ELECTION OF MEMBERS TO CERTAIN STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution (H. Res. 208), and I ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration in the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

HOUSE RESOLUTION 208

Resolved, That the following named Members be, and that they are hereby, elected to the following standing committees of the House of Representatives:

To the Committee on Banking and Financial Services: Robert Weygand of Rhode Island.

To the Committee on National Security: Cynthia McKinney of Georgia.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, and I will not object, but I was here on the floor before and wanted to add just a couple of words to the tribute to Betty Shabazz.

Betty Shabazz was my constituent for many years in Mount Vernon, NY, and was truly a friend and a great lady, and I stood up before, but I was not seen, and so I wanted to just very briefly say a few words on her behalf and ask that my words be put into the RECORD behind Mr. RANGEL's remarks.

I last saw Betty Shabazz in my district at a church in a celebration, a ceremony, dealing with United States and African relations and investment in Africa. I have known Betty for many years, am familiar with her work and education and caring about young people and caring about the future of this country.

I want to say that Betty Shabazz was truly a woman of valor, truly a woman who was color-blind and cared about all Americans, regardless of race, creed, color, or religious origin. Her life personified, I think, what makes this country great, how someone can take adversity in their own personal lives and just move themselves forward, going to school and getting her doctorate and sharing what she knew with the community.

I remember sitting next to her last year at the Democratic National Convention, and we chatted about all the things that she cared about, and I just wanted to add my voice to say that we truly miss her already. She was a great woman, but her legacy will live on. She cared not only about the people in my district again, but about all people, and I represent the communities of Mount Vernon, NY and Yonkers, NY in which she lived, and she really made us all proud.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. ENGEL. Further reserving the right to object, I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, if I might just ask the indulgence of the Speaker on behalf of the constituents of the 18th Congressional District of Texas, we admire the fact that New York claimed Dr. Betty Shabazz, but she is truly a national treasure, and for those of us in Texas, we acknowledge that Betty Shabazz was a symbol of motherhood in the fact that she rose as a single mother to raise six daughters and steadfastly continued her work on behalf of all children in this Nation. So those of us in Texas benefitted from her love of education and children as well as her great work at the Medgar Evers College and her great work with Coretta Scott King and Merlie Evers, of course widows who lost their husbands to tragedy, but as well to the cause of civil rights, like her husband, Malcolm X.

So I just wanted to join my colleague from New York [Mr. ENGEL], and on behalf of my constituents. We acknowledge her as a national treasure, and I am very proud to be able to stand here and salute the Honorable Dr. Betty Shabazz through her death. She has helped to consolidate those of us who would support children and be able to continue her fight for equality and justice.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. ENGEL. Further reserving the right to object, I yield to the gentleman from New York.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I want to join the gentlewoman from Texas [Ms. JACKSON-LEE] and the gentleman from New York [Mr. ENGEL] for their work on behalf of Betty Shabazz, who has become a mother figure for our entire land, the tragedies she suffered in the loss of her husband, the tragedy in her own life, and yet was able to go through so many wonderful things in her life. She will long be missed, and she has left her mark on our society.

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. All points of order are reserved on the bill.

CONGRATULATING INDIA AND PAKISTAN ON 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF INDEPENDENCE

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on International Relations be discharged from further consideration of the resolution (H. Res. 157) congratulating the people of India and Pakistan on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their nations' independence, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, and I do not intend to object, but under my reservation I yield to the gentleman from New York to explain the resolution.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Nebraska for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Nebraska [Mr. BEREUTER], the distinguished chairman of the Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific, has sponsored this timely resolution, and I welcome his support at this very timely moment.

It is indeed a matter to celebrate when two of the largest democracies in the world, both India and Pakistan, reach their 50th anniversary of independence. In particular, India has had a continuous 50-year tradition of democracy and rule of law and great respect for religious freedom. We very much agree that we look forward to broadening and deepening the United States cooperation and friendship with both nations in the years to come.

Finally, one of the clauses of this resolution notes that the House plans to send a delegation to attend the independence celebrations. It is going to be my honor to lead such a delegation, and I look forward to being able to call to the attention of the House the fact that this resolution was fully agreed to in the House in such a timely manner.

We congratulate both India and Pakistan on their 50th anniversaries of their independence, and I thank the gentleman from Nebraska [Mr. BEREUTER] for bringing this matter before us at this time.

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman.

Under my reservation, I yield to the gentlewoman from Texas [Ms. JACKSON-LEE].

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Nebraska as well. I thank him for his kindness.

Mr. Speaker, sometimes we tend to give credit to the youth, to what is young. I think it is so very important to acknowledge Pakistan and India for 50 years of democracy. I know the gentleman from New York Chairman GILMAN has been a strong stalwart around this Nation in advocating the understanding of world affairs and applauding our neighbors for them upholding democracy.

Here we have two very fine nations that will celebrate 50 years. I want my colleagues to know that I may not be in India or Pakistan, I am not sure, but I will be celebrating with those citizens of that origin here in this Nation if I am not, and I will be gratified to be with them, because they set a very fine example for what can be, no matter how large a country you might be, that every individual is valued and democracy is valued.

I am proud to be of this Nation, that for the longest period of time has claimed itself as a free and democratic Nation, and I am very happy today to be able to extend my hand of friendship, applause, to both of these gentlemen for raising up this honor of these two very fine nations. They have been democratic, they continue to work for democracy, and they continue to work to have a free society for their people.

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for her comments. Under my reservation, I would like to continue very briefly.

America's relations with India are strong and are improving, and has in recent years experienced extraordinarily successful elections. The social and economic progress it has achieved in the last five decades is truly remarkable, and it has laid a foundation, a strong one, for India's future. The United States and India have developed into important trading partners. Indian-Americans are making enormous contributions to both countries.

Similarly, Pakistan is an extremely important friend to the United States. Pakistan's commitment to democracy was most recently evidenced in the February 1997 elections, which brought about a change of government. Pakistani-Americans have also made major contributions to American society, and our relationship has proven mutually beneficial.

It is this Member's understanding that the distinguished gentleman from New York [Mr. GILMAN], the chairman of the Committee on International Relations, will be leading a delegation to India and Pakistan in the coming month, in part to celebrate this momentous occasion. Such a delegation is appropriate and timely, and this Member certainly congratulates the chairman on his decision to lead such an important delegation.

The resolution itself calls for an official appointed House delegation to visit the two countries within the next anniversary year.

Mr. Speaker, House Resolution 157 is a bipartisan effort sponsored by this Member, the distinguished ranking Democrat on the Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific, the gentleman from California, Mr. BERMAN, the distinguished chairman of the committee on International Relations, Mr. GILMAN, and the ranking Democrat of the Committee on International Relations, Mr. HAMILTON, as well as distinguished members from the House leadership, the gentleman from Georgia, Mr. GINGRICH, House Speaker; and the gentleman from Michigan, Mr. BONIOR, the Democratic whip.

I would urge and expect to have support for this resolution.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will continue to yield under his reservation, I just want to thank the gentleman from Nebraska [Mr. BEREUTER] for his supporting remarks and for sponsoring this measure. I also thank the gentlewoman from Texas [Ms. JACKSON-LEE] for her support of this measure and for her kind remarks.

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:
