SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING INTERFERENCE OF EUROPEAN COMMISSION IN UNITED STATES BUSINESS TRANSACTION

SEC. 572. (a) STATEMENT OF FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The Boeing Company and McDonnell Douglas have announced their merger.

(2) The Department of Defense has approved the merger as consistent with the national security of the United States.

(3) The Federal Trade Commission has found that the merger does not violate the antitrust laws of the United States.

(4) The European Commission has consistently criticized and threatened the merger before, during, and after its consideration of the facts.

(5) The sole true reason for the European Commission criticism and imminent disapproval of the merger is to gain unfair competitive advantage for Airbus Industries, a government-owned aircraft manufacturer.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) any disapproval by the European Commission of the merger of the Boeing Company and McDonnell Douglas would constitute an unwarranted and unprecedented interference in a United States business transaction that would threaten thousands of American aerospace jobs; and

(2) the President should take such actions as he considers to be appropriate to protect United States interests in connection with this matter.

countries, or the country in which the assistance is to be provided; or

(3) the President determines on a case-by-case basis that procurement outside the United States or less developed countries would result in the more efficient use of United States foreign assistance resources.

(b) ASSISTANCE TO NONGOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS.—Restrictions contained in this or any other Act with respect to assistance to the Government of Croatia shall not be construed to restrict assistance in support of programs of nongovernmental organizations from funds appropriated by this Act to carry out the provisions of chapter 1 of part I of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961.
