

The amendment is drafted to allow institutions to comply with the revised dates immediately, as it is our understanding that a majority of institutions wish to use the revised date, and we encourage them to do so.

However, we do not want to penalize those institutions that, for whatever reason, could not immediately comply with the date change. For this reason, the effective date for mandatory compliance with this amendment begins on July 1, 1998. This should allow sufficient time for all institutions to make any system changes necessary to comply with the date change. The higher education community requested our assistance in conforming the reporting dates for graduation rates, with the concurrence of the Department of Education. The technical correction has no budget impact.

I want to thank the gentleman from Michigan for his cooperation in moving ahead with this technical correction, and I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 914.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to urge adoption of this amendment, of which I am a co-sponsor. It is purely a technical amendment. It would change the August 30 date in the Federal right-to-know law in two places in order to reflect the fact that the month of August actually has 31 days.

The overall importance of the amendment, however, cannot be minimized. The provision to be amended relieves institutions of higher education from collecting separate sets of graduation rates in order to comply with the Federal law. Institutions would be allowed to use data that they are already collecting in order to meet the requirements of the Federal law. The simple date change from August 30 to August 31 will accomplish that objective once and hopefully forever. I urge the amendment's approval.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. McKEON. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California [Mr. McKEON] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 914, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. McKEON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 914.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.
