The good news is, over 70 percent of our tax cuts go to middle income families, working Americans. We realize the value of work, we realize the value of individual initiative, and Mr. Speaker, we realize the value of having hard-working Americans keep more of their own money in their pockets and send less of it here to Washington.

URGING SUPPORT FOR RESTRICTIONS ON GUN TRAFFICKERS

(Mr. BLAGOJEVICH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BLAGOJEVICH. Mr. Speaker, now that the U.S. Supreme Court has struck down the background check provision of the Brady law, it is imperative that we have Federal legislation so that States with strong gun laws cannot be undermined by those with weak gun laws.

Take my home State of Illinois, for example. Illinois has tough gun laws, including background checks. Other States, unfortunately, are not as tough on guns.

One of Chicago's major highways, Interstate 55, runs through four States with gun laws a recent study described as very weak. I-55 is otherwise known as the iron pipeline. These States are irresistible to Chicago's street gangs and drug dealers who need firearms to protect their turf. It brings a whole new meaning to the phrase, "Have gun, will travel."

We can take steps to shut the valve on the iron pipeline and on other interstate highways that have become virtual firearm freeways. Join me in supporting the bill of the gentleman from New York [Mr. SCHUMER] that would give out mandatory 3-year prison sentences to convicted gun smugglers and limit people to one handgun purchase per month.

ANY EXCUSE IS A GOOD EXCUSE

(Mr. TIAHRT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, any excuse is a good excuse if someone does not want to do something. The liberals do not want to vote for tax relief, so any excuse will do. The most frequent excuse is that tax relief will only go to the rich.

In today's Washington Post in the James K. Glassman column it says the Democratic Policy Committee recently sent an outraged fax to radio talk show hosts around the country. Under the current GOP proposal, this is a quote, "The top 1 percent of Americans would receive more benefits than the combined bottom 60 percent in tax cuts."

The IRS reports that the top 1 percent of Americans paid 29 percent of the Nation's income tax bill, and the bottom 60 percent paid just 9 percent. So to be fair, the top 1 percent should get triple the cuts as the bottom 60 percent.

But that is not the plan. The plan is targeted tax relief for the middle class. That is what we passed in this House.

But any excuse is a good excuse if someone does not want to vote for tax relief.

TRIBUTE TO CHARLES KURALT

(Mr. ETHERIDGE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a North Carolina hero who made us all proud to be Americans. Yesterday Charles Kuralt was laid to rest in Chapel Hill, NC. His award winning-broadcast career celebrated not the lifestyle of the rich and famous, but regular ordinary Americans off the beaten path. He inspired us not with stories of glitzy stars or flashy celebrities, but the common men and women whose everyday lives and work made this country great.

It was North Carolina's values that sent Charles Kuralt on the road to discovery, and it was our good fortune that he took us along for the ride.

Born in Wilmington, raised in Charlotte and educated in Chapel Hill, Charles Kuralt lived and breathed North Carolina even as he reported to us from around the country and across the world. He took North Carolina values with him wherever he went, and his road was our road.

Yesterday under a scorching sky of Tarheel blue this North Carolina hero made his final trip.

Rest in peace, Charles Kuralt.

WHO REALLY BENEFITS FROM A CAPITAL GAINS TAX CUT?

(Mr. BOB SCHAFFER of Colorado asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BOB SCHAFFER of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, who owns stock and who will benefit from the capital gains tax relief that the Republicans are attempting to provide? Well, it is time for some surprising news, and this news flatly refutes the Democrat catch phrase: Tax cuts for the wealthy.

According to a recent stock market survey, stock ownership doubled over the past 7 years to 43 percent of the adult population. Forty-seven percent of all investors are women. Fifty-five percent are under the age of 50. Fifty percent are not college graduates.

So let us think about that and compare it to the absurd stereotypes perpetuated by the liberals. Almost half of all American adults own at least one share of stock. Slightly under half of all shareholders are women. More than half of all investors are not yet 50, and half of all those with a stake in investments are not college graduates.

Are the liberals really against helping these people? Are they sure that cutting taxes on savings and investments only helps the rich? Maybe it is about time the liberals updated their stereotypes.

REPUBLICAN BUDGET FAILS TO PROVIDE HEALTH COVERAGE FOR MOST CHILDREN

(Mr. DOGGETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, over 10 million American children lack health insurance. They lack the ordinary means to gain access to the health care system.

Unfortunately, Texas leads the Nation with 46 percent of our children, almost one in two, lacking health insurance. These are the kids that do not see a doctor when they are sick, unless they get so sick they have to be rushed to the hospital emergency room. They are the children of the working parents who are struggling to make ends meet but get no health insurance at their job.

Some 5 million of these kids were supposed to be covered by this great Republican budget bill that we have heard ballyhooed here this morning.

Well, last week the Congressional Budget Office that this Republican crowd hired reported that they left off a zero in their great plan; they are only going to cover 500,000, not 5 million new kids in America.

In politics they say half a loaf is better than no loaf at all, but for those many kids who need health care and health insurance the Gingrich Republicans are only providing a heel.

A BRIGHT FUTURE FOR AMERICA

(Mr. NEUMANN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. NEUMANN. Mr. Speaker, I rise this morning to call attention to what is happening in Washington out here. We are about to conclude legislation that balances the budget, restores Medicare, and reduces taxes on the American people.

The front page of the Washington Post this morning says that the budget may be balanced as soon as 1998, and they credit a robust economy, but they forget to mention that in addition to a robust economy we have a new group of people in Washington that is curtailing the growth of Government spending. When the government spends less, that means they have a lower deficit, and that means they borrow less money out of the private sector. More money available in the private sector means the interest rates stay lower, and when the interest rates stay lower, people buy more houses and cars, and of course people have to go to work to build those houses and cars, and that means they leave the welfare rolls and they go into the work force and that creates a strong economy.

That is what is going on in this country today, a balanced budget, Medicare restored, lower taxes on the American people. That is a bright future for America. That is a bright future for our children and our grandchildren.

CHILD TAX CREDIT DENIED WORKING FAMILIES

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, it is wrong to deny tax relief to America's working families, and what we are seeing here again is the Republicans and their rich and wealthy friends bashing working Americans and their families. Compared to the President's proposal, the Republicans' proposal, 4 million working families will be largely denied a child tax credit under their plan. These are people who make between $20,000 and $30,000 a year.

An example: Consider a family of four with two children, living in a medium-sized southern city. The father is a rookie police officer. He makes $23,000 a year. Mother takes a few years off to take care of the kids. What happens under their plan? Zero. Zero for that family. Under the President's plan, $767.

They take their credits and they give it to the wealthy in the form of tax relief on corporate minimum tax, a $22 billion giveaway. They give it to relief with respect to capital gains and indexing, $650 billion that explodes in the outyears.

They are bashing working people, and they are doing it to take care of their wealthy friends. It is wrong, it is outrageous, and we need to stop it.

TAX REDUCTION FOR THE MIDDLE CLASS

(Mr. COBURN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COBURN. Mr. Speaker, I do not usually get up here and talk, but there is a lot of absences that we did not hear just a minute ago, a lot of things that were left out.

There are 4 million people today who are receiving Federal income money who earn no money. It is called the earned income tax credit. It is 36 percent of the claims for that are fraud. It is the most abused system that we have.

It is not about leaving those people out. It is about creating an opportunity for them to join the rest of America through a tax reduction that is for middle class America. They are already granted earned income tax credits.

What we are saying is, if they work and pay taxes, they ought to get a tax cut. If they do not work and we are already giving them a payment, maybe we should not give them more so we can encourage them to work.

SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST?

(Mr. STRICKLAND asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STRICKLAND. Mr. Speaker, in all due respect to the previous speaker, only people who work qualify for the earned income tax credit. This is not money going to people who do not work. If they do not work, they do not qualify.

Sadly, my colleagues on the other side of the aisle seem to embrace a survival of the fittest mentality. If people are wealthy, if they are healthy, they are deemed to be good and worthy. If they are old or sick or poor, somehow they do not deserve a part of the American dream. They do not deserve a tax break.

We are going to get a tax bill, but I hope the American people are watching us, because this tax bill must be a fair bill. Under the Republican bill, if a family has four children and makes $18,000 a year, they will get nothing, nothing under the child tax credit provision. But if a similar family makes $80,000 a year, they will get $2,000. Nothing for the poor family; $2,000 for the well-to-do family.

The Republican bill takes care of the well-to-do. We have got a responsibility to stand up for America's working families.

TAX CREDITS FOR TAXPAYERS

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Well, Mr. Speaker, it is only 10:30 and the Democrats are already confused. No surprise, but usually they make it to 11 o'clock.

Here is the idea of nothing for the poor. Let us examine the case of a person who is poor who does not work. Their children get WIC, their children and they get food stamps, they get Medicaid, they get public transportation, they get college education, they get free housing.

Now on top of that the Clinton Democrat liberals want to take $500 per
