

HONORING THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ENTRY OF PIONEERS INTO THE STATE OF UTAH

(Mr. CANNON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks and include extraneous material.)

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I rise in honor of today's 150th anniversary of the entry of the pioneers into Utah. The pioneer exodus was an event of monumental proportions. Seeking a land of opportunity and freedom, over 80,000 Mormon pioneers made the trek west in wagons, on horses, and on foot, covering the rugged trail from the shores of the Mississippi to the valley of the Great Salt Lake. It was blistering hot in the summer and deathly cold in the winter. Obstacles included disease, fatigue, hunger, and hostile natives.

My great grandfather, George Q. Cannon, was among those pioneers. At the age of 17, he lost both parents along the trail. Yet young George trekked on. He went on to become a Utah leader, fighting for statehood while serving in this very body as a territorial representative.

Today I honor my ancestor and his fellow pioneers for having the courage, fortitude, and the faith in every footstep to push on despite the obstacles, creating a legacy of faith and freedom.

TAX RELIEF FOR FAMILIES WHO TRULY NEED IT

(Mr. GEPHARDT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks and include extraneous material.)

Mr. GEPHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to introduce to all of my colleagues the Boyer family of Ste. Genevieve, MO, in my district. No strangers to hard work and sacrifice, the Boyers are struggling to provide their children with a quality education.

Cecil is a janitor in the County Sheriff's Department; Mary, a biology and algebra teacher for the past 23 years at Valle Catholic High School, has started working a second job as an attendant at a local gas station.

Now not only are the Boyers taking out student loans, but their daughter, Cathy, a junior at Central Missouri State and their son, Kevin, a Jefferson Community College student are also working part-time jobs. Combined, the Boyer family, four people working five jobs, make about $50,000 a year, middle class by anybody's definition of the word.

Under the Democratic tax plan, the Boyers would receive a $1,584 tax cut; under the Republican vision of tax relief the Boyers would receive only $528 in tax cuts.

Republicans have taken weeks to reach agreement on a unified tax cut proposal, but for most middle-income families like the Boyers it was not worth waiting for.

We hope the President can persuade Republicans to move toward the Democratic tax cut and direct relief into the pockets of the families who truly need it.

MOVING TOWARD THE GOAL OF LESS GOVERNMENT AND MORE FREEDOM FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

(Mr. RYUN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. RYUN. Mr. Speaker, this morning I would like to review some recent history. It is a matter of record that the American people have not had a tax cut in 16 years. It is also a matter of record that the Federal budget has not been balanced in 28 years. It is a matter of record that we have never had Medicare reform.

Mr. Speaker, the 105th Congress is about to change all of that. This Congress is on the verge of passing the first tax cut in 16 years. This Congress is about to achieve the first balanced budget since 1969. This Congress is about to enact the first major reform in the Medicare Program in history.

While I do not believe the tax cuts go far enough and the budget will not be balanced soon enough, I do believe that we are moving toward the goal of less government and more freedom for the citizens of this Nation. The American people whom we serve deserve this.

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR PROVISION IS BAD FOR THE FUTURE OF OUR ECONOMY

(Mr. KUCINICH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, the independent contractor provision is a potential disaster for the working people of our country. What would it do if adopted?

It would take away health care and pension benefits from millions of employees.

It would punish socially responsible employers and reward companies which refuse to invest in their workers.

It would mean an instant tax increase for workers who would pay twice as much in Medicare and Social Security taxes.

It would deny workers their legal protections against sex, race, age, and disability discrimination.

It would lead to the misclassification of millions of employees, and this would cost the U.S. Treasury billions of dollars.

Mr. Speaker, the independent contractor clause is bad for employees, bad for legitimate businesses, and bad for the future of our economy. Twelve Republicans wrote to the Speaker of the House citing their serious reservations about this clause. Seventy-nine Democrats wrote to the President asking him to delete this provision.

Let us reaffirm our commitment to America's workers and eliminate this provision from the final budget bill.

REPUBLICANS WANT TO EMPOWER FAMILIES BY TAKING AWAY SPENDING DECISIONS OF IRS AND PUTTING THEM BACK WHERE THEY BELONG

(Mr. ROGAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROGAN. Mr. Speaker, every morning in America, working families get up, send someone to work, sometimes two parents to work; they earn a paycheck, and they are required by law to send a big chunk of it back to the IRS in Washington, DC, so bureaucrats can make spending decisions for their families.

The Republicans in this Congress have proposed empowering families by taking those spending decisions away from the IRS and putting them back where they belong.

Our friends on the left do not agree with that proposal. They want to stop this tax cut, and the only way they can do it is to find some reason to be against it, and the argument we hear day after day is that it is a tax cut for the rich.

We should ask ourselves who they mean by the rich. They mean people earning $50,000 a year, like the family that the distinguished gentleman from Missouri [Mr. GEPHARDT] showed us. If someone owns a TV set and can listen to this debate, they are probably the rich they are talking about.

AMERICA'S WORKING FAMILIES DESERVE TAX RELIEF, NOT A TIME BOMB

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, the $50,000 argument my friend makes; it is not $50,000. Sixty percent of their bill, their tax bill, goes to people who make $250,000 a year or more. This tax plan is a time bomb. It reminds me of those crazy TV furniture commercials that we see on TV: No money down, no interest, no payment until 1999.

Mr. Speaker, who is going to get stuck with the bill taking care of these people making a quarter of a million a year that are going to get 60 percent of this bill? It is going to be America's working families.

