

passed—when the Americans With Disabilities Act became law. No one who took part in those honorable causes can doubt that public service, at its best, is noble.

The moral challenges of our time can seem less clear. But they still demand conviction and courage and character. They still require young men and women with faith in our process. They still demand idealists, captured by the honor and adventure of service. They still demand citizens who accept responsibility and who defy cynicism, affirming the American faith, and renewing her hope. They still demand the President and Congress to find real unity in the public good.

If we remember this, then America will always be the country of tomorrow, where every day is a new beginning and every life an instrument of God's justice.

Mr. President, Elizabeth and Robin join me in wishing you and Mrs. Clinton all the best as you embark on your second term. May God bless you, and each inhabitant of this House, and may God bless America.

Mr. CRAIG. Thank you, very much, Mr. President, and I note the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, before I ask for some unanimous-consent agreements and do the close, I want to commend, also, the remarks of Senator Dole that were just printed in the RECORD by the distinguished Senator from Idaho. I attended the ceremony where Senator Dole received the Presidential Medal of Freedom. I must say, it was one of the most inspiring events I have ever attended.

First of all, I think the President deserves credit for presenting this very deserving leader of our country the Medal of Freedom.

Second, I think I have probably never been to an event where there was more of a combination of a feeling of good will, appreciation for our veterans, patriotism and humility and humor, all wrapped in one event. It was really an inspiration.

Bob Dole's remarks, which are in the RECORD, are typical of Bob. He said almost nothing about the fact that he was receiving this honor, other than the fact that he would cherish it. He, instead, chose to talk about American soldiers and the service they gave and the American experiment, Government, history—magnificent remarks. Also, he had that special moment of history where I thought for a moment he was going to be sworn in to be President of the United States instead of being given the Medal of Freedom.

It was a tremendous occasion. I am very proud that Bob Dole received this recognition, and I am delighted we put his statement in the RECORD for all Americans to read it.

RESOLUTION NO. 126

Whereas, During the horrific period when the Nazis ruled Europe, many Jews in Germany and Eastern Europe saw Switzerland as the only safe haven for their assets because of Switzerland's neutrality and Switzerland's banking secrecy laws; and

Whereas, As a result of the Holocaust, many of the accounts established in Swiss banks were dormant after the end of World War II; and

Whereas, In 1962 Switzerland set up a system in which any money found in dormant accounts of which no claim had been made for five years and thought to belong to Holocaust victims was put into a special government account to be used to support charitable organizations; and

Whereas, The world has recently become aware of the probable misuse of those funds to compensate Swiss citizens for property expropriated by former communists regimes in Eastern Europe; and

Whereas, Every effort should be made to assure that surviving family members of

Holocaust victims receive the money in dormant accounts that is legitimately and properly theirs; and

Whereas, In those instances in which no surviving members come forward or can be located, the monies in those accounts should be used to help Holocaust survivors throughout the world who are indigent and in need of financial assistance; and

Whereas, The President of the United States and the Congress of the United States should undertake all appropriate actions to encourage the government of Switzerland to establish a fund consisting of those unclaimed monies and to make those monies available to Holocaust survivors throughout the world who are indigent and in need of financial assistance; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. This House calls upon the President of the United States and the Congress of the United States to undertake all appropriate actions to encourage the government of Switzerland to establish a fund consisting of the monies in any unclaimed accounts in Swiss banks belonging to victims of the Holocaust and to make those monies available to Holocaust survivors throughout the world who are indigent and in need of financial assistance.

2. Duly authenticated copies of this resolution, signed by the Speaker of the General Assembly and attested by the Clerk thereof, shall be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the majority and minority leaders of both Houses, and every member elected to the Congress from this State.

POM-28. A resolution adopted by the Metropolitan Nashville Arts Commission of Nashville, Tennessee relative to the Joe L. Evins Appalachian Center Crafts; to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources.
