STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. GREGG:

S. 227. A bill to establish a locally oriented commission to assist the city of Berlin, NH, in identifying and studying its region's historical and cultural assets, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

THE BERLIN, NH, COMMISSION ACT OF 1997

Mr. GREGG. Mr. President, I rise today to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Berlin, NH, and to introduce legislation that will assist Berlin in preserving this history.

While the city of Berlin is 100 years old this year, its history goes back further. The first settlers came to Berlin for no apparent reason. They were farmers and the land there did not promise to be any more fruitful than the land they left just down the Androscoggin River; but, they were restless and independent so they came across the mountains to start a new community in this isolated area.

The Plantation of Maynesborough, as Berlin was called, was named after the most illustrious of the English gentlemen to whom it was granted by the Crown in 1771. Although the land was rugged and it was a hard place to live, food was plentiful. The woods consisting of seemingly endless stands of timber were filled with deer and game; the brooks and river were loaded with trout.

Those first farmers who made the move from down the river found good farmland upstream from the falls. In 1824, William Sessions cleared 5 acres of land on the east side of the river and came back in 1825 with his nephew to plant crops and build a log house. William Sessions did not stay around long enough to see Maynesborough become officially incorporated as the city of Berlin 1897, but his nephew Cyrus Wheeler did.

Nearly half a century before, however, the character of Berlin began its change from farms to industry. In 1851, J.B. Brown and three other businessmen from Portland, ME, formed a partnership under the name of H. Winslow & Co. and purchased the land on top of the falls. They started a successful lumber business in the thick forest and used the natural water power of the river to power their mill. The J.B. Brown Co., saw the railroad coming to Berlin, thus, opening a direct line of transportation to Portland and market centers for the first time.

In the 1920's, Berlin, NH, was the capital of the papermaking world and was becoming known as the city that trees built. The Brown family's Berlin Mills Co., controlled 3 million acres in New England and Québec and was world renowned for cutting-edge forestry, research, and papermaking. The mills along the Androscoggin River made not only pulp and an array of paper products but also lumber, wood flour, conduit pipes, and furniture. Brown's staff of 4,000 to 5,000 swelled Berlin to a population of 20,000.

The growth of Berlin reflects the diversity of people who came to stay: French Canadians, Yankees from northern New England farms, Norwegians, Italians, Irish, and Russians. They sought a chance to make a better living and found it in the mills, blacksmith shops, machine shops, farms,