Under this bill, a young police officer supporting a family makes $23,000 a year, puts his life on the line every day. He would not get a single dollar in child tax credit, not a single dollar. But when the deficit starts to soar again, he is going to foot the bill for those millionaires and those wealthy people.

The numbers do not lie. This Republican plan will create a deficit of $750 billion just as millions of baby boomers start to retire. It is a giveaway, an irresponsible giveaway to the wealthy in this country, it is not fair. America's working families deserve tax relief, not a time bomb.

THE TRUTH ABOUT TAX RELIEF

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, I want to respond to my friend from Michigan, Mr. BONIOR.

The administration continues to crunch numbers, trying to make most Americans rich; Americans, by the way, that are struggling, who are not rich.

I believe, finally, there is a balance here in this body that wants to give a tax cut to those people that deserve it. There are those on the other side of the aisle who complain about the tax cut, and I think they are really showing their true colors. They do not really care about struggling families, they do not want a tax cut anyway. What they want is to increase our taxes, they want the Government to have more of our money.

So if my colleagues really want a tax cut, just admit it and do all the working people in this country a favor: Tell them they do not know what is best for their family, tell them they need to pay more taxes, tell them they would rather take more money out of their pocket, tell them they should give more to the IRS. But please tell them the truth about tax relief.

GOOD NEWS AND BAD NEWS

(Mr. ROTHMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, now is the time to give a tax cut to working and middle-income Americans. But there is good news and bad news in America today. The good news is that in the last 4 years, the Democrats, under President Clinton, have brought down the deficit, reduced the size of government, and we are on course to balance the Federal budget. It is time to give American families some of their hard-earned money back.

But the bad news today is that the Republicans want to give most of the tax cuts to the very wealthiest of Americans. Under the Republican plan, almost 70 percent of the tax cuts would go to the top 20 percent of income earners in America. Working and middle-class Americans need and deserve the tax cuts more. There is a difference between the Democrat tax cut plan and the Republican tax cut plan.

I have put forward a bill called the Lifetime Learning Affordability Act, which would actually give parents tax deductible IRA-like savings accounts so hardworking Americans could provide for their children's college education in a cheaper and safer way. Mr. Speaker, it is time we invest in working and middle-class Americans with a tax cut for them, not the rich.

A NEW DAWN IN AMERICA

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, there is a new dawn in America for working men and women. The Republican tax cuts will enable all hardworking Americans to keep more, not less, of the money they earn, giving them more freedom to grow, more freedom to prosper, and more freedom to create new jobs for others.

It will allow them to meet their personal needs and to fulfill their family responsibilities. A working father and mother will not have to take that second job that takes them away from their kids or from doing the things they enjoy. They will have more time to make a positive difference in their community. They will not have to go into debt or mortgage the family home or business just to send their kids to college. They can pursue that once out of reach dream of starting their own business.

Too often, Mr. Speaker, the crushing burden of Federal taxes undermines these vital opportunities and takes away our freedom to pursue our dreams. The Republican tax relief package is a first step in restoring those stolen dreams and freedoms, or creating new opportunities for all Americans to explore and enjoy.

I urge all my colleagues to support the Republican tax plan.

WINDFALL FOR THE RICH

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, what my colleagues on the other side of the aisle are not telling us about is the $22 billion windfall they are providing to the richest corporations in this Nation, the Exxons, the Boeings, where they would phase out in some instances the tax obligations of the richest corporations in the United States; yes, Mr. Speaker, zero, some of these corporations would pay zero in tax dollars, while hardworking middle-income American families would have to continue to pay their taxes, and these folks would get away with it.

Mr. Speaker, let me just tell the Members that they have come up with a new tax plan which is in the papers this morning, that proved that they have not changed their spots at all. This proposal combines the worst policies of the House and Senate tax bills.

Do not take my word for it, let me quote from an editorial in this morning's Washington Post. I quote:

The tax provisions remain the worst aspect of the GOP legislation. They are tilted hugely toward the very rich, and in the long run, would be a far larger drain on the Treasury than their authors acknowledge.

This latest budget proposal makes Republican priorities clear, clear as a bell: Huge tax breaks for the richest individuals and corporations in the United States.

REPUBLICAN CONSENSUS ON TAX RELIEF

(Mr. TIAHRT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, I am very proud of my fellow Republicans. Last night we met for 3 hours and openly and honestly discussed our faults and our hopes for the future. We have heard and read the rumors about the non-existent or alleged coup attempt, and we all know the Republicans do not always agree. But we decided to work together to overcome the obstacles that we have.

I admire our leadership. They open themselves to the media every day. Their lives are scrutinized by the public microscope, and this makes us all very guarded. Yet last night they opened themselves, they were vulnerable, honest, and frank. Any differences we had yesterday morning are now behind us. We are looking forward now.

As a team we are fighting for tax relief for working Americans. Together we will do all we can to overcome any reason, any excuse the opponents have to overcome tax relief, or to oppose tax relief.

Eventually there will be only one vote for tax relief. It will be at the request of the American people, with the consent of Congress, and with the agreement of the President. Either Members are for tax relief or they are against it. The Republicans have come together to get tax relief for working Americans.

BEWARE OF UNITED STATES-CHINA RELATIONSHIP

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, the country that tried to buy our presidency is now a country that holds the fate of the U.S. economy in its claws. While politicians in Washington are playing politics, China is now holding the third largest United States debt, right behind England and Japan. Beam me up.

And make no mistake, the people running China are Communists. Communists do not give a damn about democracy, and Communists have never supported America.
