TRIBUTE TO PATRICK CURTIS

● Mr. CLELAND. Mr. President, I rise today to honor a dear friend of mine, Patrick Curtis, who is being honored next week with the 100th star on The Palm Springs Walk of Stars in Palm Springs, CA.

Patrick first set off on the road to stardom when he played Baby Beau Wilkes in Gone with the Wind. As a young actor working his way through film school, he worked on dozens of westerns, the Ma and Pa Kettle comedies, nearly every Tony Curtis film made in the 1950's, and even on the Leave it to Beaver set.

Upon graduating from film school, Patrick received a naval ROTC commission. He later served his country in Vietnam in 1967 and 1968.

Patrick has risen to become a highly successful film director and producer. He has had the opportunity to work with many legends and personal heroes of mine. Recently, he produced Meanwhile, Back at the Ranch, a documentary western about John Wayne, Roy Rogers, Gene Autry, Hoppy, and other six-gun legends.

Even with his busy film schedule, Patrick has found time to give back to his community. He was asked by President Ronald Reagan to serve as president of the Vietnam Veterans Leadership Program, an organization of successful veterans with the purpose of helping veterans who have not been able to mainstream. For his continued support of Vietnam veterans, Patrick has been awarded the prestigious Air Force Association Humanitarian Award. He has also been presented lifetime membership in The Marine Corps League, The Navy League, and The Air Force League.

In addition to his work with veterans, Patrick has worked to gather together talent in the entertainment industry to create public service announcements for groups such as Mothers Against Drunk Driving, DARE, and Activities for Retarded Children—all paid for by funds raised from the entertainment industry.

Mr. President, I would like to honor Patrick Curtis for his outstanding and numerous contributions to the entertainment industry, to America's veterans, and to his community. Patrick's selfless service to his country and community are a great example of what it means to be a great, patriotic American.●

RIGHT TO LIFE OF MICHIGAN BANQUET

● Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, I rise today to honor those of the Region 2 Affiliates of Right to Life of Michigan for their enduring commitment and dedication to one of today's most important social issues.

Mr. President, to those of us who are pro-life, being pro-life means protecting our families and respecting the sanctity of life. It also means maintaining the central role of the family in all our lives. I would like to take this opportunity to thank those of Right to Life of Michigan for their perseverance in support of those goals. Unfortunately, we still must spend much of our time in the political sphere, arguing against laws that promote the taking of unborn human lives, and I am grateful for all their efforts in that area as well.

Ending the tragedy of abortion will not be easy. But groups like Right to Life of Michigan and the National Right to Life Committee are fighting a winning battle. By their example, as well as their arguments, they are showing the power and the beauty of human life.●

MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION OF NON-PUBLIC SCHOOLS ANNIVERSARY

● Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, I rise today to commemorate the Michigan Association of Non-public Schools (MANS) on their 25 years of service to this special group of educators and students. Founded in 1972, MANS has advocated on behalf of non-public schools, established an agenda for their advancement, and given witness to the communities in Michigan regarding their immense social, educational, and economic benefit.

With the voluntary support of over 540 schools, nearly 7,000 instructors and 140,000 students of Michigan's next generation are affected by the outreach and activities sponsored by MANS. Through the Michigan Non-public School Accrediting Association, its affiliated Parent Network, and its organization of school resources, MANS works toward school improvement, encourages greater parental participation, and provides a host of services vital to bringing non-public school students the best education they can receive.

Through the years, MANS has been instrumental in promoting equal education benefits and services for all children. Regular conferences are held and have gained the enthusiastic support of teachers and administrators, with as many as 6,000 participants having attended recent gatherings. Finally, MANS maintains a role as a respected partner and resource for all levels of government whose actions impact education in Michigan.

Mr. President, on behalf of the U.S. Senate, I would like to express appreciation for the many individuals who have given of their time and talent to bring about a better community through MANS. We are thankful for their dedication to Michigan's children.●

ITALIAN-AMERICAN COLUMBUS DAY CELEBRATION (LIVONIA)

● Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, I rise today to celebrate the achievements of Italian-Americans as we join to commemorate the accomplishment of the first Italian-American, Christopher Columbus. Italian-Americans came to this country with little, but have left a large mark. Therefore, it gives me great pleasure to celebrate with them today, Columbus Day.

Mr. President, certainly everyone in this country is grateful for the courage, dignity, and thrill for exploration given to this Nation by Christopher Columbus. As a grandson of Lebanese immigrants, I am convinced that the various ethnic heritages people bring with them when they come to the United States greatly benefit our country. Indeed, Italian-Americans have taken over where Columbus left off, building this Nation into the great power that it is. Certainly, without the leadership, insight, and continued support of one of this Nation's most valued resources, America would face a terrible emptiness.

Many Italian-Americans have given generously of their time and energy in preparation of this celebration, and they should be commended for their efforts. I am very pleased to have this opportunity to recognize this very meaningful event in the U.S. Senate.●

DONALD J. BABB

Mr. BOND. Mr. President, I stand before you today to pay tribute to Mr. Donald J. Babb. Donald recently received the 1997 Shirley Ann Munroe Leadership Development Award, by the American Hospital Association, a distinction given to the rural hospital administrator across the Nation who "displayed outstanding leadership commitment to meet the challenges faced by small/rural hospitals."

Donald was chosen to be the administrator by the first board of directors for the Citizens Memorial Hospital in Bolivar, MO, in the early 1980's. With his experience in hospital administration and construction, Donald has taken what was once just a dream to new heights of reality. In the last 17 years he has built a huge rural facility as executive director of the Citizens Memorial Health Care Foundation. This facility provides excellent health care to more than 75,000 individuals in Bolivar and the surrounding areas. The Citizens Memorial Health Care Foundation now consists of an acute care hospital, three long-term care facilities, a residential care facility, independent living apartments, 12 physician clinics, including six certified rural health clinics—the first created in Missouri—home health, hospice, home medical equipment, homemaker services, a wellness and counseling center, a statewide health maintenance organization, and an extensive outpatient rehabilitation program. Donald also always makes time for his staff, patients, residents, and community members. He meets individually with each new employee and makes regular rounds of all of his health care facilities in the area.

It is a privilege to honor Citizens Memorial Hospital Administrator, Donald J. Babb, on this well deserved award. I know the hospital will continue to improve and grow for years to come. The State of Missouri is lucky to have such a facility and I want to express my sincere appreciation to Donald Babb, who makes Citizens Memorial Hospital excel.●

SERGEANT ALVIN C. YORK

● Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, today is an historic day for it was 79 years ago on this date, October 8, 1918, that Sgt. Alvin C. York faced a battery of German soldiers alone in the Battle of the Argonne. Sergeant York's bravery during World War I captured the imagination of the world. Here at home, he was heralded as a true hero, complete with the largest ticker tape parade New York City had ever seen. President Wilson and General Pershing offered their personal thanks, and Sergeant York received this Nation's Medal of Honor.

But home for Alvin York, despite his new found fame, was the hills of Tennessee in Fentress County. The values instilled in him by his family remained with him throughout his life, and he used his platform as a hero of the Tennessee hills to better the lives of his neighbors and friends. Sergeant York founded an industrial and agricultural school in Fentress County, built a church and Bible school, and when money ran short, he helped to pay the teachers' salaries himself.

Today, 79 years later, we salute the memory of Alvin C. York and his heroic deeds as a young soldier far from home on the battlefield in France. Despite his great fame, home and family were far more important to him. His heroism extends far beyond the battlefield. For the values that he lived each and every day as a citizen of Fentress County, TN, are values for all of us to emulate in our daily lives.

Mr. President, the Sergeant York Historical Association, of which I am proud to serve on the board of directors, is committed to keeping the memory of Sergeant York alive. I commend the association for its efforts to ensure that the York homeplace, his grist mill, his papers, and the history of World War I are not forgotten, but will live on for generations to visit, enjoy, and appreciate a piece of our Nation's fabric.

Sergeant York was a World War I hero, but in truth, he is a hero for all time.●

MEDICARE BENEFICIARY FREEDOM TO CONTRACT ACT

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, I rise in support of the Medicare Beneficiary Freedom to Contract Act of 1997. This legislation protects the right of the elderly to be treated by the physician of their choice.

Great reform of Medicare was achieved during the 1997 Balanced Budget Act: regulations were streamlined, greater flexibility was given to rural health care, and, most important, the Medicare trust fund—on the verge of bankruptcy—was salvaged for an additional 10 years.

However, due to the administration's threat to veto the entire Balanced Budget act, the conference committee to the act added a requirement clearly infringing on the rights of senior citizens. The President's provision prohibits providers who privately contract from treating Medicare patients for a period of 2 years. Therefore, upon enactment of the 1997 Balanced Budget Act, it is now unlawful for a doctor to take a private payment from a Medicare-eligible patient if during the previous 2 years he has billed Medicare for any service rendered to a patient over the age of 65.

What is the reality of the President's provision?

The reality is that it will be almost impossible for a senior citizen to contract privately for medical services because few or no physicians are going to be able to make ends meet if they can't accept Medicare patients for 2 years. The reality is that, unlike every other insured American, senior citizens have no option but to receive the services that their insurance carrier, Medicare, recognizes and is willing to pay for. In essence, upon turning the age of 65, you have now lost a significant right—a right of choice in who provides your health care.

Mr. President, even in the socialized medical system of Great Britain, choice is offered to the elderly. In Great Britain, a senior citizen has the choice to pay privately for his or her medical services. Don't the elderly of America deserve that same choice?

To remedy this situation, I have sponsored legislation introduced by Senator KYL of Arizona and Senator NICKLES of Oklahoma. This legislation explicitly provides that any Medicare beneficiary can enter into an agreement with the physician or practitioner of their choice for any health care service and for any length of time when they choose to pay for such services out of their own pocket. In brief, the bill will ensure that Medicare-eligible beneficiaries who choose to pay out of pocket will have an unrestricted right to the health care provider of their choice. I cosponsored a similar bill two years ago.

The American Medical Association has strongly endorsed this legislation. In a letter dated September 18, 1997, the AMA executive vice-president writes:

The AMA believes that it is essential that Medicare-eligible seniors have the unfettered right to spend their own money to buy health care if and as they so choose, irrespective of coverage under the Medicare program. * * * (this) bill is an urgently needed clarification of the law and would greatly further the goal of providing Medicare beneficiaries with more choices in their pursuit of health care.

I ask my colleagues to join me in support of this important legislation.●
